(6) At the time he files the statements required by subsection (5) of this section, the sheriff shall pay to the fiscal court any fees, commissions, and other income of his office, including income from investments, which exceed the sum of his maximum salary as permitted by the Constitution and other reasonable expenses, including compensation of deputies and assistants. The settlement for excess fees and commissions and other income shall be subject to correction by audit conducted pursuant to KRS 43.070 or 64.810, and the provisions of this subsection shall not be construed to amend KRS 64.820 or 64.830.

(7) If a county's population that equaled or exceeded seventy thousand (70,000) is less than seventy thousand (70,000) after the most recent federal decennial census, then the provisions of KRS 64.368 shall apply.

Section 259. KRS 134.320 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The sheriff shall, by the tenth day of each month, or more often as may be required by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] to prevent the sheriff from having funds in his possession in excess of the amount of his bond, report under oath to the department[~~cabinet~~] the amount of all state taxes he has collected during the preceding month, or for such period as the department[~~cabinet~~] may require.

(2) The sheriff shall, at the time of making this report, pay to the department[~~cabinet~~], for deposit with the State Treasurer, all taxes he has collected for the state for the preceding month or period.

(3) The department[~~cabinet~~] may report to the grand jury of Franklin County any sheriff failing to report as required. Any sheriff failing to pay over any taxes collected by him and due the state, as provided by law, shall be required by the department[~~cabinet~~] to pay a penalty of one percent (1%) for each thirty (30) day period or fraction thereof plus interest at the legal rate per annum on such taxes. The department[~~cabinet~~] in its settlement with the sheriff shall charge him with such penalties and interest.

(4) The Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] may grant an extension of time, not to exceed fifteen (15) days, for filing the report required by subsection (1) whenever, in its judgment, good cause therefor exists. The extension shall be in writing, and the department[~~cabinet~~] shall keep a record of such extensions. The extension when granted shall suspend the penalty and interest provided by subsection (3) for the duration of the extension. The penalty and interest shall apply at the expiration of the extension.

Section 260. KRS 134.325 is amended to read as follows:

Each sheriff shall conduct the sale of delinquent tax bills required by KRS 134.430 and make his records available for settlement with the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] for all taxes collected for the Commonwealth before April 30 of each year during his term of office. In the event that any sheriff resigns, dies, or otherwise vacates his office, the books and records shall be made available within thirty (30) days from the date that the office is vacated. Any sheriff who fails to make the settlement books and records available or fails to remit any amounts which are due to the taxing districts as required by law shall be subject to indictment in the county of his residence and fined not less than five hundred dollars ($500) nor more than five thousand dollars ($5,000).

Section 261. KRS 134.330 is amended to read as follows:

(1) No tax bill or tax book shall be delivered to the sheriff during the second or any subsequent calendar year of the sheriff's regular term until he exhibits a quietus from the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] and from the fiscal court of his county for the preceding tax period and his revenue bond, if bonding is required by the fiscal court, for the next tax year.

(2) If the tax records of a county are destroyed by fire, lost, stolen, or mutilated so as to require reassessment of the property in the county or a recertification of the tax bills, the sheriff shall have five (5) months from the time he receives the recertified tax bills within which to make settlement with the department[~~cabinet~~] and the fiscal court, and to receive his quietus from the department[~~cabinet~~] and the fiscal court.

Section 262. KRS 134.340 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The sheriff shall, when he collects money from a delinquent taxpayer, record the tax, interest and penalty on his record book kept for that purpose.

(2) If the sheriff fails to record the money collected from a delinquent taxpayer, or fails to collect the tax due from a delinquent taxpayer if it was collectible by sale or otherwise when it came to his hands, he shall be held liable on his bond for the amount of tax, penalties, interest and costs due from the delinquent taxpayer that was collectible, plus thirty percent (30%) penalty thereon, to be recovered in the Circuit Court of the county in which the tax is due, on motion of the county attorney or agent of the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] in the name of the state. The county attorney shall prosecute all such motions, for which services he shall be entitled to the penalties thereon recovered of the sheriff, but only if the tax, interest, costs, and penalties due are recovered and paid to the officers entitled to receive the same. The sheriff shall have ten (10) days' previous notice of the motion.

Section 263. KRS 134.360 is amended to read as follows:

In making his settlements with the fiscal court and the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~], the sheriff shall file a list of uncollectible delinquent taxes, which shall entitle the sheriff to a credit in his official settlement. The sheriff shall also be allowed credit in his official settlement for the tax bills on which certificates of delinquency have properly been issued to the state, county, and taxing districts.

Section 264. KRS 134.380 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The commissioner[~~secretary~~] may act in the name of and in behalf of the state and in the name of and in behalf of any and all counties, consolidated local government, school, and other taxing districts in the state to institute and prosecute any action or proceeding for the collection of delinquent taxes and the assessment of omitted property. If the department[~~cabinet~~] assumes the duties of collecting the delinquent taxes assessed under the authority of KRS Chapter 132, it shall have all the powers, rights, duties, and authority conferred generally upon the department[~~cabinet~~] by the Kentucky Revised Statutes, including but not limited to Chapters 131, 134, and 135.

(2) Field agents, accountants, and attorneys of the department[~~cabinet~~] shall prosecute all actions and proceedings under the direction of the commissioner[~~secretary~~]. Field agents, accountants, attorneys, and all other employees of the department[~~cabinet~~] engaged in the prosecution of the actions shall not be hired by personal service contract. The commissioner[~~secretary~~] shall prosecute diligently, or cause to be prosecuted by field agents, accountants, and attorneys employed by him, the collection of all delinquent taxes due the state.

(3) Nothing contained in this chapter shall prevent the commissioner[~~secretary~~] of revenue from assessing any property in accordance with the provisions of KRS 136.020, 136.030, 136.050, or 136.120 to 136.180.

(4) The department[~~cabinet~~] may require the use of any reports, forms, or databases necessary to administer the law in connection with the collection of delinquent taxes. The department[~~cabinet~~] shall require an index to be kept of all certificates of delinquency.

Section 265. KRS 134.385 is amended to read as follows:

The department[~~cabinet~~] shall conduct a special audit to determine the presence or absence of chronic underassessment in any county for which the sales-assessment ratio studies conducted under the provisions of KRS 133.250 indicates a ratio below eighty percent (80%) for two (2) consecutive calendar years. The audit may be conducted through the use of randomly-selected sample appraisals or other means reasonably calculated to present an accurate determination of assessment practices in the county.

Section 266. KRS 134.390 is amended to read as follows:

A tax bill rendered against omitted property required to be listed with the property valuation administrator or the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] or against an increase in valuation over that claimed by the taxpayer, as finally determined upon appeal as provided for in KRS 133.120, shall become due on the day the bill is prepared, and shall be considered delinquent and subject to a penalty of ten percent (10%) of the tax, penalty and interest due, unless paid within thirty (30) days after it becomes due, except as otherwise provided by law. All provisions of law of the particular taxing district having an interest therein relating to delinquent taxes on the same class of property or taxpayers involved shall apply to the delinquent omitted tax bill unless otherwise provided by law.

Section 267. KRS 134.400 is amended to read as follows:

(1) All penalties imposed by law, either in whole or in part, in favor of or for the benefit of agents of the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~], sheriffs, and other state, county, or district agents or officers, upon or for the recovery of taxes or the assessment of omitted property, shall be paid into the State Treasury and credited as provided for the twenty percent (20%) penalty in subsection (2) of this section.

(2) The twenty percent (20%) penalty collected on taxes due the state, county, school, or other taxing district shall be paid into the State Treasury. One-fourth (1/4) of the moneys thus received shall be credited to the general expenditure fund. The remaining three-fourths (3/4) shall also be credited to the general expenditure fund unless the General Assembly, in its biennial branch budget bill, provides that it be credited to a fund to be designated and known as the delinquent tax fund, in which case it shall be so credited and so much thereof as may be necessary shall be used for the administration and enforcement of the laws relating to the collection of delinquent taxes and the assessment of omitted property. All salaries, fees, and expenses authorized by the laws relating to the collection of delinquent taxes and the assessment of omitted property, except the fees of county attorneys, shall be payable out of the delinquent tax fund upon certifications or requisitions of the commissioner[~~secretary~~] of revenue.

Section 268. KRS 134.410 is amended to read as follows:

Should any life insurance company, casualty company, marine insurance, fire insurance, security or indemnity company be in debt to the state for back taxes, or should any of such companies fail to pay into the State Treasury the correct amount of taxes due the state, the commissioner[~~secretary~~] of revenue shall cause an investigation to be made of their books and accounts, and employ such expert accountants as he may deem necessary for such work. The granting of power to the commissioner[~~secretary~~] to investigate the books and accounts of those engaged in the business of insurance for the purposes set forth in this section shall not be construed as a denial of power to the commissioner[~~secretary~~] to investigate for the same purposes the books and accounts of individuals or corporations engaged in other types of business, who have failed to pay into the State Treasury the correct amount of tax due the state.

Section 269. KRS 134.420 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The state and each county, city, or other taxing district shall have a lien on the property assessed for taxes due them respectively for ten (10) years following the date when the taxes become delinquent, and also on any real property owned by a delinquent taxpayer at the date when the sheriff offers the tax claims for sale as provided in KRS 134.430 and 134.440. This lien shall not be defeated by gift, devise, sale, alienation, or any means except by sale to a bona fide purchaser, but no purchase of property made before final settlement for taxes for a particular assessment date has been made by the sheriff shall preclude the lien covering the taxes. The lien shall include all interest, penalties, fees, commissions, charges, costs, reasonable attorney fees, and other expenses incurred by reason of delinquency in payment of the tax bill or certificate of delinquency or in the process of collecting either, and shall have priority over any other obligation or liability for which the property is liable. The lien of any city, county, or other taxing district shall be of equal rank with that of the state. When any proceeding is instituted to enforce the lien provided in this subsection, it shall continue in force until the matter is judicially terminated. Every city of the third, fourth, fifth, and sixth class shall file notice of the delinquent tax liens with the county clerk of any county or counties in which the taxpayer's business or residence is located, or in any county in which the taxpayer has an interest in property. The notice shall be recorded in the same manner as notices of lis pendens are filed, and the file shall be designated miscellaneous state and city delinquent and unpaid tax liens.

(2) If any person liable to pay any tax administered by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~], other than a tax subject to the provisions of subsection (1) of this section, neglects or refuses to pay the tax after demand, the tax due together with all penalties, interest, and other costs applicable provided by law shall be a lien in favor of the Commonwealth of Kentucky. The lien shall attach to all property and rights to property owned or subsequently acquired by the person neglecting or refusing to pay the tax.

(3) The lien imposed by subsection (2) of this section shall remain in force for ten (10) years from the date the notice of tax lien has been filed by the commissioner[~~secretary~~] of the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~], or his delegate with the county clerk of any county or counties in which the taxpayer's business or residence is located, or any county in which the taxpayer has an interest in property.

(4) The tax lien imposed by subsection (2) of this section shall not be valid as against any purchaser, judgment lien creditor, or holder of a security interest or mechanic's lien until notice of the tax lien has been filed by the commissioner[~~secretary~~] of the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] or his delegate with the county clerk of any county or counties in which the taxpayer's business or residence is located, or in any county in which the taxpayer has an interest in property. The recording of the tax lien shall constitute notice of both the original assessment and all subsequent assessments of liability against the same taxpayer. Upon request, the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] shall disclose the specific amount of liability at a given date to any interested party legally entitled to the information.

(5) Even though notice of a tax lien has been filed as provided by subsection (4) of this section, and notwithstanding the provisions of KRS 382.520, the tax lien imposed by subsection (2) of this section shall not be valid with respect to a security interest which came into existence after tax lien filing by reason of disbursements made within forty-five (45) days after the date of tax lien filing or the date the person making the disbursements had actual notice or knowledge of tax lien filing, whichever is earlier, provided the security interest:

(a) Is in property which:

1. At the time of tax lien filing is subject to the tax lien imposed by subsection (2) of this section; and

2. Is covered by the terms of a written agreement entered into before tax lien filing; and

(b) Is protected under local law against a judgment lien arising, as of the time of tax lien filing, out of an unsecured obligation.

Section 270. KRS 134.430 is amended to read as follows:

(1) All personal property owned by a delinquent taxpayer shall be subject to distraint, and all property owned by him shall be subject to levy and sale by the proper collecting officer at any time from February 1 after the tax claim becomes delinquent until the tax claim is barred by limitations, unless otherwise provided by law.

(2) When any taxpayer becomes delinquent in the payment of a tax bill covering any property assessed by the property valuation administrator, the county board of assessment appeals, the department[~~cabinet~~], or any omitted property irrespective of by whom assessed, the sheriff may distrain a sufficient quantity of the delinquent's personal property in the county to pay the tax claim, and a necessary part of this property shall be sold as under execution for cash. Neglect on the part of the sheriff to distrain and sell personal property shall not affect the validity of the sale of the tax claim, or the lien or the rights of any purchaser. If personal property sufficient to satisfy the tax claim cannot be found in the county, the sheriff may sell so much of the personal property as is found and enter proper credit on the tax bill.

(3) As compensation for services, the sheriff shall be entitled to an additional ten percent (10%) of that part of the tax claim represented by the total taxes plus ten percent (10%) penalty, for all delinquent taxes collected from the time the ten percent (10%) penalty becomes applicable through the sale of the tax claims. This fee shall be added to the total amount due and paid by the person paying the delinquent tax bill.

(4) If no personal property is found, or the amount found is insufficient, the sheriff shall, no later than the first full week in April, advertise for sale the tax claims of the state, county, and other taxing districts, if there is any real property subject to the lien provided in subsection (1) of KRS 134.420. The sheriff shall receive offers for the purchase of tax claims up to fifteen (15) business days following the date of the initial advertisement or no later than April 30, or the last business day prior to April 30, if April 30 falls on a weekend or holiday.

(5) No sheriff shall knowingly sell a tax claim on the same tract of land more than once for the same tax.

Section 271. KRS 134.450 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The sheriff shall sell all tax claims for which payment by the delinquent taxpayer has not been made by the closing date for the acceptance by the sheriff of offers to purchase delinquent tax claims. If there is more than one (1) willing purchaser who has made an offer, the one having made the most recent purchase of a tax claim against the same delinquent or the same property shall have preference; if there is no such person, the person being the first, in the judgment of the sheriff, to offer to pay cash in the full amount of the tax claim shall receive priority for the purchase of the tax claim. If the total of all offers to purchase exceeds ten percent (10%) of the total dollar amount of the delinquent bills offered for sale, or the sum of two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000), whichever is less, the sheriff shall notify the Finance and Administration Cabinet of the offers of purchase within five (5) business days of the closing date when the offers were received. Upon receipt of the notice, the Finance and Administration Cabinet shall purchase the delinquent tax bills upon which the sheriff has received an offer of purchase and shall tender payment to the sheriff within fifteen (15) business days of the receipt of the sheriff's notice. Upon purchase of the tax claims, the state shall be the owner of the tax bills and may contract with the county attorney to collect all amounts due on its behalf under the terms and conditions of the county attorney's contract with the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] to collect delinquent taxes. If the county attorney has not contracted with the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] to collect delinquent taxes, the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] shall collect all amounts due on behalf of the Finance and Administration Cabinet. If the Finance and Administration Cabinet does not purchase all of the delinquent tax bills, within fifteen (15) days of the closing date, the sheriff shall complete the sale of those tax claims for which the sheriff has received responsible offers to purchase. When a sale is made the tax bill shall be known as a certificate of delinquency and the sheriff shall inscribe thereon the date of sale, the sale price, and the name and address of the purchaser, in the place and manner prescribed by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~], and the purchaser shall be entitled to a certified copy of the certificate of delinquency.

(2) If no responsible offer in the amount of the tax claim is received, the sheriff shall purchase it for the state, county, and taxing districts having an interest in the tax claim. In such case, the tax bill shall also be known as a certificate of delinquency, and the sheriff shall inscribe thereon the same information required when one other than the state, county, or taxing district is the purchaser.

(3) The sheriff shall file all certificates of delinquency in the county clerk's office immediately upon completion of the tax sale, or in a county containing a city of the first class or consolidated local government, within fourteen (14) working days of the sale, and the clerk shall retain them. The county clerk shall acknowledge receipt of the certificates by signing a receipt form that has been prepared in a manner prescribed by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~]. If the sheriff fails to file the certificates, he shall be liable on his official bond for the aggregate amount of the certificates not returned, but the claim of the purchaser shall not be affected by this neglect. If the sheriff fails to return any certificate, the purchaser may file his certified copy with the clerk, with the same effect as the original.

(4) The clerk shall make, execute, and deliver a certified copy of a certificate of delinquency to the payor, or the clerk may provide for a certified electronic register of the certificates of delinquency in the clerk's record in lieu of delivering a certified copy of the certificate of delinquency.

(5) The certificate of delinquency is assignable by endorsement. The clerk shall note the assignment on the certificate of delinquency or the clerk may provide for a certified electronic certificate of delinquency in the clerk's records in lieu of delivering a certified copy of the certificate of delinquency. An assignment when noted on the record in the office of the county clerk vests in the assignee all rights and title of the original purchaser.

Section 272. KRS 134.480 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The delinquent taxpayer or any person owning or having a legal or equitable interest in real property covered by a certificate of delinquency may at any time pay the total amount of the certificate to any purchaser thereof, and any person whatsoever may likewise pay a certificate of delinquency when the state, county, or taxing district was the purchaser. When a certificate is paid to an owner other than the state, county, or taxing district, the assignee shall mark paid in full on the certified copy of the certificate and shall surrender the certified copy of the certificate of delinquency to the person making payment, and if he is the person primarily liable on the certificate he may file it with the county clerk and have the certificate released of record. When a certificate of delinquency has been fully paid to the state, county, and taxing districts, the clerk shall note the name and address of the person making the payment, the amount paid by him, and such other information as the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] may require. The clerk shall mark the certificate of delinquency paid in full. Payment in such instance by one other than the person primarily liable on the certificate will amount to an assignment thereof. The clerk shall note the assignment on the certificate of delinquency and provide the assignee a certified copy of the certificate of delinquency, or the clerk may provide for a certified electronic certificate of delinquency in the clerk's records in lieu of delivering a certified copy of the certificate of delinquency. Anyone other than the person primarily liable who pays a certificate or purchases it from an owner other than the state, county, and taxing district may, by paying a fee of fifty cents ($0.50), have the clerk record the payment or purchase and such recordation shall constitute an assignment thereof. Failure to obtain such an assignment shall render the claim of such payor or purchaser to any real estate represented thereby inferior to rights of other bona fide purchasers, payors, or creditors. Any owner of a certificate of delinquency once having paid the assignment fee may have a change of his address noted of record by the clerk without paying an additional charge, otherwise he shall pay a fee of fifty cents ($0.50) to the clerk for entering such change on the certificate.

(2) The county clerk may receive payment of the amount due on certificates of delinquency owned by the state, county, and taxing districts, and he shall give a receipt to the payor and make a report to the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~], the county treasurer, and the proper officials of the taxing districts as often as such units may require, and not less than once in every thirty (30) days. The clerk may accept payment of taxes due by any commercially acceptable means, including credit cards. He shall pay to the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] for deposit with the State Treasurer all moneys collected by him due the state, to the county treasurer all moneys due the county, and to the authorized officers of the taxing districts the amount due each such district. He shall pay the amount of fees, costs, commissions, and penalties to the persons, agencies, or parties entitled thereto. He shall retain ten percent (10%) of the amount due each taxing unit for his services as a fee. This fee shall be added to the amount of the tax claim and paid by the persons paying the tax claim.

(3) If the person entitled to pay a certificate of delinquency sends a registered letter addressed to the owner of record of the certificate, other than the state, county, or taxing district, and the letter is returned by mail unclaimed, the sender thereof may make payment to the county clerk, who shall make the necessary assignment or release and deposit the money to the account of the owner of record in the nearest bank having its deposits insured with the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation. The clerk may deduct the sum of fifty cents ($0.50) as a fee for such service. The name of the bank in which the money is deposited shall be noted on the certificate.

(4) If any clerk fails to pay to the person entitled thereto, upon demand, the money received in payment of a certificate of delinquency, he and his sureties shall be liable for the same and twenty percent (20%) interest thereon annually from the time he received it until paid.

(5) Copies of the records provided for in KRS 134.450 and this section, certified by the county clerk, shall be evidence of the facts stated in them in all the courts of this state.

Section 273. KRS 134.500 is amended to read as follows:

(1) (a) Certificates of delinquency shall bear interest at twelve percent (12%) per annum simple interest from the date the certificate of delinquency is issued. A fraction of a month is counted as an entire month. The five dollar ($5) sheriff's fee, the advertising costs provided in KRS 134.420, the clerk's add-on fee provided in KRS 134.480, and the county attorney's add-on fee provided in this section shall be included in the interest calculation in counties containing cities of the first class or consolidated local government and shall be excluded in other counties, except upon adoption of an ordinance by a county to include in the interest calculation the fees provided for in KRS

134.420, the clerk's add-on fee provided in KRS 134.480, and the county attorney's add-on fee provided in this section. All tax bills on omitted property that were not turned over to the sheriff in time to be collected or to make the sale provided for in KRS 134.430 and 134.440 shall also be submitted to the fiscal court but shall be carried over as a charge against the sheriff at the time he or she makes the next regular settlement.

(b) A certificate of delinquency shall bear interest at twelve percent (12%) per annum simple interest from the date the certificate of delinquency is issued. A fraction of a month is counted as an entire month. The total amount of the certificate of delinquency, the clerk's add-on fee provided in KRS 134.480, and the county attorney's add-on fee provided in this section shall be included in the base for the interest calculation. All tax bills on omitted property that were not turned over to the sheriff in time to be collected or to make the sale provided for in KRS 134.430 and 134.440 shall also be submitted to the fiscal court but shall be carried over as a charge against the sheriff at the time he makes his next regular settlement.

(2) The department[~~cabinet~~] shall be responsible for the collection of certificates of delinquency and delinquent personal property tax bills; however, the department[~~cabinet~~] shall first offer the collection duties to the county attorney, unless the department[~~cabinet~~] determines that the county attorney has previously failed to perform collection duties in a reasonable and acceptable manner. Any county attorney desiring to perform the duties associated with the collection of delinquent tax claims shall enter into a contract with the department[~~cabinet~~] on an annual basis. The terms of the contract shall specify the duties to be undertaken by the county attorney. These duties shall include but are not limited to the following actions:

(a) Within fifty (50) days after the issuance of a certificate of delinquency to the state, county, and taxing district, the county attorney or the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] shall cause a notice of the purchase to be mailed by regular mail to the property owner at the address on the records of the property valuation administrator. The notice shall advise the owner that the certificate is a lien of record against all property of the owner, and bears interest at the rate of twelve percent (12%) per annum, and if not paid will be subject to collection by the county attorney as provided by law.

(b) The county attorney shall file in the office of the county clerk a list of the names and addresses to which the notice was mailed along with a certificate that the notice was mailed in accordance with the requirements of this section.

(c) All notices returned as undeliverable shall be submitted to the property valuation administrator. The property valuation administrator shall attempt to correct inadequate or erroneous addresses and, if property has been transferred, shall determine the new owner and the current mailing address. The property valuation administrator shall return the notices with the corrected information to the county attorney prior to the expiration of the one (1) year tolling period provided in KRS 134.470.

(d) Within ninety (90) days after the expiration of the one (1) year tolling period provided in KRS 134.470, the county attorney shall cause a notice of his intention to enforce the lien to be mailed to all owners whose tax bills remain delinquent. No second notice shall be required for addresses previously determined to be undeliverable and for which the property valuation administrator has not provided corrected information.

(e) Failure to mail the notices shall not affect the validity of the claim of the state, county, and taxing district. The postal cost of mailing the notices shall be added to the certificate of delinquency and, upon collection, the county attorney shall be reimbursed for the postage. The county attorney shall deliver at the same time a list of the owners whose tax bills remain delinquent to the property valuation administrator. The property valuation administrator shall review this list in accordance with the provisions of KRS 132.220 to establish that the properties on the list can be identified and physically located.

(3) The county attorney who enters into a contract with the department[~~cabinet~~] shall have a period of two (2) years after the expiration of the one (1) year tolling period provided in KRS 134.470 to collect delinquent tax bills or to initiate court action for their collection. At the expiration of the two (2) years the department[~~cabinet~~] may assume responsibility for all uncollected bills except those with pending court action.

(4) The county attorney who enters into a contract with the department[~~cabinet~~] and performs his or her duties in respect to the certificate of delinquency and delinquent personal property tax bills shall be entitled to twenty percent (20%) of the amount due each taxing unit, whether the tax claim is voluntarily paid or is paid through sale or under court order, and the fee shall be paid to him by the county clerk when making distribution, as provided in KRS 134.480. This fee shall be added to the amount of the tax claims and paid by the persons paying the tax claims. They shall not be paid by the taxing districts or deducted from the taxes due the taxing districts. This fee shall be waived if the certificate of delinquency is paid by the taxpayer only within five (5) days of the sheriff's sale. If more than one (1) county attorney renders necessary services in an effort to collect a tax claim, the attorney serving the last notice or rendering the last substantial service preceding collection shall be entitled to the fee. When the county attorney's office, in an effort to collect a certificate of delinquency, or delinquent personal property tax bills files a court action which is litigated by the taxpayer, an additional county's attorney fee equal to thirteen percent (13%) of the total tax plus ten percent (10%) penalty, may be added to the certificate or the bill and shall become part of the tax claim.

(5) If a county attorney chooses not to contract for these collection duties or if a county attorney fails to perform the duties required by the contract, the department[~~cabinet~~] shall assume responsibility for the collection process. In the performance of those duties, the department[~~cabinet~~] shall have all the powers, rights, duties, and authority with respect to the collection, refund, and administration of the amount due on the certificate of delinquency conferred generally upon the department[~~cabinet~~] by Kentucky Revised Statutes including, but not limited to, KRS Chapters 131, 134, and 135. The twenty percent (20%) fee that would have otherwise been paid to the county attorney shall be paid to the department[~~cabinet~~] for deposit in the delinquent tax fund provided for under KRS 134.400.

(6) Any action on behalf of the state, county, and taxing districts authorized by this section or by KRS 134.470, 134.490, or 134.540 shall be filed on relation of the commissioner[~~secretary~~], and the petition may be sent to the department[~~cabinet~~], which may require revision in instances where it deems revision or amendment necessary. The department[~~cabinet~~] shall advise the county attorney in all actions, and may send him or her special assistance when the commissioner[~~secretary~~] deems assistance necessary. A copy of the judgment shall also be sent to the department[~~cabinet~~]. If the department[~~cabinet~~] sends assistance to a county attorney who contracts to prosecute the suits or proceedings, the county attorney shall be entitled to his or her full fee. On the same day that suit is filed, the county clerk shall be given notice of its filing. Costs incident to the suit shall become a part of the tax claim.

(7) The department[~~cabinet~~] may make its delinquent tax collection databases and other technical resources, including but not limited to income tax refund offsetting, available to the county attorney upon request from the county attorney. The county attorney seeking assistance shall enter into any agreements required by the department[~~cabinet~~] to protect taxpayer confidentiality, to ensure database integrity, or to address other concerns of the department[~~cabinet~~].

(8) The county attorney may, at any time after assuming collection duties, enter into an agreement with the delinquent taxpayer to accept installment payments on the delinquent tax bill. The agreement shall not waive the county attorney's right to initiate court action or other authorized collection activities if the taxpayer does not make payments in accordance with the agreement.

Section 274. KRS 134.505 is amended to read as follows:

Any person while serving as county attorney who was required by law by reason of his office to prosecute an action or to assist the commissioner[~~secretary~~] of revenue in prosecuting an action to enforce a claim of the state, county, school district and any other taxing district to any land which was purchased by such districts at a sheriff's sale or sales for delinquent taxes and who did not institute such action before he relinquished his office or otherwise failed to perform substantially all the duties of his office relative to the claim, shall not be entitled to receive any commission or compensation for any such sale or sales when the redemption costs are paid. Any county clerk or other person authorized to collect funds to satisfy unredeemed land sales shall be liable for any such money distributed as a commission to any former county attorney who is not entitled to it.

(1) After the state, county and taxing districts obtain real property as authorized by KRS 134.490, the designated agent of the commissioner[~~secretary~~] of revenue may advertise and sell at public sale any of the lands, and the commissioner[~~secretary~~] may convey the lands by deed to the purchaser. The commissioner[~~secretary~~] shall, within thirty (30) days from receipt of payment, pay to the county and taxing district the amount of the proceeds due each. The Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] shall be entitled to an administration fee equal to fifteen percent (15%) of the sale price of the property, which shall be paid into the delinquent tax fund provided for in KRS 134.400.

(2) The sales shall be advertised by a written or printed notice posted at the courthouse door for fifteen (15) days before the date of sale, and by publication pursuant to KRS Chapter 424, and may in addition be advertised by printed handbills posted for fifteen (15) days before the date of sale in three (3) or more conspicuous places in the taxing districts.

(3) Any real property acquired by the state, county and taxing districts pursuant to KRS 134.490 may be redeemed at any time before the commissioner[~~secretary~~] gives a deed to a purchaser, by paying to the county clerk the amount due at the time the property was acquired, plus subsequent costs and interest at the rate of twelve percent (12%) per annum.

Section 276. KRS 134.540 is amended to read as follows:

(1) When the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] has reason to believe that any sale made under the authority of Section 32 of Article VIII of Chapter 22 of the Acts of 1906, or Section 3 of Chapter 43 of the Acts of 1908, or Section 2 or 5 of Chapter 21 of the Acts of the first Extraordinary Session of 1938, is for any reason invalid, the invalidity may be alleged in an action to establish the lien provided for in Chapter 152 of the Acts of 1934. The action shall be brought on the relation of the commissioner[~~secretary~~] of revenue, who shall publish notice on the courthouse door for fourteen (14) days before instituting the action, notifying all delinquents that actions will be instituted unless the delinquent taxes against land subject to such actions are paid at once. If the owner does not redeem the land within ten (10) days after the expiration of the fourteen (14) day period, and the commissioner[~~secretary~~] is required to institute action, the state shall be entitled to a fee equal to fifteen percent (15%) of the amount of the taxes, penalties and interest, which shall be paid into the delinquent tax fund provided under KRS 134.400, to be used by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] to cover the expenses of filing and administering such actions. If the property is redeemed after action is instituted, the fee shall become a part of the redemption price. The commissioner[~~secretary~~] may, if he deems necessary, institute action without giving the notice provided in this section, in which event the fifteen percent (15%) fee shall not apply.

(2) The county attorney shall assist the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] in filing and prosecuting the actions. For these services he shall be entitled to twenty percent (20%) of the taxes, penalties and interest. If he fails or refuses to assist in filing and prosecuting the actions, he shall not be entitled to this fee.

(3) An action shall not be instituted on behalf of the state to establish the lien provided for in Chapter 152 of the Acts of 1934 until after the expiration of the time that must expire before action to recover possession can be instituted.

Section 277. KRS 134.580 is amended to read as follows:

(1) As used in this section, unless the context requires otherwise:

(a) "Agency" means the agency of state government which administers the tax to be refunded or credited.

(b) "Overpayment" or "payment where no tax was due" means the tax liability under the terms of the applicable statute without reference to the constitutionality of the statute.

(2) When money has been paid into the State Treasury in payment of any state taxes, except ad valorem taxes, whether payment was made voluntarily or involuntarily, the appropriate agency shall authorize refunds or credits, to the person who paid the tax, or to his heirs, personal representatives or assigns, of any overpayment of tax and any payment where no tax was due. When a bona fide controversy exists between the agency and the taxpayer as to the liability of the taxpayer for the payment of tax claimed to be due by the agency, the taxpayer may pay the amount claimed by the agency to be due, and if an appeal is taken by the taxpayer from the ruling of the agency within the time provided by KRS 131.340 and it is finally adjudged that the taxpayer was not liable for the payment of the tax or any part thereof, the agency shall authorize the refund or credit as the Kentucky Board of Tax Appeals or courts may direct.

(3) Refunds or credits shall be authorized with interest as provided in KRS 131.183. The refunds authorized by this section shall be made in the same manner as other claims on the State Treasury are paid. They shall not be charged against any appropriation, but shall be deducted from tax receipts for the current fiscal year.

(4) Nothing in this section shall be construed to authorize the agency to make or cause to be made any refund except within four (4) years of the date prescribed by law for the filing of a return including any extension of time for filing the return, or the date the money was paid into the State Treasury, whichever is the later, except in any case where the assessment period has been extended by written agreement between the taxpayer and the department[~~cabinet~~], the limitation contained in this subsection shall be extended accordingly. Nothing in this section shall be construed as requiring the agency to authorize any refund or credit to a taxpayer without demand from the taxpayer, if in the opinion of the agency the cost to the state of authorizing the refund or credit would be greater than the amount that should be refunded or credited.

(5) This section shall not apply to any case in which the statute may be held unconstitutional, either in whole or in part.

(6) In cases in which a statute has been held unconstitutional, taxes paid thereunder may be refunded to the extent provided by KRS 134.590, and by the statute held unconstitutional.

He shall make return of all the facts known to him, giving the date and consideration of the instrument creating the lien, to whom made, when recorded, the evidences of any prior lien, and the names of the parties who claim the same. Proceedings may be instituted by the sheriff or the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~], in the name of the state, in the county where the property is located, to have the property sold, the claims and demands, if just, satisfied, all encumbrances removed, and the proceeds of the sale of the property rightfully applied.

(2) All state taxes assessed against any corporation under the provisions of KRS 136.120 to 136.200 shall be due and payable as provided in KRS 131.110. Every corporation so assessed that fails to pay its taxes when due shall be deemed delinquent, a penalty of ten percent (10%) on the amount of the tax shall attach, and thereafter the tax shall bear interest at the tax interest rate as defined in KRS 131.010(6).

Section 292. KRS 136.070 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Every corporation organized under the laws of this state, every corporation having its commercial domicile in this state, and every foreign corporation owning or leasing property located in this state or having one (1) or more individuals receiving compensation in this state, except financial institutions as defined in KRS 136.500, savings and loan associations organized under the laws of this state and under the laws of the United States and making loans to members only, open-end registered investment companies organized under the laws of this state and registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940, production credit associations, insurance companies, including farmers' or other mutual hail, cyclone, windstorm or fire insurance companies, insurers and reciprocal underwriters, public service companies subject to taxation under KRS 136.120, those corporations exempted by Section 501 of the Internal Revenue Code, any property or facility which has been certified as an alcohol production facility as defined in KRS 247.910, any property or facility which has been certified as a fluidized bed energy production facility as defined in KRS 211.390, and any other religious, educational, charitable, or like corporations not organized or conducted for pecuniary profit, shall pay to the state an annual license tax of two dollars and ten cents ($2.10) on each one thousand dollars ($1,000) of the capital employed in the business as computed under the provisions of subsections (2) and (3) of this section, subject to the credit provided in subsection (6) of this section.

(2) (a) The term "capital" as used in this section means capital stock, surplus, advances by affiliated companies, intercompany accounts, borrowed moneys or any other accounts representing additional capital used and employed in the business. Accounts properly defined as "capital" in this section shall be reported at the value reflected on financial statements prepared for book purposes as of the last day of the calendar or fiscal year;

(b) "Capital employed," in the case of corporations having property or payroll only in this state, means "capital" as defined above;

(c) "Capital employed," in the case of corporations having property or payroll both within and without this state means "capital" as defined above and as apportioned under subsection (3) of this section;

(d) Property means either real property or tangible personal property which is either owned or leased. Payroll means compensation, paid to one (1) or more individuals, as described in subsection (3) of this section. Property and payroll are deemed to be entirely within this state if all other states are prohibited by Public Law 86-272, as it existed on December 31, 1975, from enforcing income tax jurisdiction.

(3) The total capital, as determined under subsection (2) of this section, shall be apportioned as follows:

(a) The total capital shall be multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor, plus the sales factor, and the denominator of which is three (3); provided, however, that effective with taxable years beginning after July 31, 1985, in lieu of the equally weighted three (3) factor apportionment fraction based on property, payroll, and sales, an apportionment fraction composed of a sales factor representing fifty percent (50%) of the fraction, a property factor representing twenty-five percent (25%) of the fraction, and a payroll factor representing twenty-five percent (25%) of the fraction shall be used;

(b) The property factor is a fraction, the numerator of which is the average value of the taxpayer's real and tangible personal property owned or rented and used in this state during the tax period and the denominator of which is the average value of all the taxpayer's real and tangible personal property owned or rented and used during the tax period; provided, however, that property which has been certified as a pollution control facility as defined in KRS 224.01-300 shall be excluded from the property factor:

1. Property owned by the taxpayer is valued at its original cost. If the original cost of any property is not determinable or is nominal or zero, such property shall be valued by the department[~~cabinet~~] under regulations promulgated by the department[~~cabinet~~]. Property rented by the taxpayer is valued at eight (8) times the net annual rental rate. Net annual rental rate is the annual rental rate paid by the taxpayer less any annual rental rate received by the taxpayer from subrentals, provided that such rental and such subrentals are reasonable. If the department[~~cabinet~~] determines that the annual rental or subrental rate is unreasonable, or if nominal or zero rate is charged, the department[~~cabinet~~] may determine and apply such rental rate as will reasonably reflect the value of the property rented by the taxpayer; and

2. The average value of property shall be determined by averaging the values at the beginning and ending of the tax period but the department[~~cabinet~~] may require the averaging of monthly values during the tax period if reasonably required to reflect properly the average value of the taxpayer's property;

(c) The payroll factor is a fraction, the numerator of which is the total amount paid or payable in this state during the tax period by the taxpayer for compensation, and the denominator of which is the total compensation paid or payable everywhere during the tax period. Compensation is paid or payable in this state if:

1. The individual's service is performed entirely within the state;

2. The individual's service is performed both within and without the state, but the service performed without the state is incidental to the individual's service within the state; or

3. Some of the service is performed in the state and the base of operations or, if there is no base of operations, the place from which the service is directed or controlled is in the state, or the base of operations or the place from which the service is directed or controlled is not in any state in which some part of the service is performed, but the individual's residence is in this state;

(d) The sales factor is a fraction, the numerator of which is the total sales of the taxpayer in this state during the tax period, and the denominator of which is the total sales of the taxpayer everywhere during the tax period. Sales of tangible personal property are in this state if:

1. The property is delivered or shipped to a purchaser, other than the United States government, or to the designee of the purchaser within this state regardless of the f.o.b. point or other conditions of the sale;

2. The property is shipped from an office, store, warehouse, factory, or other place of storage in this state and the purchaser is the United States government; or

3. Sales, other than sales of tangible personal property, are in this state if the income-producing activity is performed in this state; or the income-producing activity is performed both in and outside this state and a greater proportion of the income-producing activity is performed in this state than in any other state, based on costs of performance.

(4) If the apportionment provisions of this section do not fairly measure the taxpayer's capital in this state, the taxpayer may petition for or the department[~~cabinet~~] may require:

(a) The exclusion of any one (1) or more of the factors;

(b) The inclusion of one (1) or more additional factors which will fairly measure the taxpayer's capital in this state; or

(c) The employment of any other method to produce an equitable apportionment of the taxpayer's capital.

(5) No corporation required to pay an annual license tax under this section shall pay less than thirty dollars ($30).

(6) Every corporation with a gross income of not more than five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000) shall be entitled to a credit equivalent to one dollar and forty cents ($1.40) per one thousand dollars ($1,000) of the initial three hundred and fifty thousand dollars ($350,000) of capital employed in the business, as computed under the provisions of KRS 136.070(2) and (3).

(2) An approved company that entered into a revitalization agreement prior to July 13, 2004, shall:

(a) Compute the company's total license tax due as provided by KRS 136.070; and

(b) Compute the license tax due excluding the capital attributable to an economic revitalization project.

(3) The tax credit shall be the amount by which the tax computed under subsection (2)(a) of this section exceeds the tax computed under subsection (2)(b) of this section; however, the credit shall not exceed the limits set forth in KRS 154.26-090.

(4) The capital attributable to an economic revitalization project shall be determined by a formula approved by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~].

(5) For an approved company that enters into a revitalization agreement after July 13, 2004, the tax credit shall be negotiated pursuant to KRS 154.26-090, but shall not exceed one hundred percent (100%) of the computed license tax attributable to the location of the economic revitalization project. In no case shall the tax credit exceed the limits set forth in KRS 154.26-090.

(6) The license tax attributable to a revitalization project shall be determined by a formula approved by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~].

(7) The Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] may promulgate administrative regulations and require the filing of forms designed by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] to reflect the intent of KRS 154.26-010 to 154.26-100 and the allowable income tax credit which an approved company may retain under KRS 154.26-010 to 154.26-100.

Section 294. KRS 136.073 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Every open-end registered investment company organized under the laws of this state and registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940 shall on or before the fifteenth day of the fourth month following the close of each fiscal year, if the company operates on a fiscal year basis or calendar year, file a report on forms prescribed by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] and pay directly to the State Treasury a tax of two dollars and ten cents ($2.10) for each one thousand dollars ($1,000) of "average net capital" as computed under subsections (2) and (3) of this section.

(2) The term "net capital" as used in this section means capital stock, surplus, borrowed moneys or any other accounts representing capital of the company less the amount of such capital which by said company is invested in Kentucky municipal securities which are obligations issued by the State of Kentucky, its political subdivisions, and the districts, authorities, agencies and instrumentalities of the state and its political subdivisions, the interest on which is exempt from federal and Kentucky income tax.

(3) The term "average net capital" as used in this section means the average of the net capital of the company as shown on financial statements of the company as of the first and last days of the fiscal or calendar year of the company, whichever is applicable.

(4) The Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] shall examine and audit each report as soon as practicable after each report is received. Failure to make reports and pay taxes as provided in this section shall subject the company to the same penalties imposed for such failure on the part of other corporations.

Section 295. KRS 136.076 is amended to read as follows:

(1) As soon as practicable after each return is received, the department[~~cabinet~~] shall examine and audit it. If the amount of tax computed by the department[~~cabinet~~] is greater than the amount returned by the taxpayer, the additional tax shall be assessed and a notice of assessment mailed to the taxpayer by the department[~~cabinet~~] within four (4) years from the date the return was filed, except that in the case of a failure to file a return, or of a fraudulent return, the additional tax may be assessed at any time. The time provided in this section may be extended by agreement between the taxpayer and the department[~~cabinet~~].

(2) For the purpose of subsection (1) of this section, a return filed before the last day prescribed by law for filing the return thereof shall be considered as filed on the last day. For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1993, any extension of time granted for filing the return shall also be considered as extending the last day prescribed by law for filing the return.

Section 296. KRS 136.090 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Corporations liable to taxation under KRS 136.070 shall file with the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] each year, on forms prepared by the department[~~cabinet~~], a return signed by the president, vice president, secretary, treasurer, assistant secretary, assistant treasurer, or chief accounting officer. This report shall give the name of the corporation; the name of the state or government under the laws of which it is incorporated; the date of incorporation; the place of its principal office in and out of this state; the name and address of its president and secretary; the name and address of its authorized agent or attorney upon whom process may be executed in this state; the name and address of the officer or agent in charge of its business in this state; and the nature and kind of business in which it is engaged.

(2) The report shall also give the total value of all the property owned and used by the corporation; the value of the property owned and used by it in this state; the aggregate amount of business transacted by it during the preceding calendar year or fiscal year; the amount of such business transacted in this state; and such other facts as the department[~~cabinet~~] requires.

Section 297. KRS 136.100 is amended to read as follows:

(1) If the corporation operates on a calendar year basis, the reports required under KRS 136.090 shall be filed on or before April 15 in each year. If the corporation operates on a fiscal year basis, the reports shall be filed on or before the fifteenth day of the fourth month following the close of each fiscal year. The reports shall cover operations for the preceding calendar or fiscal year, as the case may be. Domestic corporations hereafter incorporated, and foreign corporations hereafter becoming the owners of property or transacting business in this state, shall make their reports to the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] on or before the first filing date succeeding their incorporation or succeeding their becoming the owners of property or transacting business in this state, and shall in all respects be subject to the provisions of KRS 136.070 to 136.100 the same as corporations already in existence.

(2) A corporation may change its reporting period from a calendar year to a fiscal year, or from a fiscal year to a calendar year, by securing written permission from the department[~~cabinet~~]. If a corporation so changes its basis of reporting, the first report filed on the new filing date shall cover operations for the period between the close of the old accounting period and the close of the new accounting period. The assessment of value shall be computed in the same manner as on any other return, but the tax due shall be computed on that proportionate part of the assessment that the period between the close of the old accounting period and the close of the new accounting period bears to the entire twelve (12) month period.

(3) In any case where two (2) or more corporations merge, consolidate or otherwise combine into a single corporation after the close of the taxable year, but before the beginning of the succeeding taxable year, all factors used to determine the corporation license tax assessment shall be computed on the basis of the consolidated accounting records of such corporations.

Nonoperating intangible property within the taxing jurisdiction of the Commonwealth shall be taxable for state purposes only at the same rate as the intangible property of other taxpayers not performing public services, and operating property and nonoperating tangible property shall be subject to state and local taxes at the same rate as the tangible property of other taxpayers not performing public services.

(3) The Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] shall have sole power to value and assess all of the property of every corporation, company, association, partnership, or person performing any public service, including those enumerated above and all others to whom this section may apply, whether or not the operating property, nonoperating tangible property, or nonoperating intangible property has heretofore been assessed by the department[~~cabinet~~], and shall allocate the assessment as provided by KRS 136.170, and shall certify operating property liable to local taxation and nonoperating tangible property to the counties, cities, and taxing districts as provided in KRS 136.180. All of the property assessed by the department[~~cabinet~~] pursuant to this section shall be assessed as of December 31 each year for the following year's taxes, and the lien therefor shall attach as of the assessment date. In the case of a taxpayer whose business is predominantly nonpublic service and the public service business in which he is engaged is merely incidental to his principal business, the department[~~cabinet~~] shall in the exercise of its judgment and discretion determine, from evidence which it may have or obtain, what portion of the operating property is devoted to the public service business subject to assessment by the department[~~cabinet~~] under this section and shall require the remainder of the property not so engaged to be assessed by the local taxing authorities.

Section 299. KRS 136.130 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Each corporation included in KRS 136.120(1) shall annually, between December 31, and April 30, following, make and deliver to the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] a report in such form as the department[~~cabinet~~] may prescribe, showing such of the following facts as may be requested by the department[~~cabinet~~]: The name and principal place of business of the corporation; the kind of business engaged in; the amount of capital stock, preferred and common, and the number of shares of each; the amount of stock paid up; the par and fair cash value of the stock; the highest price at which the stock was sold at a bona fide sale within twelve (12) months next before December 31 of the year for which the report is required to be made; the amount of surplus funds and undivided profits; the total amount of indebtedness as principal; the cost and year acquired of all operating property owned, operated, or leased, including property under construction, property held for future use, and the depreciation attributable thereto as of December 31, the cost and year acquired of all nonoperating tangible property and the depreciation attributable thereto; the cost and market value as of December 31 of all intangible property; the value of all other assets; the operating and nonoperating revenues, the net utility operating income before and after depreciation and before and after income taxes, the net income from operations, the net income including income from investments, and income from all other sources for twelve (12) months next preceding December 31 of the year for which the report is required; the amount and kind of operating property in this state, and where situated in each county, city, and taxing district, assessed or liable to assessment in this state, and the fair cash value thereof, the length and description of all the lines operated, owned, or leased in this state and in each county, city, and taxing district; and such other facts as the department[~~cabinet~~] may require.

(2) The report shall cover the period of twelve (12) months ending December 31. The department[~~cabinet~~] may change the date of the reports to conform to any change in date established by federal regulations.

(3) If any corporation is in the hands or under the control of a receiver or other person, by order of a court, the receiver or other person shall make the reports required by this section and by KRS 136.140.

(4) All public service corporations included in KRS 136.120 shall file with the report required by subsection (1) of this section a copy of all reports to their stockholders and a complete copy of their report to the Kentucky regulating authority for the year ending December 31.

(5) The Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] may grant an extension of thirty (30) days to file the public service property tax return when, in its judgment, good cause exists. The department[~~cabinet~~] shall keep a record of every extension and the taxpayer shall attach a copy of the approved extension to his return when filed.

(6) A taxpayer may be granted a thirty (30) day extension for filing the public service company property tax return if it requests the extension before the due date of the return and includes with the extension request a report of any increases or decreases in property of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) or more in any taxing district.

Section 300. KRS 136.132 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Each corporation included in KRS 136.120(1) shall annually, when filing the report required by KRS 136.130, provide to the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] a listing of all motor vehicles and trailers operated, owned, or leased by it which are subject to registration in Kentucky with the latest registration or certificate number issued to such motor vehicle or trailer and the make, model and year of each vehicle.

(2) The Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] shall, when valuing the property of corporations or companies assessable by it, value the vehicles at no less than the value used by the property valuation administrator.

(3) In certifying the assessment of property of public service companies subject to local taxation, the department[~~cabinet~~] shall separately certify the amount of the assessment representing the valuation of motor vehicles and trailers or an apportionment thereof.

Section 301. KRS 136.140 is amended to read as follows:

(1) If a public service corporation, foreign or domestic, operates and conducts its business in other states as well as in this state, the report required by KRS 136.130 shall show the following additional facts: the cost and year acquired of the operating property operated, owned, or leased, including property under construction, property held for future use, and depreciation attributable thereto for the property in this state as of December 31; and such other facts as the department[~~cabinet~~] may require.

(2) All public service corporations included in KRS 136.120 shall file with the report required by KRS 136.130 and this section a copy of all reports to their stockholders and a complete copy of their report to the federal regulating agency if their operations are interstate.

Section 302. KRS 136.150 is amended to read as follows:

If any corporation fails to report as required by KRS 136.130 and 136.140 on or before April 30 of each year, or May 30 if the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] has granted the corporation an extension, the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] shall ascertain the required facts and values in such manner and by such means as it deems proper, at the cost of the corporation failing to make the report.

(1) The Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] shall determine the fair cash value of the operating property of a domestic public service corporation as a unit. The fair cash value of the operating property shall be equalized.

(2) The Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] shall determine the fair cash value of the operating property of a foreign public service corporation or a domestic public service corporation with property or routes in Kentucky and outside Kentucky as a unit according to subsection (1). The fair cash value of the operating property everywhere valued as a unit shall be apportioned to Kentucky based on the average of the property factor and the business factor. The fair cash value of the operating property in Kentucky shall be equalized.

(a) The property factor shall fairly reflect the amount of operating property operated, owned, or leased in Kentucky compared to the total amount of operating property operated, owned, or leased everywhere. An allocable portion of the rolling stock, aircraft, and watercraft of a common carrier shall be included in the operating property, operated, owned, or leased in Kentucky. This factor may be a single factor or an average of several factors.

(b) The business factor shall fairly reflect the utilization of the operating property operated, owned, or leased in Kentucky compared to the utilization of the operating property operated, owned, or leased everywhere. This factor may be a single factor or an average of several factors.

(3) The nonoperating tangible and nonoperating intangible property of public service corporations whose operating property is valued according to either subsection (1) or (2) shall be valued by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] in the same manner and according to the same standards as if this property were valued by the property valuation administrator in the county where the property has a taxable situs.

The Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] shall allocate the assessed value of the operating property in this state among the counties, cities, and other taxing districts. The location of operating property and the proportion which the length of line or route operated in such taxing district bears to the total length of lines or route operated in this state shall be considered in this allocation and such other reasonable evidence of value as the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] may by regulations prescribe; provided, however, that the assessed value of nonoperating tangible property shall be allocated to the county, city, or other taxing district where the property is situated.

Section 305. KRS 136.180 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] shall, immediately after fixing the assessed value of the operating property and other property of a public service corporation for taxation, notify the corporation of the valuation and the amount of assessment for state and local purposes. When the valuation has been finally determined, the department[~~cabinet~~] shall immediately certify, unless otherwise specified, to the county clerk of each county in which any of the operating property or nonoperating tangible property assessment of the corporation is liable to local taxation, the amount of property liable for county, city, or district tax.

(2) No appeal shall delay the collection or payment of taxes based upon the assessment in controversy. The taxpayer shall pay all state, county, and district taxes due on the valuation which the taxpayer claims as the true value as stated in the protest filed under KRS 131.110. When the valuation is finally determined upon appeal, the taxpayer shall be billed for any additional tax and interest at the tax interest rate as defined in KRS 131.010(6), from the date the tax would have become due if no appeal had been taken. The provisions of KRS 134.390 shall apply to the tax bill.

(3) The Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] shall compute annually a multiplier for use in establishing the local tax rate for the operating property of railroads or railway companies that operate solely within the Commonwealth. The applicable local tax rates on the operating property shall be adjusted by the multiplier. The multiplier shall be calculated by dividing the statewide locally taxable business tangible personal property by the total statewide business tangible personal property.

(4) The Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] shall annually calculate an aggregate local rate for each local taxing district to be used in determining local taxes to be collected for railroad carlines. The rate shall be the statewide tangible tax rate for each type of local taxing district multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the commercial and industrial tangible property assessment subject to full local rates and the denominator of which is the total commercial and industrial tangible personal property assessment. Effective January 1, 1994, state and local taxes on railroad carline property shall become due forty-five (45) days from the date of notice and shall be collected directly by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~]. The local taxes collected by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] shall be distributed to each local taxing district levying a tax on railroad carlines based on the statewide average rate for each type of local taxing district. However, prior to distribution any fees owed to the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] by any local taxing district under the provisions of subsection (4) of this section shall be deducted.

(5) The certification of valuation shall be filed by each county clerk in his office, and shall be certified by the county clerk to the proper collecting officer of the county, city, or taxing district for collection. Any district which has the value certified by the department[~~cabinet~~] shall pay an annual fee to the department[~~cabinet~~] which represents an allocation of department[~~cabinet~~] operating and overhead expenses incurred in generating the valuations. This fee shall be determined by the department[~~cabinet~~] and shall apply to valuations for tax periods beginning on or after December 31, 1981.

Section 306. KRS 136.181 is amended to read as follows:

Boats, tugs, barges, and other watercraft of any nonresident person, corporation, partnership, or any other business association whose route or system is partly within this state and partly within another state or states, shall be valued by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] for purposes of taxation and shall be assessed as of January 1 each year by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~]; and the department[~~cabinet~~] shall fairly divide, allocate, and certify such assessments to each county, city, town, or other taxing district within this state, within or through which such route or system is operated, the division, allocation, and certification to be determined in the following manner:

(1) The proportion of the value of the property which the length of the lines or route operated in this state bears to the total length of lines or route operated in this state and elsewhere, shall be considered in fixing the value of the property for taxation in this state. Any other reasonable evidence of value shall be considered in fixing the value, but such evidence must be prescribed by department[~~cabinet~~] regulations;

(2) After ascertaining the portion of the system valuation of such property attributable to this state, the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] shall allocate the value of the property among the counties, cities, towns, and other taxing districts. The proportion which the length of line or route operated in that jurisdiction or taxing district bears to the total length of lines or route operated in this state shall be considered in this allocation and such other reasonable evidence of value as the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] may by regulations prescribe.

Section 307. KRS 136.182 is amended to read as follows:

On or before March 1, 1955, and each year thereafter, each nonresident person, corporation, partnership or other business association owning or operating boats, tugs, barges, or other watercraft whose route or system is partly within this state and partly within another state or states, shall on forms provided by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] provide the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] with a detailed description of all such property as well as a detailed description of the entire route or system traversed and such other information as the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] may by regulation prescribe.

Section 308. KRS 136.183 is amended to read as follows:

The taxes on the above property shall become due at the same time and shall be subject to the same discount and penalties as provided by KRS 134.020, and shall be collected in the same manner as taxes on other tangible property; except that the state tax on such property shall be collected directly by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~].

Section 309. KRS 136.184 is amended to read as follows:

Any taxpayer who has been assessed by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] in the manner outlined above shall have thirty (30) days from the date of the department's[~~cabinet's~~] notice of the tentative assessment in which to protest and ask for a change thereof in the manner provided by KRS 131.110.

Section 310. KRS 136.186 is amended to read as follows:

When the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] has made a final determination as to the valuation of any such property owned or operated by such nonresident person, corporation, partnership or other business association, it shall immediately certify the amount thereof to the county clerk of each county in which any such property is liable for taxation. The certification shall be filed by each county clerk in his office and the county clerk shall certify to the proper collecting officer of the county, city, town, or taxing district for collection.

Section 311. KRS 136.1873 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Notwithstanding the provisions of KRS 132.487, trucks, trailers, tractors, semitrailers, and buses of any person, corporation, partnership, or any other business association whose route or system is partly within this state and partly within another state or states, shall be assessed by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] for purposes of taxation as of January 1 each year.

(2) The proportion of miles operated in this state compared to the total miles operated everywhere shall be considered in fixing the value of the property for taxation. Other reasonable evidence shall be considered in fixing the value. However, pick-up and delivery vehicles operating from a terminal within this state or vehicles which do not leave this state in the normal course of business shall not be valued on an apportioned basis.

Section 312. KRS 136.1875 is amended to read as follows:

On or before April 15, 1991, and each year thereafter, each person, corporation, partnership, or other business association owning or operating trucks, tractors, trailers, semitrailers, and buses whose route or system is partly within this state and partly within another state or states, shall on forms provided by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] provide the department[~~cabinet~~] with a detailed description of all its vehicles operating within this state along with the necessary mileage data to be used in apportioning the value.

Section 313. KRS 136.1877 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] shall immediately, after fixing the assessed value of the trucks, tractors, trailers, semitrailers, and buses, notify the taxpayer of the valuation determined. Any taxpayer who has been assessed by the department[~~cabinet~~] in the manner outlined in KRS 136.1873 shall have forty-five (45) days from the date of the department's[~~cabinet's~~] notice of the tentative assessment to protest as provided by KRS 131.110.

(2) No appeal shall delay the collection or payment of taxes based upon the assessment in controversy. The taxpayer shall pay all state, county, and district taxes due on the valuation which the taxpayer claims as the true value as stated in the protest filed under KRS 131.110. When the valuation is finally determined upon appeal, the taxpayer shall be billed for any additional tax and interest at the tax interest rate as defined in KRS 131.010(6), from the date the tax would have become due if no appeal had been taken. The provisions of KRS 134.390 shall apply to the tax bill.

(3) The state and local taxes on the property are due forty-five (45) days from the date of notice and shall be collected directly by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~].

(4) The Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] shall annually calculate an aggregate local rate to be used in determining the local taxes to be collected. The rate shall be the statewide average motor vehicle tax rate for each type of local taxing district multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the commercial and industrial tangible personal property assessment subject to full local rates and the denominator of which is the total commercial and industrial tangible personal property assessment.

(5) The local taxes collected by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] shall be distributed to each local taxing district levying a tax on motor vehicles based on the statewide average rate for each type of local taxing district. However, prior to distribution any fees owed to the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] by any local taxing district under the provisions of KRS 136.180(5) shall be deducted.

Section 314. KRS 136.190 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The superintendent of schools in each district in which any individual, group of individuals or corporation, operates public utility or other franchise taxpaying property assessed under KRS 136.120 shall, on or before the first day of January, 1957, furnish to the county clerk of the county in which the district is situated, to each franchise taxpayer within the district, and to the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~], the boundary of his school district. The superintendent of schools in each district in which any franchise-paying corporation, individual, or group of individuals operates shall, on or before the first day of January, 1958, and each year thereafter, furnish to the county clerk, to each franchise taxpayer within the district, and to the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~], any changes made in the boundary of his school district during the immediately preceding twelve (12) months.

(2) The engineer of cities of the first class and the city clerk of cities of the second, third, fourth, fifth, and sixth classes shall notify the county clerk, each franchise taxpayer within the city, and the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] of their boundaries in the same manner as required of the superintendent of schools in subsection (1).

(3) The responsible governing official or the chairman of the governing body of any taxing district other than the county, school district, or city shall notify the county clerk, each franchise taxpayer within the district, and the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] of their boundaries in the same manner as required of the superintendent of schools in subsection (1).

Section 315. KRS 136.290 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Every federally or state chartered savings and loan association, savings bank, and other similar institutions operating solely in Kentucky shall, during January of each year, file with the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] a report containing such information and in such form as the department[~~cabinet~~] may require.

(2) The department[~~cabinet~~] shall fix the total value, as of January 1 of each year, of the capital of each financial institution included in subsection (1) of this section. Capital shall include certificates of deposit, savings accounts, demand deposits, undivided profits, surplus, and general reserves, excepting the share of borrowing members where the amount borrowed equals or exceeds the amount paid in by those members. For Agricultural Credit Associations chartered by the Farm Credit Administration, capital shall be computed by deducting the book value of the association's investment in any other wholly owned institution chartered by the Farm Credit Administration that is either subject to the tax imposed by KRS 136.300 or 136.310 or that is exempt from state taxation by federal law. The department[~~cabinet~~] shall immediately notify each institution of the value so fixed.

Section 316. KRS 136.310 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Every federally or state chartered savings and loan association, savings bank, and other similar institution authorized to transact business in this state, with property and payroll within and without this state, shall, during January of each year, file with the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] a report containing information and in such form as the department[~~cabinet~~] may require.

(2) The Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] shall fix the fair cash value, as of January 1 of each year, of the capital attributable to Kentucky in each financial institution included in subsection (1) of this section. The methodology employed by the department[~~cabinet~~] shall be a three (3) step process as follows:

(a) The total value of deposits maintained in Kentucky less any amounts where the amount borrowed equals or exceeds the amount paid in by those members.

(b) The Kentucky apportioned value of capital shall include undivided profits, surplus, general reserves, and paid-up stock. For Agricultural Credit Associations chartered by the Farm Credit Administration, capital shall be computed by deducting the book value of the association's investment in any other wholly owned institution chartered by the Farm Credit Administration that is either subject to the tax imposed by KRS 136.300 or this section or that is exempt from state taxation by federal law. The Kentucky value of capital shall be determined by a fraction, the numerator of which is the receipts factor plus the outstanding loan balance factor plus the payroll factor, and the denominator of which is three (3).

(c) The values determined in steps (a) and (b) of this subsection shall be added together to determine total Kentucky capital and then reduced by the influence of ownership in tax-exempt United States obligations to determine Kentucky taxable capital. The influence of tax-exempt United States obligations is to be determined from the reports of condition filed with the applicable supervisory agency as follows: the average amount of tax-exempt United States obligations for the calendar year, over the average amount of total assets for the calendar year multiplied by total Kentucky capital. The department[~~cabinet~~] shall immediately notify each institution of the value so fixed.

(3) The receipts factor specified in subsection (2)(b) of this section is a fraction, the numerator of which is all receipts derived from loans and other sources negotiated through offices or derived from customers in Kentucky, and the denominator of which is total business receipts for the preceding calendar year.

(4) The outstanding loan balance factor specified in subsection (2)(b) of this section is a fraction, the numerator of which is the average balance of outstanding loans negotiated from offices or made to customers in Kentucky. The denominator is the average balance of all outstanding loans. The average outstanding loan balance is determined by adding the outstanding loan balance at the beginning of the preceding calendar year to the outstanding loan balance at the end of the preceding calendar year and dividing by two (2). However, if the yearly beginning balance and ending balance results in an inequitable factor, the average outstanding loan balance may be computed on a monthly average balance.

(5) The payroll factor specified in subsection (2)(b) of this section shall be determined for the preceding calendar year under the provisions of KRS 141.120(8)(b) and regulations promulgated thereunder.

(6) By July 1 succeeding the filing of the report as provided in subsection (1) of this section, each financial institution included in subsection (1) of this section shall pay directly into the State Treasury a tax of one dollar ($1) for each one thousand dollars ($1,000) paid in on its Kentucky taxable capital as fixed in subsection (2)(c) of this section. The institution shall not be required to pay local taxes upon its capital stock, surplus, undivided profits, notes, mortgages, or other credits, and the tax provided by this section shall be in lieu of all taxes for state purposes on intangible property of the institution, nor shall any depositor of the institution be required to list his deposits for taxation under KRS 132.020. Failure to make reports and pay taxes as provided in this section shall subject the institution to the same penalties imposed for such failure on the part of the other corporations.

(7) If a financial institution included in subsection (1) of this section selects, it may deduct taxes imposed in subsection (6) of this section from the dividends paid or credited to a nonborrowing shareholder.

(8) Every Agricultural Credit Association chartered by the Farm Credit Administration being authorized to transact business in Kentucky but having no employees located within or without the state shall be subject to the same tax imposed pursuant to either KRS 136.300 or this section as that imposed upon its wholly owned Production Credit Association subsidiary. For purposes of computing Kentucky apportioned value of capital pursuant to subsection (2) of this section, those Agricultural Credit Associations subject to the tax imposed by this section shall utilize that Kentucky apportionment fraction computed and utilized by its wholly owned Production Credit Association subsidiary for the same report period.

Section 317. KRS 136.320 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Each life insurance company incorporated under the laws of and doing business in Kentucky shall value as of January 1 and report to the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] by April 1 each year, on forms prescribed by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~], the following:

(a) The fair cash value of the company's intangible personal property, hereinafter referred to as "capital," consisting of all money in hand, shares of stock, notes, bonds, accounts, and other credits, exclusive of due and deferred premiums, whether secured by mortgage, pledge, or otherwise, or unsecured.

(b) The fair cash value of the company's intangible personal property exempt from taxation by law.

(c) The aggregate amount of the company's reserves, reduced by the amount of due and deferred premiums, maintained in accordance with the applicable provisions of KRS 304.6-040 and 304.6-130 to 304.6-180, on all outstanding policies and contracts supplementary thereto.

(d) Other information as may be required by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] to accurately determine the fair cash value of each company's "taxable capital" and "taxable reserves."

(2) Based on information supplied by each company and other information that may be available, the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] shall value each company's "taxable capital" and "taxable reserves" as follows:

(a) "Taxable capital" shall be determined by deducting "taxable reserves" from "capital," less exempt intangible personal property.

(b) "Taxable reserves" shall be determined by multiplying the aggregate amount of reserves as computed in subsection (1)(c) of this section by the percentage determined by dividing "capital," less exempt intangible personal property, by "capital," including exempt intangible personal property.

(3) (a) An annual tax for state purposes shall be imposed against the fair cash value of "taxable capital" for calendar years beginning before 2000, at a rate of seventy cents ($0.70) on each one hundred dollars ($100).

(b) An annual tax for state purposes shall be imposed against every company making an election pursuant to KRS 136.335 to be taxed under this section, against the fair cash value of taxable capital for calendar years beginning in 2000 as follows:

(c) An annual tax for state purposes shall be imposed at a rate of one-tenth of one cent ($0.001) on each one hundred dollars ($100) of the fair cash value of "taxable reserves"

(d) Beginning in tax year 2004 an insurer may offset the tax liability imposed under this subsection against the tax liability imposed under subsection (4) of this section.

(4) For calendar year 2000, and each calendar year thereafter, every company subject to the tax imposed by subsection (3) of this section, and making an election pursuant to KRS 136.335 to be taxed under this section, shall pay the following rates of tax upon each one hundred dollars ($100) of premium receipts:

"taxable capital" subject to local taxation. The county clerk shall prepare and deliver a bill to the sheriff for collection of taxes collectible by the sheriff and shall certify the value to all other collecting officers of districts authorized to levy a tax.

(9) Each company's real and tangible personal property shall be subject to taxation at fair cash value by the state, county, school, and other taxing districts in which the property is located in the same manner and at the same rates as all other property of the same class.

However, no insurer or its agent shall be entitled to any portion of any premium surcharge as a fee or commission for its collection. On or before the twentieth day of each month, each insurer shall report and remit to the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~], on forms as it may require, all premium surcharge moneys collected by it during its preceding monthly accounting period less any moneys returned to policyholders as applicable to the unearned portion of the premium on policies terminated by either the insured or the insurer. The rate shall be calculated using as its base the number of local government units eligible for participation in the funds under applicable statutes as of January 1, 1994. To allow the commissioner[~~secretary~~] of revenue to calculate an appropriate rate, the secretary for the Public Protection and Regulation Cabinet and the secretary for the Justice Cabinet shall certify to the commissioner[~~secretary~~] of revenue, no later than January 1 of each year, the estimated budgets for the respective funds specified above, including any surplus moneys in the funds, which shall be incorporated into the consideration of the adjusted rate for the next biennium. On and after July 1, 1999, moneys in this account shall not lapse.

(3) Insurance premium surcharge funds collected from the policyholders of any domestic mutual company, cooperative, or assessment fire insurance company shall be deposited in the State Treasury, and shall be paid monthly by the State Treasurer into the Firefighters Foundation Program fund trust and agency account as provided in KRS 95A.220 to 95A.262. However, insurance premium surcharge funds collected from policyholders of any mutual company, cooperative, or assessment fire insurance company which transfers its corporate domicile to this state from another state after July 15, 1994, shall continue to be paid into the Firefighters Foundation Program fund and the Law Enforcement Foundation Program fund as prescribed.

(4) No later than July 1 of each year, the Department of Insurance shall provide the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] with a list of all Kentucky-licensed property and casualty insurers and the amount of premium volume collected by the insurer for the preceding calendar year as set forth on the annual statement of the insurer. No later than September 1 of each year, the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] shall calculate an estimate of the premium surcharge due from each insurer subject to the insurance premium surcharge imposed pursuant to this section, based upon the surcharge rate imposed pursuant to this section and the amount of the premium volume for each insurer as reported by the Department of Insurance. The Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] shall compare the results of this estimate with the premium surcharge paid by each insurer during the preceding year, and shall provide the Legislative Research Commission, the Commission on Fire Protection Personnel Standards and Education, the Kentucky Law Enforcement Council, and the Department of Insurance with a report detailing its findings on a cumulative basis. In accordance with KRS 131.190, the department[~~cabinet~~] shall not identify or divulge the confidential tax information of any individual insurer in this report.

The amount to be included in gross rents is the amount of amortization or depreciation allowed in computing the taxable income base for the taxable year. However, where a building is erected on leased land by or on behalf of the financial institution, the value of the land is determined by multiplying the gross rent by eight (8) and the value of the building is determined in the same manner as if owned by the financial institution;

(b) The following are not included in the term "gross rents":

1. Reasonable amounts payable as separate charges for water and electric service furnished by the lessor;

2. Reasonable amounts payable as service charges for janitorial services furnished by the lessor;

(14) "Loan secured by real property" means a loan or other obligation for which fifty percent (50%) or more of the aggregate value of the collateral used to secure the loan or other obligation, when valued at fair market value as of the time the original loan or obligation was incurred, was real property;

(17) "Principal base of operations" means:

(a) With respect to transportation property, the place from which the property is regularly directed or controlled; and

(b) With respect to an employee:

1. The place the employee regularly starts work and to which the employee customarily returns in order to receive instructions from his or her employer; or

2. If the place referred to in subparagraph 1. of this paragraph does not exist, the place the employee regularly communicates with customers or other persons; or

(20) "State" means a state of the United States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, any territory or possession of the United States, or any foreign country;

(21) "Syndication" means an extension of credit in which two (2) or more persons fund and each person is at risk only up to a specified percentage of the total extension of credit or up to a specified dollar amount;

Section 328. KRS 136.525 is amended to read as follows:

(1) A financial institution whose business activity is taxable both within and without this Commonwealth shall apportion its net capital pursuant to the provisions of this section.

(2) Net capital shall be apportioned to this Commonwealth by multiplying total net capital by the apportionment percentage.

The apportionment percentage is determined by adding together the financial institution's receipts factor as determined under the provisions of KRS 136.530, property factor as determined under the provisions of KRS 136.535, and payroll factor as determined under the provisions of KRS 136.540 and dividing the sum by three (3). If one (1) of the factors is missing, the two (2) remaining factors are added and the sum is divided by two (2). If two (2) of the factors are missing, the remaining factor is the apportionment percentage. A factor is missing if both its numerator and denominator are zero (0), but it is not missing merely because the numerator is zero (0).

(3) Each factor shall be calculated by the method of accounting used by the financial institution for the taxable year.

(4) If the apportionment provisions of KRS 136.500 to 136.575 do not fairly represent the extent of the financial institution's business activity in this Commonwealth, the financial institution may petition for or the department~~[cabinet]~~ may require, in respect to all or any part of the financial institution's business activity, if reasonable:

- (a) Separate accounting;
- (b) The exclusion of any one (1) or more of the factors;
- (c) The inclusion of one (1) or more additional factors which will fairly represent the financial institution's business activity in this Commonwealth; or
- (d) The employment of any other method to effectuate an equitable apportionment of the financial institution's net capital.

Section 329. KRS 136.530 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The receipts factor is a fraction, the numerator of which is the receipts of the financial institution in this Commonwealth during the taxable year as determined by subsection (2) of this section and the denominator of which is the receipts of the financial institution within and without this Commonwealth during the taxable year. Receipts shall include the following:

- (a) Receipts from the lease or rental of real property owned by the financial institution;
- (b) Receipts from the lease or rental of tangible personal property owned by the financial institution;
- (c) Interest and fees or penalties in the nature of interest from loans secured by real property;
- (d) Interest and fees or penalties in the nature of interest from loans not secured by real property;
- (e) Net gains from the sale of loans. Net gains from the sale of loans includes income recorded under the coupon stripping rules of Section 1286 of the Internal Revenue Code;
- (f) Interest and fees or penalties in the nature of interest from credit card receivables and receipts from fees charged to card holders, such as annual fees;
- (g) Net gains, but not less than zero (0), from the sale of credit card receivables;
- (h) All credit card issuer's reimbursement fees;
- (i) Receipts from merchant discount. Receipts from merchant discount shall be computed net of any cardholder charge backs, but shall not be reduced by any interchange transaction fees or by any issuer's reimbursement fees paid to another for charges made by its card holders;
- (j) Loan servicing fees derived from loans secured by real property;
- (k) Loan servicing fees derived from loans not secured by real property;
- (l) Interest, dividends, net gains, but not less than zero (0), and other income from investment assets and activities and from trading assets and activities. Investment assets and activities and trading assets and activities include but are not limited to investment securities, trading account assets, federal funds, securities purchased and sold under agreements to resell or repurchase, options, futures contracts, forward contracts, notional principal contracts such as swaps, equities, and foreign currency transactions. The receipts factor shall include the following amounts:
  - 1. The amount by which interest from federal funds sold and securities purchased under resale agreements exceeds interest expense on federal funds purchased and securities sold under repurchase agreements; and
  - 2. The amount by which interest, dividends, gains, and other income from trading assets and activities, including but not limited to assets and activities in the matched book, in the arbitrage book, and foreign currency transactions, exceed amounts paid in lieu of interest, amounts paid in lieu of dividends, and losses from these assets and activities;
- (m) All receipts derived from sales that would be included in the factor established by KRS 136.070(3)(d)1., 2., and 3.; and
- (n) Receipts from services not otherwise specifically listed.

(2) A determination of whether receipts should be included in the numerator of the fraction shall be made as follows:

- (a) Receipts from the lease or rental of real property owned by the financial institution shall be included in the numerator if the property is located within this Commonwealth or receipts from the sublease of real property if the property is located within this Commonwealth.
- (b) 1. Except as described in subparagraph 2. of this paragraph, receipts from the lease or rental of tangible personal property owned by the financial institution shall be included in the numerator if the property is located within this Commonwealth when it is first placed in service by the lessee.

2. Receipts from the lease or rental of transportation property owned by the financial institution are included in the numerator of the receipts factor to the extent that the property is used in this Commonwealth. The extent an aircraft will be deemed to be used in this Commonwealth and the amount of receipts that is to be included in the numerator of this Commonwealth's receipts factor is determined by multiplying all the receipts from the lease or rental of the aircraft by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of landings of the aircraft in this Commonwealth and the denominator of which is the total number of landings of the aircraft. If the extent of the use of any transportation property within this Commonwealth cannot be determined, then the property shall be deemed to be used wholly in the state in which the property has its principal base of operations. A motor vehicle shall be deemed to be used wholly in the state in which it is registered.

(c) 1. Interest and fees or penalties in the nature of interest from loans secured by real property shall be included in the numerator if the property is located within this Commonwealth. If the property is located both within this Commonwealth and one (1) or more other states, receipts shall be included if more than fifty percent (50%) of the fair market value of the real property is located within this Commonwealth. If more than fifty percent (50%) of the fair market value of the real property is not located within any one (1) state, then the receipts described in this subparagraph shall be included in the numerator if the borrower is located in this Commonwealth.

2. The determination of whether the real property securing a loan is located within this Commonwealth shall be made as of the time the original agreement was made, and any subsequent substitutions of collateral shall be disregarded.

(d) Interest and fees or penalties in the nature of interest from loans not secured by real property shall be included in the numerator if the borrower is located in this Commonwealth.

(e) Net gains from the sale of loans shall be included in the numerator as provided in subparagraphs 1. and 2. of this paragraph. Net gains from the sale of loans includes income recorded under the coupon stripping rules of Section 1286 of the Internal Revenue Code.

1. The amount of net gains, but not less than zero (0), from the sale of loans secured by real property included in the numerator is determined by multiplying net gains by a fraction the numerator of which is the amount included in the numerator of the receipts factor pursuant to paragraph (c) of this subsection and the denominator of which is the total amount of interest and fees or penalties in the nature of interest from loans secured by real property.

2. The amount of net gains, but not less than zero (0), from the sale of loans not secured by real property included in the numerator is determined by multiplying net gains by a fraction the numerator of which is the amount included in the numerator of the receipts factor pursuant to paragraph (d) of this subsection and the denominator of which is the total amount of interest and fees or penalties in the nature of interest from loans not secured by real property.

(f) Interest and fees or penalties in the nature of interest from credit card receivables and receipts from fees charged to card holders, such as annual fees, shall be included in the numerator if the billing address of the card holder is in this Commonwealth.

(g) Net gains, but not less than zero (0), from the sale of credit card receivables to be included in the numerator shall be determined by multiplying the amount established in paragraph (g) of subsection (1) of this section by a fraction the numerator of which is the amount included in the numerator of the receipts factor pursuant to paragraph (f) of this subsection and the denominator of which is the financial institution's total amount of interest and fees or penalties in the nature of interest from credit card receivables and fees charged to card holders.

(h) Credit card issuer's reimbursement fees to be included in the numerator shall be determined by multiplying the amount established in paragraph (h) of subsection (1) of this section by a fraction the numerator of which is the amount included in the numerator of the receipts factor pursuant to paragraph (f) of this subsection and the denominator of which is the financial institution's total amount of interest and fees or penalties in the nature of interest from credit card receivables and fees charged to card holders.

(i) Receipts from merchant discount shall be included in the numerator if the commercial domicile of the merchant is in this Commonwealth. Receipts from merchant discount shall be computed net of any cardholder charge backs but shall not be reduced by any interchange transaction fees or by any issuer's reimbursement fees paid to another for charges made by its card holders.

(j) 1. a. Loan servicing fees derived from loans secured by real property to be included in the numerator shall be determined by multiplying the amount determined under paragraph (j) of subsection (1) of this section by a fraction the numerator of which is the amount included in the numerator of the receipts factor pursuant to paragraph (c) of this subsection and the denominator of which is the total amount of interest and fees or penalties in the nature of interest from loans secured by real property.

b. Loan servicing fees derived from loans not secured by real property to be included in the numerator shall be determined by multiplying the amount determined under paragraph (k) of subsection (1) of this section by a fraction the numerator of which is the amount included in the numerator of the receipts factor pursuant to paragraph (d) of this subsection and the denominator of which is the total amount of interest and fees or penalties in the nature of interest from loans not secured by real property.

2. In circumstances in which the financial institution receives loan servicing fees for servicing either the secured or the unsecured loans of another, the numerator of the receipts factor shall include the fees if the borrower is located in this Commonwealth.

(k) Receipts from services not otherwise apportioned under this section shall be included in the numerator if the service is performed in this Commonwealth. If the service is performed both within and without this Commonwealth, the numerator of the receipts factor includes receipts from services not otherwise apportioned under this section, if a greater proportion of the income-producing activity is performed in this Commonwealth based on cost of performance.

(l) 1. The numerator of the receipts factor includes interest, dividends, net gains, but not less than zero (0), and other income from investment assets and activities and from trading assets and activities described in paragraph (l) of subsection (1) of this section that are attributable to this Commonwealth.

a. The amount of interest, dividends, net gains, but not less than zero (0), and other income from investment assets and activities in the investment account to be attributed to this Commonwealth and included in the numerator is determined by multiplying all income from the assets and activities by a fraction the numerator of which is the average value of the assets that are properly assigned to a regular place of business of the financial institution within this Commonwealth and the denominator of which is the average value of all the assets.

b. The amount of interest from federal funds sold and purchased and from securities purchased under resale agreements and securities sold under repurchase agreements attributable to this Commonwealth and included in the numerator is determined by multiplying the amount described in subparagraph 1. of paragraph (l) of subsection (1) of this section from funds and securities by a fraction the numerator of which is the average value of federal funds sold and securities purchased under agreements to resell which are properly assigned to a regular place of business of the financial institution within this Commonwealth and the denominator of which is the average value of all funds and securities.

c. The amount of interest, dividends, gains, and other income from trading assets and activities, including but not limited to assets and activities in the matched book, in the arbitrage book, and foreign currency transactions, but excluding amounts described in subdivisions a. and b. of this subparagraph, attributable to this Commonwealth and included in the numerator is determined by multiplying the amount described in subparagraph 2. of paragraph (l) of subsection (1) of this section by a fraction the numerator of which is the average value of trading assets which are properly assigned to a regular place of business of the financial institution within this Commonwealth and the denominator of which is the average value of all assets.

d. For purposes of this subparagraph, average value shall be determined using the rules for determining the average value of tangible personal property set forth in KRS 136.535(3) and (4).

2. In lieu of using the method set forth in subparagraph 1. of this paragraph, the financial institution may elect, or the department[~~cabinet~~] may require in order to fairly represent the business activity of the financial institution in this Commonwealth, the use of the method set forth in this subparagraph.

a. The amount of interest, dividends, net gains, but not less than zero (0), and other income from investment assets and activities in the investment account to be attributed to this Commonwealth and included in the numerator is determined by multiplying all income from assets and activities by a fraction the numerator of which is the gross income from assets and activities which are properly assigned to a regular place of business of the financial institution within this Commonwealth and the denominator of which is the gross income from all assets and activities.

b. The amount of interest from federal funds sold and purchased and from securities purchased under resale agreements and securities sold under repurchase agreements attributable to this Commonwealth and included in the numerator is determined by multiplying the amount described in subparagraph 1. of paragraph (l) of subsection (1) of this section from funds and securities by a fraction the numerator of which is the gross income from funds and securities which are properly assigned to a regular place of business of the financial institution within this Commonwealth and the denominator of which is the gross income from all funds and securities.

c. The amount of interest, dividends, gains, and other income from trading assets and activities, including but not limited to assets and activities in the matched book, in the arbitrage book and foreign currency transactions, but excluding amounts described in subdivisions a. and b. of this subparagraph, attributable to this Commonwealth and included in the numerator is determined by multiplying the amount described in subparagraph 2. of paragraph (l) of subsection (1) of this section by a fraction the numerator of which is the gross income from trading assets and activities which are properly assigned to a regular place of business of the financial institution within this Commonwealth and the denominator of which is the gross income from all assets and activities.

3. If the financial institution elects or is required by the department~~[cabinet]~~ to use the method set forth in subparagraph 2. of this paragraph, it shall use this method on all subsequent returns unless the financial institution receives prior permission from the department~~[cabinet]~~ to use, or the department~~[cabinet]~~ requires, a different method.

4. The financial institution shall have the burden of proving that an investment asset or activity or trading asset or activity was properly assigned to a regular place of business outside this Commonwealth by demonstrating that the day-to-day decisions regarding the asset or activity occurred at a regular place of business outside this Commonwealth. Where the day-to-day decisions regarding an investment asset or activity or trading asset or activity occur at more than one (1) regular place of business and one (1) regular place of business is in this Commonwealth and one (1) regular place of business is outside this Commonwealth, the asset or activity shall be considered to be located at the regular place of business of the financial institution where the investment or trading policies or guidelines with respect to the asset or activity are established. Unless the financial institution demonstrates to the contrary, the policies and guidelines shall be presumed to be established at the commercial domicile of the financial institution.

(m) The numerator of the receipts factor includes all other receipts derived from sales as determined pursuant to the provisions set forth in KRS 136.070(3)(d)1., 2., and 3.

(n) 1. All receipts that would be assigned under this section to a state in which the financial institution is not taxable shall be included in the numerator of the receipts factor, if the financial institution's commercial domicile is in this Commonwealth.

2. For purposes of subparagraph 1. of this paragraph, "taxable" means either:

a. That a financial institution is subject in another state to a net income tax, a franchise tax measured by net income, a franchise tax for the privilege of doing business, a corporate stock tax including a bank shares tax, a single business tax, an earned surplus tax, or any tax which is imposed upon or measured by net income; or

b. That another state has statutory authority to subject the financial institution to any of the taxes in subdivision a. of this subparagraph, whether in fact the state does or does not impose the tax.

Section 330. KRS 136.535 is amended to read as follows:

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Administration" means the process of managing an account. The process includes bookkeeping, collecting the payments, corresponding with the customer, reporting to management regarding the status of the agreement and proceeding against the borrower or the security interest if the borrower is in default. The activity is located at the regular place of business that oversees this activity;

(b) "Approval" means the procedure whereby employees or the board of directors of the financial institution make the final determination whether to enter into the agreement. The activity is located at the regular place of business which the financial institution's employees making the final determination are regularly connected with or working out of, regardless of where the services of the employees were actually performed. If the board of directors makes the final determination, the activity is located at the commercial domicile of the financial institution;

(c) "Investigation" means the procedure whereby employees of the financial institution determine the credit worthiness of the customer as well as the degree of risk involved in making a particular agreement. The activity is located at the regular place of business which the financial institution's employees making the investigation are regularly connected with or working out of, regardless of where the services of the employees were actually performed;

(d) "Negotiation" means the procedure whereby employees of the financial institution and its customer determine the terms of the agreement, including the amount, duration, interest rate, frequency of repayment, currency denomination, and security required. The activity is located at the regular place of business which the financial institution's employees are regularly connected with or out of, regardless of where the services of the employees were actually performed;

(e) "Participation" means an extension of credit in which an undivided ownership interest is held on a pro rata basis in a single loan or pool of loans and related collateral. In a loan participation, the credit originator initially makes the loan and then subsequently resells all or a portion of it to other lenders. The participation may or may not be known to the borrower; and

(f) "Solicitation" occurs when:

1. An employee of the financial institution initiates contact with the customer. The activity is located at the regular place of business which the financial institution's employee making the contact is regularly connected with or working out of, regardless of where the services of the employee were actually performed; or

2. The customer initiates the contact with the financial institution. If the customer's initial contact was not at a regular place of business of the financial institution, the regular place of business, if any, where the solicitation occurred is determined by the facts in each case.

(2) The property factor is a fraction, the numerator of which is the average value of real property and tangible personal property rented to the financial institution that is located or used within this Commonwealth during the taxable year, the average value of the financial institution's real and tangible personal property owned that is located or used within this Commonwealth during the taxable year, and the average value of the financial institution's loans and credit card receivables that are located within this Commonwealth during the taxable year, and the denominator of which is the average value of all such property located or used within and without this Commonwealth during the taxable year. Average value of property is determined under subsection (4) of this section.

(3) (a) The value of real property and tangible personal property owned by the financial institution is the original cost or other basis of property for federal income tax purposes without regard to depletion, depreciation, or amortization.

(b) Loans are valued at their outstanding principal balance, without regard to any reserve for bad debts. If a loan is charged off in whole or in part for federal income tax purposes, the portion of the loan charged off is not outstanding. A specifically-allocated reserve established pursuant to regulatory or financial accounting guidelines which is treated as charged off for federal income tax purposes shall be treated as charged off for purposes of this section.

(c) Credit card receivables are valued at their outstanding principal balance, without regard to any reserve for bad debts. If a credit card receivable is charged off in whole or in part for federal income tax purposes, the portion of the receivable charged off is not outstanding.

(4) The average value of property owned by the financial institution is computed on an annual basis by adding the value of the property on the first day of the taxable year and the value on the last day of the taxable year and dividing the sum by two (2). If averaging on this basis does not properly reflect average value, the department[~~cabinet~~] may require averaging on a more frequent basis. The financial institution may request permission from the department[~~cabinet~~] to average on a more frequent basis. When averaging on a more frequent basis is authorized by the department[~~cabinet~~], the same method of valuation shall be used consistently by the financial institution with respect to property within and without this Commonwealth and on all subsequent returns unless the financial institution receives prior permission from the department[~~cabinet~~] or the department[~~cabinet~~] requires a different method of determining average value.

(5) (a) The average value of real property and tangible personal property that the financial institution has rented from another and which is not treated as property owned by the financial institution for federal income tax purposes shall be determined annually by multiplying the gross rents payable during the taxable year by eight (8).

(b) Where the use of the general method described in this subsection results in inaccurate valuations of rented property, any other method which properly reflects the value may be adopted by the department[~~cabinet~~] or by the financial institution when approved in writing by the department[~~cabinet~~]. Once approved, the alternative method of valuation shall be used on all subsequent returns unless the financial institution receives prior approval from the department[~~cabinet~~] or the department[~~cabinet~~] requires a different method of valuation.

(6) (a) Except as described in paragraph (b) of this subsection, real property and tangible personal property owned by or rented to the financial institution is considered to be located within this Commonwealth if it is physically located, situated, or used within this Commonwealth.

(b) Transportation property is included in the numerator of the property factor to the extent that the property is used in this Commonwealth. The extent to which an aircraft shall be deemed to be used in this Commonwealth and the amount of value that is to be included in the numerator of this Commonwealth's property factor is determined by multiplying the average value of the aircraft by a fraction the numerator of which is the number of landings of the aircraft in this Commonwealth and the denominator of which is the total number of landings of the aircraft everywhere. If the extent of the use of any transportation property within this Commonwealth cannot be determined, then the property shall be deemed to be used wholly in the state in which the property has its principal base of operations. A motor vehicle shall be deemed to be used wholly in the state in which it is registered.

(7) (a) 1. A loan is considered to be located within this Commonwealth if it is properly assigned to a regular place of business of the financial institution within this Commonwealth.

2. A loan is properly assigned to the regular place of business with which it has a preponderance of substantive contacts. A loan assigned by the financial institution to a regular place of business without the Commonwealth shall be presumed to have been properly assigned if:

a. The financial institution has assigned, in the regular course of its business, the loan on its records to a regular place of business consistent with federal or state regulatory requirements;

b. The assignment on its records is based upon substantive contacts of the loan to the regular place of business; and

c. The financial institution uses the records reflecting assignment of loans for the filing of all state and local tax returns for which an assignment of loans to a regular place of business is required.

3. The presumption of proper assignment of a loan provided in subparagraph 2. of this paragraph may be rebutted upon a showing by the department[~~cabinet~~], supported by a preponderance of the evidence, that the preponderance of substantive contacts regarding the loan did not occur at the regular place of business to which it was assigned on the financial institution's records. When the presumption has been rebutted, the loan shall then be located within this Commonwealth if the financial institution had a regular place of business within this Commonwealth at the time the loan was made and the financial institution fails to show, by a preponderance of the evidence, that the preponderance of substantive contacts regarding the loan occurred outside this Commonwealth.

(b) For financial institutions with commercial domicile in this Commonwealth as defined in KRS 136.500, it shall be presumed, subject to rebuttal by the financial institution on a showing supported by the preponderance of evidence, that the preponderance of substantive contacts regarding the loan occurred within this Commonwealth.

(c) To determine the state in which the preponderance of substantive contacts relating to a loan have occurred, the facts and circumstances regarding the loan at issue shall be reviewed on a case-by-case basis, and consideration shall be given to activities such as the solicitation, investigation, negotiation, approval, and administration of the loan as defined in subsection (1) of this section.

(8) Credit card receivables shall be treated as loans and shall be subject to the provisions of subsection (7) of this section.

(9) A loan that has been properly assigned to a state shall, absent any change of material fact, remain assigned to that state for the length of the original term of the loan. Thereafter, the loan may be properly assigned to another state if that loan has a preponderance of substantive contacts to a regular place of business there.

Section 331. KRS 136.545 is amended to read as follows:

(1) On or before the March 15 following each taxable year, a return for the preceding taxable year shall be filed with the department[~~cabinet~~] in the form and manner prescribed by the department[~~cabinet~~], together with payment of any tax due.

(2) A return shall be filed by each financial institution.

(3) The return shall show the amount of taxes for the period covered by the return and other information necessary for the proper administration of KRS 136.500 to 136.575.

(4) The department[~~cabinet~~] shall, upon written request received on or prior to the due date of the return and tax, grant an automatic extension of up to ninety (90) days for the filing of returns. An extension of time to file a return does not extend the payment of tax due, which shall be estimated by the financial institution and paid on or before the date specified in subsection (1) of this section.

(5) If the time for filing a return is extended, the financial institution shall pay, as part of the tax, an amount equal to the tax interest rate as defined in KRS 131.010(6) on the tax shown due on the return but not previously paid, from the time the tax was due until the return is actually filed with the department[~~cabinet~~].

Section 332. KRS 136.550 is amended to read as follows:

(1) As soon as practicable after each return is received, the department[~~cabinet~~] shall examine and audit it. If the amount of tax computed by the department[~~cabinet~~] is greater than the amount returned by the financial institution, the excess shall be assessed by the department[~~cabinet~~] within four (4) years from the date prescribed by law for the filing of a return including an extension of time for filing, except as provided in this subsection. A notice of the assessment shall be mailed to the financial institution.

(a) In the case of a failure to file a return or of a fraudulent return, the excess may be assessed at any time.

(b) In the case of a return wherein a financial institution understates its net capital or omits from net capital an amount properly includible therein or both, which understatement or omission or both is in excess of twenty-five percent (25%) of the amount of net capital stated in the return, the excess may be assessed at any time within six (6) years after the return was filed.

(2) For the purpose of subsection (1) of this section, a return filed before the last day prescribed by law for the filing shall be considered as filed on the last day. The times provided for in subsection (1) of this section may be extended by agreement between the financial institution and the department[~~cabinet~~].

Section 333. KRS 136.560 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Every financial institution shall keep records, receipts, invoices, and other pertinent papers in the form as the department[~~cabinet~~] may require.

(2) Every financial institution that files the returns required under KRS 136.545 shall keep records for not less than six (6) years from the making of records unless the department[~~cabinet~~] in writing authorizes their destruction at an earlier date.

(2) Every person required to report under subsection (1) of this section shall register as a transporter of crude petroleum in the office of the county clerk in each county in which such business is carried on by him, in a book which the department[~~cabinet~~] shall provide, showing the name, residence and place of business of the transporter. If the report shows that part of the crude petroleum reported has been sold and part remains unsold, the market price of the crude petroleum on the first business day after the tenth day of the month following the month covered by the report shall be fixed as the assessed value of the portion of the crude petroleum unsold, the market price of the crude petroleum on each day of sale shall be the assessed value of the portion sold, and the total amount of the tax to be reported as the assessment on the report shall be the total of the assessments made on the sold and unsold crude petroleum. The department[~~cabinet~~], in making its assessments, shall take into consideration transportation charges.

(3) The department[~~cabinet~~] shall, by the last day of the month in which the reports are required to be made, notify each transporter of his assessment, and certify the assessment to the county clerk of each county that has reported the levy of a county tax under KRS 137.150. (2) On or before December 31 in each year, each person engaged in the business of conducting a race track shall file a final report with the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] giving in summary form a recapitulation of the information furnished by the previous tentative reports filed during the year, computing the final license tax due the state for the year ending November 30 and showing the amount of tentative license tax actually paid during the year. Any balance of license tax due the state as shown on the final report shall be paid at the same time as the filing. Any overpayment in license tax disclosed by the final report shall, at the option of the taxpayer, be promptly refunded by the state or credited against the license tax to be due from the taxpayer in the following year.

(3) Any person who violates any provision of this section or KRS 137.170 shall be subject to the uniform civil penalties imposed pursuant to KRS 131.180 and interest at the tax interest rate as defined in KRS 131.010(6) upon the unpaid amount from the date prescribed for its payment until payment is actually made to the department[~~cabinet~~].

(1) The cigarette tax imposed by KRS 138.130 to 138.205 shall be due when any licensed wholesaler or unclassified acquirer takes possession within this state of untax-paid cigarettes.

(2) The tax shall be paid by the purchase of stamps by a resident wholesaler within forty-eight (48) hours after the cigarettes are received by him. A stamp shall be affixed to each package of an aggregate denomination not less than the amount of the tax upon the contents thereof. The stamp, so affixed, shall be prima facie evidence of payment of tax. Unless such stamps have been previously affixed, they shall be so affixed by each resident wholesaler prior to the delivery of any cigarettes to a retail location or any person in this state. The evidence of tax payment shall be affixed to each individual package of cigarettes by a nonresident wholesaler prior to the introduction or importation of the cigarettes into the territorial limits of this state. The department[~~cabinet~~] shall have the power to withhold compensation from any licensed wholesaler for failure to abide by any provisions of KRS 138.130 to 138.205 or any regulations promulgated thereunder. Any refund or credit for unused cigarette tax evidence shall be reduced by the amount allowed as compensation at the time of purchase.

(5) No tax evidence may be affixed, or used in any way, by any person other than the person purchasing such evidence from the department[~~cabinet~~]. Such tax evidence may not be transferred or negotiated, and may not, by any scheme or device, be given, bartered, sold, traded, or loaned to any other person. Unaffixed tax evidence may be returned to the department[~~cabinet~~] for credit or refund for any reason satisfactory to the department[~~cabinet~~].

Any such cigarettes shall be retained by such retailer, and not sold, for a period of fifteen (15) days after giving the notice provided in this subsection. The retailer may, at his option, pay the tax due on any such cigarettes according to rules and regulations to be prescribed by the department[~~cabinet~~], and proceed to sell the same after such payment.

(7) Cigarettes stamped with the cigarette tax evidence of another state shall at no time be commingled with cigarettes on which the Kentucky cigarette tax evidence has been affixed, but any licensed wholesaler, licensed sub-jobber, or licensed vending machine operator may hold cigarettes stamped with the tax evidence of another state for any period of time, subsection (2) of this section notwithstanding.

Section 345. KRS 138.155 is amended to read as follows:

In lieu of the affixing of cigarette tax evidence to individual packages of cigarettes as the means of denoting payment of the cigarette tax imposed by KRS 138.130 to 138.205, the department[~~cabinet~~] may prescribe, by rules and regulations sufficient to protect the revenue of this state, a method of reporting, payment and collection of such tax, without the affixing of tax evidence to individual packages of cigarettes. In the event such a system is adopted no compensation for reporting for the purpose of such tax in excess of two percent (2%) of the tax due shall be allowed to any person.

Section 346. KRS 138.165 is amended to read as follows:

(1) It is declared to be the legislative intent of KRS 138.130 to 138.205 that any untax-paid cigarettes held, owned, possessed, or in control of any person other than as provided in KRS 138.130 to 138.205 are contraband and subject to seizure and forfeiture as set out in this section.

(2) Whenever any peace officer of this state, or any representative of the department[~~cabinet~~], finds any untax-paid cigarettes within the borders of this state in the possession of any person other than a licensee authorized to possess untax-paid cigarettes by the provisions of KRS 138.130 to 138.205, such cigarettes shall be immediately seized and stored in a depository to be selected by the officer or agent. At the time of seizure, the officer or agent shall deliver to the person in whose custody the cigarettes are found a receipt for the cigarettes. The receipt shall state on its face that any inquiry concerning any goods seized shall be directed to the commissioner of the Department of Revenue[~~secretary of revenue~~], Frankfort, Kentucky. Immediately upon seizure, the officer or agent shall notify the commissioner of the Department of Revenue[~~secretary of revenue~~] of the nature and quantity of the goods seized. Any seized goods shall be held for a period of twenty (20) days and if after such period no person has claimed the cigarettes as his property, the commissioner[~~secretary~~] shall cause the same to be exposed to public sale to any person authorized to purchase untax-paid cigarettes. The sale shall be on notice published pursuant to KRS Chapter 424. All proceeds, less the cost of sale, from the sale shall be paid into the Kentucky State Treasury for general fund purposes.

(3) It is declared to be the legislative intent that any vending machine used for dispensing cigarettes on which Kentucky cigarette tax has not been paid is contraband and subject to seizure and forfeiture. In the event any peace officer or agent of the cabinet finds any vending machine within the borders of this state dispensing untax-paid cigarettes, he shall immediately seize the vending machine and store the same in a safe place selected by him. He shall thereafter proceed as provided in subsection (2) of this section and the commissioner of the Department of Revenue[~~secretary of revenue~~] shall cause the vending machine to be sold, and the proceeds applied, as set out in subsection (2) of this section.

(4) No cigarettes, on which the tax imposed by KRS 138.130 to 138.205 has not been paid, shall be transported within this state by any person other than a manufacturer or a person licensed under the provisions of KRS 138.195. It is declared to be the legislative intent that any motor vehicle used to transport any such cigarettes by other persons is contraband and subject to seizure and forfeiture. In the event any peace officer or agent of the department[~~cabinet~~] finds any such motor vehicle, he shall immediately seize the motor vehicle and store it in a safe place specified by him. He shall thereafter proceed as provided in subsection (2) of this section and the commissioner of the Department of Revenue[~~secretary of revenue~~] shall cause the motor vehicle to be sold, and the proceeds applied, as set out in subsection (2) of this section.

(5) The owner or any person having an interest in any goods, machines or vehicles seized as provided under subsections (1) to (4) of this section may apply to the commissioner of the Department of Revenue[~~secretary of revenue~~] for remission of the forfeiture for good cause shown. If it is shown to the satisfaction of the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] that the owner was without fault in the possession, dispensing or transportation of the untax-paid cigarettes, he shall remit the forfeiture. In the event he determines that the possession, dispensing or transportation of untax-paid cigarettes was willful or intentional he may nevertheless remit the forfeiture on condition that the owner pay a penalty to be prescribed by him of not more than fifty percent (50%) of the value of the thing forfeited. All taxes due on untax-paid cigarettes shall be paid in addition to the penalty, if any.

(6) Any party aggrieved by an order entered hereunder may appeal to the Kentucky Board of Tax Appeals in the manner provided by law.

Section 347. KRS 138.195 is amended to read as follows:

(1) No person other than a manufacturer shall acquire cigarettes in this state on which the Kentucky cigarette tax has not been paid, nor act as a resident wholesaler, nonresident wholesaler, vending machine operator, sub-jobber, transporter or unclassified acquirer of such cigarettes without first obtaining a license from the department[~~cabinet~~] as set out in this section.

(2) Each resident wholesaler shall secure a separate license for each place of business at which cigarette tax evidence is affixed or at which cigarettes on which the Kentucky cigarette tax has not been paid are received. Each nonresident wholesaler shall secure a separate license for each place of business at which evidence of Kentucky cigarette tax is affixed or from where Kentucky cigarette tax is reported and paid. Such a license or licenses shall be secured on or before July 1 of each year, and each licensee shall pay the sum of five hundred dollars ($500) for each such year or portion thereof for which such license is secured.

(3) Each sub-jobber shall secure a separate license for each place of business from which Kentucky tax-paid cigarettes are made available to retailers, whether such place of business is located within or without this state. Such license or licenses shall be secured on or before July 1 of each year, and each licensee shall pay the sum of five hundred dollars ($500) for each such year or portion thereof for which such license is secured.

(4) Each vending machine operator shall secure a license for the privilege of dispensing Kentucky tax-paid cigarettes by vending machines. Such license shall be secured on or before July 1 of each year, and each licensee shall pay the sum of twenty-five dollars ($25) for each year or portion thereof for which such license is secured. No vending machine shall be operated within this Commonwealth without having prominently affixed thereto the name of its operator, together with the license number assigned to such operator by the department[~~cabinet~~]. The department[~~cabinet~~] shall prescribe by regulation the manner in which the information shall be affixed to the vending machine.

(5) Each transporter shall secure a license for the privilege of transporting cigarettes within this state. Such license shall be secured on or before July 1 of each year, and each licensee shall pay the sum of fifty dollars ($50) for each such year or portion thereof for which such license is secured. No transporter shall transport any cigarettes without having in actual possession an invoice or bill of lading therefor, showing the name and address of the consignor and consignee, the date acquired by the transporter, the name and address of the transporter, the quantity of cigarettes being transported, together with the license number assigned to such transporter by the department[~~cabinet~~].

(6) Each unclassified acquirer shall secure a license for the privilege of acquiring cigarettes on which the Kentucky cigarette tax has not been paid. Such license shall be secured on or before July 1 of each year, and each licensee shall pay the sum of fifty dollars ($50) for each such year or portion thereof for which such license is secured.

(7) Nothing in KRS 138.130 to 138.205 shall be construed to prevent the department[~~cabinet~~] from requiring a person to purchase more than one (1) license if the nature of such person's business is so diversified as to justify such requirement.

(8) The department[~~cabinet~~] may by regulation require any person licensed under the provisions of this section to supply such information concerning his business, sales or any privilege exercised, as is deemed reasonably necessary for the regulation of such licensees, and to protect the revenues of the state. Failure on the part of such licensee to comply with the provisions of KRS 138.130 to 138.205 or any regulations promulgated thereunder, or to permit an inspection of premises, machines or vehicles by an authorized agent of the department[~~cabinet~~] at any reasonable time shall be grounds for the revocation of any license issued by the department[~~cabinet~~], after due notice and a hearing by the department[~~cabinet~~]. The commissioner of the Department of Revenue[~~secretary of revenue~~] may assign a time and place for such hearing and may appoint a conferee who shall conduct a hearing, receive evidence and hear arguments. Such conferee shall thereupon file a report with the commissioner[~~secretary~~] together with a recommendation as to the revocation of such license. From any revocation made by the commissioner of the Department of Revenue[~~secretary of revenue~~] on such report, the licensee may prosecute an appeal to the Kentucky Board of Tax Appeals as provided by law. Any person whose license has been revoked for the willful violation of any provision of KRS 138.130 to 138.205 shall not be entitled to any license provided for in this section, or have any interest in any such license, either disclosed or undisclosed, either as an individual, partnership, corporation or otherwise, for a period of one (1) year after such revocation.

(9) No license issued pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be transferable or negotiable except that a license may be transferred between an individual and a corporation, if that individual is the exclusive owner of that corporation, or between a subsidiary corporation and its parent corporation.

(10) Every manufacturer located or doing business in this state shall keep written records of all shipments of cigarettes to persons within this state, and shall submit reports of such shipments as the department[~~cabinet~~] may require by regulation.

(11) No person licensed under this section except nonresident wholesalers shall either sell to or purchase from any other such licensee untax-paid cigarettes.

Section 348. KRS 138.205 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Any licensee under KRS 138.195 who violates any provision of KRS 138.130 to 138.205, or any administrative regulation promulgated under them, shall become indebted to the Commonwealth in the sum of five hundred dollars ($500) for each violation. (1) An excise tax at the rate of nine percent (9%) of the average wholesale price rounded to the third decimal when computed on a per gallon basis shall be paid on all gasoline and special fuel received in this state. Except as provided by KRS Chapter 138, no other excise or license tax shall be levied or assessed on gasoline or special fuel by the state or any political subdivision of the state. The tax herein imposed shall be paid by the dealer receiving the gasoline or special fuel to the State Treasurer in the manner and within the time specified in KRS 138.230 to 138.340 and all such tax may be added to the selling price charged by the dealer or other person paying the tax on gasoline or special fuel sold in this state. Nothing herein contained shall authorize or require the collection of the tax upon any gasoline or special fuel after it has been once taxed under the provisions of this section, unless such tax was refunded or credited.

(2) In addition to the excise tax provided in subsection (1) of this section, there is hereby levied a supplemental highway user motor fuel tax to be paid in the same manner and at the same time as the tax provided in subsection (1) of this section. Such tax shall be calculated, starting with the quarter beginning July 1, 1986, by taking the excise tax resulting from the calculation provided for in subsection (1) of this section and adjusting such tax calculated, for each quarter, to reflect decreases in the average wholesale price, as defined in KRS 138.210(10)(a). The adjustment shall be made by calculating the difference between the average wholesale price computed for the quarter beginning October 1, 1985, as provided for in subsection (3) of this section, and the average wholesale price computed for the quarter beginning July 1, 1986 and each succeeding quarter, as provided for in subsection (3) of this section. In the event of a decrease in the average wholesale price computed for the quarter beginning October 1, 1985, and ending December 31, 1985, and the average wholesale price computed for the quarter beginning July 1, 1986, and each succeeding quarter, the excise tax shall be adjusted upward for that quarter. The upward adjustment shall equal one-half (1/2) of the decrease between the two (2) quarterly periods, rounded to the third decimal. In no case shall the adjustment provided by this subsection result in a supplemental highway user motor fuel tax greater than five cents ($0.05) on gasoline or two cents ($0.02) on special fuel and, notwithstanding any adjustment which may be calculated as provided by this subsection, in no case shall the supplemental highway user motor fuel tax for any quarter be less than the previous quarter. The supplemental highway user motor fuel tax provided by this subsection and the provisions of subsection (1) of this section shall constitute the tax on motor fuels imposed by KRS 138.220.

(3) Effective with the calendar quarter beginning July 1, 1980, the department[~~cabinet~~] shall determine on a consistent basis the average wholesale price for each calendar quarter, on the basis of sales data accumulated for the first month of the preceding quarter. Notification of the average wholesale price shall be given to all licensed dealers at least twenty (20) days in advance of the first day of each calendar quarter.

(4) Dealers with a tax-paid gasoline or special fuel inventory at the time an average wholesale price becomes effective, shall be subject to additional tax or appropriate tax credit to reflect the increase or decrease in the average wholesale price for the new quarter. The department[~~cabinet~~] shall promulgate such rules and regulations to properly administer this provision.

Section 352. KRS 138.224 is amended to read as follows:

It shall be presumed that all untaxed motor fuels are subject to the tax levied under KRS 138.220 unless the contrary is established pursuant to KRS 138.210 to 138.500 or administrative regulations promulgated thereunder by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~]. The tax shall be paid by the licensed dealer to the department[~~cabinet~~]. Any dealer or other person who imports, causes to be imported, receives, uses, sells, stores, or possesses untaxed motor fuels but fails to comply with all statutory and regulatory restrictions applicable to the fuel shall be jointly and severally liable for payment of the tax due on the fuel. The remaining gasoline and special fuel placed in storage must be fully accounted for as in physical inventory, accountable loss, withdrawn for export or withdrawn from storage and received for taxable purposes.

(7) All licenses shall be valid and remain in full force and effect until suspended or revoked for cause or otherwise canceled.

Section 363. KRS 138.321 is amended to read as follows:

Any gasoline dealer or special fuels dealer having a license revoked for the violation of any of the provisions contained in KRS Chapter 138 may, within the discretion of the department[~~cabinet~~], be denied the issuance of a gasoline dealer or special fuels dealer license, and any such licensee shall not have an interest in any such license, either disclosed or undisclosed, whether as an individual, partnership, corporation or otherwise.

Section 364. KRS 138.330 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Every dealer or transporter required to be licensed under KRS 138.310 shall file with the Department of Revenue[~~Cabinet~~] a financial instrument in an amount not to exceed three (3) months' estimated liability as computed by the department[~~cabinet~~] or five thousand dollars ($5,000) whichever is greater, or in the case of a new licensee in the minimum amount of five thousand dollars ($5,000) until such time as an estimated three (3) months' liability can be established, provided that the maximum amount of any financial instrument may be reduced to an amount sufficient in the opinion of the department[~~cabinet~~], considering the financial rating and reputation of the company, to insure payment to the department[~~cabinet~~] of the amount of tax, penalties and interest for which the dealer or transporter may become liable. The financial instrument shall be on a form and with a surety approved by the department[~~cabinet~~]. The dealer or transporter shall be the principal obligor and the state the obligee. The financial instrument shall be conditioned upon the prompt filing of true reports by the dealer and transporter and the payment by the dealer to the State Treasurer of all gasoline and special fuel excise taxes now or hereafter imposed by the state, together with all penalties and interest thereon, and generally upon faithful compliance with the provisions of KRS 138.210 to 138.340.

(2) If liability upon the financial instrument is discharged or reduced, whether by judgment rendered, payment made, or otherwise, or if in the opinion of the department[~~cabinet~~] any surety on the financial instrument has become unsatisfactory or unacceptable, the department[~~cabinet~~] may require the licensee to file a new financial instrument with satisfactory sureties in the same amount, failing which the department[~~cabinet~~] shall cancel the license of the licensee in accordance with the provisions of KRS 138.340. If a new financial instrument is furnished as provided above, the department[~~cabinet~~] shall cancel and surrender the financial instrument for which the new financial instrument is substituted.

(3) If upon hearing, of which the licensee shall be given five (5) days' notice in writing, the department[~~cabinet~~] decides that the amount of the existing financial instrument is insufficient to insure payment to the state of the amount of tax, penalties, and interest for which the licensee is or may become liable, the licensee shall, upon the written demand of the department[~~cabinet~~], file an additional financial instrument in the same manner and form with a surety thereon approved by the department[~~cabinet~~], in any amount determined by the department[~~cabinet~~] to be necessary, failing which the department[~~cabinet~~] shall cancel the license of the licensee in accordance with the provisions of KRS 138.340.

(4) Any surety on a financial instrument furnished as required by this section shall be released from all liability to the state accruing on the financial instrument after the expiration of sixty (60) days from the date upon which the surety has lodged with the cabinet a written request to be released, but this request shall not operate to release the surety from any liability already accrued or which shall accrue before the expiration of the sixty (60) day period. The department[~~cabinet~~] shall promptly, upon receipt of a request, notify the licensee who furnished the financial instrument, and unless the licensee, before the expiration of the sixty (60) day period, files with the department[~~cabinet~~] a new financial instrument with a surety satisfactory to the department[~~cabinet~~] in the amount and form prescribed in this section, the department[~~cabinet~~] shall cancel the license of the licensee in accordance with the provisions of KRS 138.340. If an approved new financial instrument is filed, the department[~~cabinet~~] shall cancel and surrender the financial instrument for which the new bond is substituted.

Section 365. KRS 138.340 is amended to read as follows:

(1) If any dealer or transporter required to be licensed under KRS 138.310 files a false report of the data or information required by KRS 138.210 to 138.280, or fails, refuses or neglects to file the reports required by those sections, even though no tax is due, or to pay the full amount of tax as required by those sections, or fails to meet the qualifications of a dealer as set out in KRS 138.210(2), or violates any other provision of this chapter, the license of the dealer or transporter may be revoked by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~]. The licensee shall be notified by certified or registered letter or summons. The letter or summons shall apprise the licensee of the charge or charges made against him and he shall have a reasonable opportunity to be heard before his license may be revoked. The summons may be served in the same manner and by the same officers or persons as provided by the Rules of Civil Procedure, or it may be served in that manner by an employee of the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~]. The hearing shall be set at least five (5) days after the summons is served or the letter delivered. Any aggrieved licensee may appeal from an order of revocation by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] to the Kentucky Board of Tax Appeals as provided by law, subject to the condition that the licensee has made bond sufficient in the opinion of the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] to protect the Commonwealth from loss of revenue.

(2) The department[~~cabinet~~] may cancel the license:

(a) Upon request in writing from the licensee, the cancellation to become effective sixty (60) days from the date of receipt of the request; or

(b) Upon determination that the licensee has had no reportable activity in Kentucky for at least the immediately preceding six (6) consecutive monthly reporting periods.

Section 366. KRS 138.341 is amended to read as follows:

(1) When gasoline or special fuel on which the tax has been paid pursuant to the provisions of KRS 138.210 to 138.340 has been used for the purpose of operating any aircraft engaged in the transportation of persons or property, the purchaser of the liquid fuel so used shall be reimbursed for the tax paid. No tax shall be refunded except that paid upon the fuel used exclusively in aircraft motors.

(2) No person shall be entitled to a refund hereunder unless he shall have first filed with the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] a bond with approved surety in an amount of not less than one hundred dollars ($100) nor more than one thousand dollars ($1,000) to be determined by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~], conditioned upon faithful compliance with this section and KRS 138.342 and upon the payment to the Commonwealth of any refunds to which he was not entitled.

(3) The right to receive any refund pursuant to subsection (1) of this section shall be assignable by the purchaser to the seller of the gasoline or special fuel if the seller has posted a bond with the department[~~cabinet~~] and the aviation gasoline or special fuel purchased by the assignor is delivered directly into the fuel tank of aircraft owned or operated by him or his authorized agent. Any assignment shall be evidenced by noting upon the face and all copies of the retail sale invoice the following: "TAX REFUND ASSIGNED TO SELLER. Signed: (Purchaser or Agent.)"

Section 367. KRS 138.342 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Applications for refund pursuant to KRS 138.341 shall be made to the department[~~cabinet~~] on a calendar quarter or calendar year basis on forms and in the manner prescribed by it for the refund of tax paid on aviation motor fuel used during the calendar quarter or calendar year. Each application for a refund shall show the number of gallons of aviation motor fuel purchased during the preceding month; the date and quantity of each purchase; the vendor from whom the fuel was purchased; the number of gallons on which refund is claimed; and other information the department[~~cabinet~~] may require.

(2) The department[~~cabinet~~] shall audit the application and make other investigation it deems necessary to determine whether it constitutes a proper claim. When the department[~~cabinet~~] is satisfied that a refund is proper, it shall authorize the tax paid to be refunded as other refunds are made and the amount refunded shall be deducted from current motor fuel tax receipts. The tax shall be refunded with interest at the tax interest rate as defined in KRS 131.010(6).

(3) When the department[~~cabinet~~] finds that an application for a refund contains a false or fraudulent statement or that a refund has been fraudulently obtained, the department[~~cabinet~~] shall refuse to grant any refunds to the person making the false or fraudulent statement or fraudulently obtaining a refund for a period of two (2) years from the date of the finding.

Section 368. KRS 138.344 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Except as otherwise provided in KRS 138.220 to 138.500, any person who shall purchase gasoline or special fuel, on which the tax as imposed by KRS 138.220 has been paid, for the purpose of operating or propelling stationary engines or tractors for agricultural purposes, or who shall purchase special fuels, on which the tax as imposed by KRS 138.220 has been paid, for consumption in unlicensed vehicles or equipment for nonhighway purposes shall be reimbursed for the tax so paid on the gasoline or special fuel. No refund shall be authorized unless applications and all necessary information are filed with the department[~~cabinet~~] on a calendar quarter or calendar year basis on forms and in the manner prescribed by it for refund of the tax paid on the fuel. In lieu of the tax refund procedure, the tax on special fuels and the tax on gasoline used for the purpose of operating or propelling stationary engines or tractors for agricultural purposes may be credited by the dealer to the purchaser as provided in KRS 138.358. The dealer and the purchases shall be subject to the same rules, conditions, and responsibilities as provided in KRS 138.344 to 138.355. Section 369. KRS 138.345 is amended to read as follows:

No person shall secure a refund of tax under KRS 138.344 unless the person is the holder of an unrevoked refund permit issued by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] before the purchase of the gasoline or special fuel, which permit shall entitle the person to make application for a refund under KRS 138.344 to 138.355. To procure a permit, every person shall file with the department[~~cabinet~~] an application under oath, on forms furnished by the department[~~cabinet~~], setting forth the information incident to the refunding of the tax paid on gasoline or special fuel as the department[~~cabinet~~] may require. The properly completed and signed application shall be filed with the department[~~cabinet~~] on or before the date the permit, if approved by the department[~~cabinet~~], is to become effective.

(2) Every person to whom a refund permit has been issued under KRS 138.345 shall, in accordance with the department's[~~cabinet's~~] requirements, keep at his residence or principal place of business in this state a record of each purchase of gasoline and special fuel from a licensed dealer or the dealer's authorized agent, the number of gallons purchased, the name of the seller, and the date of purchase.

(3) The records required to be kept under subsections (1) and (2) of this section shall at all reasonable hours be subject to inspection by the department[~~cabinet~~] or by any person duly authorized by it. Such records shall be preserved and shall not be destroyed until five (5) years after the date the gasoline and special fuel to which they relate was sold and purchased.

Section 372. KRS 138.348 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The department[~~cabinet~~] may require any dealer or any dealer's authorized agent to identify refund gasoline or special fuel sold by him by adding thereto any chemical or substance, which shall be furnished by the cabinet and used in the manner as prescribed by the department[~~cabinet~~].

(2) The refund permit holder shall receive and store all the gasoline and special fuel in containers plainly marked with distinguishing letters "Refund Motor Fuel," or comparable letters prescribed by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~], and shall keep the containers on his premises accessible to agents of the department[~~cabinet~~] and separate from other gasoline and special fuel stored on his premises.

(3) The Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] may, within its discretion, issue a refund permit for a portable storage facility if the applicant satisfies the cabinet that the facility will be used exclusively for the purpose of fueling unlicensed vehicles or equipment at multiple locations for nonhighway purposes, and fueling the vehicles or equipment from a nonportable facility would not be practical.

(4) Every refund permit holder who uses on the public highways motor fuel of the type for which refund is claimed shall keep detailed records of all the motor fuel acquired, monthly odometer readings of all licensed motor vehicles owned or operated by the holder which use the fuel, and other records the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] may, in writing, require to protect the revenues of the Commonwealth.

(5) Agents of the department[~~cabinet~~] may go upon the premises of any permit holder or of any licensed gasoline or special fuel dealer or his authorized agent to make inspections to ascertain any matter connected with the operation of KRS

138.344 to 138.355 or the enforcement thereof. No agent shall enter the dwelling of any person without the occupant's consent or the authority from a court of competent jurisdiction.

Section 373. KRS 138.351 is amended to read as follows:

The original gasoline or special fuel refund invoice shall be given to the purchaser, and the duplicate shall be retained by the seller.

(2) The refund permit holder shall file with the department[~~cabinet~~] an application for refund on forms furnished by the department[~~cabinet~~], stating the quantity of gasoline and special fuel used for the purposes as set out in KRS 138.344. The application shall be accompanied by the original invoice, or certified copy thereof, showing the purchase, and, if required by the department[~~cabinet~~], evidence of payment therefor. When the department[~~cabinet~~] is satisfied that a refund is proper, it shall authorize the tax paid to be refunded as other refunds are made; and the amount refunded shall be deducted from gasoline or special fuel tax receipts as appropriate.

(3) The right to receive any refund under the provisions of this section shall not be assignable, except to the executor or administrator, or to the receiver, trustee in bankruptcy, or assignee in insolvency proceedings of the person entitled thereto.

(4) Interest on refunds authorized under the provisions of this section shall be paid at the tax interest rate, as defined in KRS 131.010(6), and shall begin to accrue sixty (60) days after the postmark date of the application for refund.

Section 375. KRS 138.354 is amended to read as follows:

(1) No person shall make a false or fraudulent statement in an application for a refund permit or in a gasoline or special fuel refund invoice, or in an application for a refund of any taxes as set out in KRS 138.344 to 138.355; or fraudulently obtain a refund of such taxes; or knowingly aid or assist in making any such false or fraudulent statement or claim; or having bought gasoline or special fuel under the provisions of KRS 138.344 to 138.355, shall use or permit such gasoline or special fuel or any part thereof to be used for any purpose other than as provided in KRS 138.344.

(4) If a dealer violates any provision of KRS 138.344 to 138.355, his privilege to sign refund invoices may be suspended by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] for a period of not more than two (2) years subject to appeal to the Kentucky Board of Tax Appeals. No refund shall be made on gasoline or special fuel purchased from a dealer while a suspension of his privilege to sign refund invoices is in effect.

Section 376. KRS 138.355 is amended to read as follows:

If the department[~~cabinet~~] reasonably believes that any dealer or refund permit holder has been guilty of a violation of KRS 138.344 to 138.355, which would subject the dealer or permit holder to a suspension or revocation of his license or permit under the provisions of subsections (2), (3) or (4) of KRS 138.354, said dealer or permit holder may be cited by the department[~~cabinet~~] to show cause at a public hearing before the Department of Revenue[~~ cabinet~~] why his license or permit should not be suspended or revoked. The dealer or refund permit holder shall be notified by certified or registered letter. The letter shall inform the dealer or refund permit holder of the charge or charges made against him and he shall have a reasonable opportunity to be heard before his license or permit may be revoked or suspended. The Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] may require dealers claiming the credit authorized herein to submit information required by the department[~~cabinet~~] to reasonably protect the revenues of the Commonwealth.

No tax shall be refunded except that paid upon the fuel used exclusively in watercraft motors; and

(b) No person shall be entitled to a refund hereunder unless he shall have first filed with the department[~~cabinet~~] a bond with approved surety in the amount of not less than one hundred dollars ($100) nor more than one thousand dollars ($1,000) to be determined by the department[~~cabinet~~] and upon the payment to the Commonwealth of any refunds to which he was not entitled.

3. Agreeing to initiate an Automated Clearing House credit transaction to electronically transfer the amount of tax from the dealer's account to the Kentucky State Treasurer on the twenty-fifth day of that month.

For the purpose of this paragraph, a "financial instrument" means a bond issued by a corporation authorized to do business in Kentucky, a line of credit, or an account with a financial institution maintaining a compensating balance.

(b) If a dealer fails to certify the amount of tax collected or does not perform the electronic fund transfer prescribed by paragraph (a) of this subsection, the department[~~cabinet~~] may immediately make demand of the financial instrument and revoke the license of the dealer notwithstanding the provisions of KRS 138.340, and the provisions of this section shall apply.

(2) The tax shall be collected by the county clerk or other officer with whom the vehicle is required to be registered:

(a) When he collects the registration fee for registering and licensing a motor vehicle the first time it is offered for registration in this state;

(b) Or upon the transfer of ownership of any motor vehicle previously registered in this state.

(3) The tax collected by the county clerk under this section shall be reported and remitted to the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] on forms provided by the department[~~cabinet~~] and on those forms as the department[~~cabinet~~] may prescribe. The department[~~cabinet~~] shall provide each county clerk affidavit forms which the clerk shall provide to the public free of charge to carry out the provisions of KRS 138.450. (4) A county clerk or other officer shall not register or issue any license tags to the owner of any motor vehicle subject to this tax, when the vehicle is then being offered for registration for the first time, or transfer the ownership of any motor vehicle previously registered in this state, unless the owner or his agent pays the tax levied under this section in addition to the transfer, registration, and license fees.

(5) When a person offers a motor vehicle for registration for the first time in this state which was registered in another state that levied a tax substantially identical to the tax levied under this section, the person shall be entitled to receive a credit against the tax imposed by this section equal to the amount of tax paid to the other state. A credit shall not be given under this subsection for taxes paid in another state if that state does not grant similar credit for substantially identical taxes paid in this state.

(6) A county clerk or other officer shall not register or issue any license tags to the owner of any motor vehicle subject to this tax, when the vehicle is then being offered for registration for the first time, unless the seller or his agent delivers to the county clerk a notarized affidavit, if required, and available under KRS 138.450 attesting to the total and actual consideration paid or to be paid for the motor vehicle. (8) Where a motor vehicle is sold by a dealer in this state and the purchaser returns the vehicle for any reason to the same dealer within sixty (60) days for a vehicle replacement or a refund of the purchase price, the purchaser shall be entitled to a refund of the amount of usage tax received by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] as a result of the registration of the returned vehicle. In the case of a new motor vehicle, the registration of the returned vehicle shall be canceled and the vehicle shall be considered to have not been previously registered in Kentucky when resold by the dealer.

A person shall not be entitled to a refund unless he shall have filed with the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] a report from the manufacturer identifying the vehicle that was replaced and stating the date of replacement.

(10) Notwithstanding the time limitations of subsections (8) and (9) of this section, when a dealer or manufacturer refunds the retail purchase price or replaces a motor vehicle for the purchaser as a result of formal arbitration or litigation, or, in the case of a manufacturer, because ordered to do so by a dispute resolution system established under KRS 367.865 or 16 C.F.R. 703, the purchaser shall be entitled to a refund of the amount of motor vehicle usage tax received by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] as a result of the registration. A person shall not be entitled to a refund unless he shall have filed with the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] a report from the dealer or manufacturer identifying the vehicle that was replaced.

(5) Failure of a motor vehicle dealer to remit the taxes applicable to a loaner or rental motor vehicle under this section shall be sufficient cause for the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] to revoke the authority to use that motor vehicle as a loaner or rental motor vehicle and cause the usage tax on that motor vehicle to be due and payable in accordance with KRS 138.460 on the retail price of that motor vehicle when it was first registered as a loaner or rental motor vehicle.

(6) A motor vehicle no longer covered under the loaner permit program shall be taxed in the same manner as motor vehicles under KRS 138.450(12).

The Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] shall adopt a uniform system for providing, affixing, and displaying tax stamps, labels, or other tax indicia required pursuant to KRS 138.874. Payments required by KRS 138.872 shall be made to the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] in the form the Department of Revenue[

The weight or dosage units prescribed in this subsection shall include the weight of the marijuana or the weight or dosage units of the controlled substance, whether pure, impure, or diluted. The notice required in this subsection shall be submitted in the manner prescribed by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] and shall include:

(a) The name, address, and Social Security number of the offender from whom the conviction or plea was obtained;

(b) The type and quantity of the items that were the subject of the conviction or plea;

(c) Any information developed during the course of the investigation regarding any real or personal properties owned by the offender from whom the conviction or plea was obtained; and

(b) The county clerk of the county in which the offender resides if different from the county in which the conviction or plea was entered;

(3) The notice required by subsection (2) of this section shall be a lien in favor of the Commonwealth pursuant to KRS 134.420 to secure payment of the tax, penalty, and interest due. The tax shall be and remain a lien upon the property, and all property subsequently acquired, and may be enforced as other liens on similar property are enforced. The lien may be released only upon written notice from the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] that:

(a) The tax, penalty and interest due pursuant to KRS 138.872 and 138.889 have been paid;

(b) A bond has been given to the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] as provided in KRS 131.150; or

(4) The county clerk recording or releasing a state tax lien pursuant to this section shall be entitled to the fee prescribed therefor by KRS 64.012.

(5) Except as necessary to accept taxes that the offender voluntarily pays under KRS 138.874, the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] shall not require a bond or otherwise attempt to collect the tax due under KRS 138.874 until the offender's taxable activity results in a conviction or a guilty or Alford plea for a violation of KRS Chapter 218A. However, the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] may impose a notice of lien on issuance of a warrant or indictment, which shall be released upon acquittal or dismissal of the case.

Section 400. KRS 138.882 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The tax, penalty, and interest assessed by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] pursuant to KRS 138.872 and 138.889 shall be deemed prima facie valid and correctly determined and assessed. The burden shall be upon the taxpayer in any judicial or administrative proceeding in this state to show their incorrectness or invalidity.

(2) The collection provisions of KRS 131.500, and any other remedy provided by the laws of the Commonwealth for collection of a tax administered by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~], shall apply with respect to the collection of the tax, penalty, and interest imposed by KRS 138.872 and 138.889, but it shall not be necessary for the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] to await the expiration of the times specified in KRS 131.500 to levy upon and sell any property or rights to property found within the Commonwealth belonging to the offender failing to pay the tax, penalty, or interest due pursuant to KRS 138.872 and 138.889.

(3) No person shall bring an action in any court to restrain or delay the assessment or collection of any tax, penalty, or interest imposed by KRS 138.872 and 138.889.

with any distribution of property or funds under the drug forfeiture laws of this state. Regardless of the order in which proceedings are begun, forfeiture of money or any other type or kind of property and distribution of property and funds under the drug forfeiture laws of this state shall take precedence over any proceedings to collect the tax, penalty, or interest due pursuant to KRS 138.872 and 138.889.

For the purpose of determining the correctness of any return; determining the amount of tax that should have been paid; determining whether or not the offender should have made a return or paid tax; or collecting any tax, penalty, or interest under KRS 138.872 and 138.889, the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] may examine, or cause to be examined, any books, papers, records, or memoranda that may be relevant to making any determinations, whether the books, papers, records, or memoranda are the property of or in the possession of the offender or another person. The Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] may require the attendance of any person having knowledge or information that may be relevant; compel the production of books, papers, records, or memoranda by persons required to attend; take testimony on matters material to the determination; and administer oaths or affirmations. The Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] may issue subpoenas which may be served by authorized agents of the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] to compel the attendance of witnesses or the production of documents, books, papers, records, bank records, and any other writing or memoranda.

(1) The provisions of KRS 138.870 to 138.889 shall not inculpate any person or otherwise cause any person to incriminate himself in violation of his constitutional rights and, notwithstanding the exceptions provided in KRS 131.190 or any other law, neither the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] nor any public employee may reveal facts contained in any report required by KRS 138.870 to 138.889, nor shall any information contained in any report filed pursuant to KRS 138.870 to 138.889 be used against an offender in any criminal proceeding, except in connection with a proceeding involving the tax, penalty, or interest due under KRS 138.872 and 138.889, unless the information is independently obtained. Further, possession of any tax stamp, label, or other tax indicia evidencing payment of tax pursuant to KRS 138.874 shall not be used against any person in any criminal proceeding.

Section 404. KRS 139.025 is amended to read as follows:

The Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] may promulgate administrative regulations providing for the reporting of gross receipts and payment of taxes levied by this chapter on a basis other than accrual.

Section 405. KRS 139.110 is amended to read as follows:

(1) "Retailer" means:

(a) Every person engaged in the business of making retail sales or furnishing any services included in KRS 139.200;

(d) Any person conducting a race meeting under the provision of KRS Chapter 230, with respect to horses which are claimed during the meeting.

(2) When the department[~~cabinet~~] determines that it is necessary for the efficient administration of this chapter to regard any salesmen, representatives, peddlers, or canvassers as the agents of the dealers, distributors, supervisors or employers under whom they operate or from whom they obtain the tangible personal property sold by them, irrespective of whether they are making sales on their own behalf or on behalf of the dealers, distributors, supervisors or employers, the department[~~cabinet~~] may so regard them and may regard the dealers, distributors, supervisors or employers as retailers for purposes of this chapter.

Section 406. KRS 139.180 is amended to read as follows:

"Taxpayer" means any person liable for tax under this chapter; "department"[~~"cabinet"~~] means the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~].

Section 407. KRS 139.210 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, the tax shall be required to be collected by the retailer from the purchaser. If the taxable goods are bundled with services and are sold as a single package for one (1) price, the tax required to be collected by the retailer from the purchaser shall be computed on the entire amount. The tax shall be displayed separately from the sales price, the price advertised in the premises, the marked price, or other price on the sales receipt or other proof of sales.

(2) The department[~~cabinet~~] may relieve certain retailers from the provisions of subsection (1) of this section of separate display of the tax when the circumstances of the retailer make compliance impracticable. If the retailer establishes to the satisfaction of the department[~~cabinet~~] that the sales tax has been added to the total amount of the sales price and has not been absorbed by the retailer, the amount of the sales price shall be the amount received exclusive of the tax imposed.

(3) The taxes collected under this section shall be deemed to be held in trust by the retailer for and on account of the Commonwealth of Kentucky.

(4) The taxes to be collected under this section shall constitute a debt of the retailer to the Commonwealth.

Section 408. KRS 139.240 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Every person presently engaged or desiring to engage in or conduct business as a retailer or seller within this state shall file with the department[~~cabinet~~] an application for a permit for each place of business.

(2) Every application for a permit shall:

(a) Be made upon a form prescribed by the department[~~cabinet~~];

(b) Set forth the name under which the applicant transacts or intends to transact business and the location of the place or places of business; and

(c) Set forth other information as the department~~[cabinet]~~ may require.

(3) The application shall be signed by:

(b) A member or partner, if the entity is an association, limited liability company, limited liability partnership, or partnership;

(c) An executive officer, if the entity is a corporation, or some person specifically authorized by the corporation to sign the application, to which shall be attached written evidence of his or her authority; or

(d) A licensed certified public accountant, or an attorney licensed to practice law in the Commonwealth of Kentucky, specifically authorized by and acting on behalf of an owner, an association, a partnership, a limited liability company, a limited liability partnership, a corporation, or other business entity.

Section 409. KRS 139.250 is amended to read as follows:

After compliance with KRS 139.240 and 139.660 by the applicant, the department~~[cabinet]~~ shall grant and issue to each applicant a separate permit for each place of business within the state. A permit shall not be assignable, and shall be valid only for the person in whose name it is issued and for the transaction of business at the place designated therein. It shall at all times be conspicuously displayed at the place for which issued.

Section 410. KRS 139.260 is amended to read as follows:

For the purpose of the proper administration of this chapter and to prevent evasion of the duty to collect the taxes imposed by KRS 139.200 and 139.310, it shall be presumed that all gross receipts and all tangible personal property sold by any person for delivery in this state are subject to the tax until the contrary is established. The burden of proving the contrary is upon the person who makes the sale unless he takes from the purchaser a certificate to the effect that the property is either:

(1) Purchased for resale according to the provisions of KRS 139.270;

(2) Purchased through a properly executed certificate of exemption in accordance with KRS 139.270;

(3) Purchased according to regulations of the Department of Revenue~~[Cabinet]~~ governing a direct pay authorization; or

(4) Purchased under a form issued pursuant to KRS 139.776 or 139.777.

Section 411. KRS 139.270 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The resale certificate or certificate of exemption relieves the retailer or seller from the burden of proof only if taken in good faith from a person who, at the time of purchasing the tangible personal property:

(a) Indicates an intention to sell it in the regular course of business by executing the resale certificate; or

(b) Indicates that the property purchased will be used in an exempt manner by executing a certificate of exemption.

This relief from liability does not apply to a retailer or seller who fraudulently fails to collect the tax or solicits purchasers to participate in the unlawful claiming of an exemption.

(2) "Good faith" shall be demonstrated by the retailer or seller if the retailer or seller:

(a) Accepts a properly completed resale certificate or certificate of exemption; and

(b) Maintains a file of the certificate in accordance with KRS 139.720.

(3) If the department~~[cabinet]~~ later finds that the retailer or seller exercised good faith according to the provisions of subsection (2) of this section but that the purchaser used the property in a manner that would not have qualified for resale status or the purchaser issued a certificate of exemption and used the property in some other manner or for some other purpose, the department~~[cabinet]~~ shall hold the purchaser liable for the remittance of the tax and may apply penalties provided in KRS 139.990.

Section 412. KRS 139.280 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The resale certificate shall:

(a) Be signed by and bear the name and address of the purchaser;

(b) Indicate the number of the permit issued to the purchaser;

(c) Indicate the general character of the tangible personal property sold by the purchaser in the regular course of business.

(2) The certificate shall be substantially in a form as the department~~[cabinet]~~ may prescribe.

(3) A signature shall not be required if the purchaser provides the retailer with an electronic resale certificate.

Section 413. KRS 139.320 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The use tax of six percent (6%) is hereby levied upon the storage, use, or other consumption in this state of any machines, machinery, tools, or other equipment brought, imported or caused to be brought into this state for use in constructing, building, or repairing any building, highway, street, sidewalk, bridge, culvert, sewer or water system, drainage, or dredging system, electric or steam railway system, reservoir or dam, hydraulic or power plant, transmission line, tower, dock, wharf, excavation, grading, or other improvement or structures, or any part thereof. The owner or, if the property is leased the lessee of any such machine, machinery, tools, or other equipment shall be liable for the tax provided for in this chapter, to be computed as set out below. The useful life of such machines, tools, or other equipment shall be determined by the department[~~cabinet~~] in accordance with the depreciable value permitted under KRS Chapter 141 and regulations issued pursuant thereto. Said use tax shall be computed on the basis of such proportion of the original purchase price of such property as the duration of time of use in this state bears to the total useful life. Such tax shall become due immediately upon such property's being brought into this state, and in the absence of satisfactory evidence as to the period of use intended in this state, it shall be presumed that such property will remain in this state for the remainder of its useful life.

(2) The provisions of this section shall not be applicable with respect to sales of such property within this state or to the use, storage, or consumption of such property when purchased for use in this state, and in such cases the full sales or use tax shall be paid as in all other cases, irrespective of the period of intended use in this state.

(3) For the purposes of this section, the total useful life of property which is fully depreciated at the time of being brought into this state or becomes fully depreciated while in use in this state shall be extended to include the time of use in this state. In the absence of satisfactory evidence as to the period of use in this state, the tax shall be computed on an annual basis and shall be paid as provided by KRS 139.540.

Section 414. KRS 139.330 is amended to read as follows:

Every person storing, using or otherwise consuming in this state tangible personal property purchased from a retailer is liable for the use tax levied under KRS 139.310. His liability is not extinguished until the tax has been paid to this state, except that a receipt from a retailer engaged in business in this state or from a retailer who is authorized by the department[~~cabinet~~], under such rules and regulations as it may prescribe, to collect the tax and who is, for the purpose of this chapter relating to the use tax, regarded as a retailer engaged in business in this state, given to the purchaser pursuant to KRS 139.340 is sufficient to relieve the purchaser from further liability for the tax to which the receipt refers.

Section 415. KRS 139.340 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Except as provided in KRS 139.470 and 139.480, every retailer engaged in business in this state shall collect the tax imposed by KRS 139.310 from the purchaser and give to the purchaser a receipt therefor in the manner and form prescribed by the department[~~cabinet~~]. The taxes collected or required to be collected by the retailer under this section shall be deemed to be held in trust for and on account of the Commonwealth of Kentucky.

(2) "Retailer engaged in business in this state" as used in this chapter includes any of the following:

(a) Any retailer maintaining, occupying, or using, permanently or temporarily, directly or indirectly, or through a subsidiary, or agent, by whatever name called, an office, place of distribution, sales or sample room or place, warehouse or storage place, or other place of business. Property owned by a person who has contracted with a printer for printing, which consists of the final printed product, property which becomes a part of the final printed product, or copy from which the printed product is produced, and which is located at the premises of the printer, shall not be deemed to be an office, place of distribution, sales or sample room or place, warehouse or storage place, or other place of business maintained, occupied, or used by the person;

(b) Any retailer having any representative, agent, salesman, canvasser, or solicitor operating in this state under the authority of the retailer or its subsidiary for the purpose of selling, delivering, or the taking of orders for any tangible personal property. An unrelated printer with which a person has contracted for printing shall not be deemed to be a representative, agent, salesman, canvasser, or solicitor for the person;

(c) Any retailer soliciting orders for tangible personal property from residents of this state on a continuous, regular, or systematic basis in which the solicitation of the order, placement of the order by the customer or the payment for the order utilizes the services of any financial institution, telecommunication system, radio or television station, cable television service, print media, or other facility or service located in this state;

(d) Any retailer deriving receipts from the lease or rental of tangible personal property situated in this state; or

(e) Any retailer soliciting orders for tangible personal property from residents of this state on a continuous, regular, systematic basis if the retailer benefits from an agent operating in this state under the authority of the retailer to repair or service tangible personal property sold by the retailer.

Section 416. KRS 139.390 is amended to read as follows:

Every retailer selling tangible personal property for storage, use or other consumption in this state shall register with the department[~~cabinet~~] and give:

(1) The name and address of all agents operating in this state;

(2) The location of all distribution or sales houses or offices or other places of business in this state;

(3) Such other information as the department[~~cabinet~~] may require.

Section 417. KRS 139.470 is amended to read as follows:

There are excluded from the computation of the amount of taxes imposed by this chapter:

(1) Gross receipts from the sale of, and the storage, use, or other consumption in this state of, tangible personal property which this state is prohibited from taxing under the Constitution or laws of the United States, or under the Constitution of this state;

(2) Gross receipts from sales of, and the storage, use, or other consumption in this state of:

(a) Nonreturnable and returnable containers when sold without the contents to persons who place the contents in the container and sell the contents together with the container; and

(b) Returnable containers when sold with the contents in connection with a retail sale of the contents or when resold for refilling;

As used in this section the term "returnable containers" means containers of a kind customarily returned by the buyer of the contents for reuse. All other containers are "nonreturnable containers";

(3) Gross receipts from the sale of, and the storage, use, or other consumption in this state of, tangible personal property used for the performance of a lump-sum, fixed-fee contract of public works executed prior to February 5, 1960;

(4) Gross receipts from occasional sales of tangible personal property and the storage, use, or other consumption in this state of tangible personal property, the transfer of which to the purchaser is an occasional sale;

(5) Gross receipts from sales of tangible personal property to a common carrier, shipped by the retailer via the purchasing carrier under a bill of lading, whether the freight is paid in advance or the shipment is made freight charges collect, to a point outside this state and the property is actually transported to the out-of-state destination for use by the carrier in the conduct of its business as a common carrier;

(6) Gross receipts from sales of tangible personal property sold through coin-operated bulk vending machines, if the sale amounts to fifty cents ($0.50) or less, if the retailer is primarily engaged in making the sales and maintains records satisfactory to the cabinet. As used in this subsection, "bulk vending machine" means a vending machine containing unsorted merchandise which, upon insertion of a coin, dispenses the same in approximately equal portions, at random and without selection by the customer;

(7) Gross receipts from sales to any cabinet, department, bureau, commission, board, or other statutory or constitutional agency of the state and gross receipts from sales to counties, cities, or special districts as defined in KRS 65.005. This exemption shall apply only to purchases of property or services for use solely in the government function. A purchaser not qualifying as a governmental agency or unit shall not be entitled to the exemption even though the purchaser may be the recipient of public funds or grants;

(8) (a) Gross receipts from the sale of sewer services, water, and fuel to Kentucky residents for use in heating, water heating, cooking, lighting, and other residential uses. As used in this subsection, "fuel" shall include but not be limited to natural gas, electricity, fuel oil, bottled gas, coal, coke, and wood. Determinations of eligibility for the exemption shall be made by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~];

(b) In making the determinations of eligibility, the department[~~cabinet~~] shall exempt from taxation all gross receipts derived from sales:

1. Classified as "residential" by a utility company as defined by applicable tariffs filed with and accepted by the Public Service Commission;

2. Classified as "residential" by a municipally owned electric distributor which purchases its power at wholesale from the Tennessee Valley Authority;

3. Classified as "residential" by the governing body of a municipally owned electric distributor which does not purchase its power from the Tennessee Valley Authority, if the "residential" classification is reasonably consistent with the definitions of "residential" contained in tariff filings accepted and approved by the Public Service Commission with respect to utilities which are subject to Public Service Commission regulation.

If the service is classified as residential, use other than for "residential" purposes by the customer shall not negate the exemption;

(c) The exemption shall not apply if charges for sewer service, water, and fuel are billed to an owner or operator of a multi-unit residential rental facility or mobile home and recreational vehicle park other than residential classification; and

(d) The exemption shall apply also to residential property which may be held by legal or equitable title, by the entireties, jointly, in common, as a condominium, or indirectly by the stock ownership or membership representing the owner's or member's proprietary interest in a corporation owning a fee or a leasehold initially in excess of ninety-eight (98) years;

(9) Any rate increase for school taxes and any other charges or surcharges added to the total amount of a residential telephone bill;

(10) Gross receipts from sales to an out-of-state agency, organization, or institution exempt from sales and use tax in its state of residence when that agency, organization, or institution gives proof of its tax-exempt status to the retailer and the retailer maintains a file of the proof;

(11) Gross receipts derived from the sale of, and the storage, use, or other consumption in this state of, tangible personal property to be used in the manufacturing or industrial processing of tangible personal property at a plant facility and which will be for sale. The property shall be regarded as having been purchased for resale. "Plant facility" shall have the same meaning as defined in KRS 139.170(3). For purposes of this subsection, a manufacturer or industrial processor includes an individual or business entity that performs only part of the manufacturing or industrial processing activity and the person or business entity need not take title to tangible personal property that is incorporated into, or becomes the product of, the activity.

(a) Industrial processing includes refining, extraction of petroleum and natural gas, mining, quarrying, fabricating, and industrial assembling. As defined herein, tangible personal property to be used in the manufacturing or industrial processing of tangible personal property which will be for sale shall mean:

1. Materials which enter into and become an ingredient or component part of the manufactured product.

2. Other tangible personal property which is directly used in manufacturing or industrial processing, if the property has a useful life of less than one (1) year. Specifically these items are categorized as follows:

a. Materials. This refers to the raw materials which become an ingredient or component part of supplies or industrial tools exempt under subdivisions b. and c. below.

b. Supplies. This category includes supplies such as lubricating and compounding oils, grease, machine waste, abrasives, chemicals, solvents, fluxes, anodes, filtering materials, fire brick, catalysts, dyes, refrigerants, explosives, etc. The supplies indicated above need not come in direct contact with a manufactured product to be exempt. "Supplies" does not include repair, replacement, or spare parts of any kind.

c. Industrial tools. This group is limited to hand tools such as jigs, dies, drills, cutters, rolls, reamers, chucks, saws, spray guns, etc., and to tools attached to a machine such as molds, grinding balls, grinding wheels, dies, bits, cutting blades, etc. Normally, for industrial tools to be considered directly used in manufacturing, they shall come into direct contact with the product being manufactured.

3. Materials and supplies that are not reusable in the same manufacturing process at the completion of a single manufacturing cycle, excluding repair, replacement, or spare parts of any kind. A single manufacturing cycle shall be considered to be the period elapsing from the time the raw materials enter into the manufacturing process until the finished product emerges at the end of the manufacturing process.

(b) It shall be noted that in none of the three (3) categories is any exemption provided for repair, replacement, or spare parts. Repair, replacement, or spare parts shall not be considered to be materials, supplies, or industrial tools directly used in manufacturing or industrial processing. "Repair, replacement, or spare parts" shall have the same meaning as set forth in KRS 139.170;

(12) Any water use fee paid or passed through to the Kentucky River Authority by facilities using water from the Kentucky River basin to the Kentucky River Authority in accordance with KRS 151.700 to 151.730 and administrative regulations promulgated by the authority;

(13) Gross receipts from the sale of newspaper inserts or catalogs purchased for storage, use, or other consumption outside this state and delivered by the retailer's own vehicle to a location outside this state, or delivered to the United States Postal Service, a common carrier, or a contract carrier for delivery outside this state, regardless of whether the carrier is selected by the purchaser or retailer or an agent or representative of the purchaser or retailer, or whether the F.O.B. is retailer's shipping point or purchaser's destination.

(a) As used in this subsection:

1. "Catalogs" means tangible personal property that is printed to the special order of the purchaser and composed substantially of information regarding goods and services offered for sale; and

2. "Newspaper inserts" means printed materials that are placed in or distributed with a newspaper of general circulation.

(b) The retailer shall be responsible for establishing that delivery was made to a non-Kentucky location through shipping documents or other credible evidence as determined by the cabinet;

(14) Gross receipts from the sale of water used in the raising of equine as a business;

(15) Gross receipts from the sale of metal retail fixtures manufactured in this state and purchased for storage, use, or other consumption outside this state and delivered by the retailer's own vehicle to a location outside this state, or delivered to the United States Postal Service, a common carrier, or a contract carrier for delivery outside this state, regardless of whether the carrier is selected by the purchaser or retailer or an agent or representative of the purchaser or retailer, or whether the F.O.B. is the retailer's shipping point or the purchaser's destination.

(a) As used in this subsection, "metal retail fixtures" means check stands and belted and nonbelted checkout counters, whether made in bulk or pursuant to specific purchaser specifications, that are to be used directly by the purchaser or to be distributed by the purchaser.

(b) The retailer shall be responsible for establishing that delivery was made to a non-Kentucky location through shipping documents or other credible evidence as determined by the cabinet;

(16) Gross receipts from the sale of unenriched or enriched uranium purchased for ultimate storage, use, or other consumption outside this state and delivered to a common carrier in this state for delivery outside this state, regardless of whether the carrier is selected by the purchaser or retailer, or is an agent or representative of the purchaser or retailer, or whether the F.O.B. is the retailer's shipping point or purchaser's destination;

(17) Amounts received from a tobacco buydown. As used in this subsection, "buydown" means an agreement whereby an amount, whether paid in money, credit, or otherwise, is received by a retailer from a manufacturer or wholesaler based upon the quantity and unit price of tobacco products sold at retail that requires the retailer to reduce the selling price of the product to the purchaser without the use of a manufacturer's or wholesaler's coupon or redemption certificate;

(18) Gross receipts from the sale of property returned by a purchaser when the full sales price is refunded either in cash or credit. This exclusion shall not apply if the purchaser, in order to obtain the refund, is required to purchase other property at a price greater than the amount charged for the property that is returned;

(19) Gross receipts from the sales of gasoline and special fuels subject to tax under KRS Chapter 138;

(20) The amount of any tax imposed by the United States upon or with respect to retail sales, whether imposed on the retailer or the consumer, not including any manufacturer's excise or import duty;

(21) Gross receipts from the sale of any motor vehicle as defined in KRS 138.450 which is registered for use on the public highways and upon which any applicable tax levied by KRS 138.460 has been paid;

(22) Gross receipts from the sale of a semi-trailer as defined in KRS 189.010(12) and trailer as defined in KRS 189.010(17); and

Section 418. KRS 139.505 is amended to read as follows:

(1) For the purpose of this section, "gross receipts" means:

(a) Sales of tangible personal property in this state if:

1. The property is delivered or shipped to a purchaser, other than the United States government, or to the designee of the purchaser within this state regardless of the f.o.b. point or other conditions of the sale; or

2. The property is shipped from an office, store, warehouse, factory, or other place of storage in this state and the purchaser is the United States government; and

(b) Sales other than sales of tangible personal property in this state if the income-producing activity is performed in this state; or the income-producing activity is performed both in and outside this state and a greater proportion of the income-producing activity is performed in this state than in any other state, based on cost of performance, or gross receipt allocation method as provided by statute and elected by the taxpayer.

(2) Any business whose communications service, subject to the sales tax imposed under KRS Chapter 139 and deducted for federal income tax purposes, exceeds five percent (5%) of the business's Kentucky gross receipts during the preceding calendar year is entitled to a refundable credit. The refundable credit shall be equal to the sales tax paid on the difference by which the communications service purchased by the business exceeds five percent (5%) of the business's Kentucky gross receipts.

(3) Any business that qualifies for the refundable credit authorized by subsection (2) of this section shall make an annual application for the refund on or after June 1, 2002, and on or after every June 1 thereafter. The application shall be made to the department~~[cabinet]~~ on forms as the department~~[cabinet]~~ may prescribe and shall contain any information deemed necessary for the department~~[cabinet]~~ to determine the business's eligibility to receive a refund.

(4) Notwithstanding the provisions of KRS 134.580 to the contrary, the department~~[cabinet]~~, upon receipt of a properly documented refund application, shall cause a timely refund to be made directly to the business. Interest shall not be allowed or paid on any refund made under this section.

(5) Any refund application submitted under this section is subject to examination by the department~~[cabinet]~~. The examination shall occur within four (4) years from the date the refund application is received by the department~~[cabinet]~~. Any overpayment resulting from the examination shall be repaid to the State Treasury. In addition, the amount required to be repaid is subject to the interest provisions of KRS 131.183 and to the penalty provisions of KRS 131.180.

(6) If a business owns directly or indirectly fifty percent (50%) or more of another business, the credit computed under subsection (2) of this section shall be computed on a combined basis, excluding any intercompany Kentucky gross receipts.

Section 419. KRS 139.510 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The tax levied by KRS 139.310 shall not apply with respect to the storage, use, or other consumption of tangible personal property in this state upon which a tax substantially identical to the tax levied under KRS 139.200 (not including any special excise taxes such as are imposed on alcoholic beverages, cigarettes, and the like) equal to or greater than the amount of tax imposed by KRS 139.310 has been paid in another state. Proof of payment of such tax shall be according to rules and regulations of the department[~~cabinet~~]. If the amount of tax paid in another state is not equal to or greater than the amount of tax imposed by KRS 139.310, then the taxpayer shall pay to the department[~~cabinet~~] an amount sufficient to make the tax paid in the other state and in this state equal to the amount imposed by KRS 139.310. No credit shall be given under this section for sales taxes paid in another state if that state does not grant credit for sales taxes paid in this state.

(2) To prevent actual multistate taxation of a communications service subject to taxation under this chapter, any provider or purchaser, upon proof that the provider or purchaser has paid a tax in another state on the same communications services, shall be allowed a credit against the tax imposed by this chapter to the extent of the amount of the tax legally paid in the other state.

Section 420. KRS 139.536 is amended to read as follows:

(1) In consideration of the execution of the agreement as defined in KRS 148.851 and notwithstanding any provision of KRS 139.770 to the contrary, the approved company as defined in KRS 148.851 excluding its lessees, may be granted a sales tax refund from the Kentucky sales tax imposed by KRS 139.200 on the sales generated by or arising at the tourism attraction project as defined in KRS 148.851. The approved company shall have no obligation to refund or otherwise return any amount of this sales tax refund to the persons from whom the sales tax was collected. The term of the agreement granting the sales tax refund shall be ten (10) years, and this time period shall commence on the later of:

(a) The final approval for purposes of the inducements; or

(b) The completion date specified in the agreement.

(2) Any sales tax collected by an approved company as defined in KRS 148.851 on sales transacted after final approval but prior to the commencement of the term of the agreement, including any approved company that has received final approval prior to July 15, 2000, shall be refundable as if collected after the commencement of the term and applied to the approved company's first fiscal year's refund after activation of the term and without changing the term.

(3) The total sales tax refund allowed to the approved company over the term of the agreement in subsection (1) of this section shall be equal to the lesser of the total amount of the sales tax liability of the approved company and its lessees or twenty-five percent (25%) of the approved costs. The sales tax refund shall accrue over the term of the agreement in an annual amount equal to two and one-half percent (2.5%) of the approved cost. Notwithstanding the foregoing two and one-half percent (2.5%) limitation, any unused inducements as set forth in KRS 148.851(9) from a previous year may be carried forward to any succeeding year during the term of the agreement until the entire twenty-five percent (25%) of the approved costs have been received through sales tax refunds. By October 1 of each year the Department of Revenue[~~Cabinet~~] shall certify to the authority and the secretary of the Tourism Development Cabinet for the preceding fiscal year for all approved companies for which sales tax returns were filed with respect to a tourism attraction project, the sales tax liability of the approved companies receiving inducements under this section and KRS 148.851 to 148.860, and their lessees, and the amount of the sales tax refunds issued pursuant to subsection (1) of this section.

(4) Interest shall not be allowed or paid on any refund made under the provisions of this section.

(5) The Department of Revenue[~~Cabinet~~] may promulgate administrative regulations and require the filing of forms designed by the Department of Revenue[~~Cabinet~~] to reflect the intent of this section and KRS 148.851 to 148.860.

No retailer may change from a quarterly reporting system to monthly reporting without authorization of the department[~~cabinet~~].

(3) In no case shall a retailer be permitted to file quarterly unless monthly payments for the immediately preceding month are made on the basis of taxable gross receipts or total sales price of property used, consumed, or stored, as the case may be.

Section 430. KRS 139.600 is amended to read as follows:

For the purposes of the sales tax, gross receipts from rentals or leases of tangible personal property shall be reported and the tax paid in accordance with such rules and regulations as the department[~~cabinet~~] may prescribe.

A notice of such assessment shall be mailed to the taxpayer. The time herein provided may be extended by agreement between the taxpayer and the department[~~cabinet~~].

(2) For the purposes of this section, a return filed before the last day prescribed by law for the filing thereof shall be considered as filed on such last day.

Section 433. KRS 139.640 is amended to read as follows:

In making a determination of tax liability the department[~~cabinet~~] may offset overpayments for a period or periods, together with interest on the overpayments, against underpayments for another period or periods, against penalties, and against the interest on the underpayments.

Section 434. KRS 139.660 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Whenever it is deemed necessary to insure compliance with this chapter, the department[~~cabinet~~] may require any person subject thereto to place with it such security as the department[~~cabinet~~] may determine. The amount of the security shall be fixed by the department[~~cabinet~~] but, except as provided in subsection (2), shall not be greater than twice the estimated average liability of persons filing returns for quarterly periods or three (3) times the estimated average liability of persons required to file returns for monthly periods, determined in such manner as the department[~~cabinet~~] deems proper.

(2) In case of persons habitually delinquent in their obligations under this chapter, the amount of the security shall not be greater than three (3) times the average liability of persons filing returns for quarterly periods or five (5) times the average liability of persons required to file returns for monthly periods.

(3) The limitations herein provided apply regardless of the type of security placed with the department[~~cabinet~~].

(4) The amount of the security may be increased or decreased by the department[~~cabinet~~] subject to the limitations herein provided.

(5) (a) The department[~~cabinet~~] may sell the security at public auction if it becomes necessary to do so in order to recover any tax, interest or penalty due. Security in the form of a bearer bond issued by the United States or any state or local governmental unit which has a prevailing market price may, however, be sold by the department[~~cabinet~~] at a private sale at a price not lower than the prevailing market price thereof.

(b) The department[~~cabinet~~] shall give notice of the date, time and place of the sale to the person who placed the security by certified mail addressed to him at his last known address as it appears in the records of the department[~~cabinet~~], or delivery to such person.

Said notice, if by certified mail, shall be postmarked no later than ten (10) days prior to said sale; if by delivery, said notice shall be given no later than ten (10) days prior to said sale.

(6) Upon any sale any surplus above the amounts due shall be returned to the person who placed the security.

If any retailer liable for any amount under this chapter sells out his business or stock of goods, or otherwise quits business, his successors or assigns shall withhold sufficient of the purchase price to cover such amount until the former owner produces a receipt from the department[~~cabinet~~] showing that it has been paid or a certificate stating that no amount is due.

Section 436. KRS 139.680 is amended to read as follows:

(1) If the purchaser of a business or stock of goods fails to withhold the purchase price as required, he becomes personally liable for the payment of the amount required to be withheld by him to the extent of the purchase price, valued in money. Within sixty (60) days after receiving a written request from the purchaser for a certificate, or within sixty (60) days from the date the former owner's records are made available for audit, whichever period expires the later, but in any event not later than ninety (90) days after receiving the request, the department[~~cabinet~~] shall either issue the certificate or mail notice to the purchaser at his address as it appears on the records of the department[~~cabinet~~] of the amount that must be paid as a condition to issuing the certificate.

(2) Failure of the department[~~cabinet~~] to mail the notice will release the purchaser from any further obligation to withhold the purchase price as above provided.

(3) The time within which the obligation of a successor may be enforced shall start to run at the time the retailer sells out his business or stock of goods or at the time that the determination against the retailer becomes final, whichever event occurs the later.

Section 437. KRS 139.700 is amended to read as follows:

The department[~~cabinet~~] may, in its discretion, upon application authorize the collection of the tax imposed herein by any retailer not engaged in business within this state who, to the satisfaction of the department[~~cabinet~~] furnishes adequate security to insure collection and payment of the tax. Such retailer shall be issued a permit to collect such tax in such manner, and subject to such regulation and agreements as the department[~~cabinet~~] shall prescribe. When so authorized, it shall be the duty of such retailer to collect the tax upon all tangible personal property sold to his knowledge for use within this state, in the same manner and subject to the same requirements as a retailer engaged in business within this state.

Section 438. KRS 139.710 is amended to read as follows:

The department[~~cabinet~~] shall administer the provisions of this chapter and shall have all of the powers, rights, duties, and authority with respect to the assessment, collection, refunding, and administration of the taxes levied by this chapter, conferred generally upon the department[~~cabinet~~] by the Kentucky Revised Statutes including Chapters 131, 134, and 135.

Section 439. KRS 139.720 is amended to read as follows:

(2) Every such seller, retailer, or person who files the returns required under this chapter shall keep such records for not less than four (4) years from the making of such records unless the department[~~cabinet~~] in writing sooner authorizes their destruction.

Section 440. KRS 139.730 is amended to read as follows:

In the administration of the sales and use tax, the department[~~cabinet~~] may require the filing of reports by any person or class of persons having in his or their possession or custody information relating to sales of tangible personal property, the storage, use, or other consumption of which is subject to the tax. (2) It shall be mandatory upon the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] during any audit process to honor resale certificates, exemption certificates and direct pay authorizations when executed according to the good faith provisions defined and described in KRS 139.270 and 103 KAR 31.030.

Section 442. KRS 139.740 is amended to read as follows:

(1) No judgment shall be entered and no garnishment or attachment shall be permitted by any court in this Commonwealth in an action for the collection of a debt arising out of the sale of tangible personal property unless an affidavit containing a certificate of service is executed by the plaintiff to the effect that all use taxes due the Commonwealth have been paid.

(2) Prior to the filing of the affidavit, required under subsection (1) of this section, the plaintiff (including counterclaimants or crossclaimants) shall, by first-class mail, serve upon the department[~~cabinet~~] a copy of the affidavit. Within fifteen (15) days from the date of the filing of the affidavit the department[~~cabinet~~] may file a counteraffidavit. In such event no judgment shall be entered or garnishment or attachment issued until proof has been taken concerning the matters at issue in the affidavit and counteraffidavit.

(3) In the event the use tax levied by this chapter is found to be due and unpaid the plaintiff may elect to pay the tax to the department[~~cabinet~~], and the amount of the tax paid by the plaintiff shall be recovered as a part of any judgment entered. If the plaintiff does not elect to pay the use tax found to be due and unpaid, judgment for the amount of the tax shall be awarded to the Commonwealth.

(4) Any judgment awarded to the Commonwealth under this section shall constitute a prior claim to any judgment obtained by the plaintiff.

(2) The department[~~cabinet~~] shall not issue a new permit after the revocation of a permit unless it is satisfied that the former holder of the permit will comply with the provisions of this chapter and the regulations relating thereto.

(3) No suit shall be maintained in any court to restrain or delay the collection or payment of any tax levied by this chapter.

Section 444. KRS 139.770 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The taxes paid pursuant to the provisions of this chapter shall be refunded or credited in the manner provided in KRS 134.580.

(2) A claim for refund or credit shall be made on a form prescribed by the department[~~cabinet~~] and shall contain such information as the department[~~cabinet~~] may require.

(3) No taxpayer or certified service provider as provided by KRS 139.795 shall be entitled to a refund or credit of the taxes paid pursuant to the provisions of this chapter where the taxes have been collected from a purchaser as provided by KRS 139.210 and 139.340, unless the amount of taxes collected from the purchaser are refunded to the purchaser by the taxpayer or certified service provider as provided by KRS 139.795 who paid the taxes to the State Treasury.

(4) Where applicable, the amount of any claim for refund or credit shall be reduced by the amount deducted by the taxpayer or certified service provider as provided by KRS 139.795 pursuant to KRS 139.570 at the time the taxes were paid to the State Treasury.

Section 445. KRS 139.785 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The department[~~cabinet~~] is authorized and directed to enter into the agreement with one (1) or more states to simplify and modernize sales and use tax administration in order to substantially reduce the burden of tax compliance for all sellers and for all types of commerce. To further the agreement, the department[~~cabinet~~] is authorized to act jointly with other states that are members of the agreement to establish standards for certification of a certified service provider and certified automated system and establish performance standards for multistate sellers.

(2) The department[~~cabinet~~] is further authorized to take other actions reasonably required to implement the provisions set forth in KRS 139.780 to 139.795. Other actions authorized by this section include, but are not limited to, the adoption of rules and regulations and the joint procurement, with other member states, of goods and services to further the cooperative agreement. Notwithstanding the provisions of KRS Chapter 13A, the department[~~cabinet~~] may issue educational bulletins to the extent necessary to enhance the understanding of and compliance with terms of the agreement.

(3) The commissioner of the Department of Revenue[~~secretary of the cabinet~~] or the commissioner's[~~secretary's~~] designee, the state budget director or the director's designee, and two (2) legislators are authorized to represent this state before the other states that are signatories to the agreement. One (1) member of the Senate shall be appointed by the President of the Senate, and one (1) member of the House of Representatives shall be appointed by the Speaker of the House of Representatives.

Section 446. KRS 139.789 is amended to read as follows:

The department[~~cabinet~~] shall not enter into the agreement unless the agreement requires each state to abide by the following requirements:

(1) The agreement shall set restrictions to achieve more uniform state rates through the following:

(a) Limiting the number of state rates;

(b) Limiting the application of maximums on the amount of state tax that is due on a transaction; and

(c) Limiting the application of thresholds on the application of state tax.

(2) The agreement shall establish uniform standards for the following:

(3) The agreement shall require states to develop and adopt uniform definitions of sales and use tax terms. The definitions shall enable a state to preserve its ability to make policy choices not inconsistent with the uniform definitions.

(4) The agreement shall provide a central, electronic registration system that allows a seller to register to collect and remit sales and use taxes for all signatory states.

(5) The agreement shall provide that registration with the central registration system and the collection of sales and use taxes in the signatory state will not be used as a factor in determining whether the seller has nexus with a state for any tax.

(6) The agreement shall provide for a reduction of the burdens of complying with local sales and use taxes through the following:

(a) Restricting variances between the state and local tax bases;

(b) Requiring states to administer any sales and use taxes levied by local jurisdictions within the state so that sellers collecting and remitting these taxes will not have to register or file returns with, remit funds to, or be subject to independent audits from local taxing jurisdictions;

(c) Restricting the frequency of changes in the local sales and use tax rates and setting effective dates for the application of local jurisdictional boundary changes to local sales and use taxes; and

(d) Providing notice of changes in local sales and use tax rates and of changes in the boundaries of local taxing jurisdictions.

(7) The agreement shall outline any monetary allowances that are to be provided by the states to sellers or certified service providers.

(8) The agreement shall require each state to certify compliance with the terms of the agreement prior to joining and to maintain compliance under the laws of the member state, with all provisions of the agreement while a member.

(9) The agreement shall require each state to adopt a uniform policy for certified service providers that protects the privacy of consumers and maintains the confidentiality of tax information.

(10) The agreement shall provide for the appointment of an advisory council of private sector representatives and an advisory council of non-member state representatives to consult with in the administration of the agreement.

Section 447. KRS 139.980 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Any person who violates any provision of this chapter shall be subject to the uniform civil penalties imposed pursuant to KRS 131.180 and interest upon the unpaid amount at the tax interest rate as defined in KRS 131.010(6) from the date prescribed for its payment until payment is actually made to the department[~~cabinet~~].

Section 448. KRS 139.990 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Any person who executes:

(a) A resale certificate for property in accordance with KRS 139.270 knowing at the time of purchase that such property is not to be resold by him in the regular course of business, for the purpose of evading the tax imposed under this chapter;

(b) An exemption certificate for property in accordance with KRS 139.270, knowing at the time of the purchase that he is not engaged in an occupation that would entitle him to exemption status or any person who does not intend to use the property in the prescribed manner;

(c) A direct pay authorization for property not in accordance with 103 KAR 31.030; or

(d) An MPU exemption form or Direct Mail Form issued not in accordance with the provisions KRS 139.776 or 139.777; shall be guilty of a Class B misdemeanor.

(2) A person who engages in business as a seller in this state without a permit or permits as required by this chapter or after a permit has been suspended, and each officer of any corporation which is so engaged in business, shall be guilty of a Class B misdemeanor.

(4) Any person who violates any of the regulations promulgated by the department[~~cabinet~~] shall be guilty of a Class B misdemeanor.

(5) Any person, business, or motion picture production company falsifying expenditure reports, applications, or any other statements made in securing the tax credit afforded by KRS 139.5382 to 139.5386 shall be guilty of a Class D felony. Such motion picture production companies shall be denied any tax credit to which they would otherwise be entitled, and shall be prohibited from applying for any future credit afforded by KRS 139.5382 to 139.5386.

Section 449. KRS 140.040 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Whenever any person shall exercise a power of appointment derived from any disposition of property (whether by will, deed, trust agreement, contract, insurance policy or other instrument) regardless of when made, such appointment shall be deemed a transfer taxable under the provisions of this chapter in the same manner as though the property to which such appointment relates belonged absolutely to the donee of such power and had been bequeathed or devised by such donee by will; and whenever any person possessing such a power of appointment so derived shall omit or fail to exercise the same in whole or in part, within the time provided therefor, a transfer taxable under the provisions of this chapter shall be deemed to take place to the person or persons receiving such property as a result of such omission or failure to the same extent that such property would have been subject to taxation if it had passed under the will of the donee of such power. The time at which such transfer shall be deemed to take place, for the purpose of taxation, shall be governed by the provisions of subsections (2) to (4) of this section.

(2) In the case of a power of appointment which passes to the donee thereof at the death of the donor, under any instrument, and if the donor dies on or after April 24, 1936, the transfer shall be deemed to take place, for the purpose of taxation, at the time of the death of the donor and the assessment be made at that time against the life interest of the donee and the remainder against the corpus. The value of the property to which the power of appointment relates shall be determined as of the date of the death of the donor and shall be taxed at the rates and be subject to the exemptions in effect at the death of the donor. The determination of the applicable rates and exemptions (in effect at the death of the donor) shall be governed by the relationship of the beneficiary to the donee of the power of appointment. In the event the payment of the tax at the death of the donor should operate to provide an exemption for any beneficiary of a donee not authorized by KRS 140.080, then such exemption shall be retrospectively disallowed at the time of the death of the donee. It is further provided that the remainder interest passing under the donee's power of appointment, whether exercised or not, shall be added to and made a part of the distributable share of the donee's estate for the purpose of determining the exemption and rates applicable thereto.

(3) In all cases other than that described in subsection (2) the transfer shall be deemed to take place, for the purpose of taxation, at the time of the death of the donee. In such cases, the value of the property to which the power of appointment relates shall be determined as of the date of the death of the donee and shall be taxed at the rates and be subject to the exemptions in effect at the death of the donee. The determination of the applicable rates and exemptions (in effect at the death of the donee) shall be governed by the relationship of the beneficiary to the donee of the power of appointment.

(4) The provisions of subsection (2) shall not preclude the taxation, at the death of the donee, of any transfer made by means of a power of appointment if such transfer was not in fact reported to or a tax assessed thereon by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] within the period of limitation prescribed by KRS 140.160. If the transfer by the power of appointment is not so reported or a tax assessed thereon, the period of limitation prescribed in KRS 140.160 shall not begin to run until the death of the donee of such power.

(5) The amendments to this section, adopted by the 1948 General Assembly, shall apply to all powers of appointment whether created before or after the effective date of said amendments. It is the declared intention of the General Assembly to impose a tax upon every transfer of property by means of a power of appointment, regardless of when or how created, and it is the declared intention of the General Assembly that the use of the power of appointment device shall not permit the transfer of property, to which such a power relates, to escape thereby the payment of state inheritance taxes.

Section 450. KRS 140.080 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The following exemptions chargeable against the lowest bracket or brackets of inheritable interests shall be free from any tax under the preceding provisions of this chapter:

To be valid, the election referred to in the sentence immediately preceding must be made in the form prescribed by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] and must be filed on or before the due date of the tax return (plus extensions) or with the first tax return filed, whichever last occurs;

2. Child by blood who has been declared mentally disabled by a court of competent jurisdiction, $20,000;

2. For decedents dying between July 1, 1996, and June 30, 1997, the greater of the exemption established pursuant to paragraph (1)(b) of this section or one-half (1/2) of each beneficiary's inheritable interest;

3. For decedents dying between July 1, 1997, and June 30, 1998, the greater of the exemption established pursuant to paragraph (1)(b) of this section or three-fourths (3/4) of each beneficiary's inheritable interest; and

4. For each decedent dying after June 30, 1998, each beneficiary's total inheritable interest;

(d) All persons of Class B, under KRS 140.070, $1,000; and

(e) All persons of Class C, under KRS 140.070, $500.

(2) If the decedent was not a resident of this state, the exemption shall be the same proportion of the allowable exemption in the case of residents that the property taxable by this state bears to the whole property transferred by the decedent.

Section 451. KRS 140.090 is amended to read as follows:

(1) In calculating the value of the distributive shares the following deductions and no others shall be allowed:

(a) Debts of the decedent, except debts secured by property not subject to the tax jurisdiction of Kentucky; and except debts barred by the statute of limitations;

(h) Cost of administration, including attorney's fees actually allowed and paid.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of KRS 404.040, the debts of a deceased wife, subject to the exception in subsection (1)(a), shall be allowed in calculating the distributive shares of her estate for purposes of this chapter, provided such debts are paid from the proceeds of her estate.

Section 452. KRS 140.100 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The Department of Insurance, on the application of the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~], shall determine, and certify in duplicate to the department[~~cabinet~~], the value of any future or contingent estate, income or interest therein, limited, contingent, dependent or determinable upon the lives of persons in being, upon the facts contained in the application or other facts submitted by the department[~~cabinet~~]. No fee shall be charged by the division for this service. The certificate shall be competent evidence that the method of computation therein is correct.

(2) The value of every future, contingent or limited estate, income or interest for the purpose of this chapter shall be determined by the rules, methods and standards of mortality and of value prescribed by the appropriate United States life mortality tables for ascertaining the value of life estates, annuities and remainder interests except that the rate of interest assessed in computing the present value of all future interests and contingencies shall be four percent (4%) per annum.

(3) When an annuity or a life estate is terminated by the death of the annuitant or life tenant, and the tax upon such interest has not been fixed and determined, the value of the interest for the purpose of taxation shall be that amount of the annuity or income actually paid or payable to the annuitant or life tenant during the period for which the annuitant or life tenant was entitled to the annuity or was in possession of the life estate. The tax on such annuities and life interests shall be payable out of the corpus of the estate, unless otherwise provided under the terms of the will.

(4) Notwithstanding anything in this chapter to the contrary, the value of a surviving spouse's interest in a trust or life estate which was exempt from Kentucky inheritance tax in the first spouse's estate pursuant to an election made under KRS 140.080(1)(a) shall be deemed to be equal to the entire value of the property held in the trust or life estate, at the surviving spouse's death, for Kentucky inheritance tax purposes in the surviving spouse's estate.

Section 453. KRS 140.110 is amended to read as follows:

(1) In the case of estates in expectancy which are contingent or defeasible, a tax shall be levied at the rate which, on the happening of the most probable contingencies or conditions named in the will, deed, trust agreement, contract, insurance policy, or other instrument, would be applicable under the provisions of this chapter. Moneys so collected shall be distributed as are other inheritance tax funds. If the property so taxed shall ultimately vest in possession in persons taxable at a lower rate, or in a person or a corporation exempt from taxation by this chapter, upon application by such beneficiary to the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] for refund of any excess tax, the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~], after investigation, shall certify to the Finance and Administration Cabinet the amount of such refund. The Finance and Administration Cabinet shall refund such excess payment of tax in the same manner as other refunds are made.

(2) Where an estate or interest can be divested by the act or omission of the legatee or devisee, it shall be taxed as if there were no possibility of divesting.

Section 454. KRS 140.160 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] shall have full supervision of the collection of all taxes due under the provisions of this chapter, including the power to institute suit in this and other states. It may employ attorneys and other persons necessary to carry out the full intent and purpose of this chapter. The department[~~cabinet~~] shall furnish, upon application, blank forms covering information as may be necessary to determine the amount of tax due the state on the transfer of all property subject to tax.

(2) The department[~~cabinet~~] may cause personal representatives or beneficiaries to file all statements required by this chapter with the clerks of the proper courts and with the department[~~cabinet~~], and may require them to furnish any additional information deemed necessary to support the computation of the amount of tax that should be paid by the estate. The personal representative, or the beneficiaries in the absence of a personal representative, shall compute the taxes imposed by this chapter on the tax return provided by the department[~~cabinet~~] when:

(a) 1. A United States estate tax return is required to be filed under federal law and applicable regulations; and

2. The estate includes property over which Kentucky has jurisdiction for purposes of the taxes imposed by this chapter; or

(b) Any assets from the estate subject to the taxes imposed by this chapter pass to a beneficiary taxable under KRS 140.070.

The tax return, when required, shall be filed with the department[~~cabinet~~] within eighteen (18) months after the death of the decedent or at the time payment of the tax is made pursuant to KRS 140.210.

(3) Except as herein provided, no action to enforce the collection of the tax imposed by this chapter shall be commenced more than ten (10) years after the cause of action first accrued. In case the settlement of an estate is delayed because of litigation or other unavoidable cause, the delay shall suspend the limitation, prescribed by this subsection, until the cause of delay is removed. In the case of a fraudulent return or any other fraudulent representation affecting the amount of or the liability for the tax imposed by this chapter notwithstanding any provision of limitation provided elsewhere, the tax due by reason thereof may at any time be assessed and collected by the methods set out in this chapter, including action in a court of competent jurisdiction.

Section 455. KRS 140.165 is amended to read as follows:

The department[~~cabinet~~] may make such audits, appraisals, and examinations of records according to KRS 131.130 to properly supervise the collection of all taxes due under the provisions of this chapter. A completed tax return with full payment attached shall be final one (1) year after receipt by the department[~~cabinet~~] unless an audit has been initiated with due notice to the personal representative, except:

(1) If any assets of the estate were not reported on the tax return filed with the department[~~cabinet~~], or

(2) If any information was not revealed to the department[~~cabinet~~] which would affect the amount of tax due.

Section 456. KRS 140.170 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The District Court, upon the request of the personal representative or any interested party, shall appoint some competent person as appraiser of the estate. The appraiser shall give notice to all persons having an interest in the estate and to such other persons as the court may by order direct, and shall then appraise the property belonging to the estate. His report shall be filed with the court and a copy thereof with the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~]. He shall be paid for his services out of the funds of the estate, on the certification of the court, the amount to be fixed by that court. The total compensation of the appraiser shall not exceed one-tenth of one percent (0.1%) of the total appraised value of the estate for inheritance tax purposes, but there shall be a minimum allowance of five dollars ($5), together with the appraiser's actual and necessary traveling expenses.

(2) After investigation, the department[~~cabinet~~] may change the value of the estate for inheritance taxes and advise the representatives of the estate of this changed valuation after the receipt of a completed tax return and full payment as shown by the tax return.

(3) No appraiser shall accept any fee or reward from a personal representative, trustee, legatee, next of kin or heir of the decedent, or from any other person liable to pay the tax or any portion thereof.

(4) No person shall willfully and knowingly subscribe to or make any false statement of fact, or knowingly subscribe to or exhibit any false paper or false report with intent to deceive any appraiser.

(5) The department[~~cabinet~~] shall keep a record of all returns, reports, and schedules attached thereto required by this chapter for twelve (12) years.

Section 457. KRS 140.180 is amended to read as follows:

If real property of a decedent is passed to another person so as to become subject to the tax, his personal representative or trustee shall inform the department[~~cabinet~~] thereof within six (6) months after his appointment, or if the fact is not known to him within that time, then within one (1) month after the fact becomes known to him.

Section 458. KRS 140.210 is amended to read as follows:

(1) All taxes imposed by this chapter, unless otherwise provided in this chapter, shall be due at the death of the decedent and shall be payable to the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] within eighteen (18) months thereafter. If they are paid within nine (9) months, a discount of five percent (5%) shall be allowed, and if they are paid within eighteen (18) months, no interest shall be charged and collected thereon. If the taxes due are not paid within eighteen (18) months, interest at the tax interest rate as defined in KRS 131.010(6) shall be paid from the expiration of the eighteen (18) months until payment is actually made to the department[~~cabinet~~].

(2) In all cases where the personal representatives or trustees do not pay the taxes within eighteen (18) months from the death of the decedent, they shall be required to give bond, in the form and to the effect prescribed by the department[~~cabinet~~], for the payment of the taxes and interest.

Section 459. KRS 140.222 is amended to read as follows:

(1) When the net tax due from a beneficiary's distributive share exceeds five thousand dollars ($5,000), the beneficiary may elect to pay the inheritance tax in ten (10) equal installments. The first installment shall be due at the time the return is filed with succeeding payments due in annual installments beginning one (1) year after the return is filed.

(2) The portion of the tax deferred under this section shall be charged with interest at the tax interest rate as defined in KRS 131.010(6) commencing eighteen (18) months after the date of death.

(3) When the beneficiary elects to pay the tax on his share as provided in this section, such election must be made in writing and signed by the beneficiary and must be filed with the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] at the time of filing the tax return for the decedent's estate under KRS 140.160(2). The filing of the election together with payment of the first installment shall relieve the personal representative or trustee of the estate from further liability for the tax payments deferred under this section and the bond requirements of KRS 140.210, subject to the final approval by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] of all other taxes due under this chapter.

(4) A beneficiary electing to defer the payment of taxes under this section shall be personally liable for the amount of deferred taxes until paid.

(5) The period of limitations for actions to enforce the collection of taxes imposed by this chapter as provided by KRS 140.160(3) shall be suspended for the period of time for deferred payment granted by this section.

Section 460. KRS 140.224 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Where a beneficiary elects to pay the inheritance tax on the installment basis as provided in this chapter, such beneficiary may be required to post sufficient security at any time the department[~~cabinet~~] reasonably believes collection of the tax may be in jeopardy.

(2) Failure of a beneficiary to pay any installment due or to post the required security shall cause all installments to become immediately due and payable.

Section 461. KRS 140.270 is amended to read as follows:

(1) In the absence of administration in this state upon the estate of a nonresident, the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~], at the request of a personal representative duly appointed and qualified in the state of the decedent's domicile, or of a grantee under a conveyance made during the grantor's lifetime, and upon satisfactory evidence furnished by the personal representative or grantee, or otherwise, may determine whether or not any property of the decedent within this state is subject to the provisions of this chapter. If so, the department[~~cabinet~~] may determine the amount of tax and adjust the same with the personal representative or grantee, and for that purpose may appoint an appraiser to appraise the property. The expense of appraisal shall be charged upon the property in addition to the tax. The department's[~~cabinet's~~] certificate of the amount of tax and its receipt for the amount therein certified may be filed with the county judge/executive of the county where the property is located, and when so filed shall be evidence of the payment of the tax to the extent of such certification. When the tax is not adjusted within six (6) months after the death of the decedent, the proper District Court, upon application of the department~~[cabinet]~~, shall appoint an administrator in this state.

(2) When evidence of ownership of intangible personal property belonging to a nonresident decedent is found to be physically located in this state, the Department of Revenue~~[Cabinet]~~ shall so inform the state official collecting death tax in the state of domicile of the decedent, if that state furnishes like information to the Department of Revenue~~[Cabinet]~~ of this state in a reciprocal manner.

Section 462. KRS 140.275 is amended to read as follows:

(1) It is hereby declared to be the legislative policy that Kentucky shall not be a party to interstate double taxation under the terms of the Kentucky inheritance and estate tax laws. Pursuant to this policy, the commissioner of the Department of Revenue~~[secretary of revenue]~~ is hereby authorized to omit from the property subject to tax under those laws, any intangible personal property of a nonresident decedent (having a domicile in the United States) held in trust by a Kentucky trustee if the jurisdiction (state, territory or District of Columbia) in which the decedent was domiciled grants similar immunity to residents of Kentucky, but only in the event the personal representative shall present evidence that the tax has been or will be paid to the other jurisdiction. If another state, territory, or the District of Columbia of the United States constitutionally imposes a tax on the transfer of estates or of the distributive shares thereof, but grants immunity from the tax in respect of any intangible property of its resident decedents held in trust by a Kentucky trustee, then the commissioner of the Department of Revenue~~[secretary of revenue]~~ is hereby authorized to exclude from the property subject to tax under the Kentucky inheritance and estate tax laws, the intangible personal property of a Kentucky resident held in trust in that jurisdiction but only in the event the personal representative shall present evidence that the tax has been or will be paid to the other jurisdiction.

(2) It is expressly provided, however, in view of the uncertainty now prevailing with respect to the correct interpretation of the Constitution of the United States regarding the jurisdiction of the several states, that the provisions of this section shall be inoperative under the second alternative until and unless an agreement, approved as to legality by the Attorney General, between the commissioner of the Department of Revenue~~[secretary of revenue]~~ as agent for Kentucky and the appropriate administrative official of such other state, shall have been executed and an original copy thereof filed with the Kentucky Department of Revenue~~[Cabinet]~~.

(3) This section is intended to apply retroactively to all estates of decedents on or after April 25, 1936, which are subject to Kentucky inheritance tax laws.

Section 463. KRS 140.285 is amended to read as follows:

(1) When the Department of Revenue~~[Cabinet]~~ claims that a decedent was domiciled in Kentucky at the time of death and the taxing authorities of another state or states make a similar claim with respect to their state or states, the commissioner of the Department of Revenue~~[secretary of revenue]~~ may enter into a written agreement with such taxing authorities and the executor, administrator or trustee, fixing the sum acceptable to the department~~[cabinet]~~ in full settlement of the inheritance or estate taxes imposable under this chapter. Such agreement shall also fix the sum acceptable to such other state or states in full settlement of the death taxes imposable by such state or states.

(2) If the aggregate amount payable under such agreement to the states involved is less than the maximum sum allowable as a credit to the estate against the federal estate tax imposed thereon, then the executor, administrator or trustee shall also pay to the State of Kentucky as an estate tax so much of the difference between such aggregate amount and the amount of such credit as the amount payable to Kentucky under the agreement bears to such aggregate amount.

Section 464. KRS 140.290 is amended to read as follows:

Whenever debts are proved against the estate of a decedent after the payment of legacies or distribution of property from which the tax has been deducted or upon which it has been paid, and a refund is made by the legatee, devisee, heir or next of kin, a proportion of the tax so deducted or paid shall be repaid to him, by the personal representative or trustee if the tax has not been paid to the Department of Revenue~~[Cabinet]~~, or by the department~~[cabinet]~~ if it has been so paid.

Section 465. KRS 140.320 is amended to read as follows:

If, within five (5) years after the death of the decedent, a qualified person sells, conveys, or otherwise transfers the ownership, directly or indirectly, of the qualified real estate to any person or persons other than another qualified person who is a joint owner or the qualified real estate is converted to a use other than agricultural or horticultural use, then the qualified persons to whom the property passed at the death of the decedent in whose estate the agricultural or horticultural value was reported shall cause to be paid, pursuant to administrative regulations promulgated by the Department of Revenue~~[Cabinet]~~, the additional inheritance tax that would have been due on the decedent's estate if fair market value had been used to compute the tax due on the estate rather than the agricultural or horticultural value, along with interest at the tax interest rate as defined in KRS 131.010(6).

Section 466. KRS 140.330 is amended to read as follows:

In the event the qualified real estate is reported for inheritance tax purposes at its agricultural or horticultural value and that real estate has been assessed at its agricultural or horticultural value for ad valorem tax purposes, then that assessment shall be presumed to be its agricultural or horticultural value for inheritance tax purposes. If, however, the real estate has not been so assessed for ad valorem tax purposes, then the agricultural or horticultural value shall be determined pursuant to KRS Chapter 132 and such regulations as may be promulgated by the Department of Revenue~~[Cabinet]~~ to determine horticultural or agricultural value for inheritance tax purposes.

Section 467. KRS 140.350 is amended to read as follows:

At such time as the Department of Revenue~~[Cabinet]~~ accepts the agricultural or horticultural value on qualified real estate comprising a portion of a decedent's estate and issues tax waivers thereon, it shall cause to be filed in the office of the county clerk of the county where the real estate or the greater portion thereof is located, on a form prescribed by the Department of Revenue~~[Cabinet]~~, a lien which on its face shall expire in five (5) years and the lien shall secure the payment of any additional tax which may become due as the result of the qualified real estate being sold to others than qualified persons or the qualified real estate being converted to other than a qualified use.

If additional taxes are due as the result of the real estate being transferred to other than a qualified person or its use is converted to other than agricultural or horticultural use, and the additional tax is not paid after assessment of the tax, within the time prescribed by the regulations of the Department of Revenue~~[Cabinet]~~, then the Department of Revenue~~[Cabinet]~~ may proceed to enforce the lien in accordance with law.

If any amendment of a declaration is filed, the remaining installments, if any, shall be ratably increased or decreased as the case may be, to reflect the increase or decrease of the estimated tax by reason of such amendment. If any amendment is made after September 15 of the taxable year, any increase in the estimated tax by reason thereof shall be paid in full at the time of making such amendment.

(5) A corporation with a taxable year of less than twelve (12) months shall make a declaration in accordance with regulations prescribed by the department~~[cabinet]~~.

(6) The department~~[cabinet]~~ may grant a reasonable extension of time for filing declarations and paying the estimated tax under such rules and regulations as it may prescribe. (2) Every person subject to the provisions of this chapter shall keep such records, render under oath such statements, make such returns, and comply with such rules and regulations as the department~~[cabinet]~~ from time to time may prescribe. Whenever the department~~[cabinet]~~ judges it necessary, it may require such person, by notice served upon him, to make a return, render under oath such statements, or keep such records, as the department~~[cabinet]~~ deems sufficient to show whether or not such person is liable for tax, and the extent of such liability.

(3) The commissioner~~[secretary]~~ or his authorized agent or representative, for the purpose of ascertaining the correctness of any return or for the purposes of making an estimate of the taxable income of any taxpayers, may require the attendance of the taxpayer or of any other person having knowledge in the premises.

(c) The extent of utilization of tangible personal property in a state is determined by multiplying the rents and royalties by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of days of physical location of the property in the state during the rental or royalty period in the taxable year and the denominator of which is the number of days of physical location of the property everywhere during all rental or royalty periods in the taxable year. If the physical location of the property during the rental or royalty period is unknown or unascertainable by the corporation, the tangible personalty is utilized in the state in which the property was located at the time the rental or royalty payer obtained possession.

(d) Net rents and royalties from intangible personal property located in this state are allocable to this state. For purposes of this section, royalties from property leased in Kentucky shall be considered as royalties from intangible personal property.

(5) (a) Capital gains and losses from sales or other dispositions of real property located in this state are allocable to this state.

If the basis of receipts from copyright royalties does not permit allocation to states or if the accounting procedures do not reflect states of utilization, the copyright is utilized in the state in which the corporation's commercial domicile is located.

(8) Except as provided for in subsection (9) of this section, all business income shall be apportioned to this state by multiplying the income by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor plus the sales factor, and the denominator of which is three (3); provided, however, that effective with taxable years beginning after July 31, 1985, in lieu of the equally weighted three (3) factor apportionment fraction based on property, payroll, and sales, an apportionment fraction composed of a sales factor representing fifty percent (50%) of the fraction, a property factor representing twenty-five percent (25%) of the fraction, and a payroll factor representing twenty-five percent (25%) of the fraction shall be used.

Property rented is valued at eight (8) times the net annual rental rate. Net annual rental rate is the annual rental rate paid by the corporation less any annual rental rate received by the corporation from subrentals, provided that the rental and subrentals are reasonable. If the department[~~cabinet~~] determines that the annual rental or subrental rate is unreasonable, or if a nominal or zero (0) rate is charged, the department[~~cabinet~~] may determine and apply the rental rate as will reasonably reflect the value of the property rented by the corporation.

2. The average value of property shall be determined by averaging the values at the beginning and ending of the tax period but the department[~~cabinet~~] may require the averaging of monthly values during the tax period if reasonably required to reflect properly the average value of the property.

(b) The payroll factor is a fraction, the numerator of which is the total amount paid or payable in this state during the tax period by the corporation for compensation, and the denominator of which is the total compensation paid or payable by the corporation everywhere during the tax period. b. The property is shipped from an office, store, warehouse, factory, or other place of storage in this state and the purchaser is the United States government.

3. Sales, other than sales of tangible personal property, are in this state if the income-producing activity is performed in this state; or the income-producing activity is performed both in and outside this state and a greater proportion of the income-producing activity is performed in this state than in any other state, based on costs of performance.

(9) (a) If the allocation and apportionment provisions of this section do not fairly represent the extent of the corporation's business activity in this state, the corporation may petition for or the department[~~cabinet~~] may require, in respect to all or any part of the corporation's business activity, if reasonable:

1. Separate accounting;

2. The exclusion of any one (1) or more of the factors;

a. Total business income shall be multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which shall be Kentucky receipts from the services for the tax period and the denominator of which shall be the total receipts everywhere from the services for the tax period.

b. For purposes of subdivision a. of this subparagraph, Kentucky receipts shall be determined by multiplying total receipts for the tax period from each separate investment company for which the services are performed by a fraction. The numerator of the fraction shall be the average of the number of shares owned by the investment company's shareholders domiciled in this state at the beginning of and at the end of the investment company's taxable year, and the denominator of the fraction shall be the average of the number of the shares owned by the investment company shareholders everywhere at the beginning of and at the end of the investment company's taxable year.

c. Nonbusiness income shall be allocated to this state as provided in subsections (4) through (7) of this section.

2. All business income derived directly or indirectly from the sale of securities brokerage services by a business which operates within the boundaries of any area of the Commonwealth, which on June 30, 1992, was designated as a Kentucky Enterprise Zone, as defined in KRS 154.655(2), shall be apportioned to this state only to the extent that customers of the securities brokerage firm are domiciled in this state. The portion of business income apportioned to Kentucky shall be determined by multiplying the total business income from the sale of these services by a fraction determined in the following manner:

a. The numerator of the fraction shall be the brokerage commissions and total margin interest paid in respect of brokerage accounts owned by customers domiciled in Kentucky for the brokerage firm's taxable year; and

b. The denominator of the fraction shall be the brokerage commissions and total margin interest paid in respect of brokerage accounts owned by all of the brokerage firm's customers for that year.

c. Nonbusiness income shall be allocated to this state as provided in subsections (4) through (7) of this section.

(10) Public service companies and financial organizations required by KRS 141.010(14)(b) to allocate and apportion net income shall allocate and apportion such income as follows:

(a) Nonbusiness income shall be allocated to this state as provided in subsections (4) through (7) of this section.

(b) Business income shall be apportioned to this state by multiplying the business income by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor plus the sales factor and the denominator of which is three (3); provided, however, that effective with taxable years beginning after July 31, 1985, in lieu of the equally weighted three (3) factor apportionment fraction based on property, payroll, and sales, an apportionment fraction composed of a sales factor representing fifty percent (50%) of the fraction, a property factor representing twenty-five percent (25%) of the fraction, and a payroll factor representing twenty-five percent (25%) of the fraction shall be used. The payroll factor shall be determined as provided in subsection (8)(b) of this section. The property factor and sales factor shall be determined as provided by administrative regulations promulgated by the department~~[cabinet]~~.

(c) An affiliated group electing to file a consolidated return under KRS 141.200(3) that includes a public service company or financial organization shall determine the amount of payroll to be included in the apportionment factor as provided in subsection (8)(b) of this section. The amount of property and sales of the public service company or financial organization to be included in the apportionment factors of the affiliated group shall be determined in accordance with administrative regulations promulgated by the department~~[cabinet]~~ under paragraph (b) of this subsection.

Every person subject to the jurisdiction of this state, in whatever capacity acting, making payment of wages to another person domiciled in this state, shall render a true and accurate report to the department~~[cabinet]~~ of the payments made. In the case of such payments made by the state and its political subdivisions, the officers or employees having information as to such payments designated by the department~~[cabinet]~~ by the regulations hereinafter provided for shall make such reports. (2) The department[~~cabinet~~] is authorized and empowered to assess the tax against any of the corporations whose income is included in the consolidated or combined return in such manner as it may determine necessary to prevent the avoidance of income tax.

(3) In the case of corporations not required to file a consolidated or combined return under subsection (1) of this section that carried on transactions with stockholders or affiliated corporations directly or indirectly, the department[~~cabinet~~] shall adjust the net income of such corporations to an amount that would result if such transactions were carried on at arm's length.

(1) Every partnership or S corporation owning property or engaging in business in Kentucky, shall, on or before the fifteenth day of the fourth month following the close of its annual accounting period, file a copy of its federal partnership return or S corporation return with the form prescribed and furnished by the department[~~cabinet~~].

(2) Partnerships and S corporations shall determine taxable income in the same manner as in the case of an individual under KRS 141.010(9) to (11) and the adjustment required under Sections 703(a) and 1363(b) of the Internal Revenue Code. Computation of taxable income under this section and the computation of the partners or shareholders distributive share shall be computed as nearly as practicable identical with those required for federal income tax purposes except to the extent required by differences between this chapter and the federal income tax law and regulations.

(3) Individuals or corporations carrying on a business as a partnership or S corporation shall be liable for income tax only in their individual or corporate capacities, and no income tax shall be assessed upon the income of any partnership or S corporation except as prescribed in KRS 141.040(5).

  (a) Resident and nonresident individuals who are partners or S corporation shareholders must report and pay tax on the distributive share of net income, gain, loss, deduction, or credit, as determined in subsection (2) of this section, except as provided in subsections (4) and (5) of this section. Partnerships and S corporations may be required to withhold Kentucky income tax on the distributive share under administrative regulations issued by the department[~~cabinet~~].

  (b) Corporations which are partners must include their distributive share of net income, gain, loss, deduction or credit, as determined under subsection (2) of this section, except as provided in subsections (4) and (5) of this section.

(4) Resident and nonresident individuals and corporations which are partners in a partnership or shareholders in an S corporation carrying on business only in Kentucky are taxable on all items of income gain, loss, deduction or credit determined under subsection (2) of this section and reported as their distributive share from the partnership or S corporation.

(5) Nonresident individuals and corporations which are partners in a partnership or shareholders in an S corporation which does business within and without Kentucky are taxable on their proportionate share of the distributive income passed through the partnership or S corporation attributable to business done in Kentucky.

  (a) Business done in Kentucky is determined by the ratio of gross receipts from sales to purchasers or customers in Kentucky or services performed in Kentucky to the total gross receipts from sales or service everywhere.

(6) Resident partners, S corporation shareholders and corporations which are partners in a multistate partnership or shareholders in a multistate S corporation are taxable on one hundred percent (100%) of the distributive share of income, gains, losses, deductions or credits.

(7) Resident individuals who are partners in a partnership or shareholders in an S corporation which does not carry on business in Kentucky are subject to tax under KRS 141.020 on federal net income, gain, deduction, loss or credit passed through the partnership or S corporation.

(8) S corporation for purpose of this section means a corporation which has elected for federal tax purposes to be taxed as an S corporation. An election for federal tax purposes is a binding election for Kentucky tax purposes.

(9) Nonresident individuals shall not be taxable on investment income distributed by a qualified investment partnership. For purposes of this subsection a "qualified investment partnership" means a partnership formed to hold only investments that produce income that would not be taxable to the nonresident individual if held or owned individually.

(1) As used in this section and KRS 141.235, unless the context requires otherwise:

(a) "Conclusion of the federal audit" means the date that the adjustments made by the Internal Revenue Service to net income as reported on the taxpayer's federal income tax return become final and unappealable; and

(b) "Final determination of the federal audit" means the revenue agent's report or other documents reflecting the final and unappealable adjustments made by the Internal Revenue Service.

(2) As soon as practicable after each return is received, the department[~~cabinet~~] shall examine and audit it. If the amount of tax computed by the department[~~cabinet~~] is greater than the amount returned by the taxpayer, the additional tax shall be assessed and a notice of assessment mailed to the taxpayer by the department[~~cabinet~~] within four (4) years from the date the return was filed, except as otherwise provided in this subsection.

(a) In the case of a failure to file a return or of a fraudulent return the additional tax may be assessed at any time.

(b) In the case of a return where a taxpayer other than a corporation understates his net income or omits an amount properly includable in net income or both which understatement or omission or both is in excess of twenty-five percent (25%) of the amount of net income stated in the return the additional tax may be assessed at any time within six (6) years after the return was filed.

(c) In the case of a return where a corporation understates its taxable net income or omits an amount properly includable in taxable net income or both, which understatement or omission or both is in excess of twenty-five percent (25%) of the amount of taxable net income stated in the return, the additional tax may be assessed at any time within six (6) years after the return was filed.

(d) In the case of an assessment of additional tax relating directly to adjustments resulting from a final determination of a federal audit, the additional tax may be assessed before the expiration of the times provided in this subsection, or six months from the date the department[~~cabinet~~] receives the final determination of the federal audit from the taxpayer, whichever is later.

(e) In the case of the assessment of additional tax resulting from a decrease of a net operating loss deduction or a capital loss deduction, resulting from the carryback of a loss which occurs in a taxable year beginning after December 31, 1993, the additional tax may be assessed at any time before the expiration of the times provided for in this subsection for assessing additional tax for the taxable year which resulted in the net operating loss or capital loss carryback.

The times provided in this subsection may be extended by agreement between the taxpayer and the department[~~cabinet~~]. For the purposes of this subsection, a return filed before the last day prescribed by law for filing the return shall be considered as filed on the last day. For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1993, any extension granted for filing the return shall also be considered as extending the last day prescribed by law for filing the return.

(3) If any additional tax is assessed on account of any income which has been returned for taxation by any other taxpayer, the department[~~cabinet~~], with the consent of the other taxpayer, his personal representatives, or heirs, shall reduce the amount of the additional tax assessed for each year by the amount of the income tax paid for that year by the other taxpayer on account of the income in question.

(4) Every taxpayer shall:

(a) Notify the department[~~cabinet~~] in writing of every audit of the taxpayer's federal income tax return within thirty (30) days after the taxpayer has or should have had knowledge of the beginning of the audit by the Internal Revenue Service, and

(b) Submit a copy of the final determination of the federal audit within thirty (30) days of the conclusion of the federal audit.

Section 488. KRS 141.220 is amended to read as follows:

The full amount of the unpaid tax payable by any taxpayer, as appears from the face of the return, shall be paid to the department[~~cabinet~~] at the time prescribed for filing the income tax return, determined without regard to any extension of time for filing the return.

Section 489. KRS 141.235 is amended to read as follows:

(1) No suit shall be maintained in any court to restrain or delay the collection or payment of the tax levied by this chapter.

(2) Any tax collected pursuant to the provisions of this chapter may be refunded or credited in accordance with the provisions of KRS 134.580, except that:

(a) In any case where the assessment period contained in KRS 141.210 has been extended by an agreement between the taxpayer and the department[~~cabinet~~], the limitation contained in this subsection shall be extended accordingly.

(b) If the claim for refund or credit relates directly to adjustments resulting from a federal audit, the taxpayer shall file a claim for refund or credit within the time provided for in this subsection or six (6) months from the conclusion of the federal audit, whichever is later.

(c) If the claim for refund or credit relates to an overpayment attributable to a net operating loss carryback or capital loss carryback, resulting from a loss which occurs in a taxable year beginning after December 31, 1993, the claim for refund or credit shall be filed within the times prescribed in this subsection for the taxable year of the net operating loss or capital loss which results in the carryback.

For the purposes of this subsection and subsection (3) of this section, a return filed before the last day prescribed by law for filing the return shall be considered as filed on the last day.

(3) Overpayments of taxes collected pursuant to KRS 141.300, 141.310, or 141.315 shall be refunded or credited with interest at the tax interest rate as defined in KRS 131.010(6). The interest shall not begin to accrue until ninety (90) days after the tax was paid, the return was filed, or the last day prescribed by law for filing the return, whichever is later.

(4) Exclusive authority to refund or credit overpayments of taxes collected pursuant to this chapter is vested in the commissioner[~~secretary~~] or his authorized agent. Amounts directed to be refunded shall be paid out of the general fund.

Section 490. KRS 141.300 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Every individual shall, at the time prescribed in subsection (3), make a declaration of his estimated tax for the taxable year if his gross income from sources other than wages upon which Kentucky income tax will be withheld can reasonably be expected to exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000) for the taxable year and his gross income or adjusted gross income can reasonably be expected to be an amount not less than the amount for which a return is required under KRS 141.180. No declaration of estimated tax shall be required if the estimated tax liability can reasonably be expected to be five hundred dollars ($500) or less.

(2) In the declaration required under subsection (1), the individual shall state:

(a) The amount which he estimates as the amount of tax under KRS 141.020 for the taxable year;

(b) The amount which he estimates as the credits for the taxable year under KRS 141.310, 141.315, and 141.065;

(c) The excess of the amount estimated under paragraph (a) over the amount estimated under paragraph (b), which excess for purposes of this chapter shall be considered the estimated tax for the taxable year; and

(d) Other information as may be prescribed in administrative regulations promulgated by the department[~~cabinet~~].

(3) The declaration required under subsection (1) shall be filed with the department[~~cabinet~~] on or before April 15 of the taxable year, except that if the requirements of subsection (1) are first met:

(a) After April 1 and before June 2 of the taxable year, the declaration shall be filed on or before June 15 of the taxable year; or

(b) After June 1 and before September 2 of the taxable year, the declaration shall be filed on or before September 15 of the taxable year; or

(c) After September 1 of the taxable year, the declaration shall be filed on or before January 15 of the succeeding taxable year.

(4) An individual may amend a declaration filed during the taxable year under subsection (3) pursuant to administrative regulations prescribed by the department[~~cabinet~~].

(5) If, on or before January 31 of the succeeding taxable year an individual files a return for the taxable year for which the declaration is required and pays in full the amount computed on the return as payable, then, under administrative regulations prescribed by the department[~~cabinet~~]:

(a) If the declaration is not required to be filed during the taxable year, but is required to be filed on or before January 15 of the taxable year, the return shall, for the purposes of this section, be considered as the declaration; and

(b) If the tax shown on the return, reduced by the credits under KRS 141.350, is greater than the estimated tax shown in a declaration previously made or, in the last amendment thereof, the return shall, for the purposes of this section, be considered as the amendment of the declaration permitted by subsection (4) to be filed on or before January 15 of the taxable year.

(6) The department[~~cabinet~~] shall promulgate administrative regulations governing reasonable extensions of time for filing declarations and paying the estimated tax. Except in the case of an individual who is abroad, no extension shall be for more than six (6) months.

(7) If an individual is unable to make his own declaration, the declaration shall be made by a duly authorized agent or by the guardian, conservator, or other person charged with the care of the person or property of the individual.

(8) For the purposes of KRS 131.190, a declaration of estimated tax shall be held and considered a return of income under this chapter.

(1) The estimated tax provided for in KRS 141.300 shall be paid as follows:

(a) If the declaration is filed on or before April 15 of the taxable year, the estimated tax shall be paid in four (4) equal installments. The first installment shall be paid at the time of the filing of the declaration, the second and third on June 15 and September 15, respectively, of the taxable year, and the fourth on January 15 of the succeeding taxable year;

(b) If the declaration is filed after April 15 and not after June 15 of the taxable year and is not required by subsection (3) of KRS 141.300 to be filed on or before April 15 of the taxable year, the estimated tax shall be paid in three (3) equal installments. The first installment shall be paid at the time of the filing of the declaration, the second on September 15 of the taxable year, and the third on January 15 of the succeeding taxable year;

(c) If the declaration is filed after June 15 and not after September 15 of the taxable year and is not required by subsection (3) of KRS 141.300 to be filed on or before June 15 of the taxable year, the estimated tax shall be paid in two (2) equal installments. The first installment shall be paid at the time of the filing of the declaration and the second on January 15 of the succeeding taxable year;

(d) If the declaration is filed after September 15 of the taxable year, and is not required by subsection (3) of KRS 141.300 to be filed on or before September 15 of the taxable year, the declaration shall be filed and estimated tax shall be paid on or before January 15 of the succeeding taxable year;

(e) If the declaration is filed after the time prescribed in KRS 141.300, including cases where extensions of time have been granted, paragraphs (b), (c), and (d) of this subsection shall not apply, and there shall be paid at the time of such filing all installments of estimated tax which would have been payable on or before such time if the declaration has been filed within the time prescribed in subsection (3) of KRS 141.300, and the remaining installments shall be paid at the times at which, and in the amounts in which, they would have been payable if the declaration had been so filed. Provided, that payments required under this section for purposes of the taxable year 1954 shall be limited to fifty percent (50%) of the total estimated tax for 1954.

(2) If any amendment of a declaration is filed, the remaining installments, if any, shall be ratably increased or decreased as the case may be, to reflect the respective increase or decrease in the estimated tax by reason of such amendment, and if any amendment is made after September 15 of the taxable year any increase in the estimated tax by reasons thereof shall be paid at the time of making such amendment.

(3) At the election of the individual, any installment of the estimated tax may be paid prior to the date prescribed for its payment.

(4) Payment of the estimated tax, or any installment thereof, shall be considered payment on account of the tax for the taxable year. Assessment in respect of the estimated tax shall be limited to the amount paid.

(5) In the case of an individual whose estimated gross income from farming for the taxable year is at least two-thirds (2/3) of the total estimated gross income from all sources for the taxable year, in lieu of the time prescribed in subsection (3) of KRS 141.300, the declaration for the taxable year may be made at any time on or before January 15 of the succeeding taxable year; and if such an individual files a return on or before March 1 of the succeeding taxable year, and pays in full the amount computed on the return as payable, such return shall have the same effect as that prescribed in subsection (5) of KRS 141.300 in the case of a return filed on or before January 31.

(6) The application of this section and KRS 141.300 to taxable years of less than twelve (12) months shall be as prescribed in administrative regulations promulgated by the department[~~cabinet~~].

(7) In the application of this section and KRS 141.300 to taxpayers reporting income on a fiscal year basis, there shall be substituted for the date specified therein, the months corresponding thereto.

Section 492. KRS 141.310 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Every employer making payment of wages on or after January 1, 1971, shall deduct and withhold upon the wages a tax determined under KRS 141.315 or by the tables authorized by KRS 141.370.

(2) If wages are paid with respect to a period which is not a payroll period, the amount to be deducted and withheld shall be that applicable in the case of a miscellaneous payroll period containing a number of days, including Sundays and holidays, equal to the number of days in the period with respect to which the wages are paid.

(3) In any case in which wages are paid by an employer without regard to any payroll period or other period, the amount to be deducted and withheld shall be that applicable in the case of a miscellaneous payroll period containing a number of days equal to the number of days, including Sundays and holidays, which have elapsed since the date of the last payment of wages by the employer during the calendar year, or the date of commencement of employment with the employer during the year, or January 1 of the year, whichever is the later.

(4) In determining the amount to be deducted and withheld under this section, the wages may, at the election of the employer, be computed to the nearest dollar.

(5) The tables mentioned in subsection (1) of this section take into consideration the deductible federal income tax. If Congress changes substantially the federal income tax, the department[~~cabinet~~] shall make the change in these tables necessary to compensate for any increase or decrease in the deductible federal income tax.

(6) The department[~~cabinet~~] may permit the use of accounting machines to calculate the proper amount to be deducted from wages when the calculation so permitted produces substantially the same result set forth in the tables authorized by KRS 141.370. Prior approval of the calculation shall be secured from the department[~~cabinet~~] at least thirty (30) days before the first payroll period for which it is to be used.

(7) The department[~~cabinet~~] may, by regulations, authorize employers:

(a) To estimate the wages which will be paid to any employee in any quarter of the calendar year;

(b) To determine the amount to be deducted and withheld upon each payment of wages to the employee during the quarter as if the appropriate average of the wages estimated constituted the actual wages paid; and

(c) To deduct and withhold upon any payment of wages to the employee during the quarter the amount necessary to adjust the amount actually deducted and withheld upon the wages of the employee during the quarter to the amount that would be required to be deducted and withheld during the quarter if the payroll period of the employee was quarterly.

(8) The department~~[cabinet]~~ may provide by regulation, under the conditions and to the extent it deems proper, for withholding in addition to that otherwise required under this section and KRS 141.315 in cases in which the employer and the employee agree to the additional withholding. The additional withholding shall for all purposes be considered tax required to be deducted and withheld under this chapter.

(9) Effective January 1, 1992, any employer required by this section to withhold Kentucky income tax who assesses and withholds from employees the job assessment fee provided in KRS 154.24-110 may offset a portion of the fee against the Kentucky income tax required to be withheld from the employee under this section. The amount of the offset shall be four-fifths (4/5) of the amount of the assessment fee withheld from the employee or the Commonwealth's contribution of KRS 154.24-110(3) applies. If the provisions in KRS 154.24-150(3) or (4) apply, the offset, the offset shall be one hundred percent (100%) of the assessment.

(10) Any employer required by this section to withhold Kentucky income tax who assesses and withholds from employees an assessment provided in KRS 154.22-070 or KRS 154.28-110 may offset the fee against the Kentucky income tax required to be withheld from the employee under this section.

(11) Any employer required by this section to withhold Kentucky income tax who assesses and withholds from employees the job assessment fee provided in KRS 154.26-100 may offset a portion of the fee against the Kentucky income tax required to be withheld from the employee under this section. The amount of the offset shall be four-fifths (4/5) of the amount of the assessment fee withheld from the employee, or if the agreement under KRS 154.26-090(1)(f)2. is consummated, the offset shall be one hundred percent (100%) of the assessment fee.

(12) Any employer required by this section to withhold Kentucky income tax who assesses and withholds from employees the job development assessment fee provided in KRS 154.23-055 may offset a portion of the fee against the Kentucky income tax required to be withheld from the employee under this section. The amount of the offset shall be equal to the Commonwealth's contribution as determined by KRS 154.23-055(1) to (3).

(13) Any employer required by this section to withhold Kentucky income tax may be required to post a bond with the department~~[cabinet]~~. The bond shall be a corporate surety bond or cash. The amount of the bond shall be determined by the department~~[cabinet]~~, but shall not exceed fifty thousand dollars ($50,000).

(14) The Commonwealth may bring an action for a restraining order or a temporary or permanent injunction to restrain or enjoin the operation of an employer's business until the bond is posted or the tax required to be withheld is paid or both. The action may be brought in the Franklin Circuit Court or in the Circuit Court having jurisdiction of the defendant.

If payment of wages is made to an employee by an employer:

(1) With respect to a payroll period or other period, any part of which is included in a payroll period or other period with respect to which wages are also paid to such employee by such employer, or

(2) Without regard to any payroll period or other period, but on or prior to the expiration of a payroll period or other period with respect to which wages are also paid to such employee by such employer; or

(3) With respect to a period beginning in one (1) and ending in another calendar year; or

(4) Through an agent, fiduciary, or other person who also has the control, receipt, custody, or disposal of, or pays, the wages payable by another employer to such employee, the manner of withholding and the amount to be deducted and withheld under KRS 141.310 shall be determined in accordance with regulations promulgated by the department~~[cabinet]~~ under which the withholding exemption allowed to the employee in any calendar year shall approximate the withholding exemption allowable with respect to an annual payroll period.

Section 494. KRS 141.325 is amended to read as follows:

(1) An employee receiving wages shall on any day be entitled to the following withholding exemptions:

(a) One (1) exemption for himself;

(b) One (1) exemption for each dependent for whom he would be entitled to a tax credit under the provisions of KRS 141.020(3)(c);

(c) If the employee is married, the exemption to which his spouse is entitled, or would be entitled if such spouse were an employee, under subparagraph (a) of this subsection, but only if such spouse does not have in effect a withholding exemption certificate claiming such exemption;

(d) Such other withholding exemptions as the department~~[cabinet]~~ may prescribe by regulation.

(2) Every employee shall, on or before July 1, 1954, or before the date of commencement of employment, whichever is later, furnish his employer with a signed withholding exemption certificate relating to the number of withholding exemptions which he claims, which in no event shall exceed the number to which he is entitled.

(3) Withholding exemption certificates shall take effect as of the beginning of the first payroll period ending, or the first payment of wages made without regard to a payroll period, on or after the date on which such certificate is so furnished; provided, that certificates furnished before July 1, 1954, shall be considered as furnished on that date.

(4) A withholding exemption certificate which takes effect under this section shall continue in effect with respect to the employer until another such certificate takes effect under this section. If a withholding exemption certificate is furnished to take the place of an existing certificate, the employer, at his option, may continue the old certificate in force with respect to all wages paid on or before the first status determination date, January 1 or July 1, which occurs at least thirty (30) days after the date on which such new certificate is furnished.

(5) If, on any day during the calendar year, the number of withholding exemptions to which the employee may reasonably be expected to be entitled at the beginning of his next taxable year is different from the number to which the employee is entitled on such day, the employee shall in such cases and at such time as the department[~~cabinet~~] may prescribe, furnish the employer with a withholding exemption certificate relating to the number of exemptions which he claims with respect to such next taxable year, which shall in no event exceed the number to which he may reasonably be expected to be so entitled. Exemption certificates issued pursuant to this subsection shall not take effect with respect to any payment of wages made in the calendar year in which the certificate is furnished.

(6) If, on any day during the calendar year, the number of withholding exemptions to which the employee is entitled is less than the number of withholding exemptions claimed by the employee on the withholding exemption certificate then in effect with respect to him, the employee shall, within ten (10) days thereafter, furnish the employer with a new withholding exemption certificate relating to the number of withholding exemptions which the employee then claims, which shall in no event exceed the number to which he is entitled on such day. If, on any day during the calendar year, the number of withholding exemptions to which the employee is entitled is greater than the number of withholding exemptions claimed, the employee may furnish the employer with a new withholding exemption certificate relating to the number of withholding exemptions which the employee then claims, which shall in no event exceed the number to which he is entitled on such day.

(7) Withholding exemption certificates shall be in such form and contain such information as the department[~~cabinet~~] may by regulations prescribe.

Section 495. KRS 141.330 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Every employer required to deduct and withhold tax under KRS 141.310 and 141.315 shall, for the quarterly period beginning on the first day of January of each year, and for each quarterly period thereafter, on or before the last day of the month following the close of each quarterly period make a return and report to the department[~~cabinet~~] the tax required to be withheld under KRS 141.310 and 141.315, unless the employer is permitted or required to report monthly or annually. Such employer shall, on or before the last day of the month following the close of each quarterly period, pay over to the department[~~cabinet~~] the tax required to be withheld under KRS 141.310 and 141.315; Provided, however, That the department[~~cabinet~~] may, by regulations, require employers to remit the tax withheld under KRS 141.310 and 141.315 within a reasonable time after the payroll period or other period. A return shall be filed by every employer making payment of wages even though no tax has been withheld.

(2) If the department[~~cabinet~~], in any case, has reason to believe that the collection of the tax provided for in subsection (1) of this section is in jeopardy, it may require the employer to make such return and pay such tax at any time.

(3) Every employer, who fails to withhold or pay to the department[~~cabinet~~] any sums required by this chapter to be withheld and paid, shall be personally and individually liable therefor to the Commonwealth; and any sum or sums withheld in accordance with the provisions of KRS 141.310 and 141.315 shall be deemed to be held in trust for the Commonwealth.

(4) The Commonwealth shall have a lien upon all the property of any employer who fails to withhold or pay over to the department[~~cabinet~~] sums required to be withheld under KRS 141.310 and 141.315. If the employer withholds but fails to pay the amounts withheld to the department[~~cabinet~~], the lien shall accrue as of the date the amounts withheld were required to be paid to the department[~~cabinet~~]. If the employer fails to withhold, the lien shall accrue at the time the liability of the employer becomes fixed.

(1) Every person required to deduct and withhold from an employee a tax under KRS 141.310 or 141.315, or who would have been required to deduct and withhold a tax under KRS 141.310 or 141.315 if the employee had claimed no more than one (1) withholding exemption, shall furnish to each such employee in respect of the remuneration paid by such person to such employee during the calendar year, on or before January 31 of the succeeding year, or, if his employment is terminated before the close of such calendar year, on the day on which the last payment of remuneration is made, a written statement showing the following:

(a) the name of such person;

(b) the name of the employee and his social security account number;

(c) the total amount of wages as defined in KRS 141.010; and

(d) the total amount deducted and withheld as tax under KRS 141.310 and 141.315.

(2) The statement required to be furnished by this section in respect of any wages shall be furnished at such other times, shall contain such other information, and shall be in such form as the department[~~cabinet~~] may by regulations prescribe. A duplicate of such statement if made and filed in accordance with regulations prescribed by the department[~~cabinet~~] shall constitute the return required to be made in respect of such wages under KRS 141.150.

(3) The department[~~cabinet~~] may promulgate regulations providing for reasonable extensions of time, not in excess of thirty (30) days, to employers required to furnish statements under this section.

Section 497. KRS 141.345 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Where there has been an overpayment of tax under KRS 141.310 or 141.315, refund or credit shall be made to the employer only to the extent that the amount of such overpayment was not deducted and withheld under KRS 141.310 or 141.315 by the employer.

(2) Unless written application for refund or credit is received by the department[~~cabinet~~] from the employer within four (4) years from the date the overpayment was made, no refund or credit shall be allowed.

Section 498. KRS 141.347 is amended to read as follows:

(1) As used in this section, unless the context requires otherwise:

(a) "Approved company" shall have the same meaning as set forth in KRS 154.22-010;

(b) "Economic development project" shall have the same meaning as set forth in KRS 154.22-010;

(c) "Tax credit" means the "tax credit" allowed in KRS 154.22-010 to 154.22-070.

Section 531. KRS 143.010 is amended to read as follows:

As used in this chapter, unless the context requires otherwise:

(1) "Department[~~Cabinet~~]" means "Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~]."

(2) "Coal" means and includes any material composed predominantly of hydrocarbons in a solid state.

(3) "Severed," "severing," or "severance" means the physical removal of coal from the earth.

(4) "Ton" means a short ton of 2,000 pounds. The number of tons shall be determined at the first point at which the coal is weighed.

(5) "Taxpayer" shall mean and include any individual, partnership, joint venture, association, or corporation engaged in severing and/or processing coal in this state. In instances where contracts, either oral or written, are entered into by which persons, organizations, or businesses are engaged to mine or process the coal but do not obtain title to or do not have an economic interest therein, the party who owns the coal or has an economic interest shall be the taxpayer.

(6) "Gross value" is synonymous with gross income from property as defined in Section 613(c) of the Internal Revenue Code and regulations 1.613-3 and 1.613-4 in effect on December 31, 1977, with the exception that in all instances transportation expense, as defined in subsection (11) of this section, incurred in transporting coal shall not be considered as gross income from the property. Gross value shall be reported as follows:

(a) For coal severed and/or processed and sold during a reporting period, gross value shall be the amount received or receivable by the taxpayer.

(b) For coal severed and/or processed, but not sold during a reporting period, gross value shall be determined as follows:

1. If the coal is to be sold under the terms of an existing contract, the contract price shall be used in computing gross value.

2. If there is no existing contract, the fair market value for that grade and quality of coal shall be used in computing gross value.

(c) In a transaction involving related parties, gross value shall be the amount received or receivable from the first noncontrolled sale by the related parties. If coal is sold to a related party for consumption, gross value shall not be less than the fair market value for coal of similar grade and quality.

(d) In the absence of a sale, gross value shall be the fair market value for coal of similar grade and quality.

(e) If severed coal is purchased for the purpose of processing and resale, the gross value shall be the amount received or receivable during the reporting period reduced by the amount paid or payable to the registered taxpayer actually severing the coal.

(f) If severed coal is purchased for the purpose of processing and consumption, the gross value shall be the fair market value of processed coal of similar grade and quality reduced by the amount paid or payable to the registered taxpayer actually severing the coal.

(g) In all instances, the gross value shall not be reduced by any taxes, including the tax levied by KRS 143.020, royalties, sales commissions, or any other expense.

(7) "Reporting period" means the period for which each taxpayer shall compute his tax liability and remit the tax due to the department[~~cabinet~~]. The reporting period shall be monthly. However, the department[~~cabinet~~] may, under certain conditions, authorize a quarterly reporting period.

(8) "Processing" includes cleaning, breaking, sizing, dust allaying, treating to prevent freezing, or loading or unloading for any purpose. "Processing" shall not include:

(a) Acts performed by a final consumer who is not a related party to the person who severed and/or processed the coal if such acts are performed only at the site where the coal is consumed for purposes of generating electricity; or

(b) The act of unloading or loading for shipment coal that has not been severed, cleaned, broken, sized, or otherwise treated in Kentucky.

(9) "Related party" means two (2) or more persons, organizations, or businesses owned or controlled directly or indirectly by the same interest. Control shall exist if a contract or lease, either written or oral, is entered into whereby one (1) party mines or processes coal owned or held by another party and the owner or lessor participates in the mining, processing, or marketing of the coal or receives any value other than an arm's length passive royalty interest. In the case of related parties, the department[~~cabinet~~] may apportion or allocate the receipts between or among the persons, organizations, or businesses if it determines that the apportionment or allocation is necessary in order to more clearly reflect gross value.

(10) "Economic interest" for the purposes of this chapter shall be synonymous with the economic interest ownership required by Internal Revenue Code Section 611 in effect on December 31, 1977, entitling the taxpayer to a depletion deduction for income tax purposes with the exception that a party who only receives an arm's length royalty shall not be considered as having an economic interest.

(11) "Transportation expense" shall mean:

(a) The amount paid by a taxpayer to a third party for transporting coal from the mine mouth or pit to a processing plant, tipple, or loading dock.

(b) The expense incurred by a taxpayer using his own facilities in transporting coal from the mine mouth or pit to a processing plant, tipple, or loading dock.

(c) Transportation expenses shall not include:

1. The cost of acquisition, improvements, and maintenance of real property;

2. The cost of acquisition and operating expenses of mining and nonmining loading or unloading facilities;

3. The cost of acquisition and operating expenses of equipment used to load or unload the coal at the mine, processing facility, and mining and nonmining loading facility.

(12) "Registered taxpayer" as used in subsection (6)(e) and (f) of this section shall mean a "taxpayer" as defined in subsection (5) of this section who holds a valid coal tax certificate of registration required under KRS 143.030(1) and the certificate of registration was valid for the period in which his coal was sold.

(13) "Above-drainage" means coal in a coal bed that outcrops at the surface within a mine permit area and that is accessed at the outcrop location.

(14) "Below-drainage" means coal in a coal bed that does not outcrop at the surface within a mine permit area and that is accessed by mine slopes or other openings that penetrate the coal a minimum of thirty (30) feet below the surface drainage level.

(15) "Mining ratio" means the amount of bank cubic yards of surface material that must be removed before a ton of coal can be mined.

Section 532. KRS 143.040 is amended to read as follows:

(a) An amount equal to the amount certified by the Transportation Cabinet shall be deposited to the transportation fund (road fund); and

(b) An amount equal to the amount certified by the Kentucky Coal Council shall be transferred by appropriate interfund transfer procedures to the Kentucky Coal Council.

(4) All tax levied by KRS 143.020 collected in excess of the amount required to be deposited to the transportation fund (road fund) or transferred to the Kentucky Coal Council shall be deposited by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] to the credit of the general fund.

(5) If the proceeds of the tax levied by KRS 143.020 are less than the amounts certified under subsections (1) and (2) of this section, the commissioner[~~secretary~~] of revenue shall prorate the proceeds to the transportation fund and the Kentucky Coal Council based upon the ratio of each certified amount to the total of the two (2) certified amounts.

Section 534. KRS 143.025 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Taxpayers severing coal in Kentucky and partially or wholly processing the coal outside of Kentucky thereafter and taxpayers severing coal outside of Kentucky and partially or wholly processing the coal in Kentucky thereafter shall determine and report the gross value of the coal by application of the following formula:

(3) Direct cost determined in subsection (a) of this section divided by the total of direct cost determined in subsection (a) of this section and the direct cost determined in subsection (b) of this section and the result multiplied by the gross value of the coal shall equal the proportion of gross value which is subject to the tax levied under KRS 143.020.

(4) Any taxpayer determining taxable gross value as provided in this section shall submit supporting computations and classifications of cost with each coal tax return, unless the department~~[cabinet]~~ authorizes the taxpayer to submit the supporting information on a basis other than monthly.

(3) Upon receiving the certifications provided for in subsections (1) and (2) of this section, the commissioner[~~secretary~~] of the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] shall cause the certified amounts to be deposited from the proceeds of the tax levied by KRS 143.020 to the credit of the transportation fund and the Kentucky Coal Council, respectively, unless otherwise provided by the General Assembly in a budget bill, as follows:

  (a) An amount equal to the amount certified by the Transportation Cabinet shall be deposited to the transportation fund (road fund); and

  (b) An amount equal to the amount certified by the Kentucky Coal Council shall be transferred by appropriate interfund transfer procedures to the Kentucky Coal Council.

(4) All tax levied by KRS 143.020 collected in excess of the amount required to be deposited to the transportation fund (road fund) or transferred to the Kentucky Coal Council shall be deposited by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] to the credit of the general fund.

(5) If the proceeds of the tax levied by KRS 143.020 are less than the amounts certified under subsections (1) and (2) of this section, the commissioner[~~secretary~~] of revenue shall prorate the proceeds to the transportation fund and the Kentucky Coal Council based upon the ratio of each certified amount to the total of the two (2) certified amounts.

Section 541. KRS 143A.010 is amended to read as follows:

(1) "Department[~~Cabinet~~]" means the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~].

(2) "Natural resource" means all forms of minerals including but not limited to rock, stone, limestone, shale, gravel, sand, clay, natural gas, and natural gas liquids which are contained in or on the soils or waters of this state. For purposes of this chapter, "natural resource" does not include coal and oil which are taxed under KRS 143.020 and 137.120.

(3) "Severing" or "severed" means the physical removal of the natural resource from the earth or waters of this state by any means; however, "severing" or "severed" shall not include the removal of natural gas from underground storage facilities into which the natural gas has been mechanically injected following its initial removal from the earth.

(4) "Taxpayer" means and includes any individual, partnership, joint venture, association, corporation, receiver, trustee, guardian, executor, administrator, fiduciary, or representative of any kind engaged in the business of severing and/or processing natural resources in this state for sale or use. In instances where contracts, either oral or written, are entered into whereby persons, organizations or businesses are engaged in the business of severing and/or processing a natural resource but do not obtain title to or do not have an economic interest therein, the party who owns the natural resource or has an economic interest is the taxpayer.

(5) "Gross value" is synonymous with gross income from property as defined in section 613(c) of the Internal Revenue Code and regulations 1.613-3 and 1.613-4 in effect on December 31, 1977, with the exception that in all instances transportation expense, as defined in subsection (9) of this section incurred in transporting a natural resource shall not be considered as gross income from the property. Gross value is to be reported as follows:

(a) For natural resources severed and/or processed and sold during a reporting period, gross value is the amount received or receivable by the taxpayer.

(b) For natural resources severed and/or processed, but not sold during a reporting period, gross value shall be determined as follows:

1. If the natural resource is to be sold under the terms of an existing contract, the contract price shall be used in computing gross value.

2. If there is no existing contract, the fair market value for that grade and quality of the natural resource shall be used in computing gross value.

(c) In a transaction involving related parties, gross value shall not be less than the fair market value for natural resources of similar grade and quality.

(d) In the absence of a sale, gross value shall be the fair market value for natural resources of similar grade and quality.

(e) If severed natural resources are purchased for the purpose of processing and resale, the gross value is the amount received or receivable during the reporting period reduced by the amount paid or payable to the taxpayer actually severing the natural resource.

(f) If severed natural resources are purchased for the purpose of processing and consumption, the gross value is the fair market value of processed natural resources of similar grade and quality reduced by the amount paid or payable to the taxpayer actually severing the natural resource.

(g) In all instances, the gross value shall not be reduced by any taxes including the tax levied in KRS 143A.020, royalties, sales commissions, or any other expense.

(6) "Processing" includes but is not limited to breaking, crushing, cleaning, drying, sizing, or loading or unloading for any purpose. "Processing" shall not include the act of unloading or loading for shipment natural resources that have not been severed, cleaned, broken, crushed, dried, sized or otherwise treated in Kentucky.

(7) "Related parties" means two (2) or more persons, organizations or businesses owned or controlled directly or indirectly by the same interests.

(8) "Economic interest" for the purpose of this chapter is synonymous with the economic interest ownership required by Internal Revenue Code, Section 611 in effect on December 31, 1977, entitling the taxpayer to a depletion deduction for income tax purposes with the exception that a party who only receives an arm's length royalty shall not be considered as having an economic interest.

(9) (a) "Transportation expense" means:

1. The amount paid by a taxpayer to a third party for transporting natural resources; and

2. The expenses incurred by a taxpayer using his own facilities in transporting natural resources from the point of extraction to a processing plant, tipple, or loading dock.

(b) Transportation expenses shall not include:

1. The cost of acquisition, improvements, and maintenance of real property;

2. The cost of acquisition and operating expenses of mining and nonmining loading or unloading facilities; or

3. The cost of acquisition and operating expenses of equipment used to load or unload the natural resource at the point of extraction, processing facility, or mining and nonmining loading facility.

Section 542. KRS 143A.040 is amended to read as follows:

The Department of Revenue~~[Cabinet]~~ shall administer the provisions of this chapter and shall have all the powers, rights, duties and authority with respect to rules and regulations, collection, refunding and administration of the taxes levied by KRS 143A.020 conferred generally on it by the Kentucky Revised Statutes, including KRS Chapters 131, 134 and 135.

Section 543. KRS 143A.050 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Every taxpayer as defined in KRS 143A.010(4) shall, before June 1, 1980, or before engaging in the severing or processing of a natural resource subjected to tax under KRS 143A.020, obtain a certificate of registration by filing with the department[~~cabinet~~] an application in such form and containing such information as the department[~~cabinet~~] may prescribe. Every application shall be signed by the owner if a natural person; in the case of an association or partnership, by a member or partner; in the case of a corporation, by an executive officer or some person specifically authorized by the corporation to sign the application.

(2) Whenever any taxpayer fails to comply with any provisions of this section through KRS 143A.130 or any rule or regulation of the department[~~cabinet~~] relating thereto, the department[~~cabinet~~] may suspend or revoke the certificate of registration held by such taxpayer.

(3) The Commonwealth may bring an action for a restraining order or a temporary or permanent injunction to restrain or enjoin operation of a taxpayer's business being operated without a certificate of registration. Such action may be brought in the Franklin Circuit Court or in the Circuit Court having jurisdiction of the taxpayer.

Section 544. KRS 143A.060 is amended to read as follows:

Notwithstanding any other provisions of this chapter to the contrary:

(1) In the case of natural resources other than natural gas, where the department[~~cabinet~~] finds that it would facilitate and expedite the collection of the tax imposed under KRS 143A.020, the department[~~cabinet~~] may authorize the taxpayer processing the natural resource to report and pay the tax which would be due from the taxpayer severing the natural resource. Authorization from the department[~~cabinet~~] shall be in the form of an agreement executed by the taxpayer processing the natural resource, the taxpayer severing the natural resource, and the department[~~cabinet~~]. The agreement shall be in such form as the department[~~cabinet~~] may prescribe. The agreement must be signed by the owners if the taxpayers are natural persons; in the case of a partnership or association by a partner or member; in the case of a corporation, by an executive officer or some person specifically authorized by the corporation to sign the application. The director of legal services shall sign for the department[~~cabinet~~]. The agreement may be terminated by any party to the agreement upon giving thirty (30) days' written notice to the other parties to the agreement; however, the department[~~cabinet~~] may terminate the agreement immediately upon written notice to the other parties when either the taxpayer processing the natural resource or the taxpayer severing the natural resource fails to comply with the terms of the agreement; and

(2) (a) In the case of natural gas, except for those cases:

1. Where the person severing or severing and processing the natural gas will sell the gas to the ultimate consumer; or

2. Where the department[~~cabinet~~] determines that the collection of the taxes due under KRS 143A.020 would be accomplished in a more efficient and effective manner through the severor, or severor and processor, remitting the taxes, the first person to purchase the natural gas after it has been severed, or in the event that the natural gas has been severed and processed before the first sale, the first person to purchase the natural gas after it has been severed and processed, shall be liable for the collection of the tax imposed under KRS 143A.020. He shall collect the taxes imposed from the person severing, or severing and processing, the natural gas, and he shall remit the taxes to the department[~~cabinet~~]. In those cases where the person severing or severing and processing the natural gas sells the gas to the ultimate consumer, the person so severing or severing and processing the natural gas shall be liable for the tax imposed under KRS 143A.020. In those cases where the department[~~cabinet~~] determines that the collection of the taxes due under KRS 143A.020 from the severance or severance and processing of natural gas would be accomplished in a more efficient and effective manner through the severor, or severor and processor, remitting the taxes, the department[~~cabinet~~] shall set out its determination in writing, stating its reasons for so finding, and so advise the severor or severor and processor at least fifteen (15) days in advance of the first reporting period for which such action would be effective.

(b) On or before the last day of the month following each calendar month, each person first purchasing natural gas as described in paragraph (a) of this subsection, shall report purchases of natural gas during the month, showing the quantities of gas purchased, the price paid, the date of purchase, and any other information deemed necessary by the department[~~cabinet~~] for the administration of the tax levied by KRS 143A.020, and shall pay the amount of tax due, on forms prescribed by the department[~~cabinet~~].

(c) On or before the last day of the month following each calendar month, each person severing, or severing and processing natural gas, shall report the sales of natural gas, showing the name and address of the person to whom sold, the quantity of gas sold, the date of sale, and the sales price on forms prescribed by the department[~~cabinet~~].

Section 545. KRS 143A.070 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Whenever it is deemed necessary to insure compliance with KRS 143A.050 to 143A.130, the department[~~cabinet~~] may require any taxpayer to post a cash or corporate surety bond.

(2) The amount of the bond shall be fixed by the department[~~cabinet~~] but, except as provided in subsection (3) of this section, shall not be greater than three (3) times the average quarterly liability of taxpayers filing returns for quarterly periods, five (5) times the average monthly liability of taxpayers required to file returns for monthly periods, or two (2) times the average periodic liability of taxpayers permitted or required to file returns for other than monthly or quarterly periods.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (2) of this section, no bond required under this section shall be less than five hundred dollars ($500).

(4) The amount of the bond provided herein may be increased or decreased by the department~~[cabinet]~~ at any time subject to the limitations herein provided.

(5) The Commonwealth may bring an action for a restraining order or a temporary or permanent injunction to restrain or enjoin the operation of a taxpayer's business until the bond is posted and any delinquent tax, including applicable interest and penalties, has been paid. Such action may be brought in the Franklin Circuit Court or in the Circuit Court having jurisdiction of the taxpayer.

Section 546. KRS 143A.080 is amended to read as follows:

(1) On or before the last day of the month following each calendar month, every taxpayer shall report the gross value of natural resources sold, processed, or used during the preceding month and pay the amount of tax due on forms prescribed by the department~~[cabinet]~~.

(2) Returns shall be signed by the taxpayer required to file the return or by his duly authorized agent but need not be verified by oath.

(3) Returns required under this section shall contain such information as the department~~[cabinet]~~ deems necessary for the proper administration of this chapter.

(4) The taxpayer required to file the return provided under this section shall deliver the return together with a remittance of the amount of the tax due to the department~~[cabinet]~~.

(5) For purposes of facilitating the administration, payment, or collection of the taxes levied by KRS 143A.020, the department~~[cabinet]~~ may permit or require returns or tax payments for periods other than monthly. When permitted, returns for other than monthly periods shall be filed and paid in such manner as the department~~[cabinet]~~ may prescribe.

(6) No taxpayer shall change from the reporting system required under this section or permitted in writing by the department~~[cabinet]~~, without the written authorization of the department~~[cabinet]~~.

(7) A tax return is required for each reporting period even though there may be no tax due.

Section 547. KRS 143A.100 is amended to read as follows:

(1) As soon as practicable after each return is received, the department~~[cabinet]~~ shall examine and audit it. If the amount of tax computed by the department~~[cabinet]~~ is greater than the amount returned by the taxpayer, the excess shall be assessed by the department~~[cabinet]~~ within four (4) years from the date the return was filed, except as provided in subsection (4) of this section and except that in the case of a failure to file a return or of a fraudulent return the excess may be assessed at any time. A notice of such assessment shall be mailed to the taxpayer. The time herein provided may be extended by agreement between the taxpayer and the department~~[cabinet]~~.

(2) For the purpose of subsections (1) and (4) of this section, a return filed before the last day prescribed by law for the filing thereof shall be considered as filed on such last day.

(3) When a business is discontinued, a determination may be made at any time thereafter within the periods specified in subsection (1) of this section as to liability arising out of that business, irrespective of whether the determination is issued prior to the due date of the liability as otherwise specified in KRS 143A.080.

(4) Notwithstanding the four (4) year time limitation of subsection (1) of this section, in the case of a return where the tax computed by the department~~[cabinet]~~ is greater by twenty-five percent (25%) or more than the amount returned by the taxpayer, the excess shall be assessed by the department~~[cabinet]~~ within six (6) years from the date the return was filed.

Section 548. KRS 143A.120 is amended to read as follows:

In making a determination of tax liability the department~~[cabinet]~~ may offset overpayments for a period or periods, together with interest on the overpayments, against underpayments for another period or periods, against penalties, and against the interest on the underpayments.

Section 549. KRS 143A.130 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Every taxpayer liable for the reporting or payment of the taxes levied by KRS 143A.020 shall keep such records, receipts, invoices, and other pertinent papers in such form as the department~~[cabinet]~~ may require.

(2) Every such taxpayer shall keep such records for not less than four (4) years from the making of such records unless the department~~[cabinet]~~ in writing sooner authorizes their destruction.

Section 550. KRS 143A.140 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The taxes paid pursuant to the provisions of this chapter shall be refunded or credited in the manner provided in KRS 134.580.

(2) A claim for refund or credit shall be made on a form prescribed by the department~~[cabinet]~~ and shall contain such information as the department~~[cabinet]~~ may require.

As used in KRS 144.110 to 144.130, unless the context requires otherwise:

(1) "Air transportation facilities and related equipment" means any facilities, improvements, or equipment located at an airport and used, directly or indirectly, by the certificated air carrier or its customers in the carrier's business of transporting persons or property for hire. It includes exclusive space leased or owned by the certificated air carrier, common access areas, concession areas, aircraft ramps, taxiways, roadways, and vehicles which are part of an intra-airport train, subway, or automated fixed guideway transit system, but excludes any other ground vehicles and aircraft.

(2) "Investment" means all costs which, consistent with the fundamental project scope, the certificated air carrier, airport operator, or any bond trustee pays, commits to pay, or incurs in any manner for the purchase or acquisition of additional air transportation facilities for which construction was started after the base period, and related equipment which was not located at an airport in this Commonwealth prior to the base period. Included are costs directly related to the design, construction, purchase, acquisition, lease, use, or financing of part or all of the additional air transportation facilities and related equipment whether owned, leased, or used by the carrier or its customers. Financing costs shall be limited to the principal amount of bonds or other obligations, capitalized interest, and any related issuance costs and expenses. The total investment shall not be offset or otherwise reduced if the certificated air carrier or airport operator is or subsequently becomes eligible for any reimbursement from either federal funds or other funds which may be available, including funds generated directly or indirectly from passenger facility charges. Likewise, any subsequent adjustment to the total investment provided in a carrier's contractual obligation shall not adversely affect the amount of the investment if the fundamental project scope is not reduced.

(3) "Annual period" means the certificated air carrier's taxable year as provided in KRS 141.140.

(4) "Base period" means the certificated air carrier's annual period ending in 1990.

(5) "Contractually obligated" or "contractual obligation" means having entered into a written agreement or commitment to make an investment in air transportation facilities and related equipment in this state.

(6) "Gross Kentucky real wage base" means the wages subject to Kentucky income tax and Kentucky income tax withholding pursuant to KRS Chapter 141, paid by a certificated air carrier during the base period adjusted to reflect changes in the United States Department of Labor's "Employment Cost Index - Wages and Salaries" for the transportation industry or, at the option of the carrier and upon verification by the Department of Revenue[~~Cabinet~~], the carrier's actual general wage increases, through the end of the annual period for which tax credit is claimed pursuant to KRS 144.125.

(7) "Nonqualifying employees" means employees of the certificated air carrier whose employment with the carrier began after the base period; and

(a) The employees perform essentially the same functions which, by contract or otherwise, were performed in this Commonwealth for the carrier by another company at any time after the base period; or

(b) Their employment continued in this Commonwealth as the result of the carrier's purchase, merger, or other acquisition of or combination with another company.

(8) "Fundamental project scope" means the total project consisting of the additional air transportation facilities and related equipment as reflected in the carrier's application filed pursuant to KRS 144.130. It shall be measured by the carrier's increased capacity. Measures of increased capacity may include such factors as square footage, cost, employment, passenger or freight loadings or handling capabilities, number of aircraft departures, and other factors related to the increased investment.

Section 552. KRS 144.120 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Subject to the provisions of subsections (4), (5), and (6) of this section and KRS 144.130, any certificated air carrier which is engaged in the air transportation of persons or property for hire shall be entitled to a Kentucky sales and use tax credit, as computed in subsection (3) of this section, on aircraft fuel, including jet fuel, purchased after June 30, 1991, for any annual period in which the carrier meets or exceeds the investment or fuel purchase qualification requirements prescribed in subsection (2) of this section.

(2) To qualify for the sales and use tax credit provided in subsection (1) of this section, the certificated air carrier shall:

(a) Prior to or during the annual period for which the credit is claimed, have made, caused to be made, or obtained contractual obligations to make, consistent with the fundamental project scope, an investment in the aggregate of at least three hundred million dollars ($300,000,000) in new and expanded air transportation facilities and related equipment in this Commonwealth; or

(b) During the annual period for which the credit is claimed, purchase and place into the fuel supply tank of its aircraft in this state not less than one hundred million (100,000,000) gallons of aircraft fuel, including jet fuel, for the carrier's direct operation of the aircraft in interstate or foreign commerce exclusively for the conveyance of property or passengers for hire. Nominal use of the aircraft fuel in intrastate commerce shall not affect this provision.

(3) The sales and use tax credit shall be an amount equal to the Kentucky sales and use tax otherwise applicable to aircraft fuel, including jet fuel, purchased by the certificated air carrier for its storage, use, or other consumption during the annual period, less four million dollars ($4,000,000). The four million dollar ($4,000,000) amount shall be increased to reflect the Kentucky sales and use tax on aviation fuel attributable to operations of any other company purchased, merged, acquired, or otherwise combined with the certificated air carrier after the base period. The amount of the increase shall be based on the Kentucky sales and use tax applicable to such aircraft fuel purchased during the twelve (12) month period immediately preceding the purchase, merger, or other acquisition by or combination with the certificated air carrier.

(4) To facilitate administration of the tax credit provided pursuant to this section, each qualifying certificated air carrier purchasing aircraft fuel, including jet fuel, on which the Kentucky sales and use tax for the annual period is reasonably expected to exceed the amount provided in subsection (3) of this section shall report and pay directly to the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] the tax applicable to aircraft fuel, including jet fuel, purchased for its storage, use, or other consumption during the annual period, less the credit provided herein.

(5) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1) of this section, no certificated air carrier shall be entitled to any tax credit pursuant to this section unless the carrier meets the requirements of subsection (2) of this section by the annual period ending in 1997.

(6) Each certificated air carrier claiming the sales and use tax credit authorized pursuant to this section shall file an annual sales and use tax reconciliation report with the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] on or before the fifteenth day of the fourth month following the end of each annual period for which the credit is claimed. The report shall be filed as provided in KRS 144.137.

Section 553. KRS 144.125 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Subject to the provisions of subsections (4) through (9) of this section and KRS 144.130, any certificated air carrier which is engaged in the air transportation of persons or property for hire shall be entitled to a general tax credit, as computed in subsection (3) of this section, for any annual period in which the certificated air carrier meets or exceeds the investment and gross wage qualification requirements prescribed in subsection (2) of this section and has elected to begin claiming the credit.

(2) To qualify for the general tax credit provided in subsection (1) of this section, the certificated air carrier shall:

(a) Prior to or during the annual period for which the credit is claimed, have made, caused to be made, or obtained contractual obligations to make, consistent with the fundamental project scope, an investment in the aggregate of at least three hundred million dollars ($300,000,000) in new and expanded air transportation facilities and related equipment in this Commonwealth; and

(b) During the annual period for which the credit is claimed, have gross wages subject to Kentucky income tax and Kentucky income tax withholding pursuant to KRS Chapter 141 which are at least fifteen million dollars ($15,000,000) greater than its gross Kentucky real wage base. In calculating the gross wages paid for the annual period for which the credit is claimed, there shall not be included the wages of any nonqualifying employees of the certificated air carrier.

(3) The general tax credit shall be an amount equal to ten percent (10%) of the increase in gross wages subject to Kentucky income tax and Kentucky income tax withholding paid by the certificated air carrier during the annual period as compared to the carrier's gross Kentucky real wage base. In calculating the gross wages paid for the annual period for which the credit is claimed, there shall not be included the wages of any nonqualifying employees of the certificated air carrier.

(4) The general tax credit may accrue for only five (5) consecutive annual periods of the qualifying certificated air carrier. The five (5) year limitation period shall begin at the election of the qualifying certificated air carrier, but not later than the carrier's annual period beginning in 1997. The tax credit shall accrue to the carrier only for the annual periods during which the carrier meets or exceeds the requirements as provided in subsection (2) of this section.

(5) The general tax credit authorized to a qualifying certificated air carrier shall not exceed three million dollars ($3,000,000) for any annual period.

(6) The general tax credit authorized to a qualifying certificated air carrier shall not exceed a total of fifteen million dollars ($15,000,000).

(7) The general tax credit authorized shall be claimed by the qualifying certificated air carrier first against its Kentucky corporation income tax liability, then against its Kentucky corporation license tax liability, with any remaining balance to be claimed against its Kentucky sales and use tax liability. The credit shall not be applied to any other liability due the Commonwealth. The Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] may prescribe the method or manner for the qualifying certificated air carrier to claim the tax credit on applicable tax returns filed with the department[~~cabinet~~].

(8) If the tax liabilities against which the tax credit is to be claimed pursuant to subsection (7) of this section are not sufficient to fully absorb the allowable tax credit, or if a net operating loss carryback or other subsequent adjustment reduces the carrier's liability against which a credit authorized by this section has previously been claimed, the unused or excess balance of the allowable credit may be applied against the carrier's liabilities for the specified taxes for previous or subsequent annual periods within the five (5) year limitation period. However, no refund in excess of the net tax actually paid by the carrier shall be made by the Commonwealth because of the carrier's application of the unused or excess credit. Interest shall not apply to any tax refunded for a prior period resulting from the credit carryback provisions of this subsection.

(9) Each certificated air carrier claiming the general tax credit authorized pursuant to this section shall file an annual general tax credit reconciliation report with the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] on or before the fifteenth day of the fourth month following the end of each annual period for which the credit is claimed. The report shall be filed as provided in KRS 144.135 to 144.139 for each type tax against which the credit is applied.

Section 554. KRS 144.130 is amended to read as follows:

(1) No certificated air carrier shall claim any tax credit pursuant to KRS 144.110 to 144.130 until its entitlement thereto is first determined by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~]. Upon application to the department[~~cabinet~~], a certificated air carrier desiring to claim a tax credit pursuant to KRS 144.110 to 144.130 shall present documentation as may reasonably be required by the department[~~cabinet~~] to define the fundamental project scope and verify the required investment, the increased capacity which is to result from the investment, and the anticipated project completion date. Documentation may include the carrier's contractual obligations, its corporation board resolutions or stockholder reports, airport board resolutions or actions, related financial transactions, and any other documentation which defines or describes the fundamental project scope and the carrier's planned investment and increased capacity. The commissioner of the Department of Revenue[~~secretary of the Revenue Cabinet~~] shall, upon the department's[~~cabinet's~~] review of the documentation submitted by the carrier, make a tax credit entitlement determination and immediately give notice thereof to the carrier. In making an entitlement determination, the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] shall seek whatever third-party counsel and advice deemed appropriate to satisfy itself that the fundamental project scope is sufficient to support at least a three hundred million dollar ($300,000,000) investment in additional air transportation facilities and related equipment. An entitlement granted by the commissioner of the Department of Revenue[~~secretary of the Revenue Cabinet~~] for a certificated air carrier to claim any tax credit pursuant to KRS 144.110 to 144.139 shall be subject to the provisions of subsection (2) of this section.

(2) Any certificated air carrier which is granted entitlement to claim any tax credit pursuant to KRS 144.110 to 144.130 shall, by the anticipated project completion date specified in the carrier's application filed pursuant to subsection (1) of this section, but not later than the carrier's annual period ending in 1997, demonstrate to the satisfaction of the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] that an investment of at least three hundred million dollars ($300,000,000) has been made or that the carrier has completed at least ninety percent (90%) of the fundamental project scope. An investment of three hundred million dollars ($300,000,000) or the completion of at least ninety percent (90%) of the fundamental project scope shall constitute fulfillment of the investment requirement. Without precluding the carrier's demonstration by other means, completion of ninety percent (90%) of the projected increased passenger or freight handling or loading capacity, as measured by the number of gates or loading facilities, or completion of at least ninety percent (90%) of the total square footage of the buildings, including the fixtures and equipment therefor, which were to be constructed and equipped as a part of the fundamental project scope shall demonstrate completion of at least ninety percent (90%) of the fundamental project scope. If the carrier has not made an investment of at least three hundred million dollars ($300,000,000) and has not completed at least ninety percent (90%) of the fundamental project scope by the anticipated project completion date, but not later than the carrier's annual period ending in 1997, all or a portion of the tax credit otherwise authorized pursuant to KRS 144.110 to 144.130 shall be forfeited as follows:

Fundamental Project Scope Completion Percentage	Portion of Credit Forfeited
At least 80%, but less than 90%	25%
At least 70%, but less than 80%	50%
Less than 70%	100%

(3) The Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] shall be responsible for determining the extent of the certificated air carrier's completion of the fundamental project scope. In making the determination, the cabinet shall consult with the certificated air carrier, the affected airport board and, if deemed necessary, with other persons.

(4) Subject to the provisions of KRS 131.110, notwithstanding the provisions of KRS 136.076, 139.620, 141.210, 413.120, or any other provision of the Kentucky Revised Statutes limiting the time for assessing taxes, the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] shall assess against the carrier the amount of any tax credit previously claimed which is forfeited pursuant to subsection (2) of this section. Interest at the tax interest rate as defined in KRS 131.010(6) shall apply to the forfeited tax credit amount from the date the credit was claimed until reimbursement is made to the Commonwealth. The carrier shall be allowed to claim in any applicable subsequent annual periods only that portion of the credit otherwise authorized pursuant to KRS 144.110 to 144.130 which has not been forfeited as provided in this section.

If the tourism attraction project is an entertainment destination center, the sales tax refund shall be dedicated to a public infrastructure purpose that shall relate to the tourism attraction project and shall be approved by the secretary of the Tourism Development Cabinet. The applicant shall submit the public infrastructure purpose with its application. Based upon a review of these materials, if the secretary of the Tourism Development Cabinet determines that the eligible company and the tourism attraction project may reasonably satisfy the criteria for final approval in subsection (4) of this section, then the secretary of the Tourism Development Cabinet may submit a written request to the authority requesting that the authority consider a preliminary approval of the eligible company and the tourism attraction project.

(4) After receiving a preliminary approval by the authority, the secretary of the Tourism Development Cabinet shall engage the services of a competent consulting firm to analyze the data made available by the eligible company and to collect and analyze additional information necessary to determine that, in the independent judgment of the consultant, the tourism attraction project:

(50%) of its visitors from among persons who are not residents of the Commonwealth;

Approval shall not be granted if it is determined that there is no projected net positive economic impact to the Commonwealth.

(6) The eligible company shall pay for the cost of the consultant's report and shall cooperate with the consultant and provide all of the data that the consultant deems necessary to make its determination under subsection (4) of this section.

(7) After a review of relevant materials, the consultant's report, and completion of other inquiries, the secretary of the Tourism Development Cabinet shall, by written notification to the authority, provide a recommendation to the authority regarding final approval of the tourism attraction project.

b. The original completion date specified in the agreement, if this completion date is within three (3) years of the date of the final approval of the project. An extension of the original completion date shall not alter the commencement date of the term;

2. Within forty-five (45) days after the end of each fiscal year of the approved company, during the term of the agreement, the approved company shall supply the authority with such reports and certifications as the authority may request demonstrating to the satisfaction of the authority that the approved company is in compliance with the provisions of KRS 139.536 and KRS 148.851 to 148.860. 3. The approved company shall not receive a sales tax refund as prescribed by KRS 139.536 with respect to any fiscal year if:

b. In any year following the first year of the agreement, the tourism attraction project is not operating and open to the public for at least one hundred (100) days; and

(d) Upon request from an approved company that has completed at least fifty percent (50%) of an entertainment destination center, the authority shall grant an extension of up to three (3) years to the completion date specified in the agreement of the approved company, in addition to the extension provided for in paragraph (b) of this subsection. In no event shall the completion date be more than six (6) years from the date of final approval. The extension provided for in this paragraph shall be subject to the following conditions:

1. The approved company shall have spent or have contractually obligated to spend an amount equal to or greater than the amount of approved costs set forth in the initial agreement;

2. The term of the agreement shall not be extended; and

3. The scope of the entertainment destination center, as set forth in the initial agreement, shall not be altered to include new or additional entertainment and leisure options.

(3) Prior to the preparation of definitive bonds, the authority may, under like restrictions, issue interim receipts or temporary bonds, with or without coupons, exchangeable for definitive bonds when such bonds shall have been executed and are available for delivery. The authority may also provide for the replacement of any bonds which shall become mutilated or shall be destroyed or lost.

4. Investors shall lose all rights to any unused credits allocated to an investment fund that does not make a qualified investment within one (1) year of the date of the agreement with the authority or within any one (1) year period thereafter through the end of the term of the agreement.

Any payments made by an investment fund manager pursuant to this subsection may be passed on to the investment fund manager's investment fund.

(e) The applicant's demonstrated ability to manage the investment fund; and

(f) The amount of credits requested by the investment fund and the total amount of credits which may be granted to investors under KRS 154.20-258.

(6) Following the making of a qualified investment, the investment fund manager shall within sixty (60) days file a disclosure form with the authority detailing the following information:

(7) An investment fund manager and its affiliates may operate no more than three (3) separate investment funds pursuant to separate applications submitted to and approved by the authority, provided the investment fund manager is in compliance with any applicable state and federal securities laws and regulations as evidenced by a written statement to the authority by an investment fund manager to that effect.

(8) An investment fund manager seeking to expand a previously approved investment fund shall submit to the authority an amended application in a form acceptable to the authority.

(9) An investment fund shall lose all unused credits that are available to its investors if the investment fund does not make a qualified investment within one (1) year of the date of the agreement or within any one (1) year period thereafter through the end of the term of the agreement.

(10) The contents of the information form required under subsections (1), (2), and (6) of this section shall be treated by the authority and by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] as confidential and shall not be considered public records under KRS 61.870 to 61.884.

(11) The authority, in consultation with the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~], may establish additional procedures and standards, as it deems necessary for the approval of investment funds and investment fund managers, and for the allocation and granting of investment tax credits by the promulgation of administrative regulations in accordance with the provisions of KRS Chapter 13A.

(1) An investor shall be entitled to a nonrefundable credit equal to forty percent (40%) of the investor's proportional ownership share of all qualified investments made by its investment fund and verified by the authority. The aggregate tax credit available to any investor shall not exceed forty percent (40%) of the cash contribution made by the investor to its investment fund. The credit may be applied against the income tax imposed by KRS 141.020 or 141.040, the corporation license tax imposed by KRS 136.070, the insurance taxes imposed by KRS 136.320, 136.330, and 304.3-270, and the taxes on financial institutions imposed by KRS 136.300, 136.310, and 136.505.

(2) The tax credit amount that may be claimed by an investor in any tax year shall not exceed fifty percent (50%) of the initial aggregate credit amount approved by the authority for the investment fund which would be proportionally available to the investor. An investor may first claim the credit granted in subsection (1) of this section in the year following the year in which the credit is granted.

(3) If the credit amount that may be claimed in any tax year, as determined under subsections (1) and (2) of this section, exceeds the investor's combined tax liabilities against which the credit may be claimed for that year, the investor may carry the excess tax credit forward until the tax credit is used, but the carry-forward of any excess tax credit shall not increase the fifty percent (50%) limitation established by subsection (2) of this section. Any tax credits not used within fifteen (15) years of the approval by the authority of the aggregate tax credit amount available to the investor shall be lost.

(4) The tax credits allowed by this section shall not apply to any liability an investor may have for interest, penalties, past due taxes, or any other additions to the investor's tax liability. The holder of the tax credit shall assume any and all liabilities and responsibilities of the credit.

(5) The tax credits allowed by this section are not transferable, except that:

(a) A nonprofit entity may transfer, for some or no consideration, any or all of the credits it receives under this section and any related benefits, rights, responsibilities, and liabilities. Within thirty (30) days of the date of any transfer of credits pursuant to this subsection, the nonprofit entity shall notify the authority and the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] of:

1. The name, address, and Social Security number or employer identification number, as may be applicable, of the party to which the nonprofit entity transferred its credits;
2. The amount of credits transferred; and
3. Any additional information the authority or the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] deems necessary.

(b) If an investor is an entity and is a party to a merger, acquisition, consolidation, dissolution, liquidation, or similar corporate reorganization, the tax credits shall pass through to the investor's successor.

(c) If an individual investor dies, the tax credits shall pass to the investor's estate or beneficiaries in a manner consistent with the transfer of ownership of the investor's interest in the investment fund.

(6) The tax credit amount that may be claimed by an investor shall reflect only the investor's participation in qualified investments properly reported to the authority by the investment fund manager. No tax credit authorized by this section shall become effective until the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] receives notification from the authority that includes:

(a) A statement that a qualified investment has been made that is in compliance with KRS 154.20-250 to 154.20-284 and all applicable regulations; and

(b) A list of each investor in the investment fund that owns a portion of the small business in which a qualified investment has been made by virtue of an investment in the investment fund, and each investor's amount of credit granted to the investor for each qualified investment.

The authority shall, within sixty (60) days of approval of credits, notify the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] of the information required pursuant to this subsection and notify each investor of the amount of credits granted to that investor, and the year the credits may first be claimed.

(7) After the date on which investors in an investment fund have cumulatively received an amount of credits equal to the amount of credits allocated to the investment fund by the authority, no investor shall receive additional credits by virtue of its investment in that investment fund unless the investment fund's allocation of credits is increased by the authority pursuant to an amended application.

(8) The maximum amount of credits to be authorized by the authority shall be three million dollars ($3,000,000) for each of fiscal years 2002-03 and 2003-04.

(1) An investment fund that violates the provisions of KRS 154.20-250 to 154.20-284 shall pay to the State Treasurer a penalty in an amount equal to the amount of all credits claimed by the investors when these credits are determined to be derived from unqualified investments, plus interest at the rate of two percent (2%) per month, compounded monthly, from the date the credits were taken. If the investment fund fails to pay the penalty and interest in full as required by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~], each investor shall be personally liable to the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] for that investor's share of the unpaid penalty, which shall be determined by the amount of credits received and utilized by the investor and all applicable interest. Any payment of unpaid penalty by an investor shall be included with the investor's state tax return for the period in which the failure or violation occurred. The commissioner of the Department of Revenue[~~secretary of the Revenue Cabinet~~] shall give notice in writing to the authority, the investment fund manager, and the investors of any penalties imposed. The commissioner of the Department of Revenue[~~secretary of the Revenue Cabinet~~] may abate any imposed penalty upon written request, if the investment fund manager establishes reasonable cause for the failure to make qualified investments in small businesses under the provisions of KRS 154.20-250 to 154.20-284, or to otherwise comply with the provisions of KRS 154.20-250 to 154.20-284. The State Treasurer shall deposit any amounts received pursuant to this section in the Commonwealth's general fund.

(2) The administration of this section shall be the responsibility of the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~].

(1) Each investment fund manager shall file an annual report with the commissioner of the Department of Revenue[~~secretary of the Revenue Cabinet~~] and with the authority, on or before February 15 of each year during which it manages an investment fund. The audit shall address the financial condition of the investment fund and compliance with the provisions of KRS 141.068 and KRS 154.20-250 to 154.20-284. The authority or the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] may also audit, for cause, any small business in which an investment fund has made a qualified investment. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] from conducting any audit relating to the administration or enforcement of the tax laws of the Commonwealth which the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] determines to be appropriate.

(4) If any audit conducted pursuant to this section discloses that an investment fund or investment fund manager is not in compliance with the provisions of KRS 141.068 and KRS 154.20-250 to 154.20-284, the authority and the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] may consult with one another with respect to this noncompliance and the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] may exercise any of its powers to protect the Commonwealth's interest and to enforce the provisions of KRS 141.068 and KRS 154.20-250 to 154.20-284.

(5) The authority may give an investment fund manager written notice of any noncompliance with the provisions of KRS 154.20-250 to 154.20-284 and specify a period of time the investment fund manager shall have to cure any noncompliance. If any examination or investigation conducted pursuant to any securities laws or regulations discloses that an investment fund or investment fund manager is not in compliance with any provision of any applicable securities laws or regulations, the appropriate securities regulator may take whatever action it deems appropriate in accordance with such securities laws and regulations to respond to the noncompliance, notwithstanding any action the authority or the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] may or may not take with respect to the noncompliance.

The authority may enter into, with any approved company, a tax incentive agreement with respect to its economic development project, upon adoption of a resolution authorizing the tax incentive agreement. Subject to the inclusion of the mandatory provisions set forth below, the terms and provisions of each tax incentive agreement shall be determined by negotiations between the authority and the approved company.

(1) The tax incentive agreement shall set forth the maximum amount of inducements available to the approved company for recovery of the approved costs authorized by the authority and expended by the approved company.

(2) The approved company shall expend the authorized approved costs for the economic development project within three (3) years of the date of the final approval by the authority.

(3) The approved company shall provide the authority with documentation as to the expenditures for approved costs in a manner acceptable to the authority.

(4) The term of the tax incentive agreement shall commence upon the activation date and will terminate upon the earlier of the full receipt of the maximum amount of inducements by the approved company or fifteen (15) years after the activation date.

(5) The tax incentive agreement shall include the activation date. To implement the activation date, the approved company shall notify the authority, the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~], and the approved company's employees of the activation date when the implementation of the inducements authorized in the tax incentive agreement shall occur. If the approved company does not satisfy the minimum investment and minimum employment requirements of KRS 154.22-040(3) by the activation date, the approved company shall not be entitled to receive inducements pursuant to this subchapter until the approved company satisfies the requirements; however, the fifteen (15) year period for the term of the tax incentive agreement shall begin from the activation date. Notwithstanding the previous sentence, if the approved company does not satisfy the minimum investment and minimum employment requirements of KRS 154.22-040(3) within two (2) years from the date of final approval of the tax incentive agreement, then the approved company shall be ineligible to receive inducements under this subchapter unless an extension is approved by the authority.

(6) The tax agreement shall also state that if the total number of new full-time employees at the site of the economic development project who are residents of the Commonwealth and subject to the Kentucky income tax is less than fifteen (15) at any time after activation, the authorized inducements shall be suspended for a period of up to one (1) year. If the company does not have at least fifteen (15) new full-time employees at the site who are residents of the Commonwealth and subject to Kentucky income tax within one (1) year from the date of the initial suspension, the inducements may be terminated at the discretion of the authority.

(7) The approved company shall comply with the hourly wage criteria set forth in KRS 154.22-040(4) and provide documentation in connection with hourly wages paid to its full-time employees hired as a result of the economic development project in a manner acceptable to the authority.

(8) The approved company may be permitted the following inducements during the term of the tax incentive agreement:

(b) The aggregate assessments withheld by the approved company in each year.

(9) The income tax credited to the approved company shall be credited for the fiscal year for which the tax return of the approved company is filed. The total inducements may not exceed authorized cumulative approved costs paid by the approved company in the period commencing with the date of final approval.

(10) The approved company shall not be required to pay estimated income tax payments as prescribed in KRS 141.042 on the Kentucky taxable income generated by or arising from the economic development project.

(11) The tax incentive agreement may be assigned by the approved company only upon the prior written consent of the authority following the adoption of a resolution by the authority to that effect.

(12) The tax incentive agreement shall provide that if an approved company fails to comply with its obligations under the tax incentive agreement then the authority shall have the right, at its option, to:

(a) Suspend the income tax credits and assessments available to the approved company;

(b) Pursue any remedy provided under the tax incentive agreement, including termination thereof; and

(c) Pursue any other remedy at law to which it may be entitled.

(13) All remedies provided in subsection (12) of this section shall be deemed to be cumulative.

(2) By October 1 of each year, the Department of Revenue~~[Cabinet]~~ of the Commonwealth shall certify to the authority in the form of an annual report, aggregate income tax credits claimed on tax returns filed during the fiscal year ending June 30 of that year, and assessments taken by approved companies with respect to their economic development projects during the prior calendar year under this subchapter, and shall certify to the authority, within ninety (90) days from the date an approved company has filed its state income tax return, when an approved company has taken income tax credits equal to its total inducements.

(1) Before any approved company engaged in service or technology activity is granted inducements under KRS 154.23-005 to 154.23-079, a service and technology agreement with respect to the approved company's economic development project shall be entered into between the authority and the approved company. The terms and provisions of the service and technology agreement, including the amount of approved costs, shall be determined by negotiations between the authority and the approved company, subject to inclusion of the following mandatory provisions:

(a) The term of the service and technology agreement shall commence upon the activation date and shall terminate upon the earlier of the full receipt of the maximum amount of inducements by the approved company or ten (10) years after the activation date.

(b) The service and technology agreement shall include the activation date, which shall be a date selected by the approved company within two (2) years of the date of final approval by the authority of the service and technology agreement. If the approved company does not satisfy the minimum investment and minimum employment requirements of KRS 154.23-025 by the activation date, the approved company shall not be entitled to receive inducements pursuant to this subchapter until the approved company satisfies the requirements; however, the ten (10) year period for the term of the service and technology agreement shall begin from the activation date. Notwithstanding the previous sentence, if the approved company does not satisfy the minimum investment and minimum employment requirements of KRS 154.23-025 within two (2) years from the date of final approval of the service and technology agreement, then the approved company shall be ineligible to receive inducements under this subchapter unless an extension is approved by the authority.

(c) In order to implement the activation date, the approved company shall notify the authority, the Kentucky Department of Revenue[~~Cabinet~~], the qualified statewide employees, and the affected local jurisdictions, if any, of the activation date on which implementation of the inducements authorized in the service and technology agreement shall occur;

(d) The approved company may be permitted the following inducements during the term of the service and technology agreement:

1. An income tax credit of up to one hundred percent (100%) of the Kentucky income tax liability imposed by KRS 141.020 or 141.040 that would otherwise be due, determined under KRS 141.401, on the income of the approved company generated by or arising out of the economic development project, as limited by the provisions of this section and KRS 154.23-045; and
2. The assessment, if applicable, withheld by the approved company in each year;

(e) The inducements allowed to the approved company shall be subtracted from the approved cost balance in the fiscal year of the approved company for which the tax return of the approved company is filed;

(f) If the total number of full-time qualified employees at the site of the economic development project is less than ten (10) or, in the case of an existing business, the approved company fails to maintain the increase of at least ten (10) full-time qualified employees, the authorized inducements shall be suspended for a period of up to one (1) year. If the company does not have at least ten (10) new full-time qualified employees at the site within one (1) year from the date of the initial suspension, the inducements may be terminated at the discretion of the authority;

(g) The service and technology agreement may be assigned by the approved company only upon the prior written consent of the authority; and

(h) The approved company shall pay all costs of counsel to the authority resulting from approval of its economic development project.

(2) Before the end of the first year following the activation date, the authority shall, using data supplied by the approved company, verify and determine the total start-up costs for the approved company's economic development project. The initial approved costs shall be up to a maximum of fifty percent (50%) of the start-up costs.

(3) Each year, during the ten (10) year term of the service and technology agreement, up to fifty percent (50%) of the annualized rent shall be added to the unrecouped balance of approved costs, and the inducements earned shall be subtracted from the approved costs.

(4) If, in any fiscal year of the approved company during which the service and technology agreement is in effect, the accumulated inducements equal the unrecouped remaining balance of the approved costs then expended, the assessments collected from the wages of the employees shall cease for the remainder of that fiscal year of the approved company, and the approved company shall resume normal personal income tax and occupational license fee withholdings from the qualified statewide employees' wages for the remainder of that fiscal year.

(5) If, in any fiscal year of the approved company during which the service and technology agreement is in effect, the total of the income tax credit granted to the approved company plus the assessment collected from the wages of the qualified statewide employees exceeds the remaining balance of the approved costs then expended, the approved company shall pay the excess to the Commonwealth as income tax.

(6) If, in any fiscal year of the approved company during which the service and technology agreement is in effect, the assessment collected from the wages of the qualified statewide employees exceeds the unrecouped remaining balance of the approved costs then expended, the assessment collected from the wages of the qualified statewide employees shall cease for the remainder of that fiscal year of the approved company, the approved company shall resume normal personal income tax and occupational license fee withholdings from the qualified statewide employees for the remainder of that fiscal year, and the approved company shall remit to the Commonwealth and applicable local jurisdictions their respective shares of the excess assessment collected on the withholding filing date for qualified statewide employees' wages next succeeding the first date when the approved company collected excess assessments.

(2) The Department of Revenue~~[Cabinet]~~ of the Commonwealth shall initiate contact and fully cooperate with the authority in the collection of information to determine the fiscal impact of qualified zone inducements on state revenues. The Department of Revenue~~[Cabinet]~~ shall certify to the authority, in the form of an annual report, aggregate income tax credits and assessments taken by approved companies with respect to their economic development projects under KRS 154.23-005 to 154.23-079, and certify to the authority when an approved company has taken income tax credits and assessments equal to its total inducements. The Department of Revenue~~[Cabinet]~~ shall certify to the authority, upon written request of the authority, the aggregate income tax credits and assessments taken by an approved company with respect to its economic development project under KRS 154.23-005 to 154.23-079.

The amount of the approved company's income that is attributable to the economic development project shall be determined under KRS 141.407.

(a) The income tax credit allowed to the approved company shall be subtracted from the approved cost balance in the fiscal year of the approved company for which the tax return of the approved company is filed; and

(b) By October 1 of each year, the Department of Revenue~~[Cabinet]~~ of the Commonwealth shall certify to the authority, in the form of an annual report, aggregate income tax credits claimed on tax returns filed during the fiscal year ending June 30 of that year, and assessments taken by approved companies with respect to their economic development projects during the prior calendar year under this subchapter, and shall certify to the authority, within ninety (90) days from the date an approved company has filed its state income tax return, when an approved company has taken income tax credits and assessments equal to its total inducements.

(2) The approved company or, with the authority's consent, an affiliate of the approved company may require each employee, subject to state tax imposed by KRS 141.020, as a condition of employment, to agree to pay a service and technology job creation assessment fee up to five percent (5%) of the gross wages exclusive of any noncash benefits provided to an employee for each employee whose job has been deemed by the authority to be created as a result of the economic development project, provided that the service and technology job creation assessment fee shall not exceed the amount determined in accordance with KRS 154.24-150(5) if the circumstances in that subsection apply. Where a person is already employed by the approved company at a site other than the site of the economic development project and where that employee is subject to state tax imposed by KRS 141.020, the employee's job shall be deemed to have been created when the employee is transferred to the site of the economic development project, provided that the employee's existing job is filled with a new employee.

(a) Each employee paying the assessment shall be entitled to a credit against his Kentucky income tax required to be withheld under KRS 141.310 equal to four-fifths (4/5) of the assessment;

(b) If the assessment has been approved by the local jurisdiction as provided in KRS 154.24-150, each employee paying the assessment also shall be entitled, in the local jurisdiction in which the economic development project is located, to a credit against his local occupational license fee in the form of a simultaneous adjustment of his local occupational license fee withholding equal to one-fifth (1/5) of the assessment. 4. The person presents proof in the form of an affidavit stating, under penalty of perjury as set forth in KRS 523.030, that he or she requires a registered motor vehicle in order to carry out his or her employment and that the motor vehicle that he or she drives during the course of his or her employment meets the security requirement of subtitle 39 of KRS Chapter 304. The person shall also declare in the affidavit that he or she will operate a motor vehicle only in the course of his or her employment. If a person has his or her motor vehicle registration revoked in accordance with this subsection three (3) times within any twelve (12) month period, the revocations shall constitute a violation of KRS 304.39-080. The Department of Vehicle Regulation shall make every effort to minimize and reduce the amount of paperwork required to apply for, or transfer, a vehicle title. When possible, the title document itself shall be used as the primary form used to effect a transfer of vehicle ownership. When no in-state title exists, then forms shall be designed by the department that require only the appropriate and essential information to effect the application for title. The department shall constantly review the information needs of government agencies and other organizations with the goal of reducing, or eliminating, unnecessary documentation. Information being sought for application for title relevant to, but not limited to, vehicle identification, owner, buyer, usage tax, county clerk or inspector shall be set forth by the cabinet in such a way as to promote flexibility in reaching this goal, except that an applicant for a motor vehicle title shall not be required to provide his or her social security number as part of the application process. The use of an electronic medium shall be employed so that forms can be printed by the automated system. Existing statutory language in this chapter and KRS Chapter 186 pertaining to application, signature, forms, or application transfer record may be construed to be electronic in nature at the discretion of the cabinet as provided for by administrative regulation. Any person who knowingly enters, or attests to the entry of, false or erroneous information in pursuit of a certificate of title shall be guilty of forgery in the second degree.

(2) This section does not apply to or prohibit connection of devices or systems to the automated vehicle registration and titling system by persons who are acting in accordance with a contract or agreement with the Commonwealth of Kentucky, which in addition to any other required approval, has been approved in writing by the commissioner of the Department of Vehicle Regulation and the executive director of the Commonwealth Office of Technology[~~chief information officer~~].

(2) The Department of Vehicle Regulation and the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] shall, as agreed between them, provide appropriate system support or computerized listings on magnetic tape or disc, printouts, or system access, to fulfill the information needs formerly requiring duplicates of each certificate or receipt.

Section 612. KRS 186A.295 is amended to read as follows:

(1) (a) Any person or entity having a motor vehicle or trailer that has been destroyed, to the extent that its repair cannot be obtained through usual commercial repair services, at a cost less than its retail value as established from a value manual approved by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~], or from which two (2) or more parts which typically bear a vehicle identification number placed thereon by the manufacturer have been removed, or which he removes, shall surrender the certificate of title for such vehicle for which he has a certificate of title in his or another name, to the county clerk of the county in which such vehicle is located. The clerk shall immediately forward the surrendered title to Frankfort with instructions for canceling the title.

(b) Any person or entity engaged in the sale of used motor vehicle or trailer parts, or the recycling or salvage of them, shall surrender the certificate of title for any vehicle in his possession, and for which he has a certificate of title, whether in his or another name, if such vehicle is destroyed within the meaning of paragraph (a) of this subsection, or from which two (2) or more parts which typically bear a vehicle identification number placed thereon by a manufacturer have been removed, or which he removes, to the county clerk of the county in which such vehicle is located. The clerk shall immediately forward the surrendered title to Frankfort with instructions for canceling the title.

(c) The surrender of the certificate of title pursuant to this section shall be made within ten (10) working days, next succeeding the day when such vehicle was received, destroyed, or next succeeding the day during which such second part was removed.

(l) Having violated any law relating to the sale, distribution, or financing of motor vehicles;

(m) Being a manufacturer of motor vehicles, factory branch, distributor, field representative, officer, agent, or any representative of the motor vehicle manufacturer or factory branch, who has induced, coerced, or attempted to induce or coerce any automobile dealer to accept delivery of any motor vehicle, vehicles, parts, accessories, or any other commodities that shall not have been ordered by the dealer;

(n) Being a manufacturer of motor vehicles, factory branch, distributor, field representative, officer, agent, or any representative of a motor vehicle manufacturer or factory branch, who has attempted to induce or coerce, or has induced or coerced, any automobile dealer to enter into any agreement with a manufacturer, factory branch, or representative, or to do any other act unfair to the dealer, by threatening to cancel any franchise existing between a manufacturer, factory branch, or representative and the dealer;

(4) The commission may inspect the pertinent books, letters, records, and contracts of a licensee.

(5) If a licensee is a firm or corporation, it shall be sufficient cause for the denial, suspension, or revocation of a license that any officer, director, or trustee of the firm or corporation, or any member in case of a partnership, has been guilty of any act or omission which would be cause for refusing, suspending, or revoking a license to the party as an individual. Each licensee shall be responsible for the acts of any or all of his salesmen while acting as his agent, if the licensee approved of or had knowledge of the acts and after approval or knowledge retained the benefit, proceeds, profits, or advantages accruing from the acts.

The hearing shall be set at least five (5) days from the date the letter is delivered or the summons is served. Any licensee aggrieved by a decision to cancel his license after the informal hearing may appeal the decision to the Kentucky Board of Tax Appeals where he shall be granted an administrative hearing in accordance with KRS Chapter 13B.

(6) If the license is canceled by the department[~~cabinet~~] as provided in this section, and if the licensee has paid to this state all taxes, interest, and penalties under KRS 234.310 to 234.440, the department[~~cabinet~~] shall cancel the bond filed by the licensee.

Additional funds shall be set aside to supplement Phase II funding as needed from moneys credited to the agricultural development fund after June 30, 2000.

(2) Phase II payments shall be supplemented each year for tobacco growers and quota owners so that the total amount available for payment is maintained at one hundred fourteen million dollars ($114,000,000) each year. If the Phase II supplement set aside referred to in subsection (1) of this section falls below the amount needed to reach the one hundred fourteen million dollar ($114,000,000) level in any year before the end of the twelve (12) year Phase II funding program, procedures outlined in subsection (3) of this section shall be followed.

(3) (a) If the moneys set aside for Phase II supplement before June 30, 2000, become insufficient to continue to meet the yearly one hundred fourteen million dollar ($114,000,000) funding level, moneys needed to supplement Phase II funding to maintain funding at the 1999 level of one hundred fourteen million dollars ($114,000,000) per year for each of the remaining eleven (11) years of the Phase II funding program shall continue to be provided to the Phase II set aside from funds received in the tobacco settlement agreement fund after June 30, 2000. (15) "Pure premium" means the loss cost per unit of exposure excluding all loss adjustment expenses.

(16) "Classification system" or "classification" means the process of grouping risks with similar risk characteristics so that differences in cost may be recognized.

(1) Every captive insurer holding a certificate of authority under KRS 304.49-010 to 304.49-230 shall return to the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] a statement under oath of all premium receipts on business written by the captive insurer during the preceding year and shall pay, on or before March 1 in each year, a tax at the rate of four-tenths of one percent (0.4%) on the first twenty million dollars ($20,000,000), and three-tenths of one percent (0.3%) on the next twenty million dollars ($20,000,000), and two-tenths of one percent (0.2%) on the next twenty million dollars ($20,000,000), and seventy-five thousandths of one percent (0.075%) on each dollar thereafter on the direct premiums collected or contracted for on policies or contracts of insurance written by the captive insurer during the year ending December 31 next preceding, after deducting from the direct premiums subject to the tax the amounts paid to policyholders as return premiums, which shall include dividends on unabsorbed premiums or premium deposits returned or credited to policyholders.

(2) Every captive insurer holding a certificate of authority under KRS 304.49-010 to 304.49-230 shall return to the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] a statement under oath of all assumed reinsurance premium receipts during the preceding year and shall pay, on or before March 1 in each year, a tax at the rate of two hundred twenty-five thousandths of one percent (0.225%) on the first twenty million dollars ($20,000,000) of assumed reinsurance premiums, and one hundred fifty thousandths of one percent (0.150%) on the next twenty million dollars ($20,000,000), and fifty thousandths of one percent (0.050%) on the next twenty million dollars ($20,000,000), and twenty-five thousandths of one percent (0.025%) of each dollar thereafter. However, no reinsurance tax applies to premiums for risks or portions of risks which are subject to taxation on a direct basis pursuant to subsection (1) of this section. No reinsurance premium tax shall be payable in connection with the receipt of assets in exchange for the assumption of loss reserves and other liabilities of another insurer under common ownership and control if the transaction is part of a plan to discontinue the operations of the other insurer, and if the intent of the parties to the transaction is to renew or maintain the business with the captive insurer.

(3) If the aggregate taxes to be paid by a captive insurer calculated under subsections (1) and (2) of this section amount to less than five thousand dollars ($5,000) in any year, the captive insurer shall pay a tax of five thousand dollars ($5,000) for such year.

(4) Two (2) or more captive insurance companies under common ownership and control shall be taxed as though they were a single captive insurer.

(5) For the purposes of this section, common ownership and control shall mean:

(a) In the case of stock corporations, the direct or indirect ownership of eighty percent (80%) or more of the outstanding voting stock of two (2) or more corporations by the same shareholder or shareholders; and

(7) The tax provided for in this section shall constitute all taxes collectible under the laws of Kentucky from any captive insurer, and the taxes imposed under this section shall be in lieu of all excise, license, occupational, or other taxes imposed by the state, county, city, or other taxing district except as provided in KRS 136.320(6) and (7).

(8) The Kentucky Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] shall annually distribute ten percent (10%) of the premium tax revenues collected pursuant to this section to the Department of Insurance for the regulation of captive insurance companies under KRS 304.49-010 to 304.49-230.

Section 676. KRS 342.122 is amended to read as follows:

(1) (a) For calendar year 1997 and for each calendar year thereafter, for the purpose of funding and prefunding the liabilities of the special fund, financing the administration and operation of the Kentucky Workers' Compensation Funding Commission, and financing the expenditures for all programs in the Labor Cabinet, except the Division of Employment Standards, Apprenticeship and Training and the Office of Labor-Management Relations and Mediation, as reflected in the enacted budget of the Commonwealth and enacted by the General Assembly, the funding commission shall impose a special fund assessment rate of nine percent (9%) upon the amount of workers' compensation premiums received on and after January 1, 1997, through December 31, 1997, by every insurance carrier writing workers' compensation insurance in the Commonwealth, by every group of self-insurers operating under the provisions of KRS 342.350(4), and against the premium, as defined in KRS 342.0011, of every employer carrying his or her own risk.

(b) The funding commission shall, for calendar year 1998 and thereafter, establish for the special fund an assessment rate to be assessed against all premium received during that calendar year which, when added to the coal severance tax appropriated to the special fund in accordance with paragraph (c) of this section, shall produce enough revenue to amortize on a level basis the unfunded liability of the special fund as of September 1 preceding January 1 of each year, for the period remaining until December 31, 2018. The interest rate to be used in this calculation shall reflect the funding commission's investment experience to date and the current investment policies of the commission. This assessment shall be imposed upon the amount of workers' compensation premiums received by every insurance carrier writing workers' compensation insurance in the Commonwealth, by every group of self-insurers operating under the provisions of KRS 342.350(4), and against the premium, as defined in KRS 342.0011, of every employer carrying his own risk.

(c) In addition to the assessment imposed in paragraph (a) or (b) of this subsection, and notwithstanding and prior to the transfer of funds to the Local Government Economic Assistance Program under KRS 42.450 to 42.495, the Kentucky Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] shall credit nineteen million dollars ($19,000,000) in coal severance tax revenues levied under KRS 143.020 to the benefit reserve fund within the Kentucky Workers' Compensation Funding Commission each year beginning with fiscal year 1998 and all fiscal years thereafter. The annual transfer of nineteen million dollars ($19,000,000) shall occur in four (4) equal quarterly payments. These transfers shall occur not later than the last day of each quarter of each calendar year and shall consist of four (4) equal payments of four million, seven hundred fifty thousand dollars ($4,750,000).

(d) All assessments imposed by this section shall be paid to the Kentucky Workers' Compensation Funding Commission and shall be credited to the benefit reserve fund within the Kentucky Workers' Compensation Funding Commission.

(e) The assessments imposed in this chapter shall be in lieu of all other assessments or taxes on workers' compensation premiums.

(2) These assessments shall be paid quarterly not later than the thirtieth day of the month following the end of the quarter in which the premium is received. Receipt shall be considered timely through actual physical receipt or by postmark of the United States Postal Service. Employers carrying their own risk and employers defined in KRS 342.630(2) shall pay the annual assessments in four (4) equal quarterly installments.

(3) The assessments imposed by this section may be collected by the insurance carrier from his insured. However, the insurance carrier shall not collect from the employer any amount exceeding the assessments imposed pursuant to this section. If the insurance carrier collects the assessment from an insured, the assessment shall be collected at the same time and in the same proportion as the premium is collected. The assessment for an insurance policy or other evidence of coverage providing a deductible may be collected in accordance with this chapter on a premium amount that equates to the premium that would have applied without the deductible. Each statement from an insurance carrier presented to an insured reflecting premium and assessment amounts shall clearly identify and distinguish the amount to be paid for premium and the amount to be paid for assessments. No insurance carrier shall collect from an insured an amount in excess of the assessment percentages imposed by this chapter. The assessment for an insurance policy or other evidence of coverage providing a deductible may be collected in accordance with this chapter on a premium amount that equates to the premium that would have applied without the deductible. The percentages imposed by this chapter for an insurance policy issued by an insurance company shall be those percentages in effect on the annual effective date of the policy, regardless of the date that the premium is actually received by the insurance company.

(4) A group self-insurance association may elect to report its premiums and to have its assessments computed in the same manner as insurance companies. This election may not be rescinded for at least ten (10) years, nor may this election be made a second time for at least another ten (10) years, except that the board of directors of the funding commission may, at its discretion, waive the ten (10) year ban on a case-by-case basis after formal petition has been made to the funding commission by a group self-insurance association.

(5) The funding commission, as part of the collection and auditing of the special fund assessments required by this section, shall annually require each insurance carrier and each group self-insurer to provide a list of employers which it has insured or which are members and the amount collected from each employer. Additionally, the funding commission shall require each entity paying a special fund assessment to report the SIC code for each employer and the amount of premium collected from each SIC code. An insurance carrier or group self-insurer may require its insureds or members to furnish the SIC code for each of their employees. However, the failure of any employer to furnish said codes shall not relieve the insurance carrier or group self-insurer from the obligation to furnish same to the funding commission. The Department for Employment Services, Cabinet for Workforce Development is hereby directed to make available the SIC codes assigned in its records to specific employers to aid in the reporting and recording of the special fund assessment data.

(6) Each self-insured employer, group self-insurer, or insurance carrier shall provide any information and submit any reports the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] or the funding commission may require to effectuate the provisions of this section. In addition, the funding commission may enter reciprocal agreements with other governmental agencies for the exchange of information necessary to effectuate the provisions of this section.

(7) The special fund shall be required to maintain a central claim registry of all claims to which it is named a party, giving each such claim a unique claim number and thereafter recording the status of each claim on a current basis. The registry shall be established by January 26, 1988, for all claims on which payments were made since July 1, 1986, or which were pending adjudication since July 1, 1986, by audit of all claim files in the possession of the special fund.

(8) The fund heretofore designated as the subsequent claim fund is abolished, and there is substituted therefor the special fund as set out by this section, and all moneys and properties owned by the subsequent claim fund are transferred to the special fund.

(9) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this section or this chapter to the contrary, the total amount of funds collected pursuant to the assessment rates adopted by the funding commission shall not be limited to the provisions of this section.

(10) All assessment rates imposed for periods prior to January 1, 1997, under KRS 342.122 shall forever remain applicable to premiums received on policies with effective dates prior to January 1, 1997, by every insurance carrier writing workers' compensation insurance in the Commonwealth, by every group of self-insurers operating under the provision of KRS 342.350(4), and against the premium, as defined in KRS 342.0011, of every employer carrying his own risk.

Section 677. KRS 342.1223 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The Kentucky Workers' Compensation Funding Commission is created as an agency of the Commonwealth for the public purpose of controlling, investing, and managing the funds collected pursuant to KRS 342.122.

(2) The commission shall:

(a) Hold, administer, invest, and reinvest the funds collected pursuant to KRS 342.122 and its other funds separate and apart from all "state funds" or "public funds," as defined in KRS Chapter 446;

(h) Report monthly to the Committees on Appropriations and Revenue and on Labor and Industry its monthly expenditures of restricted agency funds and the nature of the expenditures.

(3) The commission shall have all of the powers necessary or convenient to carry out and effectuate the purposes for which it was established, including, but not limited to, the power:

The fees charged by financial institutions for managing the investments of the funds of the funding commission shall be paid from the investment earnings of the funds.

(5) The commission shall be attached to the Labor Cabinet for administrative purposes only.

Section 678. KRS 342.1224 is amended to read as follows:

The aggregate findings of such audits shall be presented to the commissioner[~~secretary~~] of revenue, the commissioner of insurance, the Kentucky Workers' Compensation Funding Commission, and the Governor.

(3) If the audits reveal noncompliance with subsection (1) of this section, the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] shall notify the affected party of such fact. The affected party shall remit the amount in question not later than thirty (30) days following notification and the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] shall institute a civil action in Franklin Circuit Court if remittance is not made within such thirty (30) day period.

(1) Except where a statute specifically fixes a larger sum as the minimum for a requirement of advertisement for bids, no city, county, or district, or board or commission of a city or county, or sheriff or county clerk, may make a contract, lease, or other agreement for materials, supplies except perishable meat, fish, and vegetables, equipment, or for contractual services other than professional, involving an expenditure of more than twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) without first making newspaper advertisement for bids.

(3) (a) Nothing in this statute shall limit or restrict the ability of a local school district to acquire supplies and equipment outside of the bidding procedure if those supplies and equipment meet the specifications of the contracts awarded by the Office~~[Division]~~ of Material and Procurement Services in the Office of the Controller within the Finance and Administration Cabinet or a federal, local, or cooperative agency and are available for purchase elsewhere at a lower price. A board of education may purchase those supplies and equipment without advertising for bids if, prior to making the purchases, the board of education obtains certification from the district's finance or purchasing officer that the items to be purchased meet the standards and specifications fixed by state price contract, federal (GSA) price contract, or the bid of another school district whose bid specifications allow other districts to utilize their bids, and that the sales price is lower than that established by the various price contract agreements or available through the bid of another school district whose bid specifications would allow the district to utilize their bid.

(b) The procedures set forth in paragraph (a) of this subsection shall not be available to the district for any specific item once the bidding procedure has been initiated by an invitation to bid and a publication of specifications for that specific item has been published. In the event that all bids are rejected, the district may again avail itself of the provisions of paragraph (a) of this subsection.

(4) This requirement shall not apply in an emergency if the chief executive officer of the city, county, or district has duly certified that an emergency exists, and has filed a copy of the certificate with the chief financial officer of the city, county, or district, or if the sheriff or the county clerk has certified that an emergency exists, and has filed a copy of the certificate with the clerk of the court where his necessary office expenses are fixed pursuant to KRS 64.345 or 64.530, or if the superintendent of the board of education has duly certified that an emergency exists, and has filed a copy of the certificate with the chief state school officer.

Representative Adkins moved to dispense with the roll call. Agreed.

The Chief Doorkeeper announced the Governor of Kentucky. The Committee appointed to Wait upon the Governor, together with a like committee from the House, arrived with Governor Ernie Fletcher.

Governor Fletcher took his place at the clerk's desk and addressed the General Assembly, as follows:

First Lady, Lieutenant Governor Pence, President Williams and Speaker Richards, Legislators, Constitutional Officers, Justices and my fellow Kentuckians, it is a time-honored tradition that brings me here tonight to reflect upon our great Commonwealth.

I want to first recognize Representative Bruce as the longest serving member. He could not be here.

We are thankful he is now home from the hospital and watching us tonight.

The people of Kentucky vest in us the responsibility of determining the character of state government. Only those who have served in this chamber know the sense of that responsibility.

Every challenge we are willing to confront in a humble, bipartisan manner is an opportunity for progress -- a moment that can make us stronger, healthier, more prosperous and more united.

Let me congratulate and welcome the new members of the General Assembly and Justice Scott. Your service is an esteemed duty you have well earned.

Candor acknowledges that partisanship inflamed by election year politics characterized this past year.

We did have a record turnout on Election Day, as Secretary of State Trey Grayson will attest. Participation was so high in fact, that 39 Senators showed up for work in January.

On a more serious note let me welcome Senator Julian Carroll our 52nd Governor and former Speaker of the House back to these chambers.

This is a new year and we have a new opportunity. We are all Kentuckians and we all want Kentucky to flourish and prosper.

We are especially proud of Kentucky's National Guard and the other armed services. We currently have 1,532 National Guard soldiers serving overseas whose dedication allowed historic elections in Iraq this past weekend.

With honor and bravery, these sons and daughters fight for our safety by helping spread the God-given right of freedom. In the gallery tonight are Captain Adrian Wheeler, Master Sergeant Jonathan Rosa and Staff Sergeant Kelly Reeves. All have returned from Iraq where they served valiantly.

Please join me in saluting them and all our troops.

Let me also recognize Bill Hintze for his decades of service in the state budget director's office. He will be retiring soon. Bill, thanks for your devotion and service.

A year ago, I reported that the state of the Commonwealth was "as challenging as it has ever been in the modern age."

Yet, in many ways we have had a good year.

Our economy is recovering. The unemployment rate is lower at 4.5 percent.

The test scores of our students continue to improve.

We established the Office of Drug Control Policy - and let me recognize Lieutenant Governor Pence for his outstanding work along with Attorney General Stumbo.

We launched Recovery Kentucky, a program to establish ten rehabilitation centers across our state to combat the addiction crisis.

We saved over 74 million dollars in the transportation cabinet alone.

We reduced the number of cabinets from fourteen to nine, and with your help, passing the appropriate reorganization bills, we will complete that effort.

We cancelled over 2000 state credit cards and lowered the annual credit limit by 285 million dollars.

We implemented many other cost-saving ideas, some of which came from state employees themselves, to save millions of dollars and to fulfill our promise to operate government more efficiently.

And the people have chosen a new brand for our state, "Unbridled Spirit".

As we enter a new year, we are at a crossroad.

One way is the timid status quo, with a budget that bridles our future.

The other way is a courageous course that unbridles opportunity and prosperity. But to forge that path we must pass tax modernization.

There is another choice – doing nothing – but that is not an option.

As we all learned in high school civics, a Governor doesn't have a vote when it comes to passing a budget. And Judge Crittenden recently opined that a Governor doesn't have the authority to spend money the General Assembly hasn't appropriated.

Although I disagree and believe that the inaction of one branch of government should not prevent another from fulfilling its responsibilities, we will respect the orders of the judiciary.

To that end, I have asked my administration to begin reviewing the steps which may be necessary to comply with the Courts' order.

I sincerely hope that a government shutdown will not be required, but that's in your hands.

Tonight, I present to you two options.

The budget I present is based on our current tax code, a system rooted in an economy nearly 100 years old.

This is not the path I prefer, but if you cannot summon the will to reform our taxes then it is the path we are destined to take.

This budget only provides for the immediate needs for Medicaid and healthcare for our teachers and employees.

This budget allocates 57 percent of new anticipated revenue to education, 30 percent to Medicaid, 2 percent to Corrections and 11 percent to cover state workers and retirees under House Bill 1.

Let me now introduce the First Lady Glenna.

Within this budget, I have again included Read to Achieve, an effort led by the First Lady along with Senators Kelly and Westwood.

It also begins my effort to make our teacher's pay competitive by providing 26 million dollars in addition to the two percent raise for all state workers. This money will fund a flexible compensation plan aimed at retaining and recruiting quality teachers.

This is a priority of the Prichard Committee and I share this worthwhile goal.

I'm pleased to have Elaine Farris, Superintendent of Shelby County Schools, Kentucky's first African-American Superintendent and Jo Biehle, a nationally certified, Miliken award winning teacher with us here tonight.

Please join me in recognizing them.

This budget provides for a 20 percent increase for state and teacher health insurance, keeping the current benefits of HB1 intact for an additional 6 months under a self insured structure.

We will work with your Blue Ribbon Commission to address the rising, unsustainable costs.

Additionally, by expanding the use of coal severance tax to education and infrastructure, we can better serve the future of those families in some of our poorest counties.

I propose a three year pilot program where we will invest a portion of the economic development severance money in the 24 lowest performing school districts in coal counties – recognizing that education is an essential element for economic development.

We will help secure a solid foundation for life-long learning by utilizing early childhood health and readiness assessments, technology, targeted intervention, longitudinal student tracking and end of course assessments for students and professional development for educators.

To ensure efficiency and public safety, I will fund those projects that update our neglected information technology and early warning systems.

I have also included 350 million dollars of road bonds and 150 million dollars of federal Garvey bonds to help meet our six year road plan needs.

The budget also calls for almost 2 million dollars annually for state trooper training stipends, because they deserve it.

I am pleased to have Trooper Rick Conn in the gallery tonight. Though he would deny it, Trooper Conn is a true hero who proved himself by helping to save a mother and her child from a burning house after he himself had already been severely burned by the fiery explosion.

Please join me in saluting Trooper Conn and all our law enforcement personnel.

I've expanded Kentucky's newborn screening process to include testing for 29 different illnesses, bringing Kentucky in line with the March of Dimes' national standard.

But, the budget based upon our current tax system does not contain the general fund career building projects at our universities that you and I want and that were contained in last year's budget.

Last year, in the House budget projects were included without debt service funding.

We cannot issue bonds or begin projects without appropriated debt service and we cannot afford future debt without modernizing our tax system.

Some will say that I could have included other projects that would not require general fund money. They are right and I hope we can agree to build those projects.

But I am cautious about our bond rating because our reserves are only seven-tenths of 1 percent under this budget.

This budget will allow us to continue government services, but it is not the vibrant vision we share for Kentucky.

Currently, too many of our best and brightest college graduates leave Kentucky every year. We raise, train and educate them only to benefit employers in other states.

My vision for Kentucky is a Commonwealth where there is so much economic opportunity, and our quality of life is so high, that people who are born here can stay here, and people who aren't fortunate enough to be born in Kentucky, can look forward to locating here.

I believe the only responsible way to build a brighter future is to bring our outdated tax system into the 21st Century.

Why? Because our existing tax code doesn't attract or keep our young talent in Kentucky.

It is unreliable, unfair, and in some parts unconstitutional.

It is a tax system that has brought us to a point where the number of Medicaid recipients exceeds the number of students in our public schools.

And it is holding us back to the point where our per capita income is 20 percent below the national average.

Think of what a disaster that spells for the future and what burden that will place on the next generation.

Our current tax system will not provide tomorrow's support for education and healthcare.

It will not substantially reduce the poverty level.

The current telecom tax structure was designed in the era of the crank phone and Alexander Graham Bell. That was even before Rep Bruce was first elected.

Our corporate license tax was established in 1906 - eleven years before the Soviet Union was established. Superpowers may come and go, but Kentucky's tax code is apparently forever.

Let me outline some of the specifics of our JOBS for Kentucky Plan.

First, support of this plan is consistent with the tax pledge many have taken.

It is tax neutral over the period required for full implementation. That means that tax increases are offset by tax reductions.

Within that period there is positive revenue for this budget cycle due to the timing of the closing of loopholes and implementation of the cigarette tax.

All the while, the burden on small Kentucky businesses is reduced and loopholes for larger out-of-state businesses are closed.

That early boost will help us bridge the challenges we currently face.

My plan will cut income tax rates on virtually all working Kentuckians, attract high-quality businesses and bring more stability to the budgeting process.

Most importantly, my plan will BRING JOBS TO KENTUCKY - more than 10,000 additional jobs by its first full year of implementation.

That's 3000 more jobs than last year's plan because we reduce the income tax levels.

This plan will lower the individual income tax rate by 9 percent, and 99 percent of working Kentuckians will have more take home pay.

The need for lower income tax rates became obvious during the 17 forums we held across the state.

From our Hopkinsville forum, Senator Pendleton and Rep. Carr will tell you that when you leave Fort Campbell, you turn right to Tennessee or left to Kentucky.

Why? It isn't for the barbecue.

Tennessee doesn't have an income tax.

We will attract more people to Kentucky by lowering our income tax rate.

In fact, lowering the income tax rate is the single most important thing we can do to create opportunity.

If you don't believe me, just ask the soldiers who go home to Tennessee

My plan removes 211,000 filers, representing 485,000 Kentucky family members from the tax rolls altogether.

We tax the poor more than any state. It is time to stop.

Our current system encourages out of state companies doing business here to move their profits, operations, and most importantly, jobs, out of state to avoid paying Kentucky taxes.

In 1994 you passed a good law for small businesses that allowed the formation of limited liability companies. The law never anticipated that large out of state companies would use that structure as a way of avoiding corporate tax.

These loopholes are neither fair nor responsible.

By requiring out-of-state companies to pay their fair share, the tax burden for Kentuckians is reduced.

Other portions of the current tax code have been declared unconstitutional. We fix those problems.

I propose a fair, simple and uniform tax on all communications services, holding local governments and school districts harmless.

We will continue to work with you to ensure that a level playing field exists for companies providing these like services.

Raising the cigarette tax is also a matter of fairness and sound public policy. A tax on cigarettes is purely voluntary. If you don't buy cigarettes, you don't pay the tax.

Kentucky has the highest incidence of smoking in the country. Nationally we rank first in deaths from cancer and fourth from heart disease.

And it's undeniable that smoking contributes to increased health insurance and Medicaid costs.

Raising the cigarette tax will send a healthier message to our children.

Frankly, the support for a cigarette tax at our forums surprised me. There was overwhelming support for greater than a 50 cent increase.

My plan starts at 34 cents a pack and establishes a formula that will allow it to increase at a competitive rate with surrounding states.

I also propose to extend the sales tax to packaged alcohol. When you buy a glass of wine in a restaurant you pay sales tax, but when you buy a bottle of wine at the store you do not. We are simply harmonizing that sales tax.

The tax plan I offer tonight includes incentives to help promote education and economic growth.

I'm proposing a tuition tax credit of up to 500 dollars for each student going to Kentucky colleges and universities. This will help working families cope with the rising cost of tuition.

It includes Rep. Damron's "Back to School Sales Tax Holiday"

I've included deductions to help small businesses take advantage of federal health savings accounts.

Additionally, several other incentives are included: a Kentucky enterprise initiative to give tax credits for hard construction and research and development costs, an equine breeder incentive development program to grow our equine industry and keep Kentucky the Horse Capital of the World.

I've also proposed Brownfield credits, clean coal technology credits, environmental stewardship credits and alternative fuel credits. This plan promotes economic development while being environmentally responsible.

This plan also allows for historic preservation credits to help us keep our heritage.

I have now outlined a budget without tax modernization as well as most of the details of my tax plan.

My preference is that you pass a budget with the bridge supplied by tax modernization.

It is a better path that allows us to invest more for today and build more for tomorrow.

With the passage of the JOBS for Kentucky Plan you will have more revenue for the budget you are charged to enact.

I propose that we invest the extra money to grow opportunity, build careers and strengthen education. I prefer and I believe Kentuckians will prefer this unbridled path.

This requires you to pass the tax modernization plan. The JOBS for Kentucky Plan provides more revenue for the current budget cycle without raising taxes and provides for dynamic growth as our economy grows in the years to come.

Let me be specific how I would like the extra money to be spent:

- 35 million dollars to primary and secondary education.

10 million dollars additional to our flexible teacher pay program for a total of almost 36 million dollars.

- An additional 10 million dollars for a total of 22 million dollars to post-secondary education to help restore the funding cuts they've suffered over the last few years.

- 26 million to our reserve fund along with additional funding of debt service, which allows us to maintain our bond rating while building pharmacy and research buildings at UK and U of L as well as 500 million dollars worth of other projects that will build careers and create opportunity all across this Commonwealth.

It is embarrassing that graduates from Northern Kentucky University receive their diploma in Ohio. We need an adequate place for NKU to host their special events. It will better serve those students and be an important tool for economic development.

Additionally as we move into advanced agriculture and natural product technology, I would like to encourage you to protect Phase I tobacco money for those purposes as we pay our farmers the Phase II money they are relying on. Our tax plan assumes this will happen.

I also propose 6.8 million dollars to increase the per diem by 3 dollars for our county jails. It is neither fair nor sustainable for us to ask our counties to keep our prisoners at below their cost.

The budget we can have under a more stable, modern tax system meets more needs.

Let me now thank Representative Jimmy Lee and Senator Julie Denton for their refreshing bipartisan work on one of our most daunting challenges for the years to come-our Medicaid program.

With their help we have begun the work to address the Medicaid crisis.

The pharmacy benefit alone will consume 820 million dollars of the 4.6 billion dollars we will spend on Medicaid this year.

We had 33,000 Medicaid recipients on twenty or more medications in a six month period. One individual received 108 separate medications per month.

As this demonstrates, we have a problem called "polypharmacy".

We're doing something about it.

In December, we modernized the processing of prescriptions to ensure that dangerous drug combinations were identified. The result is a safer, more cost effective Medicaid program.

We joined eight other states to form the National Medicaid Pooling Initiative saving over 38 million dollars a year.

We've asked pharmacists to do their part.

Now, I also call upon my fellow physicians, who treat Medicaid patients, to review the medications they are prescribing and resist the pressure to over prescribe. We cannot overcome this problem without your help.

Another major danger to Kentucky's health care system is medical lawsuit abuse. The rising cost of medical liability insurance forces many talented doctors to leave Kentucky, jeopardizing quality of care.

We must have comprehensive reform to include independent boards for evaluating claims, tougher insurance oversight and a constitutional amendment that will allow reasonable caps.

Let me thank President Williams for his leadership on this issue.

Again, I ask you to pass the constitutional amendment that will allow voters to choose to keep their doctors in Kentucky.

Tonight I have presented two options to you, as I see them.

One is to continue to do what we've always done, knowing we'll get what we've always gotten.

Though the overwhelming need for a budget compels me to offer it, I do not prefer the type of budget that we must adopt without tax modernization.

History is filled with epic moments where a state is faced with enormous obstacles or daunting challenges.

This is such a moment.

Allow me to say this again, every challenge we are willing to confront in a humble, bipartisan manner is an opportunity for progress -- a moment that can make us stronger, healthier, more prosperous and more united.

In the remaining 25 days of this session, I challenge you to take the plans I have presented here, debate them, improve them if you will and present to me a budget and JOBS for Kentucky plan so our Commonwealth may be stronger.

I am optimistic about our future because I know our people are good, our hope is unwavering, our faith is unshakable and our spirit is unbridled.

Thank you and God bless and may God Bless Kentucky.

SB 18 is as follows:

SB 18, AN ACT relating to death certificates.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

Section 1. KRS 213.076 is amended to read as follows:

(1) A certificate of death or a provisional certificate of death for each death which occurs in the Commonwealth shall be filed with the cabinet or as otherwise directed by the state registrar prior to final disposition, and it shall be registered if it has been completed and filed in accordance with this section. The funeral director, or person acting as such, who first takes custody of a dead body shall be responsible for filing the certificate of death. The funeral director, or person acting as such, shall obtain the required personal and statistical particulars from the person best qualified to supply them over the signature and address of the informant. The funeral director, or person acting as such, shall within five (5) days of the death, present the certificate to the attending physician, if any, or to the health officer or coroner as directed by the state registrar, for the medical certificate of the cause of death and other particulars necessary to complete the record as required by this chapter.

   (a) It shall be unlawful for an institution to release a dead human body until the funeral director, or person acting as such, has completed and filed with the local registrar or person in charge of the institution, a provisional certificate of death. If death occurs outside an institution, the provisional certificate shall be filed with the local registrar by the funeral director, or person acting as such, prior to final disposition of the dead body. A copy of the provisional certificate of death signed by the person with whom it was filed, shall constitute authority for the possession, transportation, and, except for cremation, final disposition of the body.

   (b) All persons having in their possession a completed provisional certificate of death shall file the certificate at not more than weekly intervals with the local registrar.

   (c) If the place of death is unknown but the dead body is found in the Commonwealth, the certificate of death shall be completed and filed in accordance with this section. The place where the body is found shall be shown as the place of death. If the date of death is unknown, it shall be determined by approximation subject to amendment upon completion of any postmortem examination required to be performed.

   (d) If death occurs in a moving conveyance in the United States and the body is first removed from the conveyance in the Commonwealth, the death shall be registered in Kentucky, and the place where it is first removed shall be considered the place of death. If a death occurs on a moving conveyance while in international waters or air space or in a foreign country or its air space, and the body is first removed from the conveyance in the Commonwealth, the death shall be registered in Kentucky, but the certificate shall show the actual place of death insofar as can be determined.

(2) If any certificate of death is incomplete or unsatisfactory, the state registrar shall call attention to the defects in the certificate and require the person responsible for the entry to complete or correct it. The state registrar may also require additional information about the circumstances and medical conditions surrounding a death in order to properly code and classify the underlying cause.

(3) The medical certification shall be completed, signed, and returned to the funeral director within five (5) working days after presentation to the physician, dentist, or chiropractor in charge of the patient's care for the illness or condition which resulted in death, except when inquiry is required by KRS 72.400 to 72.475. In such cases, and if the cause of death is unknown or under investigation, the cause of death shall be shown as such on the certificate. A supplemental report providing the medical information omitted from the original certificate shall be filed by the certifier with the state registrar within five (5) days after receiving results of the inquiry as required by KRS 72.400 to 72.475. The supplemental report shall be made a part of the existing death certificate. This report shall be considered an amendment, and the death certificate shall be marked "Amended."~~[the coroner shall complete and sign the certificate within five (5) days after receiving results of the inquiry as required by KRS 72.400 to 72.475.]~~ In the absence of the physician, dentist, or chiropractor, or with such person's approval, the certificate may be completed and signed by his associate physician, dentist, or chiropractor, or the chief medical officer of the institution in which death occurred, or the physician who performed an autopsy upon the decedent, or a physician employed by the local health department, if the individual has access to the medical history of the case and death is due to natural causes.

(4) If death occurs more than thirty-six (36) hours after the decedent was last treated or attended by a physician, dentist, or chiropractor, the case shall be referred to the coroner for investigation to determine and certify the cause of death. In the event that a coroner is not available to sign the certificate and there is no duly appointed deputy, the county judge/executive shall appoint a competent person to investigate the death and certify to its cause.

(5) (a) The physician, dentist, chiropractor, or coroner who certifies to the cause of death shall return the certificate to the funeral director, or person acting as such, who, in turn, shall file the certificate directly with the Office of Vital Statistics. Any certified copies of the record requested at the time of filing shall be issued in not more than two (2) working days.

(b) In the case of a death in which diabetes was an underlying cause or contributing condition, diabetes shall be listed in the appropriate location on the death certificate by the physician, dentist, chiropractor, or coroner who certifies to the cause of death.

(c) In the case of a death in which diabetes was an immediate, underlying, or contributing cause of or condition leading to death, the physician, dentist, chiropractor, or coroner who certifies to the cause of death shall check "yes" for each of the following questions on the death certificate:

1. "Did the deceased have diabetes?"; and
2. "Was diabetes an immediate, underlying, or contributing cause of or condition leading to death?".

(6) The Office of Vital Statistics shall provide self-addressed, color-coded envelopes for the funeral homes in the Commonwealth of Kentucky.

(7) Three (3) free verification-of-death statements shall be provided to the funeral director by the Office of Vital Statistics for every death in the Commonwealth of Kentucky.

(8) The body of any person whose death occurs in Kentucky shall not be interred, deposited in a vault or tomb, cremated, or otherwise disposed of, or removed from or into any registration district, until a provisional certificate of death has been filed with the local registrar of the registration district in which the death occurs. If the death occurred from a disease declared by the Cabinet for Health Services to be infectious, contagious, or communicable and dangerous to the public health, no permit for the removal or other disposition of the body shall be granted by the registrar except under conditions prescribed by the Cabinet for Health Services and the local health department. The Cabinet for Health Services shall identify by regulation those communicable diseases which require blood and body fluid precautions. If a person who has been diagnosed as being infected with a communicable disease for which blood and body fluid precautions are required, dies within a health facility as defined in KRS 216B.015, the facility shall notify any embalmer or funeral director to whom the body will be transported of the need for such precautions. The notice shall be provided by including the statement "Blood and Body Fluid Precautions" on the provisional report-of-death form as prescribed by the Cabinet for Health Services. Lack of this notice shall not relieve any embalmer or funeral director from taking universal blood and body fluid precautions as are recommended by the United States Department of Health and Human Services, Centers for Disease Control for Morticians' Services. No embalmer or funeral director shall charge more for embalming the remains of a person with a communicable disease which requires blood and body fluid precautions than the price for embalming services listed on the price list funeral providers are required to maintain and provide to consumers pursuant to 16 C.F.R. Sec. 453.2 (1988).

(9) A burial-transit permit for the final disposition issued under the law of another state which accompanies a dead body or fetus brought into the Commonwealth shall be the authority for final disposition of the body or fetus in the Commonwealth and may be accepted in lieu of a certificate of death. There shall be noted on the face of the record made for return to the local registrar that the body was shipped to Kentucky for interment and the actual place of death.

(10) Nothing in this section shall be construed to delay, beyond a reasonable time, the interment or other disposition of a body unless the services of the coroner or the health officer are required or the Department for Public Health deems it necessary for the protection of the public health. If compliance with this section would result in unreasonable delay in the disposition of the body the funeral director, or person acting as such, shall file with the local registrar or deputy registrar prior to interment a provisional certificate of death which shall contain the name, date, and place of death of the deceased, the name of the medical certifier, and an agreement to furnish within ten (10) days a complete and satisfactory certificate of death.

(11) No sexton or other person in charge of any place in which interment or other disposition of dead bodies is made shall inter or allow interment or other disposition of a dead body or fetus unless it is accompanied by a copy of the provisional certificate of death. The sexton, or if there is no sexton, the funeral director, or person acting as such, shall enter on the provisional certificate over his signature, the date, place, and manner of final disposition and file the certificate within five (5) days with the local registrar.

(12) Authorization for disinterment, transportation, and reinterment or other disposition shall be required prior to disinterment of any human remains. The authorization shall be issued by the state registrar upon proper application. The provisions of this subsection shall apply to all manners of disposition except cremation and without regard for the time and place of death. The provisions of KRS 381.765 shall not apply to remains removed for scientific study and the advancement of knowledge.

(13) After a death certificate has been on file for five (5) years, it may not be changed in any manner except upon order of a court. Prior to that time, requests for corrections, amendments, or additions shall be accompanied by prima facie evidence which supports the requested change.

A person who is at least twenty-one (21) years of age at the time of application for an instruction permit may apply for an operator's license to operate a motor vehicle, motorcycle, or moped if the person has possessed the valid instruction permit for at least thirty (30) days.

(a) Full legal name and signature;

(b) Date of birth;

(c) Social Security number, federal tax identification number, a letter from the Social Security Administration declining to issue a Social Security number, or a notarized affidavit from the applicant to the Transportation Cabinet swearing that the person either does not have a Social Security number, or refuses to divulge his or her Social Security number, based upon religious convictions;

(4) If the person is not a United States citizen and has not been granted status as a permanent resident of the United States, the person's application for an original operator's license shall be submitted to either the Transportation Cabinet in Frankfort or a Transportation Cabinet field office.

(a) The application form shall be accompanied by the person's documentation issued by the United States Department of Justice, Immigration and Naturalization Service, authorizing the person to be in the United States and, if applicable, the person's international driving permit. (b) It shall be permissible for the application form for a nondriver's identification card to include as a person's most current resident address a mailing address, post office box, or an address provided on a voter registration card.

Section 13. KRS 68.178 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The fiscal court of any county may license off-site waste management facilities located within the county with the imposition of a license fee at a percentage rate not to exceed two percent (2%) per annum of the gross receipts of such a waste management facility owned or operated by self-employed individuals, partnerships, or corporations. The proceeds from the license fee shall be used to defray the general revenue requirements of the county where the facility is located. For purposes of assessing the licensing fee provided for in this section, off-site waste management shall consist of establishing and operating a facility whose principal purpose is treatment, storage, disposal, or a combination of these activities but shall not include those treatment, storage, or disposal activities which occur incidental to or which are not otherwise distinguishable from a broader manufacturing operation at the site of said operation.

(2) (a) The fiscal court of a county or the urban-county council of an urban-county government may license a solid waste landfill located within the county or urban-county area. The license fee may be set at not less than one cent ($0.01) but no more than fifty cents ($0.50) per ton of waste received by the landfill or set at up to five percent (5%) of gross receipts of the landfill.

(b) The license fee as set may be increased by an amount up to one-quarter (1/4) of the base fee per ton or on gross receipts of waste received at the landfill which originates from outside of the planning area. For purposes of this section, planning area shall mean those areas within Kentucky as indicated in solid waste management plans filed with the cabinet by a county, multicounty area, or waste management district. However, before a fee differential may be imposed the county or urban-county government shall demonstrate that the differential is reasonably related to additional government services which must be undertaken because of the landfilling of nonplanning area waste. This demonstration may be made by showing an unplanned for reduction in waste disposal capacity and a need to provide for future disposal capacity or impacts on roads, litter control or emergency services.

(c) The proceeds from the license fee shall be used to defray the government services provided to the landfill, necessary clean-up operations or emergency responses related to operation of the landfill or transporting waste to the landfill, necessary maintenance, improvement or construction of roads, and for the general revenue requirements of the county or urban-county government where the landfill is located.

(d) ~~[Five percent (5%) of the license fee shall be remitted annually to the Natural Resources and Environmental Protection Cabinet until July 30, 1990. The cabinet shall use the amount received for state solid waste management activities.]~~Ten percent (10%) of the license fee shall be remitted annually in equal shares to all counties and urban-county governments in the planning area served by the landfill from where the fees originated which shall be used for local solid waste planning and plan implementation. Counties or urban-county governments desiring to impose the fee provided for herein are authorized to accept payments in lieu of the fee under duly-executed contracts between the county and the permitted site or facility. The fee provided for in this subsection shall be in lieu of the provisions of subsection (1). Special waste, as defined in KRS 224.50-760, except for waste from sanitary wastewater treatment facilities, shall be exempt from this subsection.

(3) In the case of hazardous waste facilities involving land disposal, including a regional integrated waste treatment and disposal demonstration facility as defined in KRS Chapter 224, the rate levied under this section shall be not more than five percent (5%) per annum of the gross receipts and shall be calculated so as to produce sufficient revenue to compensate the county for any additional costs incurred by it from having a hazardous waste facility located in its jurisdiction, including, but not limited to, the loss of ad valorem property tax revenues from the property on which the facility is located, the loss of ad valorem property tax revenues from abutting properties or other affected properties, the cost of providing any additional emergency services, the cost of monitoring air, surface water, ground water to the extent that other monitoring data is not available, and other costs established as being associated with the facility and for which the county is not otherwise compensated.

Section 14. KRS 131.190 is amended to read as follows:

This prohibition does not extend to information required in prosecutions for making false reports or returns of property for taxation, or any other infraction of the tax laws, nor does it extend to any matter properly entered upon any assessment record, or in any way made a matter of public record, nor does it preclude furnishing any taxpayer or his properly authorized agent with information respecting his own return. This information shall be provided to the owner on a confidential basis, and the owner shall be subject to the penalties provided in KRS 131.990(2). The third-party filer shall be given prior notice of any disclosure of information to the owner that was provided by the third-party filer.

These electronic maps shall not be relied upon to determine actual boundaries of mined-out parcel areas. Property boundaries contained in mine maps required under KRS Chapters 350 and 352 shall not be construed to constitute land surveying or boundary surveys as defined by KRS 322.010 and any administrative regulations promulgated thereto.

(22) "Third party" means a person other than the owner or operator of a facility, or the agents or employees of the owner or operator, who sustains bodily injury or property damage as a result of a release from that facility.

Section 25. KRS 224.60-120 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Each petroleum storage tank owner or operator shall establish and maintain evidence of financial responsibility, as provided for in this section, for taking corrective action and for compensating third parties for bodily injury and property damage.

   (a) For petroleum storage tank owners or operators of eleven (11) or more tanks, the level of financial responsibility to be established and maintained shall be twelve thousand five hundred dollars ($12,500) per occurrence for taking corrective action and twelve thousand five hundred dollars ($12,500) per occurrence for compensating third parties for bodily injury and property damage.

   (b) For petroleum storage tank owners or operators of six (6) to ten (10) tanks who have not been issued a closure letter from the cabinet, the level of financial responsibility to be established and maintained shall be two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500) per occurrence for taking corrective action and two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500) per occurrence for compensating third parties for bodily injury and property damage.

   (c) For petroleum storage tank owners or operators of five (5) or less tanks who have not been issued a closure letter from the cabinet, the level of financial responsibility to be established and maintained shall be five hundred dollars ($500) per occurrence for taking corrective action and for compensating third parties for bodily injury and property damage.

(2) Evidence of financial responsibility may be established by any combination of the following:

   (a) Commercial or private insurance, including risk retention groups;

   (b) Qualification as a self-insurer;

   (c) A guarantee, surety bond, or letter of credit; or

   (d) Any other reasonable and economically practicable means in a form acceptable to the division[~~office~~].

(3) To qualify as a self-insurer, the petroleum storage tank owner or operator shall demonstrate a net worth in excess of the amounts specified in subsection (1) of this section. "Net worth" shall mean the monetary value of assets that remain after deducting liabilities. "Assets" shall mean all existing and all probable future economic benefits obtained or controlled by a particular entity as a result of past transactions.

(4) The total liability of any guarantor under KRS 224.60-105 to 224.60-160 is limited to the aggregate amount which the guarantor has provided as evidence of financial responsibility to the petroleum storage tank owner or operator pursuant to this section. This subsection does not limit any other state or federal statutory, contractual, or common law liability of a guarantor to a petroleum storage tank owner or operator, including, but not limited to, the liability of the guarantor for bad faith either in negotiating or in failing to negotiate the settlement of any claim. "Guarantor" shall mean any person, other than the petroleum storage tank owner or operator, who provides evidence of financial responsibility for a petroleum storage tank owner or operator pursuant to this section.

(5) It is the intent of the General Assembly that the fund established pursuant to KRS 224.60-140, combined with the financial responsibility required by this section, may be used by petroleum storage tank owners or operators to demonstrate their compliance with any financial responsibility requirements promulgated under federal regulations.

(6) The Department for Environmental Protection, Division of Waste Management,[~~office~~] shall promulgate administrative regulations to implement this section. In promulgating administrative regulations, the division[~~office~~] shall not restrain or limit the use of any of the means of establishing financial responsibility specified in this section. The administrative regulations may allow a twenty-five percent (25%) reduction in the level of financial responsibility set in subsection (1) of this section for the timely completion of corrective action.

Section 26. KRS 224.60-130 is amended to read as follows:

(1)[~~There is created within the Public Protection and Regulation Cabinet, Office of the Secretary, the Office of Petroleum Storage Tank Environmental Assurance Fund.~~

~~(2)~~] The Environmental and Public Protection Cabinet, Department for Environmental Protection, Division of Waste Management,[~~Office of Petroleum Storage Tank Environmental Assurance Fund~~] shall:

(a) Establish by administrative regulation the policy, guidelines, and procedures to administer the financial responsibility and petroleum storage tank accounts of the petroleum storage tank environmental assurance fund. In adopting administrative regulations to carry out this section, the division[~~office~~] may distinguish between types, classes, and ages of petroleum storage tanks. The division[~~office~~] may establish a range of amounts to be paid from the fund, or may base payments on methods such as pay for performance, task order, or firm fixed pricing, which are designed to provide incentives for contractors to more tightly control corrective action costs, and shall establish criteria to be met by persons who contract to perform corrective action to be eligible for reimbursement from the fund. The criteria may include the certification of individuals, partnerships, and companies. Criteria shall be established to certify laboratories that contract to perform analytical testing related to the underground storage tank program. Owners and operators shall have all required analytical testing performed by a certified laboratory to be eligible for fund participation. Persons who contract with petroleum storage tank owners or operators shall not be paid more than the amount authorized by the division[~~office~~] for reimbursement from the fund for the performance of corrective action. At a minimum, the division[~~office~~] shall promulgate administrative regulations that will insure an unobligated balance in the fund adequate to meet financial assurance requirements and corrective action requirements of KRS 224.60-135(2) and (4). If the unobligated balance in the fund is not adequate to meet the requirements of this paragraph, the division[~~office~~] shall obligate funds necessary to meet these requirements;

(b) Establish by administrative regulation the criteria to be met to be eligible to participate in the financial responsibility and petroleum storage tank accounts and to receive reimbursement from these accounts. The division[~~office~~] may establish eligibility criteria for the petroleum storage tank account based upon the financial ability of the petroleum storage tank owner or operator. Owners or operators seeking coverage under the petroleum storage tank account shall file for eligibility and for financial assistance with the division[~~office~~] on or before January 15, 2008. To insure cost effectiveness, the division[~~office~~] shall promulgate administrative regulations specifying the circumstances under which prior approval of corrective action costs shall be required for those costs to be eligible for reimbursement from the fund. In promulgating administrative regulations to carry out this section, the division[~~office~~] may distinguish between types, classes, and ages of petroleum storage tanks and the degree of compliance of the facility with any administrative regulations of the cabinet promulgated pursuant to KRS 224.60-105 or applicable federal regulations;

(c) Establish a financial responsibility account within the fund which may be used by petroleum storage tank owners and operators to demonstrate financial responsibility as required by administrative regulations of the cabinet or the federal regulations applicable to petroleum storage tanks, consistent with the intent of the General Assembly as set forth in KRS 224.60-120(5). The account shall receive four-tenths of one cent ($0.004) from the one and four-tenths cent ($0.014) paid on each gallon of gasoline and special fuels received in this state pursuant to KRS 224.60-145. To be eligible to use this account to demonstrate compliance with financial responsibility requirements of the cabinet or federal regulations, or to receive reimbursement from this account for taking corrective action and for compensating third parties for bodily injury and property damage, the petroleum storage tank owner or operator shall meet the eligibility requirements established by administrative regulation promulgated by the division[~~office~~];

(d) Establish a small operator assistance account within the fund which may be used by the division[~~office~~] to make or participate in the making of loans, to purchase or participate in the purchase of the loans, which purchase may be from eligible lenders, or to insure loans made by eligible lenders;

(e) Establish a petroleum storage tank account within the fund to be used to pay the costs of corrective action due to a release from a petroleum storage tank not eligible for reimbursement from the financial responsibility account. Reimbursements of corrective action projects performed under the petroleum storage tank account shall be carried out on or before July 15, 2013. Any corrective action costs incurred after this date shall not be eligible for reimbursement under the petroleum storage tank account. The account shall receive one cent ($0.01) from the one and four-tenths cent ($0.014) paid on each gallon of gasoline and special fuels received in this state pursuant to KRS 224.60-145. This account shall not be used to compensate third parties for bodily injury and property damage. Within three (3) months after July 15, 2004, the division[~~office~~] shall develop a plan to address the payment of claims and completion of corrective action at facilities eligible for reimbursement from this account. The division[~~office~~] shall establish a ranking system to be used for the distribution of amounts from this account for the purpose of corrective action. In promulgating administrative regulations to carry out this section, the division[~~office~~] shall consider the financial ability of the petroleum storage tank owner or operator to perform corrective action and the extent of damage caused by a release into the environment from a petroleum storage tank;

(f) Hear complaints brought before the division[~~office~~] regarding the payment of claims from the fund in accordance with KRS 224.10-410 to 224.10-470[~~Chapter 13B~~];

(g) Establish and maintain necessary offices within this state, appoint employees and agents as necessary, and prescribe their duties and compensation;

(h) Employ, in accordance with the procedures found in KRS 45A.690 to 45A.725 for awarding personal service contracts, a qualified actuary to perform actuarial studies, as directed by the division[~~office~~], for determining an appropriate reserve in the financial responsibility account and the petroleum storage tank account sufficient to satisfy the obligations in each account for all eligible facilities and to satisfy future liabilities and expenses necessary to operate each account. The division[~~office~~] shall, by administrative regulation, set the entry level for participation in the fund;

(i) Authorize expenditures from the fund to carry out the purpose of KRS 224.60-105 to 224.60-160, including reasonable costs of administering the fund, the procurement of legal services, and the procurement of analytical testing services when necessary to confirm the accuracy of analytical testing results obtained by a petroleum storage tank owner or operator. The expenditures shall be paid from the appropriate account;

(j) Establish a small operators' tank removal account within the fund to reimburse the reasonable cost of tank system removal for small owners and operators. The account shall not be used when an owner or operator is removing the tank with the intention of replacing or upgrading the tank. In promulgating administrative regulations to carry out this paragraph, the division[~~office~~] may distinguish among owners and operators based on income, number of tanks, number of facilities, and types and classes of tanks;

(k) Establish by administrative regulation the policy, guidelines, and procedures to perform financial audits of any petroleum storage tank owner or operator receiving reimbursement from the fund or any entity contracting or subcontracting to provide corrective action services for facilities eligible for fund reimbursement. Financial audits shall be limited to those files, records, computer records, receipts, and other documents related to corrective action performed at a facility where the costs of corrective action have been reimbursed by the fund. Files, records, computer records, receipts, and other documents related to corrective action reimbursed by the fund shall be subject to a financial audit for a period of three (3) years after the date of final reimbursement from the fund. Results of the audits shall be protected from disclosure as allowed by KRS 61.878(1)(c). Financial auditing services may be contracted for or personnel may be employed as needed to implement the requirements of this paragraph;

(l) Be authorized to enter and inspect any facility intending to seek reimbursement for the cost of corrective action to determine the reasonableness and necessity of the cost of corrective action. The division[~~office~~] may collect soil or water samples or require storage tank owners or operators to split samples with the division[~~office~~] for analytical testing. Refusal to allow entry and inspection of a facility or refusal to allow the division[~~office~~] to collect or split samples shall make the facility ineligible for fund participation;

(m) Have inspectors[~~assurance fund auditors~~] on site at all tank system removals. Failure to comply with this provision shall make the facility ineligible for fund participation. A petroleum storage tank owner or operator may request through certified mail that the division[~~office~~] schedule an inspector[~~assurance fund auditor~~] to be present at an upcoming tank removal. If the request is made at least two (2) weeks before the time for the removal and an inspector[~~auditor~~] fails to be present at the time scheduled, the tank removal may proceed without making the facility ineligible for fund participation unless the owner is notified by the division[~~assurance fund~~] no later than ten (10) days prior to the proposed date that an inspector[~~auditor~~] is not available on the proposed date, in which event a representative of the division[~~assurance fund~~] shall contact the operator and schedule a new date. If no inspector[~~auditor~~] is present at the rescheduled date, the removal may then proceed without penalty; and

(n) Establish that the deadline for submission of final reimbursement requests under the petroleum storage tank account is two (2) years after receipt of a no further action letter.

(2)[~~(3)~~] The division[~~office~~] may advise the cabinet on the promulgation of administrative regulations concerning petroleum storage tanks.

(3)[~~(4)~~] The division[~~office~~] may sue and be sued in its own name.

(4)[~~(5)~~] The division[~~office~~] may transfer funds from the petroleum storage tank account to the small operator tank removal account as needed to satisfy the obligations, future liabilities, and expenses necessary to operate that account. The division[~~office~~] may transfer funds to the financial responsibility account as needed to maintain within that account sufficient funds to demonstrate financial responsibility and to ensure payment of claims as provided in subsection (1)~~(2)~~ of this section.

Section 27. KRS 224.60-140 is amended to read as follows:

(1) There is hereby created the petroleum storage tank environmental assurance fund. The fund shall consist of a financial responsibility account and a petroleum storage tank account. Each account shall be maintained as a separate and distinct interest-bearing account. Interest credited to an account shall be retained in that account. All of the following amounts shall be deposited in the fund:

(a) Four-tenths of one cent ($0.004) from the one and four-tenths cent ($0.014) paid on each gallon of gasoline and special fuels received in this state pursuant to KRS 224.60-145 to the financial responsibility account;

(b) One cent ($0.01) from the one and four-tenths cent ($0.014) paid on each gallon of gasoline and special fuels received in this state pursuant to KRS 224.60-145 to the petroleum storage tank account;

(c) Money appropriated by the General Assembly for deposit in each account;

(d) Any money recovered by the fund pursuant to this section shall be deposited in the appropriate account; and

(e) Any money collected in the form of penalties levied pursuant to KRS 224.60-155 shall be deposited to the appropriate account.

(2) Money in the fund, financial responsibility account and the petroleum storage tank account shall be used by the division[~~office~~] for the following purposes:

(a) To reimburse petroleum storage tank owners or operators for the costs, expenses, and other obligations incurred for corrective action required by the cabinet to be undertaken as the result of a release into the environment from a petroleum storage tank. Reimbursement shall be limited to only those costs, expenses, and other obligations incurred to comply with corrective action requirements established in law or administrative regulation by the cabinet. Additional costs related to compliance with a local program operating under KRS 224.60-105(4) shall be neither reimbursable by the fund nor imposed on the owner or operator. Reimbursement shall not include the costs related to the removal, or actions incidental to the removal, of a tank system except as authorized under KRS 224.60-130(1)~~(2)~~;

(b) For payment of or reimbursement for third-party claims for bodily injury and property damage, related to a facility eligible for participation in the financial responsibility account, which are asserted against a petroleum storage tank owner or operator as a result of a release into the environment from a petroleum storage tank;

(c) To pay the reasonable, prorated costs incurred by the division[~~office~~] in administering each account; and

(d) The cost to operate the small operators' assistance account pursuant to KRS 224.60-130(1)~~(2)~~, the small operators' tank removal account pursuant to KRS 224.60-130(1)~~(2)~~, to perform or contract for the performance of financial audits conducted under KRS 224.60-130(1)~~(2)~~, and to employ sufficient inspectors[~~assurance fund auditors~~] to carry out the provisions of KRS 224.60-130 and to set forth their duties. These costs shall be prorated to each account.

(3) The use of the fund shall not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000) per occurrence for corrective action and one million dollars ($1,000,000) per occurrence for compensating third parties for bodily injury and property damage.

(4) Money in the fund may be used by the cabinet for costs incurred by the cabinet for corrective action taken pursuant to KRS 224.60-135(2) and (4).

(5) The fund shall be used to guarantee payment of reasonable costs and expenses to a contractor performing corrective action under contract with a petroleum storage tank owner or operator subject to entry level amounts payable by the petroleum storage tank owner or operator. Money in the fund shall be obligated to secure the guarantee.

(6) A petroleum storage tank owner or operator may apply to the division[~~office~~] for reimbursement from the fund of costs to perform corrective action, except that the petroleum storage tank owner or operator shall be responsible for and shall not be reimbursed for an amount equal to the entry level into the fund as set pursuant to administrative regulation of the division[~~office~~].

(7) The division[~~office~~] or its designated agent shall issue all decisions made on claims filed pursuant to this section in writing, with notification to all appropriate parties, within ninety (90) days after submission of the claim, unless all parties to the claim agree in writing to an extension of time. The division[~~office~~] shall by phone or facsimile transmission immediately notify the claim applicant and its consultant, if applicable, when the claim is determined to be deficient. The notification shall provide sufficient information to allow the applicant and its consultant, if applicable, to begin to correct the deficiency. The division[~~office~~] shall then notify the applicant and its consultant, if applicable, by certified mail of the deficiency. The notice shall indicate how many days remain in the ninety (90) day review period from the time of mailing. The review period shall be tolled pending submittal of information responding to the deficiency, but not to exceed thirty (30) days. When the division[~~office~~] receives information that corrects the deficiency, or at the end of the thirty (30) day period, the division[~~office~~] shall complete the review of the claim within the time remaining in the ninety (90) day review period. Nothing in this section shall be construed as preventing the fund from making partial reimbursement as appropriate.

(8) Except as provided in subsection (9), any costs incurred and payable from the fund for corrective action taken pursuant to KRS 224.60-135(2) shall be recovered by the division[~~office~~] from the petroleum storage tank owner or operator which released the petroleum or petroleum products into the environment.

(9) The liability of a petroleum storage tank owner or operator subject to a cost recovery under this section shall not exceed an amount equal to the entry level into the fund, the division's[~~office's~~] cost incurred in the cost recovery, and any penalties applied in accordance with KRS 224.60-155. This amount shall include any expenditures made by the petroleum storage tank owner or operator for the release into the environment from the petroleum storage tank that is the subject of the cost of recovery.

(10) The amount of costs determined pursuant to subsections (8) and (19) of this section shall be recoverable in a civil action. This subsection does not deprive a party of any defense the party may have.

(11) Money recovered by the division[~~office~~] pursuant to this section shall be deposited in the appropriate account.

(12) Upon motion and sufficient showing by any party, the court shall join to the action any person who may be liable for costs or expenditures recoverable pursuant to this section.

(13) (a) Any party found liable for any costs or expenditures recoverable under this section who establishes that only a portion of those costs or expenditures are attributable to their actions, shall pay only for that portion.

(b) If the trier of fact finds the evidence insufficient to establish each party's portion of costs or expenditures pursuant to subsection (12) of this section, the court shall apportion those costs or expenditures, to the extent practicable according to equitable principles among the defendants.

(c) The appropriate account shall pay any portion of the judgment in excess of the aggregate amount of costs or expenditures apportioned under paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subsection.

(14) (a) No indemnification, hold harmless, conveyance, or similar agreement shall be effective to transfer any liability for costs recoverable under this section. This subsection shall not bar any agreement to insure, hold harmless, or indemnify a party to the agreement for any costs under KRS 224.60-105 to 224.60-160.

(b) The entry of judgment against any party to the action shall not bar any future action by the fund against any other person who is later discovered to be potentially liable for costs paid from the fund.

(c) Payment of any claim by the fund pursuant to KRS 224.60-105 to 224.60-160 shall be subject to the state acquiring by subrogation the rights of the claimant to recover those costs of corrective action for which it has compensated the claimant from the person responsible or liable for the release.

(15) This section shall not be construed as authorizing recovery for costs of corrective action resulting from any release authorized or permitted pursuant to state or federal law.

(16) The cabinet shall attempt, to the maximum extent practicable, to secure or obtain funds that may be available for corrective actions under federal laws. However, nothing in this subsection shall prevent the cabinet from expending any funds available under KRS 224.60-105 to 224.60-160 if such federal funds are determined to be unavailable.

(17) The fund shall not be used for corrective action, reimbursement, or third-party liability resulting from releases from petroleum storage tanks used exclusively for storage of fuel used in the operation of a commercial ship or vessel oil tanks used exclusively for storage of fuel used for the purposes of powering locomotives.

(18) (a) Any person filing a claim for reimbursement from the division[~~office~~] shall, prior to filing the claim for reimbursement, ensure full payment of the claims of all vendors and subcontractors who have performed work or supplied materials related to corrective action at an underground storage tank facility, where labor or materials supplied by a vendor or subcontractor form a basis for at least part of the claim for reimbursement.

(b) A vendor or subcontractor may waive, in writing, his right to receive full payment before the person files the claim for reimbursement. Any vendor or subcontractor who waives, in writing, his right to full payment shall also waive, in writing, his right to take legal recourse against the division[~~office~~] and the underground storage tank facility owner or operator for nonpayment from a prime contractor for work performed or materials supplied to the prime contractor during corrective action at an underground storage tank facility. Any vendor or subcontractor who waives, in writing, his right to full payment prior to the filing of the claim for reimbursement shall acknowledge in the written waiver that his, his heirs', successors', and assigns' sole recourse for the nonpayment of work performed or materials supplied to a prime contractor during corrective action at an underground storage tank facility is to proceed against the prime contractor for whom he performed the work or supplied materials. Any vendor or subcontractor who waives, in writing, his right to full payment prior to the filing of the claim for reimbursement shall release and discharge any liens filed as a result of work performed or materials provided at the underground storage tank facility. Subcontractor and vendor waivers must be made on standard forms furnished by the division[~~office~~]. Their signatures must be notarized.

(c) Unless the provisions of paragraph (b) of this subsection apply, any person filing a claim for reimbursement from the division[~~office~~] shall certify, by affidavit, on standard forms furnished by the division[~~office~~], that all vendors and subcontractors who have performed work or supplied materials related to corrective action at an underground storage tank facility, where labor and materials supplied by a vendor or subcontractor form a basis for at least part of the claim for reimbursement, have been paid in full as of the date of submission of the claim for reimbursement. A single affidavit may be made for each claim for reimbursement, provided, however, that the representations made in the affidavit shall be applied to each vendor or subcontractor individually, and, where false, shall be treated, as to each vendor or subcontractor, as a separate violation for the purpose of applying any criminal statute.

(d) Any person with responsibility for administering the division[~~office~~] who believes, or has information, that an affidavit submitted pursuant to this subsection contains false or misleading information, or any person with responsibility for administering the division[~~office~~] who believes or has information that an application for financial assistance or a claim for reimbursement contains false or misleading information, shall provide that information to the Commonwealth's attorney whose jurisdiction includes the county where the majority of the subject underground storage tank facility is located. That person may additionally provide the information to any other interested prosecutor with jurisdiction to prosecute crimes pertaining to an application for financial assistance or the claim for reimbursement.

(19) Any person who knowingly makes a false statement, representation, or certification in an application for reimbursement from the fund, or in any supporting documentation attached thereto, shall be responsible for and shall not be reimbursed for any amounts incurred based upon the false statement, representation, or certification. Any costs incurred and paid from the fund which are based on a false statement, representation, or certification in an application for reimbursement from the fund, or in any supporting documentation attached thereto, shall be recovered by the fund administrators from the person who asserted the false statement, representation, or certification.

"Injury" when used generally, unless the context indicates otherwise, shall include an occupational disease and damage to a prosthetic appliance, but shall not include a psychological, psychiatric, or stress-related change in the human organism, unless it is a direct result of a physical injury.

(2) "Occupational disease" means a disease arising out of and in the course of the employment.

The occupational disease shall be incidental to the character of the business and not independent of the relationship of employer and employee. A business entity engaged in the severance or processing of coal, including, but not limited to, administrative or selling functions, shall be considered wholly engaged in the severance or processing of coal for the purpose of this chapter. However, a business entity which is engaged in a separate business activity not related to coal, for which a separate premium charge is not made, shall be deemed to be engaged in the severance or processing of coal only to the extent that the number of employees engaged in the severance or processing of coal bears to the total number of employees. Any employee who is involved in the business of severing or processing of coal and business activities not related to coal shall be prorated based on the time involved in severance or processing of coal bears to his total time.

(24) "Premium" for every group of self-insurers means any and all assessments levied on its members by such group or contributed to it by the members thereof. The rates, factors, and methods used to calculate the cost for coverage under this paragraph for insurance policies or other evidence of coverage with provisions for deductibles shall be the same rates, factors, and methods normally used by the insurance company in Kentucky to calculate the cost for coverage for insurance policies or other evidence of coverage without provisions for deductibles, except that, for insurance policies or other evidence of coverage with provisions for deductibles effective on or after January 1, 1995, the calculated cost for coverage shall not include any schedule rating modification, debits, or credits. The cost for coverage calculated under this paragraph by insurance companies that issue only deductible insurance policies in Kentucky shall be actuarially adequate to cover the entire liability of the employer for compensation under this chapter, including all expenses and allowances normally used to calculate the cost for coverage. For policies with provisions for deductibles with effective dates of May 6, 1993, through December 31, 1993, for which the insurance company did not report premiums and remit special fund assessments based on the calculated cost for coverage prior to the reduction for deductibles, "premiums received" includes the initial premium plus any reimbursements invoiced for losses, expenses, and fees charged under the deductibles. The special fund assessment rates in effect for reimbursements invoiced for losses, expenses, or fees charged under the deductibles shall be those percentages in effect on the effective date of the insurance policy. For policies covering leased employees as defined in KRS 342.615, "premiums received" means premiums calculated using the experience modification factor of each lessee as defined in KRS 342.615 for each leased employee for that portion of the payroll pertaining to the leased employee.

The rates, factors, and methods used to calculate the cost for coverage under this paragraph for insurance policies or other evidence of coverage with provisions for deductibles shall be the same rates, factors, and methods normally used by the insurance company in Kentucky to calculate the cost for coverage for insurance policies or other evidence of coverage without provisions for deductibles, except that, for insurance policies or other evidence of coverage with provisions for deductibles effective on or after January 1, 1995, the calculated cost for coverage shall not include any schedule rating modifications, debits, or credits. The cost for coverage calculated under this paragraph by insurance companies that issue only deductible insurance policies in Kentucky shall be actuarially adequate to cover the entire liability of the employer for compensation under this chapter, including all expenses and allowances normally used to calculate the cost for coverage. For policies with provisions for deductibles with effective dates of May 6, 1993, through December 31, 1993, for which the insurance company did not report premiums and remit special fund assessments based on the calculated cost for coverage prior to the reduction for deductibles, "premium" includes the initial consideration plus any reimbursements invoiced for losses, expenses, or fees charged under the deductibles.

(26) "Insurance policy" for an insurance company or group self-insurer means the term of insurance coverage commencing from the date coverage is extended, whether a new policy or a renewal, through its expiration, not to exceed the anniversary date of the renewal for the following year.

(28) "Premium" for each employer carrying his own risk pursuant to KRS 342.340(1) shall be the projected value of the employer's workers' compensation claims for the next calendar year as calculated by the executive director[~~commissioner~~] using generally-accepted actuarial methods as follows:

(a) The base period shall be the earliest three (3) calendar years of the five (5) calendar years immediately preceding the calendar year for which the calculation is made. The executive director[~~commissioner~~] shall identify each claim of the employer which has an injury date or date of last injurious exposure to the cause of an occupational disease during each one (1) of the three (3) calendar years to be used as the base, and shall assign a value to each claim. The value shall be the total of the indemnity benefits paid to date and projected to be paid, adjusted to current benefit levels, plus the medical benefits paid to date and projected to be paid for the life of the claim, plus the cost of medical and vocational rehabilitation paid to date and projected to be paid. Adjustment to current benefit levels shall be done by multiplying the weekly indemnity benefit for each claim by the number obtained by dividing the statewide average weekly wage which will be in effect for the year for which the premium is being calculated by the statewide average weekly wage in effect during the year in which the injury or date of the last exposure occurred. The total value of the claims using the adjusted weekly benefit shall then be calculated by the executive director[~~commissioner~~]. Values for claims in which awards have been made or settlements reached because of findings of permanent partial or permanent total disability shall be calculated using the mortality and interest discount assumptions used in the latest available statistical plan of the advisory rating organization defined in Subtitle 13 of KRS Chapter 304. The sum of all calculated values shall be computed for all claims in the base period.

(b) The executive director[~~commissioner~~] shall obtain the annual payroll for each of the three (3) years in the base period for each employer carrying his own risk from records of the office[~~department~~] and from the records of the Department for Employment Services, Cabinet for Workforce Development. The executive director[~~commissioner~~] shall multiply each of the three (3) years of payroll by the number obtained by dividing the statewide average weekly wage which will be in effect for the year in which the premium is being calculated by the statewide average weekly wage in effect in each of the years of the base period.

(c) The executive director[~~commissioner~~] shall divide the total of the adjusted claim values for the three (3) year base period by the total adjusted payroll for the same three (3) year period. The value so calculated shall be multiplied by 1.25 and shall then be multiplied by the employer's most recent annualized payroll, calculated using records of the office[~~department~~] and the Department for Employment Services data which shall be made available for this purpose on a quarterly basis as reported, to obtain the premium for the next calendar year for assessment purposes under KRS 342.122.

(d) For November 1, 1987, through December 31, 1988, premium for each employer carrying his own risk shall be an amount calculated by the board pursuant to the provisions contained in this subsection and such premium shall be provided to each employer carrying his own risk and to the funding commission on or before January 1, 1988. Thereafter, the calculations set forth in this subsection shall be performed annually, at the time each employer applies or renews his application for certification to carry his own risk for the next twelve (12) month period and submits payroll and other data in support of the application. The employer and the funding commission shall be notified at the time of the certification or recertification of the premium calculated by the executive director[~~commissioner~~], which shall form the employer's basis for assessments pursuant to KRS 342.122 for the calendar year beginning on January 1 following the date of certification or recertification.

(e) If an employer having fewer than five (5) years of doing business in this state applies to carry his own risk and is so certified, his premium for the purposes of KRS 342.122 shall be based on the lesser number of years of experience as may be available including the two (2) most recent years if necessary to create a three (3) year base period. If the employer has less than two (2) years of operation in this state available for the premium calculation, then his premium shall be the greater of the value obtained by the calculation called for in this subsection or the amount of security required by the executive director[~~commissioner~~] pursuant to KRS 342.340(1).

(f) If an employer is certified to carry his own risk after having previously insured the risk, his premium shall be calculated using values obtained from claims incurred while insured for as many of the years of the base period as may be necessary to create a full three (3) year base. After the employer is certified to carry his own risk and has paid all amounts due for assessments upon premiums paid while insured, he shall be assessed only upon the premium calculated under this subsection.

(g) "Premium" for each employer defined in KRS 342.630(2) shall be calculated as set forth in this subsection.

(h) Notwithstanding any other provision of this subsection, the premium of any employer authorized to carry its own risk for purposes of assessments due under this chapter shall be no less than thirty cents ($0.30) per one hundred dollars ($100) of the employer's most recent annualized payroll for employees covered by this chapter.

(c) A statement that the applicant has met and conferred with, or offered to meet and confer with, each coal interest holder concerning the proposed coalbed methane well, its location, the proposed stimulation in the workable coalbed, or the proposed completion in the workable coalbed.

Section 46. KRS 349.020 is amended to read as follows:

(1) If the drilling of a coalbed methane well could adversely affect the present or future use or operation of a workable coalbed, any coal interest holder may object to a proposed coalbed methane well, the well's location, the proposed stimulation in the workable coalbed, or the proposed completion in the workable coalbed. Any coal interest holder, within twenty (20) days of receipt of the plat by him or her and by the department, may file specific objections in writing with the department. The filed objections shall provide sufficient detail for the applicant to identify the nature and substance of the objection. The department shall notify the applicant of the objections and fix a time and place for a hearing before the review board to be conducted in accordance with KRS Chapter 13B and this chapter.

(2) If any coal interest holder, notified pursuant to KRS 349.015, or any other person, claims to have a valid real property interest in, or the current legal right to produce, coalbed methane, the person claiming the real property interest or right shall notify the applicant and the department, in writing, within twenty (20) days from the receipt of the plat by him or her and by the department. The person also shall request that a pooling order be entered pursuant to KRS 349.080(1).

(3) If the record oil and gas lessor, lessee, or well operator notified pursuant to KRS 349.015, or any other person, claims to have a valid real property interest in, or the current legal right to produce, coalbed methane, the person claiming the real property interest or right shall notify the applicant and the department, in writing, within twenty (20) days from the receipt of the plat by him. The person shall request that a pooling order be entered pursuant to KRS 349.080(1).

(4) If no objections are filed within the twenty (20) day period, the department shall immediately issue a drilling permit to the well operator approving the location of the well and authorizing the well operator to proceed to drill at that location, provided all other preconditions to issuance of a permit, as contained in this chapter, have been met.

(5) Upon receipt of an application to drill a coalbed methane well, the department shall provide a copy of the required plat and permit application to the division[~~DSMRE~~]. Within fifteen (15) days of receipt by the division,[~~DSMRE~~] notification shall be sent to the department by the division[~~DSMRE~~] as to whether the proposed coalbed methane well will be located within the boundaries of any coal mine for which a permit has been issued or has been applied for pursuant to KRS Chapter 350. If the proposed coalbed methane well is to penetrate a workable coalbed that is within the area of an existing permit for an underground mine issued by the division[~~DSMRE~~], or the proposed permitted area of a pending application or permit modification for an underground mine before the division[~~DSMRE~~], the written authorization of the mine permittee shall be required prior to issuance by the department of a permit to stimulate, complete, or horizontally drill the coalbed methane well in the workable coalbed that is within the area of an existing permit for an underground mine issued by the division[~~DSMRE~~] or within the proposed permitted area of a pending application or permit modification for an underground mine before the division[~~DSMRE~~]. If the proposed coalbed methane well is to be located within a surface area permitted, or proposed in a pending application or permit modification to be issued by the division[~~DSMRE~~], the written authorization of the mine permittee shall be required prior to issuance by the department of a permit to drill the coalbed methane well. In the absence of the written authorization of the mine permittee, the applicant may file an appeal with the review board requesting approval to drill the proposed coalbed methane well if:

(a) Authorization has been denied by the mine permittee; and

(b) The proposed location and area to be disturbed by the proposed coalbed methane well has achieved either a partial bond release status or the bond for the area has been forfeited.

Section 47. KRS 349.040 is amended to read as follows:

(1) It is unlawful for any person to drill, commence, operate, deepen, convert, or stimulate any coalbed methane well, to conduct any horizontal drilling of a coalbed methane well or to convert any existing oil or natural gas well to a coalbed methane well, without first securing from the department a permit pursuant to this chapter. Before any well, borehole, or facility initially used for a coal mining related purpose, such as a vent hole, is converted for the purpose of recovering coalbed methane for sale or use, the operator shall obtain a permit and comply with the provisions of this chapter prior to the time that the well, borehole, or facility is converted or used for the purpose of recovering coalbed methane for sale or use. It is unlawful for any person to drill, deepen, convert, or reopen a coalbed methane well for the production of oil or natural gas or for the injection of water, gas, or other fluids into any oil or natural gas producing formation until the person has obtained a permit from the department for a petroleum or natural gas well pursuant to KRS 353.570. However, no additional permit fee shall be required if the original permit for the coalbed methane well has not expired.

(2) Every permit application filed under this section shall be verified and shall contain the following:

(a) A statement that the applicant claims to have a valid real property interest in, or the current legal right to produce coalbed methane from a person claiming a valid real property interest in, the coalbed methane. The statement shall identify with specificity the nature of the real property interest and the document or instrument evidencing that interest or right, including recording information of any recorded document or instrument;

(b) The names and addresses of the coalbed methane well operator and every person or entity whom the applicant must notify under any section of this chapter;

(f) The approximate depth to which the coalbed methane well is to be drilled, deepened, or converted, the coal seams including the depth and thickness of each seam that will be completed for production, and any other coal seams which will be penetrated by the coalbed methane well;

(g) A description of any means to be used to stimulate any of the workable coalbeds penetrated by the coalbed methane well;

(h) If the proposed coalbed methane well will require casing or tubing, the entire casing program for the coalbed methane well, including the size of each string of pipe, the starting point and depth to which each string is to be set, and the extent to which each string is to be cemented;

(i) If the proposed operation is to convert an existing petroleum or natural gas well, as defined in KRS 353.010(13), or to convert a vertical borehole or facility initially used for a coal mining related purpose, such as a vent hole, to a coalbed methane well, all information required by this section, all formations from which production is anticipated, and any plans to plug any portion of the well;

(j) Except for a vent hole proposed to be converted to a coalbed methane well, if the proposed coalbed methane well will be completed in some but not all coal seams for production, a plan and design for the coalbed methane well which will protect all workable coalbeds which will be penetrated by the coalbed methane well;

(k) If the proposed operations will include horizontal drilling of a coalbed methane well, a description of the operations, including both the vertical and horizontal alignment and extent of the coalbed methane well from the surface to total depth; and

(a) A permit application fee of three hundred dollars ($300);

(b) A bond in an amount prescribed in KRS 349.120;

(c) A certificate that the applicant's notice requirements of KRS 349.015 have been satisfied. Certification may be by affidavit of personal service, or the return receipt card, or other postal receipt, for certified mailing;

(d) If the proposed coalbed methane well will be located within one-half (1/2) of a mile, measuring horizontally, of a water supply well being used for residential or domestic purposes, the applicant will submit the groundwater protection plan required under KRS 224.70-110 and applicable administrative regulations promulgated pursuant thereto for review by the department, or demonstrate to the department that a plan is not required; and

(e) Proof that the applicant has public liability insurance coverage in an amount not less than five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000) in aggregate and three hundred thousand dollars ($300,000) per occurrence for damages to persons and property caused by the applicant's operations or proof that the applicant has satisfied self-insurance requirements as provided by administrative regulations which shall be promulgated by the department.

(4) Prior to the department's issuance of a permit to drill a coalbed methane well, a copy of the written authorization from the mine licensee shall be filed with the application under the following circumstances:

(a) If the proposed coalbed methane well is to penetrate a workable coalbed that is within the permitted area of an existing permit or the proposed permitted area of a permit pending before the division~~[DSMRE]~~ and if the applicant plans to stimulate, complete, or horizontally drill the coalbed methane well in a workable coalbed that is within the permitted area of an existing permit or the proposed permitted area of a permit pending before the division~~[DSMRE]~~;

(b) If the proposed coalbed methane well is to be located within a surface area permitted under an existing permit, or the proposed permitted area of a permit pending before the division~~[DSMRE]~~ for which no bond release has been obtained; or

(c) If the proposed coalbed methane well is to be located within a surface area permitted under an existing permit by the division~~[DSMRE]~~ for which a partial bond release has been obtained.

If a coalbed methane well permit is issued for a well site located within the boundaries of any coal mine for which a permit has been issued or is pending pursuant to KRS Chapter 350, the permit shall include a provision specifically stating that the permitted coalbed methane well location is in an area for which a coal mine permit has been issued or is pending pursuant to KRS Chapter 350 and is subject to the mine-through rights set forth in KRS 349.030(1).

(5) If a partial bond release for the surface area on which the proposed coalbed methane well is located has been obtained from the division~~[DSMRE]~~ and the applicant is denied written authorization from the mine licensee, the applicant may file an appeal with the review board requesting approval to drill the proposed coalbed methane well. When requesting an appeal, the applicant shall submit a verified statement including the following:

(a) The applicant has met and conferred with or offered to meet and confer with the mine licensee concerning the authorization;

(b) The mine licensee has refused to provide written authorization to disturb the permitted area;

(c) The physical area to be disturbed by the proposed well location and the use of area, including ingress and egress thereto, qualifies as a commercial or industrial postmining land use entitling the mine licensee to a complete bond release for the area to be disturbed by the coalbed methane well operator in accordance with KRS Chapter 350; and

(d) The applicant has agreed to pay the reasonable and actual costs of the permit revision required by the division~~[DSMRE]~~ to affect the incremental bond release for the proposed area to be disturbed by the coalbed methane well operator, not to exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000).

(6) Prior to the issuance of a permit to drill a coalbed methane well, the applicant shall grant assignable subsidence waivers to any mine licensee if requested in an objection filed pursuant to KRS 349.060 and, if required, to allow present or future mining with planned subsidence under KRS Chapter 350. However, this subsection and any subsidence waivers shall in no way waive, affect, or impair the ability of the applicant or the applicant's successors or assigns to pursue any remedies for damages to persons, or to improved or tangible property, suffered or incurred as a result of any subsidence caused by the mine licensee or the mine licensee's successors or assigns. The mine licensee, its successors or assigns, shall be liable for any and all damages to persons or to improved or tangible property proximately caused by the mine licensee.

(7) If the mine licensee is mining in a coal seam that is not being produced by the coalbed methane well operator and has not exercised his or her mine-through rights, as set forth in KRS 349.030(1) or (2), in any coal mine before removing any coal or other material or driving any entry or passageway within five hundred (500) horizontal feet of the vertical segment of a coalbed methane well or within fifty (50) vertical feet of the horizontal segment of a coalbed methane well, the mine licensee shall forward simultaneously to the well operator and to the department, by certified mail, return receipt requested, or by registered mail, a copy of the maps and plans required by law to be filed and kept up to date. Maps or plans shall show the mine workings and projected mine workings within five hundred (500) horizontal feet of the coalbed methane well. However, the issuance of any coalbed methane well permit shall not preclude or prevent coal mining outside two hundred (200) feet, but not closer than fifty (50) feet, of the vertical segment of a coalbed methane well or outside of the workable coalbed in which the horizontal segment of a coalbed methane well is located, unless specified by the department for reasons of mine or well safety. The mine licensee shall not mine within fifty (50) feet of the vertical segment of a coalbed methane well without the written authorization of the coalbed methane well operator. A mine licensee may file a request with the department to mine closer than two hundred (200) feet of the vertical segment of the coalbed methane well. The mine licensee shall forward simultaneously to the well operator and the department, by certified mail, return receipt requested, or by registered mail, a request to mine closer than two hundred (200) feet, but not closer than fifty (50) feet, of the vertical segment of the coalbed methane well, which shall be accompanied by the following:

(a) A copy of the maps and plans required by law to be filed and kept up to date, showing on the copy of the map or plan its mine plan workings and projected mine workings beneath the tract of land and within two hundred (200) feet, but not closer than fifty (50) feet, of the vertical segment of the coalbed methane well; and

(b) A statement that the applicant has met and conferred with, or offered to meet and confer with, the well operator concerning the mine licensee's plan to mine closer than two hundred (200) feet, but not closer than fifty (50) feet, of the vertical segment of the coalbed methane well.

The well operator may, within twenty (20) days of receipt of the documents listed in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subsection, file specific objections in writing with the department. When objections are filed, the department shall provide a copy of the objections to the mine licensee and fix a time and place for an informal hearing. The hearing shall be held not more than ten (10) days from the end of the twenty (20) day period. At the hearing, the mine licensee and the well operator, in person or by representative, shall consider the objections and seek agreement on the character and the extent of operations to be conducted within less than two hundred (200) feet, but not closer than fifty (50) feet, of the vertical segment of the coalbed methane well. If no agreement can be reached, the department, after administrative hearing conducted in accordance with KRS Chapter 13B, shall make a decision defining what coal, if any, is necessary to be left for the safe protection, use, and operation of the well. The department's decision shall be subject to appeal by either party as provided in this chapter. The department shall keep a complete record of all hearings. The mine licensee shall, every six (6) months, while mining within two hundred (200) feet, but not closer than fifty (50) feet, of the vertical segment of the coalbed methane well, file up-to-date maps and plans required by this section, or file new maps and plans complete to date.

(8) The department may deny the issuance of a permit if it determines that the applicant has a documented pattern or practice of substantial violations of the provisions of this chapter and has failed to abate or seek review of the violations. If the department finds that a substantial violation has occurred with respect to existing operations and that the operator has failed to abate or seek review of the violation in the time prescribed, the department may suspend the permit. After a suspension, the operator shall forthwith cease all work being conducted under the permit until the department reinstates the permit. The department shall make a written finding of its determination and may enforce the determination in Circuit Court pursuant to KRS 349.145.

The procedures developed pursuant to this subsection shall provide that the hearings be held in the most expeditious manner possible within the time constraints established under this chapter. No person who presided at a prior hearing shall either preside at a subsequent hearing or participate in any further decision or subsequent administrative appeal in the same matter.

Section 13. KRS 68.178 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The fiscal court of any county may license off-site waste management facilities located within the county with the imposition of a license fee at a percentage rate not to exceed two percent (2%) per annum of the gross receipts of such a waste management facility owned or operated by self-employed individuals, partnerships, or corporations. The proceeds from the license fee shall be used to defray the general revenue requirements of the county where the facility is located. For purposes of assessing the licensing fee provided for in this section, off-site waste management shall consist of establishing and operating a facility whose principal purpose is treatment, storage, disposal, or a combination of these activities but shall not include those treatment, storage, or disposal activities which occur incidental to or which are not otherwise distinguishable from a broader manufacturing operation at the site of said operation.

(2) (a) The fiscal court of a county or the urban-county council of an urban-county government may license a solid waste landfill located within the county or urban-county area. The license fee may be set at not less than one cent ($0.01) but no more than fifty cents ($0.50) per ton of waste received by the landfill or set at up to five percent (5%) of gross receipts of the landfill.

(b) The license fee as set may be increased by an amount up to one-quarter (1/4) of the base fee per ton or on gross receipts of waste received at the landfill which originates from outside of the planning area. For purposes of this section, planning area shall mean those areas within Kentucky as indicated in solid waste management plans filed with the cabinet by a county, multicounty area, or waste management district. However, before a fee differential may be imposed the county or urban-county government shall demonstrate that the differential is reasonably related to additional government services which must be undertaken because of the landfilling of nonplanning area waste. This demonstration may be made by showing an unplanned for reduction in waste disposal capacity and a need to provide for future disposal capacity or impacts on roads, litter control or emergency services.

(c) The proceeds from the license fee shall be used to defray the government services provided to the landfill, necessary clean-up operations or emergency responses related to operation of the landfill or transporting waste to the landfill, necessary maintenance, improvement or construction of roads, and for the general revenue requirements of the county or urban-county government where the landfill is located.

(d) [~~Five percent (5%) of the license fee shall be remitted annually to the Natural Resources and Environmental Protection Cabinet until July 30, 1990. The cabinet shall use the amount received for state solid waste management activities.~~]Ten percent (10%) of the license fee shall be remitted annually in equal shares to all counties and urban-county governments in the planning area served by the landfill from where the fees originated which shall be used for local solid waste planning and plan implementation. Counties or urban-county governments desiring to impose the fee provided for herein are authorized to accept payments in lieu of the fee under duly-executed contracts between the county and the permitted site or facility. The fee provided for in this subsection shall be in lieu of the provisions of subsection (1). Special waste, as defined in KRS 224.50-760, except for waste from sanitary wastewater treatment facilities, shall be exempt from this subsection.

(3) In the case of hazardous waste facilities involving land disposal, including a regional integrated waste treatment and disposal demonstration facility as defined in KRS Chapter 224, the rate levied under this section shall be not more than five percent (5%) per annum of the gross receipts and shall be calculated so as to produce sufficient revenue to compensate the county for any additional costs incurred by it from having a hazardous waste facility located in its jurisdiction, including, but not limited to, the loss of ad valorem property tax revenues from the property on which the facility is located, the loss of ad valorem property tax revenues from abutting properties or other affected properties, the cost of providing any additional emergency services, the cost of monitoring air, surface water, ground water to the extent that other monitoring data is not available, and other costs established as being associated with the facility and for which the county is not otherwise compensated.

Section 14. KRS 131.190 is amended to read as follows:

This prohibition does not extend to information required in prosecutions for making false reports or returns of property for taxation, or any other infraction of the tax laws, nor does it extend to any matter properly entered upon any assessment record, or in any way made a matter of public record, nor does it preclude furnishing any taxpayer or his properly authorized agent with information respecting his own return. Further, this prohibition does not preclude the secretary or any employee of the Revenue Cabinet from testifying in any court, or from introducing as evidence returns or reports filed with the cabinet, in an action for violation of state or federal tax laws or in any action challenging state or federal tax laws. The secretary or the secretary's designee may provide an owner of unmined coal, oil or gas reserves, and other mineral or energy resources assessed under KRS 132.820(1), or owners of surface land under which the unmined minerals lie, factual information about the owner's property derived from third-party returns filed for that owner's property, under the provisions of KRS 132.820(2), that is used to determine the owner's assessment. This information shall be provided to the owner on a confidential basis, and the owner shall be subject to the penalties provided in KRS 131.990(2). The third-party filer shall be given prior notice of any disclosure of information to the owner that was provided by the third-party filer.

(2) The secretary shall make available any information for official use only and on a confidential basis to the proper officer, agency, board or commission of this state, any Kentucky county, any Kentucky city, any other state, or the federal government, under reciprocal agreements whereby the cabinet shall receive similar or useful information in return.

(3) Statistics of tax-paid gasoline gallonage reported monthly to the Revenue Cabinet under the gasoline excise tax law may be made public by the cabinet.

(4) Notwithstanding the provisions of this section to the contrary, information received from the Internal Revenue Service shall not be made available to any other agency of state government, or any county, city, or other state, and shall not be inspected intentionally and without authorization by any present secretary or employee of the Revenue Cabinet, or any other person.

(5) Statistics of crude oil as reported to the Revenue Cabinet under the crude oil excise tax requirements of KRS Chapter 137 and statistics of natural gas production as reported to the Revenue Cabinet under the natural resources severance tax requirements of KRS Chapter 143A may be made public by the cabinet by release to the Environmental and Public Protection Cabinet, Department for Natural Resources[~~of Mines and Minerals~~].

(6) Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, beginning with mine-map submissions for the 1989 tax year, the cabinet may make public or divulge only those portions of mine maps submitted by taxpayers to the cabinet pursuant to KRS Chapter 132 for ad valorem tax purposes that depict the boundaries of mined-out parcel areas. These electronic maps shall not be relied upon to determine actual boundaries of mined-out parcel areas. Property boundaries contained in mine maps required under KRS Chapters 350 and 352 shall not be construed to constitute land surveying or boundary surveys as defined by KRS 322.010 and any administrative regulations promulgated thereto.

Section 15. KRS 137.132 is amended to read as follows:

Section 26. KRS 224.60-130 is amended to read as follows:

(1)[~~ There is created within the Public Protection and Regulation Cabinet, Office of the Secretary, the Office of Petroleum Storage Tank Environmental Assurance Fund.~~

~~(2)~~] The Environmental and Public Protection Cabinet, Department for Environmental Protection, Division of Waste Management,[~~Office of Petroleum Storage Tank Environmental Assurance Fund~~] shall:

(a) Establish by administrative regulation the policy, guidelines, and procedures to administer the financial responsibility and petroleum storage tank accounts of the petroleum storage tank environmental assurance fund. In adopting administrative regulations to carry out this section, the division[~~office~~] may distinguish between types, classes, and ages of petroleum storage tanks. The division[~~office~~] may establish a range of amounts to be paid from the fund, or may base payments on methods such as pay for performance, task order, or firm fixed pricing, which are designed to provide incentives for contractors to more tightly control corrective action costs, and shall establish criteria to be met by persons who contract to perform corrective action to be eligible for reimbursement from the fund. The criteria may include the certification of individuals, partnerships, and companies. Criteria shall be established to certify laboratories that contract to perform analytical testing related to the underground storage tank program. Owners and operators shall have all required analytical testing performed by a certified laboratory to be eligible for fund participation. Persons who contract with petroleum storage tank owners or operators shall not be paid more than the amount authorized by the division[~~office~~] for reimbursement from the fund for the performance of corrective action. At a minimum, the division[~~office~~] shall promulgate administrative regulations that will insure an unobligated balance in the fund adequate to meet financial assurance requirements and corrective action requirements of KRS 224.60-135(2) and (4). If the unobligated balance in the fund is not adequate to meet the requirements of this paragraph, the division[~~office~~] shall obligate funds necessary to meet these requirements;

(b) Establish by administrative regulation the criteria to be met to be eligible to participate in the financial responsibility and petroleum storage tank accounts and to receive reimbursement from these accounts. The division[~~office~~] may establish eligibility criteria for the petroleum storage tank account based upon the financial ability of the petroleum storage tank owner or operator. Owners or operators seeking coverage under the petroleum storage tank account shall file for eligibility and for financial assistance with the division[~~office~~] on or before January 15, 2008. To insure cost effectiveness, the division[~~office~~] shall promulgate administrative regulations specifying the circumstances under which prior approval of corrective action costs shall be required for those costs to be eligible for reimbursement from the fund. In promulgating administrative regulations to carry out this section, the division[~~office~~] may distinguish between types, classes, and ages of petroleum storage tanks and the degree of compliance of the facility with any administrative regulations of the cabinet promulgated pursuant to KRS 224.60-105 or applicable federal regulations;

(c) Establish a financial responsibility account within the fund which may be used by petroleum storage tank owners and operators to demonstrate financial responsibility as required by administrative regulations of the cabinet or the federal regulations applicable to petroleum storage tanks, consistent with the intent of the General Assembly as set forth in KRS 224.60-120(5). The account shall receive four-tenths of one cent ($0.004) from the one and four-tenths cent ($0.014) paid on each gallon of gasoline and special fuels received in this state pursuant to KRS 224.60-145. To be eligible to use this account to demonstrate compliance with financial responsibility requirements of the cabinet or federal regulations, or to receive reimbursement from this account for taking corrective action and for compensating third parties for bodily injury and property damage, the petroleum storage tank owner or operator shall meet the eligibility requirements established by administrative regulation promulgated by the division[~~office~~];

(d) Establish a small operator assistance account within the fund which may be used by the division[~~office~~] to make or participate in the making of loans, to purchase or participate in the purchase of the loans, which purchase may be from eligible lenders, or to insure loans made by eligible lenders;

(e) Establish a petroleum storage tank account within the fund to be used to pay the costs of corrective action due to a release from a petroleum storage tank not eligible for reimbursement from the financial responsibility account. Reimbursements of corrective action projects performed under the petroleum storage tank account shall be carried out on or before July 15, 2013. Any corrective action costs incurred after this date shall not be eligible for reimbursement under the petroleum storage tank account. The account shall receive one cent ($0.01) from the one and four-tenths cent ($0.014) paid on each gallon of gasoline and special fuels received in this state pursuant to KRS 224.60-145. This account shall not be used to compensate third parties for bodily injury and property damage. Within three (3) months after July 15, 2004, the division[~~office~~] shall develop a plan to address the payment of claims and completion of corrective action at facilities eligible for reimbursement from this account. The division[~~office~~] shall establish a ranking system to be used for the distribution of amounts from this account for the purpose of corrective action. In promulgating administrative regulations to carry out this section, the division[~~office~~] shall consider the financial ability of the petroleum storage tank owner or operator to perform corrective action and the extent of damage caused by a release into the environment from a petroleum storage tank;

(f) Hear complaints brought before the division[~~office~~] regarding the payment of claims from the fund in accordance with KRS 224.10-410 to 224.10-470[~~Chapter 13B~~];

(g) Establish and maintain necessary offices within this state, appoint employees and agents as necessary, and prescribe their duties and compensation;

(h) Employ, in accordance with the procedures found in KRS 45A.690 to 45A.725 for awarding personal service contracts, a qualified actuary to perform actuarial studies, as directed by the division[~~office~~], for determining an appropriate reserve in the financial responsibility account and the petroleum storage tank account sufficient to satisfy the obligations in each account for all eligible facilities and to satisfy future liabilities and expenses necessary to operate each account. The division[~~office~~] shall, by administrative regulation, set the entry level for participation in the fund;

(i) Authorize expenditures from the fund to carry out the purpose of KRS 224.60-105 to 224.60-160, including reasonable costs of administering the fund, the procurement of legal services, and the procurement of analytical testing services when necessary to confirm the accuracy of analytical testing results obtained by a petroleum storage tank owner or operator. The expenditures shall be paid from the appropriate account;

(j) Establish a small operators' tank removal account within the fund to reimburse the reasonable cost of tank system removal for small owners and operators. The account shall not be used when an owner or operator is removing the tank with the intention of replacing or upgrading the tank. In promulgating administrative regulations to carry out this paragraph, the division[~~office~~] may distinguish among owners and operators based on income, number of tanks, number of facilities, and types and classes of tanks;

(k) Establish by administrative regulation the policy, guidelines, and procedures to perform financial audits of any petroleum storage tank owner or operator receiving reimbursement from the fund or any entity contracting or subcontracting to provide corrective action services for facilities eligible for fund reimbursement. Financial audits shall be limited to those files, records, computer records, receipts, and other documents related to corrective action performed at a facility where the costs of corrective action have been reimbursed by the fund. Files, records, computer records, receipts, and other documents related to corrective action reimbursed by the fund shall be subject to a financial audit for a period of three (3) years after the date of final reimbursement from the fund. Results of the audits shall be protected from disclosure as allowed by KRS 61.878(1)(c). Financial auditing services may be contracted for or personnel may be employed as needed to implement the requirements of this paragraph;

(l) Be authorized to enter and inspect any facility intending to seek reimbursement for the cost of corrective action to determine the reasonableness and necessity of the cost of corrective action. The division[~~office~~] may collect soil or water samples or require storage tank owners or operators to split samples with the division[~~office~~] for analytical testing. Refusal to allow entry and inspection of a facility or refusal to allow the division[~~office~~] to collect or split samples shall make the facility ineligible for fund participation;

(m) Have inspectors[~~assurance fund auditors~~] on site at all tank system removals. Failure to comply with this provision shall make the facility ineligible for fund participation. A petroleum storage tank owner or operator may request through certified mail that the division[~~office~~] schedule an inspector[~~assurance fund auditor~~] to be present at an upcoming tank removal. If the request is made at least two (2) weeks before the time for the removal and an inspector[~~auditor~~] fails to be present at the time scheduled, the tank removal may proceed without making the facility ineligible for fund participation unless the owner is notified by the division[~~assurance fund~~] no later than ten (10) days prior to the proposed date that an inspector[~~auditor~~] is not available on the proposed date, in which event a representative of the division[~~assurance fund~~] shall contact the operator and schedule a new date. If no inspector[~~auditor~~] is present at the rescheduled date, the removal may then proceed without penalty; and

(n) Establish that the deadline for submission of final reimbursement requests under the petroleum storage tank account is two (2) years after receipt of a no further action letter.

The funding and operations of the small operator assistance account and the small operator's tank removal account shall end on July 15, 2008.

(2)[~~(3)~~] The division[~~office~~] may advise the cabinet on the promulgation of administrative regulations concerning petroleum storage tanks.

(3)[~~(4)~~] The division[~~office~~] may sue and be sued in its own name.

(4)[~~(5)~~] The division[~~office~~] may transfer funds from the petroleum storage tank account to the small operator tank removal account as needed to satisfy the obligations, future liabilities, and expenses necessary to operate that account. The division[~~office~~] may transfer funds to the financial responsibility account as needed to maintain within that account sufficient funds to demonstrate financial responsibility and to ensure payment of claims as provided in subsection (1)~~(2)~~ of this section.

Section 27. KRS 224.60-140 is amended to read as follows:

(1) There is hereby created the petroleum storage tank environmental assurance fund. The fund shall consist of a financial responsibility account and a petroleum storage tank account. (5) The fund shall be used to guarantee payment of reasonable costs and expenses to a contractor performing corrective action under contract with a petroleum storage tank owner or operator subject to entry level amounts payable by the petroleum storage tank owner or operator. Money in the fund shall be obligated to secure the guarantee.

(6) A petroleum storage tank owner or operator may apply to the division[~~office~~] for reimbursement from the fund of costs to perform corrective action, except that the petroleum storage tank owner or operator shall be responsible for and shall not be reimbursed for an amount equal to the entry level into the fund as set pursuant to administrative regulation of the division[~~office~~].

The notification shall provide sufficient information to allow the applicant and its consultant, if applicable, to begin to correct the deficiency. The division[~~office~~] shall then notify the applicant and its consultant, if applicable, by certified mail of the deficiency. The notice shall indicate how many days remain in the ninety (90) day review period from the time of mailing. The review period shall be tolled pending submittal of information responding to the deficiency, but not to exceed thirty (30) days. When the division[~~office~~] receives information that corrects the deficiency, or at the end of the thirty (30) day period, the division[~~office~~] shall complete the review of the claim within the time remaining in the ninety (90) day review period. Nothing in this section shall be construed as preventing the fund from making partial reimbursement as appropriate.

(8) Except as provided in subsection (9), any costs incurred and payable from the fund for corrective action taken pursuant to KRS 224.60-135(2) shall be recovered by the division[~~office~~] from the petroleum storage tank owner or operator which released the petroleum or petroleum products into the environment.

(9) The liability of a petroleum storage tank owner or operator subject to a cost recovery under this section shall not exceed an amount equal to the entry level into the fund, the division's[~~office's~~] cost incurred in the cost recovery, and any penalties applied in accordance with KRS 224.60-155. This amount shall include any expenditures made by the petroleum storage tank owner or operator for the release into the environment from the petroleum storage tank that is the subject of the cost of recovery.

(c) The appropriate account shall pay any portion of the judgment in excess of the aggregate amount of costs or expenditures apportioned under paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subsection.

(14) (a) No indemnification, hold harmless, conveyance, or similar agreement shall be effective to transfer any liability for costs recoverable under this section. This subsection shall not bar any agreement to insure, hold harmless, or indemnify a party to the agreement for any costs under KRS 224.60-105 to 224.60-160.

(b) The entry of judgment against any party to the action shall not bar any future action by the fund against any other person who is later discovered to be potentially liable for costs paid from the fund.

(c) Payment of any claim by the fund pursuant to KRS 224.60-105 to 224.60-160 shall be subject to the state acquiring by subrogation the rights of the claimant to recover those costs of corrective action for which it has compensated the claimant from the person responsible or liable for the release.

(15) This section shall not be construed as authorizing recovery for costs of corrective action resulting from any release authorized or permitted pursuant to state or federal law.

(16) The cabinet shall attempt, to the maximum extent practicable, to secure or obtain funds that may be available for corrective actions under federal laws. However, nothing in this subsection shall prevent the cabinet from expending any funds available under KRS 224.60-105 to 224.60-160 if such federal funds are determined to be unavailable.

(17) The fund shall not be used for corrective action, reimbursement, or third-party liability resulting from releases from petroleum storage tanks used exclusively for storage of fuel used in the operation of a commercial ship or vessel oil tanks used exclusively for storage of fuel used for the purposes of powering locomotives.

(b) A vendor or subcontractor may waive, in writing, his right to receive full payment before the person files the claim for reimbursement. Any vendor or subcontractor who waives, in writing, his right to full payment shall also waive, in writing, his right to take legal recourse against the division[~~office~~] and the underground storage tank facility owner or operator for nonpayment from a prime contractor for work performed or materials supplied to the prime contractor during corrective action at an underground storage tank facility. Any vendor or subcontractor who waives, in writing, his right to full payment prior to the filing of the claim for reimbursement shall acknowledge in the written waiver that his, his heirs', successors', and assigns' sole recourse for the nonpayment of work performed or materials supplied to a prime contractor during corrective action at an underground storage tank facility is to proceed against the prime contractor for whom he performed the work or supplied materials. Any vendor or subcontractor who waives, in writing, his right to full payment prior to the filing of the claim for reimbursement shall release and discharge any liens filed as a result of work performed or materials provided at the underground storage tank facility. Subcontractor and vendor waivers must be made on standard forms furnished by the division[~~office~~]. Their signatures must be notarized.

A single affidavit may be made for each claim for reimbursement, provided, however, that the representations made in the affidavit shall be applied to each vendor or subcontractor individually, and, where false, shall be treated, as to each vendor or subcontractor, as a separate violation for the purpose of applying any criminal statute.

(d) Any person with responsibility for administering the division[~~office~~] who believes, or has information, that an affidavit submitted pursuant to this subsection contains false or misleading information, or any person with responsibility for administering the division[~~office~~] who believes or has information that an application for financial assistance or a claim for reimbursement contains false or misleading information, shall provide that information to the Commonwealth's attorney whose jurisdiction includes the county where the majority of the subject underground storage tank facility is located. That person may additionally provide the information to any other interested prosecutor with jurisdiction to prosecute crimes pertaining to an application for financial assistance or the claim for reimbursement.

Any costs incurred and paid from the fund which are based on a false statement, representation, or certification in an application for reimbursement from the fund, or in any supporting documentation attached thereto, shall be recovered by the fund administrators from the person who asserted the false statement, representation, or certification.

However, a business entity which is engaged in a separate business activity not related to coal, for which a separate premium charge is not made, shall be deemed to be engaged in the severance or processing of coal only to the extent that the number of employees engaged in the severance or processing of coal bears to the total number of employees. Any employee who is involved in the business of severing or processing of coal and business activities not related to coal shall be prorated based on the time involved in severance or processing of coal bears to his total time.

(24) "Premium" for every group of self-insurers means any and all assessments levied on its members by such group or contributed to it by the members thereof. For special fund assessment purposes, "premium" also includes any and all membership dues, fees, or other payments by members of the group to associations or other entities used for underwriting, claims handling, loss control, premium audit, actuarial, or other services associated with the maintenance or operation of the self-insurance group.

(25) (a) "Premiums received" for policies effective on or after January 1, 1994, for insurance companies means direct written premiums as reported in the annual statement to the Office[~~Kentucky Department~~] of Insurance by insurance companies, except that "premiums received" includes premiums charged off or deferred, and, on insurance policies or other evidence of coverage with provisions for deductibles, the calculated cost for coverage, including experience modification and premium surcharge or discount, prior to any reduction for deductibles. The rates, factors, and methods used to calculate the cost for coverage under this paragraph for insurance policies or other evidence of coverage with provisions for deductibles shall be the same rates, factors, and methods normally used by the insurance company in Kentucky to calculate the cost for coverage for insurance policies or other evidence of coverage without provisions for deductibles, except that, for insurance policies or other evidence of coverage with provisions for deductibles effective on or after January 1, 1995, the calculated cost for coverage shall not include any schedule rating modification, debits, or credits. The cost for coverage calculated under this paragraph by insurance companies that issue only deductible insurance policies in Kentucky shall be actuarially adequate to cover the entire liability of the employer for compensation under this chapter, including all expenses and allowances normally used to calculate the cost for coverage. For policies with provisions for deductibles with effective dates of May 6, 1993, through December 31, 1993, for which the insurance company did not report premiums and remit special fund assessments based on the calculated cost for coverage prior to the reduction for deductibles, "premiums received" includes the initial premium plus any reimbursements invoiced for losses, expenses, and fees charged under the deductibles. The special fund assessment rates in effect for reimbursements invoiced for losses, expenses, or fees charged under the deductibles shall be those percentages in effect on the effective date of the insurance policy. For policies covering leased employees as defined in KRS 342.615, "premiums received" means premiums calculated using the experience modification factor of each lessee as defined in KRS 342.615 for each leased employee for that portion of the payroll pertaining to the leased employee.

(b) "Direct written premium" for insurance companies means the gross premium written less return premiums and premiums on policies not taken but including policy and membership fees.

(c) "Premium," for policies effective on or after January 1, 1994, for insurance companies means all consideration, whether designated as premium or otherwise, for workers' compensation insurance paid to an insurance company or its representative, including, on insurance policies with provisions for deductibles, the calculated cost for coverage, including experience modification and premium surcharge or discount, prior to any reduction for deductibles. The rates, factors, and methods used to calculate the cost for coverage under this paragraph for insurance policies or other evidence of coverage with provisions for deductibles shall be the same rates, factors, and methods normally used by the insurance company in Kentucky to calculate the cost for coverage for insurance policies or other evidence of coverage without provisions for deductibles, except that, for insurance policies or other evidence of coverage with provisions for deductibles effective on or after January 1, 1995, the calculated cost for coverage shall not include any schedule rating modifications, debits, or credits. The cost for coverage calculated under this paragraph by insurance companies that issue only deductible insurance policies in Kentucky shall be actuarially adequate to cover the entire liability of the employer for compensation under this chapter, including all expenses and allowances normally used to calculate the cost for coverage. For policies with provisions for deductibles with effective dates of May 6, 1993, through December 31, 1993, for which the insurance company did not report premiums and remit special fund assessments based on the calculated cost for coverage prior to the reduction for deductibles, "premium" includes the initial consideration plus any reimbursements invoiced for losses, expenses, or fees charged under the deductibles.

(d) "Return premiums" for insurance companies means amounts returned to insureds due to endorsements, retrospective adjustments, cancellations, dividends, or errors.

(26) "Insurance policy" for an insurance company or group self-insurer means the term of insurance coverage commencing from the date coverage is extended, whether a new policy or a renewal, through its expiration, not to exceed the anniversary date of the renewal for the following year.

(27) "Self-insurance year" for a group self-insurer means the annual period of certification of the group created pursuant to KRS 342.350(4).

(28) "Premium" for each employer carrying his own risk pursuant to KRS 342.340(1) shall be the projected value of the employer's workers' compensation claims for the next calendar year as calculated by the executive director[~~commissioner~~] using generally-accepted actuarial methods as follows:

(a) The base period shall be the earliest three (3) calendar years of the five (5) calendar years immediately preceding the calendar year for which the calculation is made. The executive director[~~commissioner~~] shall identify each claim of the employer which has an injury date or date of last injurious exposure to the cause of an occupational disease during each one (1) of the three (3) calendar years to be used as the base, and shall assign a value to each claim. The value shall be the total of the indemnity benefits paid to date and projected to be paid, adjusted to current benefit levels, plus the medical benefits paid to date and projected to be paid for the life of the claim, plus the cost of medical and vocational rehabilitation paid to date and projected to be paid. Adjustment to current benefit levels shall be done by multiplying the weekly indemnity benefit for each claim by the number obtained by dividing the statewide average weekly wage which will be in effect for the year for which the premium is being calculated by the statewide average weekly wage in effect during the year in which the injury or date of the last exposure occurred. The total value of the claims using the adjusted weekly benefit shall then be calculated by the executive director[~~commissioner~~]. Values for claims in which awards have been made or settlements reached because of findings of permanent partial or permanent total disability shall be calculated using the mortality and interest discount assumptions used in the latest available statistical plan of the advisory rating organization defined in Subtitle 13 of KRS Chapter 304. The sum of all calculated values shall be computed for all claims in the base period.

(b) The executive director[~~commissioner~~] shall obtain the annual payroll for each of the three (3) years in the base period for each employer carrying his own risk from records of the office[~~department~~] and from the records of the Department for Employment Services, Cabinet for Workforce Development. The executive director[~~commissioner~~] shall multiply each of the three (3) years of payroll by the number obtained by dividing the statewide average weekly wage which will be in effect for the year in which the premium is being calculated by the statewide average weekly wage in effect in each of the years of the base period.

(c) The executive director[~~commissioner~~] shall divide the total of the adjusted claim values for the three (3) year base period by the total adjusted payroll for the same three (3) year period. The value so calculated shall be multiplied by 1.25 and shall then be multiplied by the employer's most recent annualized payroll, calculated using records of the office[~~department~~] and the Department for Employment Services data which shall be made available for this purpose on a quarterly basis as reported, to obtain the premium for the next calendar year for assessment purposes under KRS 342.122.

(d) For November 1, 1987, through December 31, 1988, premium for each employer carrying his own risk shall be an amount calculated by the board pursuant to the provisions contained in this subsection and such premium shall be provided to each employer carrying his own risk and to the funding commission on or before January 1, 1988. Thereafter, the calculations set forth in this subsection shall be performed annually, at the time each employer applies or renews his application for certification to carry his own risk for the next twelve (12) month period and submits payroll and other data in support of the application. The employer and the funding commission shall be notified at the time of the certification or recertification of the premium calculated by the executive director[~~commissioner~~], which shall form the employer's basis for assessments pursuant to KRS 342.122 for the calendar year beginning on January 1 following the date of certification or recertification.

(e) If an employer having fewer than five (5) years of doing business in this state applies to carry his own risk and is so certified, his premium for the purposes of KRS 342.122 shall be based on the lesser number of years of experience as may be available including the two (2) most recent years if necessary to create a three (3) year base period. If the employer has less than two (2) years of operation in this state available for the premium calculation, then his premium shall be the greater of the value obtained by the calculation called for in this subsection or the amount of security required by the executive director[~~commissioner~~] pursuant to KRS 342.340(1).

(f) If an employer is certified to carry his own risk after having previously insured the risk, his premium shall be calculated using values obtained from claims incurred while insured for as many of the years of the base period as may be necessary to create a full three (3) year base. After the employer is certified to carry his own risk and has paid all amounts due for assessments upon premiums paid while insured, he shall be assessed only upon the premium calculated under this subsection.

(g) "Premium" for each employer defined in KRS 342.630(2) shall be calculated as set forth in this subsection.

(h) Notwithstanding any other provision of this subsection, the premium of any employer authorized to carry its own risk for purposes of assessments due under this chapter shall be no less than thirty cents ($0.30) per one hundred dollars ($100) of the employer's most recent annualized payroll for employees covered by this chapter.

(29) "SIC code" as used in this chapter means the Standard Industrial Classification Code contained in the latest edition of the Standard Industrial Classification Manual published by the Federal Office of Management and Budget.

(30) "Investment interest" means any pecuniary or beneficial interest in a provider of medical services or treatment under this chapter, other than a provider in which that pecuniary or investment interest is obtained on terms equally available to the public through trading on a registered national securities exchange, such as the New York Stock Exchange or the American Stock Exchange, or on the National Association of Securities Dealers Automated Quotation System.

Any coal interest holder, within twenty (20) days of receipt of the plat by him or her and by the department, may file specific objections in writing with the department. The filed objections shall provide sufficient detail for the applicant to identify the nature and substance of the objection. The department shall notify the applicant of the objections and fix a time and place for a hearing before the review board to be conducted in accordance with KRS Chapter 13B and this chapter.

(2) If any coal interest holder, notified pursuant to KRS 349.015, or any other person, claims to have a valid real property interest in, or the current legal right to produce, coalbed methane, the person claiming the real property interest or right shall notify the applicant and the department, in writing, within twenty (20) days from the receipt of the plat by him or her and by the department. (3) If the record oil and gas lessor, lessee, or well operator notified pursuant to KRS 349.015, or any other person, claims to have a valid real property interest in, or the current legal right to produce, coalbed methane, the person claiming the real property interest or right shall notify the applicant and the department, in writing, within twenty (20) days from the receipt of the plat by him. The person shall request that a pooling order be entered pursuant to KRS 349.080(1).

(4) If no objections are filed within the twenty (20) day period, the department shall immediately issue a drilling permit to the well operator approving the location of the well and authorizing the well operator to proceed to drill at that location, provided all other preconditions to issuance of a permit, as contained in this chapter, have been met.

(5) Upon receipt of an application to drill a coalbed methane well, the department shall provide a copy of the required plat and permit application to the division[~~DSMRE~~]. Within fifteen (15) days of receipt by the division,[~~DSMRE~~] notification shall be sent to the department by the division[~~DSMRE~~] as to whether the proposed coalbed methane well will be located within the boundaries of any coal mine for which a permit has been issued or has been applied for pursuant to KRS Chapter 350. If the proposed coalbed methane well is to penetrate a workable coalbed that is within the area of an existing permit for an underground mine issued by the division[~~DSMRE~~], or the proposed permitted area of a pending application or permit modification for an underground mine before the division[~~DSMRE~~], the written authorization of the mine permittee shall be required prior to issuance by the department of a permit to stimulate, complete, or horizontally drill the coalbed methane well in the workable coalbed that is within the area of an existing permit for an underground mine issued by the division[~~DSMRE~~] or within the proposed permitted area of a pending application or permit modification for an underground mine before the division[~~DSMRE~~]. If the proposed coalbed methane well is to be located within a surface area permitted, or proposed in a pending application or permit modification to be issued by the division[~~DSMRE~~], the written authorization of the mine permittee shall be required prior to issuance by the department of a permit to drill the coalbed methane well. In the absence of the written authorization of the mine permittee, the applicant may file an appeal with the review board requesting approval to drill the proposed coalbed methane well if:

(a) Authorization has been denied by the mine permittee; and

(b) The proposed location and area to be disturbed by the proposed coalbed methane well has achieved either a partial bond release status or the bond for the area has been forfeited.

Section 47. KRS 349.040 is amended to read as follows:

(1) It is unlawful for any person to drill, commence, operate, deepen, convert, or stimulate any coalbed methane well, to conduct any horizontal drilling of a coalbed methane well or to convert any existing oil or natural gas well to a coalbed methane well, without first securing from the department a permit pursuant to this chapter. Before any well, borehole, or facility initially used for a coal mining related purpose, such as a vent hole, is converted for the purpose of recovering coalbed methane for sale or use, the operator shall obtain a permit and comply with the provisions of this chapter prior to the time that the well, borehole, or facility is converted or used for the purpose of recovering coalbed methane for sale or use. It is unlawful for any person to drill, deepen, convert, or reopen a coalbed methane well for the production of oil or natural gas or for the injection of water, gas, or other fluids into any oil or natural gas producing formation until the person has obtained a permit from the department for a petroleum or natural gas well pursuant to KRS 353.570. However, no additional permit fee shall be required if the original permit for the coalbed methane well has not expired.

(2) Every permit application filed under this section shall be verified and shall contain the following:

(a) A statement that the applicant claims to have a valid real property interest in, or the current legal right to produce coalbed methane from a person claiming a valid real property interest in, the coalbed methane. The statement shall identify with specificity the nature of the real property interest and the document or instrument evidencing that interest or right, including recording information of any recorded document or instrument;

(b) The names and addresses of the coalbed methane well operator and every person or entity whom the applicant must notify under any section of this chapter;

(c) The name and address of each coal interest holder of any workable coalbed which is to be penetrated by a proposed coalbed methane well or within seven hundred fifty (750) horizontal feet or fifty (50) vertical feet of any portion of the proposed coalbed methane well;

(d) The name and addresses of each record oil and gas lessee of, the record oil and gas lessor of, and the operator of all oil and gas formations from the surface to one hundred (100) feet below the deepest penetration of the coalbed methane well on the tract upon which the coalbed methane well is proposed to be located;

(g) A description of any means to be used to stimulate any of the workable coalbeds penetrated by the coalbed methane well;

(h) If the proposed coalbed methane well will require casing or tubing, the entire casing program for the coalbed methane well, including the size of each string of pipe, the starting point and depth to which each string is to be set, and the extent to which each string is to be cemented;

(i) If the proposed operation is to convert an existing petroleum or natural gas well, as defined in KRS 353.010(13), or to convert a vertical borehole or facility initially used for a coal mining related purpose, such as a vent hole, to a coalbed methane well, all information required by this section, all formations from which production is anticipated, and any plans to plug any portion of the well;

(j) Except for a vent hole proposed to be converted to a coalbed methane well, if the proposed coalbed methane well will be completed in some but not all coal seams for production, a plan and design for the coalbed methane well which will protect all workable coalbeds which will be penetrated by the coalbed methane well;

(k) If the proposed operations will include horizontal drilling of a coalbed methane well, a description of the operations, including both the vertical and horizontal alignment and extent of the coalbed methane well from the surface to total depth; and

(a) A permit application fee of three hundred dollars ($300);

(b) A bond in an amount prescribed in KRS 349.120;

(c) A certificate that the applicant's notice requirements of KRS 349.015 have been satisfied. Certification may be by affidavit of personal service, or the return receipt card, or other postal receipt, for certified mailing;

(d) If the proposed coalbed methane well will be located within one-half (1/2) of a mile, measuring horizontally, of a water supply well being used for residential or domestic purposes, the applicant will submit the groundwater protection plan required under KRS 224.70-110 and applicable administrative regulations promulgated pursuant thereto for review by the department, or demonstrate to the department that a plan is not required; and

(e) Proof that the applicant has public liability insurance coverage in an amount not less than five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000) in aggregate and three hundred thousand dollars ($300,000) per occurrence for damages to persons and property caused by the applicant's operations or proof that the applicant has satisfied self-insurance requirements as provided by administrative regulations which shall be promulgated by the department.

(4) Prior to the department's issuance of a permit to drill a coalbed methane well, a copy of the written authorization from the mine licensee shall be filed with the application under the following circumstances:

(a) If the proposed coalbed methane well is to penetrate a workable coalbed that is within the permitted area of an existing permit or the proposed permitted area of a permit pending before the division~~[DSMRE]~~ and if the applicant plans to stimulate, complete, or horizontally drill the coalbed methane well in a workable coalbed that is within the permitted area of an existing permit or the proposed permitted area of a permit pending before the division~~[DSMRE]~~;

(b) If the proposed coalbed methane well is to be located within a surface area permitted under an existing permit, or the proposed permitted area of a permit pending before the division~~[DSMRE]~~ for which no bond release has been obtained; or

(c) If the proposed coalbed methane well is to be located within a surface area permitted under an existing permit by the division~~[DSMRE]~~ for which a partial bond release has been obtained.

If a coalbed methane well permit is issued for a well site located within the boundaries of any coal mine for which a permit has been issued or is pending pursuant to KRS Chapter 350, the permit shall include a provision specifically stating that the permitted coalbed methane well location is in an area for which a coal mine permit has been issued or is pending pursuant to KRS Chapter 350 and is subject to the mine-through rights set forth in KRS 349.030(1).

(5) If a partial bond release for the surface area on which the proposed coalbed methane well is located has been obtained from the division[~~DSMRE~~] and the applicant is denied written authorization from the mine licensee, the applicant may file an appeal with the review board requesting approval to drill the proposed coalbed methane well. When requesting an appeal, the applicant shall submit a verified statement including the following:

(a) The applicant has met and conferred with or offered to meet and confer with the mine licensee concerning the authorization;

(b) The mine licensee has refused to provide written authorization to disturb the permitted area;

(c) The physical area to be disturbed by the proposed well location and the use of area, including ingress and egress thereto, qualifies as a commercial or industrial postmining land use entitling the mine licensee to a complete bond release for the area to be disturbed by the coalbed methane well operator in accordance with KRS Chapter 350; and

(d) The applicant has agreed to pay the reasonable and actual costs of the permit revision required by the division[~~DSMRE~~] to affect the incremental bond release for the proposed area to be disturbed by the coalbed methane well operator, not to exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000).

(6) Prior to the issuance of a permit to drill a coalbed methane well, the applicant shall grant assignable subsidence waivers to any mine licensee if requested in an objection filed pursuant to KRS 349.060 and, if required, to allow present or future mining with planned subsidence under KRS Chapter 350. However, this subsection and any subsidence waivers shall in no way waive, affect, or impair the ability of the applicant or the applicant's successors or assigns to pursue any remedies for damages to persons, or to improved or tangible property, suffered or incurred as a result of any subsidence caused by the mine licensee or the mine licensee's successors or assigns. The mine licensee, its successors or assigns, shall be liable for any and all damages to persons or to improved or tangible property proximately caused by the mine licensee.

(7) If the mine licensee is mining in a coal seam that is not being produced by the coalbed methane well operator and has not exercised his or her mine-through rights, as set forth in KRS 349.030(1) or (2), in any coal mine before removing any coal or other material or driving any entry or passageway within five hundred (500) horizontal feet of the vertical segment of a coalbed methane well or within fifty (50) vertical feet of the horizontal segment of a coalbed methane well, the mine licensee shall forward simultaneously to the well operator and to the department, by certified mail, return receipt requested, or by registered mail, a copy of the maps and plans required by law to be filed and kept up to date. Maps or plans shall show the mine workings and projected mine workings within five hundred (500) horizontal feet of the coalbed methane well. However, the issuance of any coalbed methane well permit shall not preclude or prevent coal mining outside two hundred (200) feet, but not closer than fifty (50) feet, of the vertical segment of a coalbed methane well or outside of the workable coalbed in which the horizontal segment of a coalbed methane well is located, unless specified by the department for reasons of mine or well safety. The mine licensee shall not mine within fifty (50) feet of the vertical segment of a coalbed methane well without the written authorization of the coalbed methane well operator. A mine licensee may file a request with the department to mine closer than two hundred (200) feet of the vertical segment of the coalbed methane well. The mine licensee shall forward simultaneously to the well operator and the department, by certified mail, return receipt requested, or by registered mail, a request to mine closer than two hundred (200) feet, but not closer than fifty (50) feet, of the vertical segment of the coalbed methane well, which shall be accompanied by the following:

(a) A copy of the maps and plans required by law to be filed and kept up to date, showing on the copy of the map or plan its mine plan workings and projected mine workings beneath the tract of land and within two hundred (200) feet, but not closer than fifty (50) feet, of the vertical segment of the coalbed methane well; and

(b) A statement that the applicant has met and conferred with, or offered to meet and confer with, the well operator concerning the mine licensee's plan to mine closer than two hundred (200) feet, but not closer than fifty (50) feet, of the vertical segment of the coalbed methane well.

The well operator may, within twenty (20) days of receipt of the documents listed in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subsection, file specific objections in writing with the department. When objections are filed, the department shall provide a copy of the objections to the mine licensee and fix a time and place for an informal hearing. The hearing shall be held not more than ten (10) days from the end of the twenty (20) day period. At the hearing, the mine licensee and the well operator, in person or by representative, shall consider the objections and seek agreement on the character and the extent of operations to be conducted within less than two hundred (200) feet, but not closer than fifty (50) feet, of the vertical segment of the coalbed methane well. If no agreement can be reached, the department, after administrative hearing conducted in accordance with KRS Chapter 13B, shall make a decision defining what coal, if any, is necessary to be left for the safe protection, use, and operation of the well. The department's decision shall be subject to appeal by either party as provided in this chapter. The department shall keep a complete record of all hearings. The mine licensee shall, every six (6) months, while mining within two hundred (200) feet, but not closer than fifty (50) feet, of the vertical segment of the coalbed methane well, file up-to-date maps and plans required by this section, or file new maps and plans complete to date.

of substantial violations of the provisions of this chapter and has failed to abate or seek review of the violations. If the department finds that a substantial violation has occurred with respect to existing operations and that the operator has failed to abate or seek review of the violation in the time prescribed, the department may suspend the permit. After a suspension, the operator shall forthwith cease all work being conducted under the permit until the department reinstates the permit. The department shall make a written finding of its determination and may enforce the determination in Circuit Court pursuant to KRS 349.145.

Section 48. KRS 349.055 is amended to read as follows:

The Environmental and Public~~[Natural Resources and Environmental]~~ Protection Cabinet shall have and exercise the following authority and powers:

(1) To adopt administrative regulations after a hearing pertaining to surface coal mining operations including strip mining and the surface effects of underground mining to accomplish the purposes of this chapter;

(2) To conduct investigations and hearings under provisions of this chapter or regulations adopted pursuant thereto;

(3) To issue, after an opportunity for a hearing, suspension orders or show cause orders requiring an operator, permittee, or person to adopt remedial measures that are necessary to comply with this chapter and administrative regulations adopted pursuant thereto. Failure to attend a hearing shall be excused for good cause shown;

(4) To issue, after an opportunity for a hearing, a final order imposing civil penalties for violations of this chapter or directing the Department for Natural Resources[~~Kentucky Bureau of Surface Mining Reclamation and Enforcement~~] to revoke a permit, when the requirements set forth by the notice of noncompliance, order of cessation, or an order of the cabinet requiring remedial measures have not been complied with according to the terms therein. When the secretary or his authorized representatives determines that a pattern of violations of any requirements of this chapter or any permit conditions required by this chapter exists or has existed, and if the secretary or his authorized representatives also find that the violations are caused by the unwarranted failure of the permittee to comply with any requirements of this chapter or any permit conditions or that the violations are willfully caused by the permittee, the secretary or his authorized representative shall forthwith issue an order to the permittee to show cause as to why the permit should not be suspended or revoked and shall provide an opportunity for a hearing. Failure to attend a hearing shall be excused for good cause shown; and

(5) To adopt administrative regulations to allow the state to administer and enforce the initial and permanent regulatory programs of Public Law 95-87, "Surface Mining Control and Reclamation Act of 1977." Section 51. KRS 350.0301 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Any person who considers himself aggrieved by any determination made by the cabinet under this chapter may file, in accordance with administrative regulations promulgated by the cabinet under the provisions of this chapter, a petition alleging that the determination is contrary to law or fact and is injurious to him, the grounds and reasons therefor, and demand a hearing. Unless the cabinet considers that the petition is frivolous, it shall serve written notice of the petition on each person named therein and shall schedule a hearing before the cabinet not less than twenty-one (21) days after the date of the notice unless the person complained against waives in writing the twenty-one (21) day period. The right to demand a hearing pursuant to this section shall be limited to a period of thirty (30) days after the petitioner has had actual notice of the determination complained of, or could reasonably have had notice. However, the petitioner shall have the opportunity to contest the validity of an underlying notice of noncompliance in a timely-filed demand for hearing to contest the validity of a cessation order issued for a failure to abate the violation contained in the notice of noncompliance.

(2) All hearings, other than conferences, under this chapter shall be held before a hearing officer, duly qualified to practice law in the Commonwealth of Kentucky, who may be a full-time employee of the cabinet, serve by contract, or be paid on a per diem basis in the discretion of the cabinet. After the conclusion of the hearing, the hearing officer shall within thirty (30) days make to the secretary a report and recommended order which shall contain a finding of fact and a conclusion of law. If the secretary finds upon written request of the hearing officer that additional time is needed, the secretary may grant an extension. The hearing officer shall serve a copy of his report and recommended order upon all parties of record and their attorney of record to the proceeding, and they shall be granted the right to file exceptions thereto within fourteen (14) days of service. Any party may submit a written response to exceptions within twenty-one (21) days of service of the report and recommended order. Exceptions and responses not timely filed shall be noted and made a part of the record but shall not be considered by the secretary in making a final order. The secretary shall consider the report, exceptions, and recommended order and decide the case. The decision shall be served by mail upon all parties and their attorney of record and shall be a final order of the cabinet.

(3) Any party to a hearing under this subsection may be represented by counsel, may make oral or written argument, offer testimony, cross-examine witnesses, or take any combination of these actions. The record of the hearing shall be open to public inspection, and copies thereof shall be made available to any person upon payment of the actual cost of reproducing the original.

(4) All hearings conducted pursuant to this chapter shall be open to the public.

(5) The cabinet shall promulgate administrative regulations, pursuant to the provisions set forth in this chapter, establishing formal and informal hearing procedures by which any hearing shall, upon the written request of the operator, permittee, or person, be held in the county or regional office where the surface coal mining operation is located, before an impartial hearing officer who is independent of any prosecutorial functions of the cabinet. The administrative regulations shall provide for the conduct of hearings and investigation of any matter relating to the regulation of surface coal mining and reclamation operations; provide for the assessment and payment of civil penalties, including the placement of proposed civil penalty assessments into an escrow account prior to a formal hearing on the amount of the assessment; and provide for a waiver of the placement of the proposed civil penalties into escrow for those individuals who demonstrate with substantial evidence an inability to pay the proposed civil penalties into escrow. The procedures developed pursuant to this subsection shall provide that the hearings be held in the most expeditious manner possible within the time constraints established under this chapter. No person who presided at a prior hearing shall either preside at a subsequent hearing or participate in any further decision or subsequent administrative appeal in the same matter.

(6) The cabinet may promulgate administrative regulations pursuant to the provisions set forth in this chapter establishing procedures for the holding of administrative conferences needed to implement the provisions of this chapter.

(7) The secretary may designate a deputy to sign any or all final orders of the cabinet, whether the orders are the result of hearing or agreement.

(2) The secretary shall have the power to appoint not more than fifteen (15) special investigations officers who shall be peace officers except for purposes of KRS 527.020. Such peace officers shall be responsible for enforcement of the provisions of this chapter relating to criminal offenses.

Section 53. KRS 350.260 is amended to read as follows:

There is hereby created a Small Coal Operators Advisory Council which shall report directly to the secretary of the Governor's Executive Cabinet. The council shall advise on matters affecting coal production and utilization including coal market development, transportation, and storage problems. The council shall have the function of coordinating and improving the working relationships between those state agencies administering programs which regulate, serve, or aid small coal mine operators. The council shall consist of fifteen (15) members. Ten (10) of those members shall be appointed by the Governor. Seven (7) of the ten (10) members shall be full-time operators producing three hundred thousand (300,000) or fewer tons of coal per year. Three (3) of the ten (10) appointees shall be with backgrounds in one (1) or more of the following areas: transportation, marketing, mining education, and mining engineering. The secretary of the Environmental and Public[~~Natural Resources and Environmental~~] Protection Cabinet, the commissioners of the Department of Agriculture and the Department for Natural Resources[~~Mines and Minerals Departments~~], and the special assistant to the Governor for coal and energy policy shall be ex officio members. Vacancies shall be filled in a manner consistent with the provisions for initial appointments. At the first meeting held on or after July 1 of each year, a chairman shall be elected by and from the membership. The council shall meet at least quarterly during each year and may meet more often at the call of the chairman. The council shall be attached to the Environmental and Public[~~Natural Resources and Environmental~~] Protection Cabinet for administrative purposes. Council members shall be eligible for reimbursement by the cabinet for actual expenses directly related to serving on the council.

Section 54. KRS 350.425 is amended to read as follows:

The permittee, operator, or other person shall design, locate, construct, operate, maintain, enlarge, modify, and remove or abandon, in accordance with the standards and criteria developed pursuant to subsection (f) of Section 515 of Public Law 95-87, "Surface Mining Control and Reclamation Act of 1977," all existing and new coal mine waste piles consisting of mine wastes, tailings, coal processing wastes, or other liquid and solid wastes, and used either temporarily or permanently as dams or embankments. The Environmental and Public Protection Cabinet[~~Kentucky Department of Surface Mining~~] through this chapter shall have exclusive jurisdiction over KRS Chapter 151 concerning the regulation of dams, levees, embankments, dikes, bridges, fills, or other obstructions across or along any stream or in the floodway of any stream, which structures or obstructions are permitted under this chapter.

The permittee or operator shall:

(1) Provide adequate advance written notice to local governments and residents who might be affected by the use of such explosives by publication of the planned blasting schedule in a newspaper of general circulation in the locality and by mailing a copy of the proposed blasting schedule to every resident living within one-half (1/2) mile of the proposed blasting site and by providing daily notice to resident/occupiers in the areas prior to any blasting;

(2) Maintain for a period of at least three (3) years and make available for public inspection upon request a log detailing the location of the blasts, the pattern and depth of the drill holes, the amount of explosives used per hole, and the order and length of delay in the blasts;

(3) Limit the type of explosives and detonating equipment, the size, the timing and frequency of blasts based upon the physical conditions of the site so as to prevent injury to persons, damage to public and private property outside the permit area, adverse impacts on any underground mine, and change in the course, channel, or availability of ground or surface water outside the permit area;

(4) Require that all blasting operations be conducted by trained and competent persons as certified by the Department for Natural Resources[~~of Mines and Minerals~~]; and

(5) Provide that upon the request of a resident or owner of a man-made dwelling or structure within one-half (1/2) mile of any portion of the permitted area the applicant or permittee shall conduct a preblasting survey of the structures and submit the survey to the cabinet and a copy to the resident or owner making the request. The area of the survey shall be decided by the

If any delinquency be found to exist, the commissioner[~~secretary~~] of revenue shall, within three (3) working days after this receipt of the certificate, furnish the details thereof to the secretary of finance and administration; and if no advice of tax delinquency is received by the secretary of finance and administration before the end of the fourth working day after his receipt of certification from the administrator, he shall, for the purposes of KRS 40.410 to 40.560, conclusively presume that no delinquency of tax liability to the Commonwealth exists, but such presumption shall apply only to the existence or absence of a set-off by the Commonwealth against a certified claim for a bonus, and shall not alter the facts as between the Commonwealth and any taxpayer.
